

Isaiah 61 v 2-3:

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me. The Lord has empowered me to preach good news to the dejected, to mend the brokenhearted, to set free the enslaved and pardon the guilty.

To announce the start of the period of grace that He grants just before He pours out His terrible wrath (MT. 24 v 11-14).

To bestow upon those who lament at what they see
BEAUTY FOR ASHES radiant joy in place of mourning. They will be overwhelmed with praise instead of woe. They will be called the bearers of His righteousness and glorify His name.

DEDICATED TO THE ETERNAL, IMMORTAL, INVISIBLE KING, THE ONLY WISE GOD; BE ALL HONOUR AND GLORY FOR EVER AND EVER (EZR. 9, 1 TIM. 1 v 17-19, REV. 2 & 3)

Web site: www.answeronearlyeverything.com

E-mail: beautyforashes@talktalk.net

Copyright: Peter C. A. Franklin 2017

All rights reserved. Any copying, alteration or misuse of content without prior permission in writing of owner will be an infringement of copyright.

INTRODUCTION

May I suggest you skim through this book quickly, to get an idea of the extent of the problem (Rev. 2 & 3), then study a page at a time. It is not a quick read but more like a text book for those who are urgently seeking God's truth in place of humanity's death dispelling virtual reality (Gen. 2 v 17).

The selfish 'free to be me' life you inherited is unsustainable: it will die. You will lose all you have gained from the efforts of that nature (1 Tim. 6 v 7). We have no solution to this problem (Rom. 7) but God the Father has (Rom. 8).

Man's ideas about God are the opposite of His ideas about men (Is. 55 v 6-13, Rom. 8 v 7). He made us and our world because like any father He desires to beget children as an extension of His love (Eph. 1 v 3-5, 4 v 13). We are not just animals. We have spiritual awareness because our being was designed to be taught God's ways by His Spirit (centred on 'tree of life'). We are destined to become lords of all His creation (Eph. 4 v 12, Heb. 2 v 5-16).

God also created countless (no reproduction: Mt. 22 v 29-30, Gal 3 v 28) spirit servants in various ranks (elohim: God-like spirits) to serve His children (2 Kg. 6 v 17, Lk. 10 v 17-20, Eph. 1 v 18-23, 2 v 4-7, Heb. 1 v 13-14, 2 v 8-10, 1 Pt. 3 v 22, Rev. 19 v 10). The greatest, Lucifer (morning star) was created perfect on the morning of day one (Is. 14 v 12-14, Ezk. 28 v 14-15). It inhabits the heavens (Eph. 2 v 2) and oversaw the formation of the stars. All the spirits were in one host, in the heavens, on day 4 (Job. 38 v 2-7). All God's creation was still perfect on day 6 (Gen. 1 v 31).

Before day 1 God had no use for powerful servants (Jn. 1 v 1-3). He made then to attend to His sons (Gen. 1 v 28-31). Man was made a little lower than the spirits for a reason (Heb. 2 v 6-15). As a physical being he could never think he was as god (Rev. 5 v 10) but god-like (elohim) Lucifer did. It was too magnificent and proud to let this 'Red-mud-man' become it's lord (Ps. 22 v 6, Ezk. 28 v 13-15, Heb. 1 v 13-14, 2 v 6-16). It tempted Adam to defy God and do as he pleased (tree of death). He swapped our Father's love and support for a futile, self-sustained existence (Rom. 8 v 20-25).

The self centred and determined give Satan authority over them. The disobedient follow Lucifer's gospel (Gen. 3 v 4-5, 1 Jn. 1 v 10); "Ignore what God said; do what you think is good and you will become an elohim, like me" (Aristotle/Darwin/Nietzsche's idea of evolving into a god-like-one). They think fulfilling their lusts, desires and ambitions will set them 'free to be me' (Mt. 4 v 3-11, 1 Tim. 6 v 17) but without our Father's training all He gave us to richly enjoy (Is. 65 v 16-25) becomes self-consuming. They see God's order in creation and Satan's chaotic disruption of it yet say chaos produced life so their futile lives are ruled by the fear of death (self survival) instead of love! Jealous Satan's lies divide, enslave and mortify us.

Our loving Father sent His visible entity to be born as a man so those who discard their dying life with his human death could receive his God centred life based on his faith and works (Jn. 1 v 12, 29, 3 v 14-21, Rev. 5 v 9-10). Christ said: “I am the way to truth and life; no one else can bring you to the Father. If you know me you also know the Father .... and have been accepted by Him .... I am the visible person of the infinite Father. ... He who loves me and obeys my words will receive my indwelling Spirit. ...he will treasure my words and my Father will love him and we shall come and be one with him .... He who does not love, believe and obey me .... will not have that comfort so he will be fearful and troubled(Ex. 40 v 36-37, Jn. 14 v 6, 7, 15-17, 23-27, Gal. 3 v 19-23, Heb. 4).”

Filled with Jesus' life and fear-free after his baptism of fire at Pentecost (Lk. 3 v 16) Peter said to 3000 devout Jews: “Repent and be baptised into the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins(1 Cor. 10 v 2, Heb. 3 v 7-18, 4 v 11-16: utterly revoke your sin and death bound life) and God's Spirit will baptise you with His “life breath”(Gen. 2 v 7, Ps. 91, 2 Cor. 1 v 22, Eph. 4 v 22-32).

All who cry to Jesus for mercy and accept him as their Lord and Saviour (Ezk. 18 v 26-32, Lk. 18 v 10-14, Jas. 1 v 5-8, 4 v 3) are redeemed from their contract with Death (1 Cor. 15 v 45-57, 2 Tim. 1 v 10). Those who reject the false ways of their doomed life and seeking his ways (Jn. 14 v 6) receive the gift of his Holy Spirit's breath of life by faith, through grace (Eph. 2 v 1-10). The love of God fills their frustrated hearts with joy, peace and laughter (Ps. 126, Php. 4 v 6-7).

Jesus said prayer must be to Our Father in accordance with His will (Mt. 6 v 9-10, Jn. 15 v 7-8). Only the infinite Father via His Spirit can hear and reply to the millions of prayers/second of His children (Jn. 4 v 23). It is not talking at Him but person to person. He requires us to spend time asking and listening to Him (Job 42 v 4-6, Col. 1 v 10-14) so His Spirit can teach us how to assimilate (Jn. 14 v 7, 15 v 1-27, 1 Cor. 2 v 9-12) His plan for our lives (Gen. 3 v 5-7, 1 Jn. 2 v 6, 13, 15-17). It is not optional (Rom. 8 v 21, Heb. 12 v 18-27). The alternative is death (Gen. 2 v 17).

You cannot save yourself from death but the Holy Spirit can (Jn. 16 v 13-15, 1 Cor. 3 v 16-20, 2 Tim. 1 v 7-10, 3 v 5-7). First your false beliefs must be dropped (Ezra 10, Ps. 40, Is. 51 v 11, 52 v 15, Jn. 3 v 16-21, 1 Tim. 4 v 1-2, Jas. 1 v 6-8) then he reveals Christ's new life within you (Is. 56 v 6-9, 1 Jn. 1 v 7-10).

Self-pleasers replace Jesus with a mystic guru and the Holy Spirit with an alter ego (Col. 2, 1 Jn. 2 v 15-20, 4 v 1-6) who says “do what feels good to and you won't die”(Gen. 3 v 4-5, 1 Kg. 22 v 21, Mt. 7 v 21-22, Rom. 8 v 5-9).

As a result they fear life and death (1 Cor. 10 v 1-14, Gal. 3 v 1-3, 27, Jas. 1 v 22, 2 v 23, 4 v 7-10)! Pride stops such fools asking Jesus to forgive them (Ps. 14 v 1-6, Lk. 14 v 11, 27, 16 v 25-31, Jas. 4 v 3-10). Instead they curse Him (Jer. 16 v 10-12, Mk. 5 v 5-6, Rom. 1 v 17-32, 3 v 11-20, 7 v 24, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10).

CONTENT

|   |    |
|---|----|
| The Sting   | 7  |
| Choose today  | 8  |
| Glorify God and You Will Have Peace on Earth            | 9  |
| The Servant King is dumped for an Evil Tyrant           | 12 |
| God's Guiding Spirit is exchanged for an Alter Ego      | 14 |
| Lies, Damnable Lies and Half Truths                     | 16 |
| Scientific Myth-information                             | 20 |
| God Created Matter                                      | 21 |
| God's Immaterial Creations                              | 23 |
| The Sinking Ship  | 27 |
| God is Almighty: so He is Loving, Generous and Truthful | 29 |
| Ticket Touts with Fake Tickets                          | 30 |
| The Proud seek justification by works                   | 33 |
| Do justly and love mercy                                | 37 |
| Servants of Sin   | 39 |
| Bad Eggs  | 42 |
| God the Mother  | 46 |
| The Light Overcomes the Darkness                        | 51 |
| New Life Now  | 56 |
| Entering into His Victory                               | 57 |
| Jesus' Gifts to His Church                              | 58 |
| The Judgement Seat of Christ.                           | 63 |
| Reformation   | 67 |
| Oneness with the Father                                 | 73 |
| The Fullness of Jesus' Life                             | 76 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| The Bride's New Home is Finished                       | 79  |
| Judgement of the Faithless who choose to believe a lie | 80  |
| Dividing the Sheep from the Goats                      | 81  |
| Offence 1: Baptisms                                    | 83  |
| Offence 2: Eternal Security                            | 88  |
| Offence 3: King of kings                               | 91  |
| Offence 4: The Sabbath                                 | 95  |
| Offence 5: Communion                                   | 99  |
| Offence 6: Antichrists                                 | 102 |
| Offence 7: Carnality                                   | 107 |
| Everything must conform to God's Will and Words        | 110 |
| Men Swap a Loving Father for Legalism                  | 117 |
| God's Realm is Unbounded                               | 120 |
| Crossing the Border from Death to Eternal Life         | 121 |
| Judgement or Revival                                   | 123 |
| Judgement must start with the churches                 | 127 |
| God's Love Conquers Everything                         | 129 |
| The Bride of Christ on Earth Today                     | 134 |
| Home is with a Person more than a Place                | 137 |
| Rapture Verses   | 139 |
| The Bride must make herself ready                      | 141 |
| Conclusion   | 142 |
| Summary  | 143 |

THE STING (1 Cor. 15 v 55-57)

Our desire to save our world from our misuse just confuses the problem: we are the problem. This life is an adventure. Like a rocket, it has an haphazard launch; an upwards struggle based on trial and error, then the earth-bound bit declines. It has an inevitable end (Jn. 18 v 38). Why?

Our ignorant guesses are based on futile self survival! The peculiar ideas of a god as He, She or It; a force in nature, a mother or the conflicting, mass produced, religious versions, result from our death-conscious attempt at saving self from His, Her's or It's scourges.

Besides being animistic (the worship of ancestors and spirits in objects), Red Indians believed in a white or good God, who was not much of a threat, and a black or evil God who was a big problem. The Good God was not local, so they had little time for him. The local Evil God of nature had to be appeased or else! Those who fear and bow to the demands of an aggressor will be robbed and enslaved. It is worship today as Darwin's natural selection in which he explained why the advance nations are superior to the poor.

He built on Aristotle's metaphysical idea that life evolved from fertile mud and is powered by a self perfecting force, through rebirths. Yet his force in nature that regulates life (Mt. 4 v 8-10) does not make it: it threatens the survivalist's life! It's divisive, religious agenda is its survival, not yours.

It's order is that of the food chain. It justified the rule of wilful god-men like Nimrod, the Pharos, Alexander and Hitler. They cannot return but their spirit or god is still around. This primitive belief of Babel and the pyramid builders (Rev. 14 v 8-11) is behind many political systems. Cultural Marxism just swaps an accountable system for a crooked despotic one.

We are ruled by the fear of judgement instead of love, joy and peace because we reject the Good Father's guidance (Gen. 2 v 17, Deut. 28, Jn. 1 v 12-13) and do what we feel like (Gen. 3 v 3-6, 11 v 6). "What God has said is not right. Do what you feel is good and you will become an immortal, spirit being (like me)." Doing what each 'self' feels is best (Kant) is Satan's trapdoor into suffering, chaos, conflict and violence. It then can impose its new order.

Hegel crushed the resulting babble by saying that regardless of justice, the official truth is correct (Gen. 11 v 6). It always conflicts with the advice of the Father God (Ps. 2, Rom. 1 v 18, 8 v 7, Heb. 4 v 10-16) because the egocentric belong to Satan's futile, self-saving, food chain. Biased news, diversions, adverts, apps and entertainments, are used to distract even children from It's evil intent. Money is their lure (Mt. 6). Love is swapped for fear. The advanced nations, founded on God's Truth, are sliding into chaos (Deut. 28) because their churches have not repented of their covenant breaking (Heb. 8 v 4-6), self-excusing and sufficient ways (Jer. 48 v 10-13, 1 Cor. 5 v 6-8, 1 Jn. 2 v 15-19).

CHOOSE TODAY: HOPE OR DESPAIR, LOVE OR HATE, GOOD OR EVIL, TRUTH OR LIES, LIFE OR DEATH, CHRIST OR YOUR DEMON

God the Father has no need of servants (Gal. 4 v 7, Heb. 1 v 14). He created everything only to beget children to share in His life (Heb. 2 v 10-18). He who made no two leaves the same loves the unique YOU. Each baby existed before birth as a facet of God's love (Ps. 139 v 16, Jer. 1 v 5).

To be loving and not a despotic super-egoist the infinite God must have a self-sufficient, self-deferring, inter-dependent plural nature. He said "Let US make Man like our visible person and let him have dominion over all our creatures" (Gen. 1 v 26, Heb. 2 v 5-7). He allows us an independent life for a few years, in which we freely decide who we wish to trust, love and obey.

Our fore-father decided to do his own will as his own god. Like a branch torn off a tree his self-powered life started to die (Mt. 5, Rom. 7 v 12-15, 8 v 2-10). It is not God's will that any of his children should perish (Mt. 18 v 14). To save us from death the Father rent His being. He sent His visible person to be born as a human and to die in our place (Gen. 3 v 15, 1 Cor. 3, 15 v 47-57).

Like Adam he cut himself off from his life source to invade and defeat the powers that despoil us out of hatred of him (Rom. 8 v 37, Eph. 1 v 21). The worst sinner who repents of the corrupted life he has inherited and cries to him for mercy (Lk. 23 v 40-43) can inherit his glorious life which is forever united with the Father's will and love (1 Cor. 15 v 49-50, 58, Heb. 9 v 14-17). Only his Spirit can effect the change (Jn. 4 v 23-24, 16 v 7-15, Rom. 8 v 11).

Love is not a self-centred feeling: it is a free decision (Mt. 12 v 39). In order not to void our free will He only responds to sincere, heartfelt prayer (Mt. 7 v 6-7). You gain the Father's life by putting all your trust in Jesus as the Lord of your life (Rom. 10 v 8-17, Heb. 2 v 14-15, 3 v 19, 6 v 17-19, 11 v 1-4).

Who owns your body (Rom. 7 v 14-25)? To gain all you must give all. The waivers gain nothing (Heb. 3 & 4, Jas. 1 v 5-8, 4 v 8). A belief is only a 'seed' (Mt. 13, 1 Cor. 3 v 3-11, Heb. 6 v 7, Jas. 2 v 20): it must be sown before you can reap. Those who are unhappy with their futile, dying life must let go of it before they can receive Jesus' life (Mt. 14 v 28-29, 1 Jn 1 v 9, 2 v 15). Those baptised into Jesus' human death (Acts. 2 v 38, 19 v 2-6) are then progressively set free from their inner fears, turmoil, anger, rejection and pride as they apply His guidance and words daily (Lk. 15 v 18, Jn. 1 v 12, 3 v 16, 8 v 31-32, Php. 1 v 6).

Only the Father has the capacity to love all His children. His love and extravagance is evident through out His creation yet Adam chose to become self sufficient (Gen. 2 v 17, 3 v 22-24). His new guide was a self preserving thief (Jn. 10 v 10, 1 Pt. 5 v 8). Those who yearn to be loved but serve the tyrant out of a fear for self survival have a hopeless, meaningless existence (Ps. 2 v 4-5, Mt. 12 v 38-41, Rom. 1 v 16-20). Only a revelation of God's love can set them free.

GLORIFY GOD IN HEAVEN AND YOU WILL HAVE PEACE ON EARTH

How do we know about the unified love and will of God the Father, Son and Spirit or that God seeks to save the children who have been snared and trafficked by the bad god. Is He also cobbled together from mythology?

No, throughout history, He has always been there (Ps. 91 v 15, Jas. 1 v 5-8). As you would imagine the records of God's dealings with men go right back to the beginning of time. We have a copy of Abraham's original record (a Dead Sea scroll) that Moses used in his compiling of Genesis. The written records of God's dealings with His people in their fixed, original languages provide us with the unveiled truth. It is life changing (Jn. 8 v 32, 36).

These unified, prophetic, testimonies were written and over many centuries, yet are totally inter related. They are readily recognisable as genuine encounters with the true God. They have been collected and preserved by dedicated men sometimes at enormous personal cost.

The early records were very concise and written on scrolls of vellum or copper and copied under very strict conditions. Any substandard copies were destroyed. We still have some papyri from the third century BC and many Dead Sea scrolls from 100 BC to 70 AD. Those from before 400 BC are printed in a set called the old testaments. The new testament writings date from before 62 AD, plus the Book of Revelation, which was written before 90 AD.

Most of these inter-related works were listed as inspired by God by 90 AD. They were bound in one book, or codex, called The Books or the Bible by 200 AD. It is presented as a factual record of promises, prophesied events, and real people, not as an ideology or an allegory. It contains the truth about God and why we are here. All other related but extraneous books are omitted. Its authority is upheld by God's power.

There are 24,000 ancient New Testament manuscripts; 5,300 in early Greek. An additional 86,000 quotations from before 325 AD were used to establish the accuracy of the Greek version used for the King James translation. Unbelievers dispute everything in it, based on improbable speculations, even after archaeology proves them wrong. Yet they accept other writings from BC and early AD which rely on only a handful of copies dating from around 900 AD.

There are many English translations with differing leanings. Remarkably, the Authorised King James Version is still the most accurate. The more recent ones are easier to read but the rigour of the words can be blunted. They 'miss the mark'. They suffer from the Greek/Gnostic/Darwinian error that the self improved become saints (Gen. 3 v 5). Do not idolise it as a holy book. It is a money making best seller. Read it so much that it falls apart (Heb. 4 v 12).

The New International Version (NIV) has been accepted by Catholic and Protestant leaders. It defers to Gnostic beliefs (Is. 55 v 8, Jn. 7 v 9, Rom. 8 v 5). It prioritises two of the oldest Greek Codex which are full of omissions, later additions, copyist errors, disagreements with each other, the majority of other mss and the complete Alexandrian copy from 370 AD. They survived because their many thousands of added corrections made them unusable. One was kept as a bejewelled antique, the other was found in a rubbish bin.

So what is man and why are we of any interest to Almighty God (Ps. 8 v 3-6)? Genesis has the blueprint of mans nature. He was created to be one with God and share in His eternal life (Is. 65 v 20-25). Schopenhauer was half right; without God our life is not just pointless but eternally wretched (Rom. 7 v 24).

Adam was the first created man (Rom. 9 v 20: a red clay pot). Unlike the animal kinds his life was God breathed (one pneuma: Gen. 2 v 7, Jn. 15 v 26). He was 'a', not 'the', temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 3 v 16, 6 v 17-19). Without God' Spirit the 'temple' becomes the habitation of 'animals' (Jer. 7 v 11-16).

He was modelled on the visible person of the infinite Father (Gen. 1 v 27, Deut. 6 v 4, Heb. 1 v 3) so he could become one with him (Jn. 6 v 33, 63, 16 v 7, Rom. 8 v 14, 27, 1 Cor. 2) as his co-ruler over all creation (2 Cor. 5 v 15-21).

Jesus is the first man to be born of God's breath as His Son (Lk. 1 v 35, Jn. 8 v 58, 14 v 9-11, 1 Jn. 4 v 9). He put on human form (Heb. 2 v 5-16, 12 v 22-28) so as to be entirely identified with Adam. He is true God and true man (Jn. 1 v 10-14, Php. 2 v 5-7). Our Father is not an alien (Col. 2 v 8-10, Heb. 2 v 10, 16-17). He wants us to call Him Daddy (Mt. 6 v 9, Gal. 4 v 6).

Food only sustained Adam's physical life (Lk. 4 v 4, 1 Cor. 10 v 19) but to be one with God's heart, mind he had to be taught God's will by His Holy Spirit (Rev. 2 v 7, Jn. 14 v 23-26, 16 v 12-15). "Quench not the Spirit and do not disregard any prophecy but test them .... Separate yourselves from all that you see is evil so that the God of peace may sanctify you then the Spirit will keep your mind and body, continually undefiled up to when our Lord and Saviour comes for you" (1 Thess. 5 v 19-23).

Adam had authority over his domain. To help him (Mt. 17 v 20) God created a host of powerful beings, modelled on His invisible Spirit (Ps. 33 v 6, Ezk. 28 v 14). They do not obey us (Col. 1 v 15-19, Heb. 2 v 7) but minister in obedience to the Father's will (Mt. 4 v 7). We need Jesus' authority to direct them (Lk. 4 v 34, Heb. 2 v 7, Acts 19 v 15, Jude 9). Their only glorify Him (Mic. 6 v 8, Jn. 3 v 2, 8 v 42-59, 11 v 41-42, 2 Cor. 12 v 10, Eph. 6 v 10-13, Col. 3 v 8-10).

The most powerful of these created spirits, called Lucifer (Jude 9) was not permitted not do whatever It liked (Job. 1 v 10). It did not like God's plan for it to serve God under man's authority (Is. 14 v 12-17, Lk. 10 v 17-24, Heb. 1 v 13-14, 2 v 7-15).

Adam also wanted to act as his own god so he rejected his Lord's commandment and obeyed Lucifer. Lucifer became his lord. He traded his authority for angel power (Gen. 3 v 5, 11 v 6, Job 1 v 9-12, Ezk. 28 v 16-18, Lk. 4 v 5-8, 22 v 31-34). Adam believed God had lied and did what he felt was good for him (man's ideology: Gen. 2 v 17, 3 v 5, Mt. 12 v 32, 1 Jn. 1 v 8-10). The evil spirit he obeyed became his lord and he had to slave to survive (Gen. 3 v 17-23, Jer. 17 v 7-14, 1 Cor. 1 v 25-29, 2 v 12-13, Jas. 1 v 5, 13-15).

Proud egos follow Satan's gospel (Col. 2 v 8-19). Egoists think they are superior and seek occult, spiritual (new age) powers from Mother Nature to enslave their world (2 Cor. 2 v 11, 1 Tim. 6 v 9-10). They need to be loved but they destroy those they love (Eph. 4 v 13-23, 5 v 25-32)! Populations are cut by encouraging divorce, equal jobs for women, contraception, easy abortion and blocking menstruation and puberty. God's laws for a safe society are rejected and all are made to bow to Satan's will (Gen. 4 v 4-8, Mt. 19 v 3-8).

God divided Adam into a male and female so that when they became as one their children would feel secure. Satan duped Woman into breaking God's order. Her emotional act (Gen. 3 v 6: based on selfish feelings about right and wrong) appealed to Adam's desire to rule his domain as its god (Gen. 3 v 4-5). He lost his oneness with God's indwelling Spirit and gained oneness with His enemy (Gen. 3 v 12, 22-24, 2 Cor. 6 v 14-18). Truth is swapped for lies and love for pain and rejection. Instead of saving his woman from her mistake he blamed her for his mistake. Due to distrust, few couples are now as one.

Women need to know they are loved (1 Cor. 13 v 7) and protected by their husbands from being deceived (Num. 30 v 8, 1 Cor. 11 v 3, 10-15) but self centred men, including our Geek translators (see p 104: 1 Tim. 2) still blame women (Gen. 3 v 12) for their own failures (1 Cor 12 v 25-28, 14 v 28, 32, 34, 36: be self restrained, not silent). When a woman accepts Jesus as her Lord she is made blameless by Him (Is. 54 v 5). When she takes authority over a man, as his mother did, he becomes as a spoilt child (Gen. 4 v 8, 6 v 2, 12-13, 2 Sam. 18 v 33, 1 Cor. 11 v 14, 14 v 33-36, Ti. 2 v 4).

THE SERVANT KING IS DUMPED FOR AN EVIL TYRANT (Mt. 13 v 38-43, 49)

Adam believed a lie and became Satan's bond servant. Love was swapped for hate; truth for lies; God's provision for a fear for survival: eternal life for eternal death (Rom. 8 v 19-21, Heb. 2 v 15). Immaterial spirits divorced from God's life run-down (Mt. 13 v 12) so they rob those below them in their death ruled pyramid order (Lk. 4 v 6). Without human support (Lev. 19 v 31, Deut. 18 v 9-12) Satan's host would be in gaol (Is. 14 v 5-17, Mt. 12 v 43-45, Lk. 8 v 31-32, 10 v 17, Rev. 19 v 20, 20 v 1-4). They form with us a forlorn, triune god-man that is self destructive and evil (Ezk. 28 v 6-9, Rom. 7 v 18-25).

Men are not pot bound spirits (Jn. 3 v 5-6, Lk. 16 v 22-29). When their pot is spent the god-less soul (Is. 14, 26 v 14) is as rubbish dumped in Gehenna. When Satan too is spent (Ez. 28 v 18, Jude 9, Rev. 12 v 7-10, 20 v 2) all will be left in the dying cosmos they strove to own (Mk. 9 v 45-48, 2 Pt. 3 v 10-12, Rev. 20 v 13-15). Hell is real. Jesus died on the cross to save us from it. Manichaeus' Nirvana is an illusion!

Christian Bibles and books suggest this Gnostic model for man because they are ignorant of It's devises (2 Cor. 2 v 11). Today Yin-Yang mystics with spiritual airs think they are pot bound gods born of harmony from Chaos. Humanists think they are just animals and atheists think they were made from magic mud. Agnostics do not want to know what to believe (Rom. 1 v 18-23, Eph. 5 v 15-17). Some think mother-nature somehow recycles them.

Satan poses as Eve the source of life (Gen. 3 v 20). Freud's Psyche was female. As the Queen of Heaven, it drains would be god-men then buries or burns the 'empties' (Is. 14 v 17, Lk. 16 v 25-26). It fooled Adam into thinking if he did his own will (Gen. 4 v 3, Lk. 18 v 9-12) he would be as God.

Adam's nature did change (Lk. 17 v 6)! He became subject to nature like an animal! Death invaded everything (Gen. 3 v 17-19, Rom. 8 v 18-28). His spiritual 'tree' was no longer linked to God's life giving Spirit. It was now led by Satan (Gen. 3 v 22-24, Lev. 19 v 31, Lk. 4 v 6, Rom. 7 v 18, 8 v 5-8, 23-25, 9 v 13). He had to fight to survive. So does Satan (Is. 14 v 14-15, 1 Pt. 4 v 8).

PLATO'S IDEA; THAT MAN IS A SPIRIT TRAPPED IN A BODY PLUS DARWIN'S IDEA THAT MEN CAN EVOLVE INTO SUPERMEN. IT IS A GNOSTIC HERESY, ACCEPTED IN MANY CHRISTIAN BOOKS, DUE TO FREUD-BASED THERAPY THAT CONCEALS SATAN'S INFLUENCE (Rom. 7).

Central 'tree' of eternal life
Sensual 'tree' of temporal life

Satan's gospel of "do what you feel is good for you" cements its control. It uses falsehoods, temptations, accusations, fear and guilt to maintain its rule (Lk. 4 v 1-9, Rev. 12 v 10-12). All rankings, ideologies, religions and desires are driven by an inner spirit to make people spend their lives trying to improve and save their doomed nature until it is too late for them to find a new one.

Ambivalent egoists who claim they are as gods, use Satan's self saving creeds to support their rule in their self centred world (Ezk. 28 v 17-18). They aspire to be eternal and to avoid judgement pretend to be good yet know their body is ruled by sin and death (Rom. 7 v 18-25). As with cars, before your body conks and you end up as junk in Gehenna you need to get the Maker's new model (Gen. 2 v 17, 6 v 5-8, 2 Pt. 3 v 7, Rev. 20 v 15).

Isaiah 26 v 19 says; death is like going to sleep and waking to find your dreams have come true. The lost awake in a nightmare (Lk. 13 v 28, 16 v 22-23). Without a body they are not free but paralysed (Is. 26 v 14, Mt. 23 v 15-33, 1 Cor. 6 v 17, Eph. 2 v 2, Jude 11-13, Rev. 6 v 9-11). As postulating Plato will find out those who reject God's provision are not set free but physically raised to die again (Jn. 5 v 29, Rev. 20 v 6, 12-15). Their lusts and regrets will torment them forever (Lk. 16 v 23-24, Jn. 11 v 11).

God the Father is a person; not a religion. He longs for His lost children. He has promised to take responsibility for their sin and buy back all who repent of their godless deeds and cry to Him for mercy (Gal. 3, Eph. 5 v 25-28, Heb. 6 v 17, 10 v 10-27, 2 Tim. 1 v 10-27). Those who accept Jesus as their new Lord gain his god-centred life now and a new home and form ever after (Job. 19 v 25-27, Jn. 1 v 12, 29, 3 v 14-21, 14 v 6, 16 v 27, 1 Cor. 15 v 49-57). Their new nature is revealed as the old fades (2 Cor. 4, Php. 3 v 9-14, Col. 2 v 8-18).

The cost to us is our pride; for Jesus it was separation from his Father's love (Mt. 27 v 46, Php. 2 v 5-16). He ransomed us by dying as a sinner in our place. Make peace with the Father (source of all life) before it is too late (Ps. 2 v 12, 16 v 10, Mt. 25 v 46). Satan tricked Woman with a lie (Gen. 3 v 4-5): "What God said is not quite true. If you do what you want you will be free of His life (die) and become an elohym" (free, immortal spirit, like me). Doing what you feel is good instead of obeying God is as witchcraft (1 Sam. 15 v 22-23, Mt. 3 v 7, 7 v 21-23, 12 v 33-37, Heb. 11 v 4-6).

Woman was deceived (p 104); Adam was not. He could have taken responsibility for her error and annulled it (Num. 30 v 3-8). Instead he accepted the evil swindler's too-good-to-be-true offer and signed his authority over the Earth over to It (Rom. 8 v 20-25, Eph. 2 v 1-3). It's rule is upheld with legal accusations (Gen. 10 v 8-10, Acts 5 v 16-42, 9 v 4). Do not compromise with those who mock God's truth (Php. 3 v 18-19, Jude) or you too will forfeit God's protection (Ezr. 6 v 7-13, Lk. 10 v 17-22, Jas. 4 v 7-10).

GOD'S GUIDING SPIRIT' IS EXCHANGED FOR A FAMILIAR SPIRIT OR ALTER EGO

Animals have a specific, instinctive, preprogrammed, life that is part of a food chain but we have a spiritual awareness and eternal longings that do not die (Ecc. 3 v 21, Lk. 3 v 38). We are not just superior animals; our forebear had God as his Father. While he was one with his Father angels served him.

After his devastating treason his kingdom became ruled by evil angels (Dan. 10 v 13, Heb. 1 v 14, 2 v 9). Adam swapped a God shared life (1 Cor. 6 v 17-20) for a life ruled by His adversary (Gen. 3 v 17-19, Rom. 7 v 14-25). He could never be made one with a holy God again. The Lord's call of, "Adam! Where are you?" was the cry of a father who had lost his child. He did not just pop down to have a chat with Adam at the end of his days work (Gen. 3 v 8-9).

He replied (Gen. 3 v 7, 10, continuous present tense) I am naked and hiding (in hut of entwined leafy branches sown in the mud: Nehemiah 8 v 15). He could only face his Lord when his sin was covered by the death of a substitute (Gen. 3 v 21, Heb. 9 v 22). The Father promised that a second God-related Adam would be born of a virgin. He would die to buy back from death all who repented of their self-centred Adamic life and obey him as their Lord (Gen. 2 v 17, Rom. 8 v 2-4, Col. 1 v 12-22, 2 v 8-17).

God gave Adam only one law. He told it to his Woman the next morning. She disobeyed him so her nature did not immediately mutate (Gen. 3 v 4). Her God related genetic nucleus, separated from Adam before he fell, is passed from mother to daughter (Lk. 3 v 38)! Animal life is simple reproduction but human procreation involves God's Spirit (Rom. 2 v 15, 1 Cor. 6 v 15-20) so Satan perverts sex, promotes abortion and exalts carnality.

Eve thought her first son (Cain = Replacement) was the new man but his father was not God but Adam. Her next son was called Abel (Vain hope). Her genetic nucleus passed down a line of promised believers (Mt. 1) to a virgin of King David's royal line. Mary's ovum nucleus descended from Adam's pre-fall flesh was God breathed (Gen. 1 v 26, 2 v 7, 22).

The visible person of God became the first man to be born of God and not created (Lk. 1 v 34-35, Jn. 3 v 2, 16-18, 14 v 9, Php. 2 v 5-11). The Father said His new man would be the eternal heir to David's throne (Mt. 19 v 28, 22 v 42-46). Jesus is Jehovah (Lk. 3 v 22, 8 v 25, 22 v 70, Jn. 10 v 30, 14 v 9, Heb. 2).

An angel with a 'sword' of fire (as it did to the Eden-like vale of Sodom; Gen. 13 v 10, Joel. 2 v 3) then cut Adam off from returning to a life based on his central, inner spiritual senses (Gen. 3 v 22-24, Lev. 19 v 26-31, Deut. 18 v 10-22, Rom. 7 v 19-21). Only God's words could be trusted as true (Jn. 4 v 23). Those who obey a religious formula (2 Cor. 6 v 13-17, 11 v 3-4, 12-15) that bypasses God's love, will and life will partake of their counterfeit spirit's life.

Self assured beliefs based on feelings are based on Satan's "Do what you think is good and you will not die but become a powerful godlike one" Man's vain desire to be his own god (Nimrod/Aristotle/Nietzsche/space wars god-men) made him mortal (Gen. 2 v 17, 3 v 4-5, Is. 14 v 14-15, Rom. 5 v 19-21)!

Aristotle's and Darwin's self promotion justifies the self important abusing others in their futile battle for self survival. Pride makes them lie to self and others and hide from God behind a forged ideology (1 Kg. 22 v 7, 16-23, Heb. 4 v 15, Jas. 1 v 13-15, Rev. 12 v 10). Nietzsche and Schopenhauer stated they were as gods, proved they were not and yet are hailed as sages.

Those who identify and become one with a self determined guru or religion instead of Christ become one with their spirit (Is. 8 v 19-20, 2 Tim. 3 v 5-9). They feed off its ways till they become one with its life. If they do not repent and disown it before they die they will be chained to it for eternity. Self-important people like Cain curse others but disguise their godless nature with feigned worship (Gen. 4 v 7, Jer. 10 v 21, Lk. 18 v 11, 1 Jn. 1 v 10)!

To escape the state of death and hell before our old nature dies (Jn. 4 v 23-24) you must be joined to Christ's nature (change form: Jude 6). Christianity is not a religious belief; it is a love affair between the visible person of the infinite Father and each unique child, via His omnipotent, omnipresent Spirit (Gen. 2 v 24, 24 v 3, Jn. 1 v 9-16, 3 v 26, 1 Jn. 4 v 14-21).

We inherit physical death under the first man's will (Old Testament: Rom. 5 v 12-19) and a hope for a new life via his woman (1 Cor. 11 v 10, 15 v 22, 1 Tim. 2 v 14). We inherit Christ Jesus' life as a gift of faith in God promise (Gen. 3 v 15, Gal. 3, Heb. 6 v 12-20) from His eternal, life giving Spirit's breath (Pneuma: Gen. 2 v 7, 23, 3 v 15, Jn. 14 v 17, Col. 1).

Before Jesus' death believers demonstrated their faith in God's Saviour by sacrificing an innocent lamb from their flock as his precursor (Ex. 12 v 13). It's life returned to God (Gen. 9 v 2-4) as a portent of him so He reckoned their sin as dealt with by faith (Gal. 3 v 11-13, Heb. 10 v 4, 11 v 7). It had to be repeated every time they sinned and repented (Gen. 4 v 4-7, Job. 1 v 5, Ezk. 18 v 25-32).

Under the New Covenant, all who repent of offending God's love and reckon their sin nature as dead by baptising it into their Saviour's death, can inherit his life and start being reformed NOW (Acts 1 v 4, Gal. 4 v 28).

We put on God's life by identifying our godless, dying nature with our Saviour's human death (Acts 2 v 38, 10 v 44-48, 19 v 5-6, Rom. 6: baptised into his death). The shed blood of Jesus releases us from sin's power into God's power (Lk. 10 v 18, Rom. 7, Heb. 9 v 12-15, 10 v 9-23). We are not recreated but reborn as a new creature (Job. 19 v 25-27, Jn. 3 v 3, 7 v 37-39, Col. 2 v 8-19).

LIES, DAMNABLE LIES AND HALF TRUTHS

Ideologies based on self improvement and justification (Mt. 16 v 11-12, Jn. 6 v 35, 63) are inspired by the same anti Christ spirits that have turned our Father's beautiful gift of life into a futile battle for self survival. Satan's self-promoting and saving pyramid order is that of a food chain. All who have served It's purpose are slaughtered. None below It will survive intact.

Our world is cursed (Rom. 8 v 20-23) because many, like Adam, trust the inspiration from their lobbying inner spirits who are fighting to save themselves from gaol. The religious ones reverse God's words to justify their version of good and evil (Gen. 2 v 17, Mt. 7 v 15, 21-29). They malign God's love (Gen. 3 v 4, Mt. 12 v 22-24, 32-34) to stop believers resting in his love (Acts 4 v 10-21) and let his finished work reform them (Lk. 10 v 17-21, Jn. 14 v 13-15, 15 v 6-8).

Aristotle was a rich aristocrat from near the top of It's 'food chain'. In his Utopia, only the rich elite have a vote. The middle classes are their paid servants and the masses their disposable, subhuman slaves. He tutored the man-god, Alexander the Great, who by the age of 33 had killed near a million then self destructed on booze. The food chain promises only death to all.

Nietzsche theorised that at the top of Darwin's pyramid of death would be a god defying, charismatic super-man who would then self destruct! Hitler applied it so we know exactly what the death based rule of self survival is like (Heb. 2 v 15). He believed Darwin's theory that self improvement would produce a race of supermen. To elevate their vain lives they rob and kill the worthless humans below them till all are dead. Films with super heroes are full of killing.

Those who do evil are consumed by It. Socrates saw this but his philosophy produced questions without answers because philosophy mocks logic. He fell down the crack between humanism and mysticism.

Humanistic god-men reject the idea of both a Good God and a Bad god so they do not believe in good or evil. They support evil people who they think are good and attack the good because they prove they are bad. Their imposed, atheistic religion of Marxist multiculturalism is based on Rome's Greek styled democracy in which the superior tax and subjugate the inferior (Acts 16 v 38). They impose Satan's/Darwin's self survival ethos so the fear of death and division replaces God's love and order (Gen. 6 v 11-13, Heb. 2 v 14-15).

Pyramid orders are run by parasitic god-men, who accumulate wealth and impress others with imposing structures and displays based on Satan's principles. The globalisation of markets subverts race, culture, beliefs, sexuality, family unity, individual identity and freedom. Big businesses pollute the water, air and ground in producing novel goods to feed fleeting desires that are fuelled by the 'live now and pay forever' propaganda of the money barons.

They finance a frivolous media which tell the lost what to eat, drink, see, think and how to vote. Many become addicted to looks, drink, drugs and health products. The misinformed have identity crisis and fear for self survival. They think life revolves around self, ignore God's laws and love so they suffer from guilt and rejection (Heb. 3 v 15 to 4 v 2).

This life is like waiting at a station to board a train' to its predestined destination (Jn. 12 v 36-50, Heb. 9 v 27, Eph. 1 v 11-14). The bad god lures the self-determined with tempting 'live now pay later' offers (Ps. 49 v 14-20, Ezk. 28 v 15-19). Their lives are made meaningless so It can herded them into its 'cattle trucks'. It's elite, scientific priesthood (1 Kg. 18 v 18-19) impose a death numbing, robotic order via targeted manipulation on a bovine society fed processed news full of artificial colouring and additives (Gen. 11 v 6).

The A I god who invades our lives via our computers now decides how we will behave and how we should be treated. It's high priest, Freud, ruled that human behaviour is just a mechanical function of the physical brain so free will does not exist; just so he could deny his well earned guilty conscience. Infants are now being turned in schools into workers and drones: no 'he' or 'she': all 'its'. Mums and Dads have no say. A secular run media is forcing them into a sexless mould. Unwanted babies are farmed for stem cells.

Like the Greeks, Freud sought wisdom and power from the dream world of the dead via trance, meditation and narcotics. Worshipping evil is now protected by law while the ancient right, of preaching the truth and the warnings in the Bible, that is inscribed in our law, is obstructed by the police. God's two laws (Mt. 22 v 36-40) that protect freedom are lost to endless legalism.

Children are taught a fluke of Nature made them yet it is trying to kill them! Life is meaningless so do whatever you feel is good. They are targeted with occult make-believe and drugs that open the door to hell. A lack of personal responsibility fosters a legalistic police state run by judges who impose beliefs which ignore God's safety laws (Lk. 23 v 13-18). Soon all will be enslaved to Count Saint-Simon's money barons (Gen. 10 v 8-10, 11 v 6).

Freud's liberation promises them a pointless, fear full life. Parents are not allowed to correct their children by It's psychiatric priests who want to make their minds fit their dud theory (Gen. 4 v 23, 6 v 13, 10 v 9). Like child soldiers they are brutalised by savage killing games. Violence and terror are glorified as a way of life and little 'Hitlers' reign (Num. 35 v 31-34).

Some become killers but most exist just to make money to buy happiness (Lk. 12 v 16-20, 16 v 19-31). Ignorant, loveless, ruthless and truth-less people dance on the trapdoor to hell. Dissenting voices are silenced. The truth is hidden behind clouds of trivia or negative news like; by 2100 we might be flooded or starving due to droughts."

Pan's roller-coaster world is about to come off the rails due to pollution from excessive energy consumption to fuel runaway production. The Sun's activity is at a peak and in 100 years time the Thames will freeze again but all are taxed as if global warming was preventable (Rev. 6 v 2-17).

Rulers should be servants who safeguard the rights of their people (Jn. 10 v 9-15, 13 v 14-17, Rom. 13 v 1-7, 10 v 9-15). Instead they fleece all below them till their pyramid order collapses. To support their position they promote an ideology backed by false and bias data. Their contrived political correctness in so called free societies has made voicing the truth illegal.

In some states just to mention salvation in Jesus' name or own a Bible will deprive you of your wealth, liberty and even life. Satan's lure of self love, based on 'nasty but nice' lusts, emotional highs, religious placebos and worldly success, leaves you addicted, depressed and drained of life.

You are born with a life that is ruled by sin and death. Escaping into ideological make believe will only enslave you to it. Without the underpinning of our Father's love all isms are self consuming (1 Cor. 13). Without a body you sink into Cybele's tormented cyber-like prison forever (Lk. 16 v 23-31).

Jesus died and sank into hell to annul death and Satan's power (Gen. 2 v 17). Only those who discard their dying life for a free Christ centred one will survive death and be reunited with Our Father (Lk. 5 v 36-38, 9 v 24, 23 v 39-43, Jn. 3 v 1-21, Rom. 7 & 8, 10 v 13, 17). The love, joy and peace that our nature craves is only found in him (Lk. 12 v 8-23, 1 Jn. 1 v 9-10, 2 v 15-17).

Righteousness depends entirely on being one with Christ by God's grace (Eph. 2 v 5, Heb. 9 v 12, 27-28). None are righteous or holy in themselves (Gal. 3 v 22). Those who humble themselves before God and put their trust in Jesus' sacrifice receive the same Spirit who raised him from the dead (Rom. 8 v 10-14, 27, Php. 1 v 6). Their heart and head are guided again by his Spirit (Gen. 2 v 23, Jn. 3 v 3-18, 14 v 6, 18-23, 17 v 21, Eph. 2 v 4-10, 5 v 23-32, Col. 1, 1 Jn. 4 v 8-10).

They must let him daily wash their soiled feet (Is. 26 v 3, 52 v 7, Lk. 17 v 21, Jn. 13 v 8) until they will love the things He loves (Mt. 5 v 45-48) and hate the things He hates (Rom. 8 v 10-14, 27, Gal. 5 v 1-4, Eph. 1 v 20, 2 v 8-22, 6 v 12). As they feed their new life on his Lk. 4 v 4, Jn. 6 v 35, 63, 2 Cor. 10 v 3-7, Rev. 19 v 10) he unites their thinking to that of their Servant King (Mt. 16 v 17, 23, Jn. 15 v 7-11, 1 Cor. 2, Php. 1 v 9-11, 2 v 5-13).

This work is completed (Gen. 1 v 26-27, Heb. 2 v 6-11, 3 v 6-8) on the day they die or are raptured when all together they inherit a God powered body like his as a new creature (1 Cor. 15 v 50-52, 2 Cor. 5 v 17, Gal. 6 v 15, 1 Jn. 3 v 2). Their eternal rewards, based on their walk of trust in Jesus are then awarded (Eph. 4 v 22-24, Php. 1 v 6, Heb. 11, 1 Jn. 2 v 6, 13, 15, 17, Jude 23-24).

We have a limited conscious mind (like RAM) and foresight. To manage life's problems many rely on cloud or spiritual inspiration from their alter ego (Gen. 2 v 17, Ex. 7 v 11, Num. 22 v 6, 1 Kg. 22, Dan. 2 v 2, Lk. 4 v 6, 2 Cor. 6 v 15-18, Jas. 4 v 3, Rev. 13). These anti Christ spirits (Rom. 8 v 4-9, Jude) turn Cybel's cyber slaves away from Christ to a hopeless life based on self elevation/survival and escapism (Is. 14 v 13-17, Mt. 23 v 12-28).

The Holy Spirit (Ex. 20 v 3) challenges every heart (Jn. 16 v 8-13, Rom. 10 v 6-14). His work is to present Jesus to all (Acts 2 v 5, 37-41, 8 v 27-37, 10 v 22-44, Eph. 3 v 17-21, 4 v 4-13, 30, 5 v 26, Col. 2 v 3-16, Heb. 2 v 4, 12 v 1-6, 1 Pt. 4 v 11-14, 2 Pt. 1 v 4) so that they might regain oneness with God's will and love forever. Love is a free will decision (Jas. 1 v 5), not a gooey feeling.

All life belongs to and is answerable to God (Gen. 9 v 1-7, 11 v 4-6). Those who reject him and believe all was made by Chaos, from nothing based on a Greek myth, just as an excuse for doing as they like (Gen. 11 v 6) are gambling on a billion, billion, billion to one lottery without buying a ticket. Life evolving from muck based on self survival makes them dumb animals, not gods.

Animals have primitive programmes as part of an ecologically balanced food chain which human greed is destroying. When people play god with genetics, promote unproductive sex and mass abortion as the solution we have reached the end of the Age (2 Pt. 3 v 1-17). God's long-suffering is over (Gen. 6 v 5-8, Ps. 2, 14). When our Father made everything and formed the earth it was perfect (Gen. 1 v 31, Rom. 8 v 14-23). Now it is ruled by corruption.

'Evolution' is not the cranks perpetual motion machine: it is a killer. The universe is entropic. It had a beginning, was powered up and is running down. It could never have generated itself or life. DNA only degrades. Cells evolve to produce things like cancer, aids, antibiotic resistant infections and influenza strains. Life did not start in a pond of microbes but it could end up as one.

Our entropic, death ruled cosmos is ruled by universal laws. It is hostile to all life. Life has not evolved by magic for millions of years. We are devolving. The oldest truly human skulls are bigger than ours. Mammals were twice the size of current kinds. Beowulf and Job (Job 41 v 18-32: 1500 BC) describe a living Plesiosaur! Tracing DNA changes in current kinds back to their original gene pool show all, including humans, have a common start 10,000 years ago. The stretched limit is 100,000 years except the Sun was so big 100,000 years ago that its radiation would have killed all life.

Conditions on Earth are very finely tuned to support pre-programmed, inter-dependent life forms. The idea that the amazing design and interaction of organisms resulted from an absurd accident is so preposterous that it has to be enforced by Count St-Simon's priesthood (Ex. 32 v 6). They promote their carnal, earth-god's life consuming ideology to ensure their self-survival!

SCIENTIFIC MYTH-INFORMATION (2 Tim. 4 v 4, 2 Pt. 1 v 16)

Death bound people who act as gods use the fear for survival to make all below them bow to the spirit of death at the top of their food chain (Is. 14 v 15-17, Mt. 23 v 37-38, Gal. 6 v 7-8, Heb. 2 v 15). Archaeology, history and philosophy reveal that god-men are destroyers (Dan. 2 v 37-45, 12 v 4).

They sow death and reap extinction. The evidence from the fossil record has been faked or falsely interpreted by atheists purely to discredit Genesis. Intact fossils necessitate instant burial. The fossil beds were not formed by sedimentation over millions of years but by a series of mass extinction events. Only fully formed species are evident. The missing links are missing. Millions have been wiped out by nature's catastrophic extremes.

Chaos did not produce and perfect inter dependent life forms over eons from nothing; it only depletes them. The survivors are those who managed to adapt and reproduce before nature killed them. Their ancestors were generally larger, superior specimens. Over 97% of all known species did not survive and the rate of extinction of the remaining few is accelerating.

Such sudden upheavals are about to happen again (Gen. 6 v 12-13, Rev. 16 v 18). We are about to loose our battle for survival due to our abuse of nature fuelled by the adoption of Darwin's rapacious theory!

The sequence of the strata are classified and dated according to their fossils and the fossils dated from the strata. There are big problems with this 'snake eating its tail' reasoning. The strata are parallel, with no mixing or weathering between them so all were formed together on a flat sea bed and stratified by flow (as Grand Banks landslide) then folded while still soft as in Grand Canyon syncline (Gen. 7 v 11). Its steep sides had to be cut while soft.

Just before the Earth was formed to support life it was an inert, warm, gravity graded mass (Gen. 1 v 1-5: gas/water/minerals/molten metal). 1600 years later it was resurfaced (Gen. 7). Near vertical sided canyons, high salt lakes, writhing fish fossils; can only be formed by a world flood plus sudden uplifts and eruptions. The whole of the over heating Yellowstone is rising 3" a year. Its eruption would cause an ice age in which the costly inefficient renewables will be junk. Frantic climate changers divert attention from the true man made problem (1 Kg. 18 v Jer. 12 v 13, Rev. 6 v 12-17)!

Those sold out to the god of this world are ruled by the law of sin and death (Jn. 8 v 23-24, 31-45). Only our Father God is rich enough to buy them back (Gal. 3 v 19-27) but even for Him the cost was horrendous. His love and grace draws many back to Him and His abundant life. He rules the Earth for its last 1000 years. Death is annulled. It is full of liberty, joy and peace. Even the weather is perfect (Lev. 26 v 3-4, Is. 65 v 19-25).

GOD CREATED MATTER OUT OF INFINITE ENERGY THEN FORMED IT

We are part of an extravagant creation that is not chaotic: it is governed by universal, inbuilt laws. It has billions of stars just for its curtains (Ps. 104 v 2)! The uncountable stars were created for us to wonder at and enjoy (Ps. 8 v 3-8, Zeph. 1 v 5-9) not to worship as the home of gods and aliens. Its beauty and order give us a glimpse of what our Creator is really like (Rom. 1 v 19-20). I asked; "Why did you make the millions of Galaxies that exist beyond the dark areas of space that we cannot see without a space camera and a week long exposure?" His reply was, "Because I can!!"

Genesis 1 and 2 Peter 3 give us the answer to where all the matter (+m) in the universe came from and its end state. Before measurable time began (Gen. 1 v 1, Jn. 1 v 1-3, 12-13) an almighty power, with an intricate design and purpose, crushed limitless energy ( $E = \text{infinite } C^2$ ) with unimaginable gravity (g). As the E was crushed +m appeared ( $g \text{ max} \uparrow: E = C^2 \downarrow + m \uparrow$ ).

Massive atoms were made which rapidly broke down into our remaining elements. Now there is a lot of hydrogen. The hot matter (+m) collected into dark, inert, rotating, fluid, gravity graded spheres. The energy retained in +m free space energy reached equilibrium. All of Space was dark and hot. Absolute zero was at a maximum and gravity (g: potential energy) and C at a minimum.

Light is a form of radiant energy. As it goes through glass its wave length shortens then completely recovers in air. The speed of light (C) is effected by the background energy density. The energy density gradient is very extreme around stars so they bend light beams like a wave. Einstein understood that massless light photos could not be bent like a wave so he bent time and space to explain how light beams appear to bend.

As stars decay the quivering space energy gradually increases. Even over a relatively short time measurements of C are perceptibly getting lower. We cannot use our current value of C to measure the size or age of the universe or use current radioactive rates of decay to deduce a meaningful age of any item that is more than a few thousand years old.

There was no fixed parameter to measure time by till day one (Gen. 1 v 1-3). To us the universe is billions of years old but not to God (2 Pt. 3 v 8).

The Earth first became as a hot, fluid, gravity graded ball of specific size and matter and from a ring of our dormant Sun's gravity graded atmosphere. God formed the formless Earth over six rotations (Gen. 1 v 2, Ex. 20 v 11). Measurable time (rate of change) started with the Earth's first day at full light (Gen. 1 v 5) with the Lord God's potent words from a point above the clouds (Is. 14 v 14) of "Let there be Light." A second massive  $g \uparrow$  spike condensed the stars and woke up the dark, inert universe (Gen. 1 v 3, Jn. 1 v 5).

The vast, dark space energy condensed into anti matter ( $E = \uparrow C^2 - m \uparrow$ ). This is the source of the tell-tale +m/-m X-ray cloud at the cores of galaxies. For a brief moment space was empty so C was infinite. The inert elements were powered up to produce the chemical potential required for life (Jn. 1 v 5).

The immaterial angels or light-beings, made of pure energy were created on the first morning at the end of day 1 (Is. 14 v 12-14). They gasped at what happened on the morning after God brought forth vegetation (Job 38 v 7). The stars started to 'boil' into the energy vacuum (Gen. 1 v 14, Is. 48 v 13). The vast spiraling out galaxies lit up and collapse into their once vacuum 'bottled' -m cores giving off its tell-tale x-ray emission.

In 1600 BC God told Job all the stars lit together over one day (Job 38 v 7) also that the Pleiades is forever expanding and Orion's belt is fixed and the Earth was suspended in a void on nothing (Job 38 v 7). How else could he have known that! Zechariah knew the effect of an atomic blast in 487 BC (Zech. 14 v 12-16)! Einstein's  $E = \downarrow C^2 + m \uparrow$  came from such a revelation but his bent theory came from his mind. Creation Science is handicapped by accepting his theories and confusing 'created from nothing' (Gen. 1 v 1) with 'formed' (Gen. 1 v 2, 2 v 7, Ex. 20 v 11, 25 v 10).

Those seeking the answer to everything must ask its Maker (Jer. 33 v 3, Col. 1 v 16). Our Father rewards all who seek to know Him (Lk. 11 v 9, 12 v 30-31, Rom. 3 v 11, Heb. 11 v 3, 6). Job knew just from reading a copy of Genesis 3 that after his physical body had been destroyed, his Saviour would give him a fresh new one like his (Job 19 v 25-29). God spoke to Job and his fear of death was obliterated (Job. 3 v 25, Lk. 20 v 37-38, Heb. 2 v 15).

Sadly many use religion (Deut. 4 v 28-29, Mt. 17 v 4) to keep the Father's Spirit and Truth out of their self satisfied lives (Job 32 v 1-3, 38 v 1-3). Pride stops the self determined from repenting and crying to Him for help (Job 2 v 9-10, 42 v 3-7). Unless the God-defying turn to God for forgiveness and accept His promised redeemer (Ps. 50 v 15-17, Jn. 16 v 27) their self-determined lives will proceed into a hopeless eternity.

Big bangs, dark matter, black holes, life from mud; all such unscientific musing are inspired by occult Greek myth. The superior Greeks believed they were descended from life forms from space and so do 'once upon a time' humanists, who think nothing made everything. Such egoist confuse metaphysical science with physical realities and conjure fears to justify searching for life on other planets. They knowingly waste billions of our money.

All messages from a space alien will have had to have travelled for millions of years or faster than light so any topical data could only come from a local immaterial being (Dan. 10 v 11-21) with an occult purpose. God's truth tells us who this alien spirit is (Is. 14 v 12-14).

GOD'S IMMATERIAL CREATIONS

God gave Adam a heaven on Earth with powerful spirit helpers. The greatest spirit Lucifer refused to serve such a simple being. It made Adam think that God's order was bad and self survival was good. He rejected the guidance of God's life giving Spirit and accepted that of a life consuming spirit (Rom. 6 v 16, Eph. 2 v 2) that mimicked God's Spirit (Gen. 3 v 22, Heb. 1 v 7). Adam and all his descendents became It's bond servants.

Lucifer traded with the ranks of angels for self profit (Ezk. 28 v 18) by offering them domains in its stolen kingdom on Earth (Gen. 3 v 15, Is. 14 v 12, Lk. 4 v 5-8). One third of the angels joined It. They are territorial (Dan. 10 v 13). They inhabit regions; on heights, in caves, tombs and woods, at springs pools and souls (Mt. 8 v 28-31, 12 v 44, Jn. 5 v 4). Each nation gives allegiance to one of the more powerful princes who oppose God's Spirit and fight each other for self survival (Dan. 10 v 6-13: beryl is furnace proof, Eph. 3 v 9-11, 6 v 12).

Every person is influenced by a dominant spirit which they can accept or reject. It is discernable. The bad stop people turning back to God's rule (Gal. 4 v 3, 9, 5 v 15-21, Rev. 12 v 7-9, 13) which would leave them without any domain and imprisoned (Rev. 20 v 1-3, 10). All who actively spurn God's loving, holy Spirit and seek guidance from an alternative spirit (1 Sam. 15 v 22-26, 16 v 14, 2 Cor. 11 v 14) gain an indwelling guide that despises them.

Like Schopenhauer, many obey Satan's gospel, of "do it my way" so they retain their futile, death bound nature. Are they idiots or is it because know one has told them what Jesus has done? The Gospel of Salvation in Jesus' name has even been debased in our Bible translations! The state of dead people is fixed, but Greek scholars have inserted occult, Greek ideas on resurrection into our Bibles (praying to and for dead people; 1 Cor. 15 v 29).

All spirit inspired religions are based on overcoming death by becoming an immortal (Gen. 3 v 5). Cush's invention of bypassing death through reincarnation (based on Genesis 6 v 4) is supported by our Gnostic tainted translations (Jer. 15 v 19). Mighty killers against the Lord (Gen. 10 v 9) were getting away with murder (Gen. 4 v 23-24) before the angelic infiltration of Genesis 6 v 13:– “ There were Nephylim on earth in those days and afterwards, when the sons of God (angels) came into the daughters of men, they gave birth to them which were the heroic, mighty men of ancient myths.”

They were spirit incarnations: 'children' is not in the original. They were XX clones: no he or she; all psychotic its. It is clearly stated that after these beautiful, asexual 'Mangels' (Jude 6: their nature changed) died in Noah's Flood (2 Pt. 2 v 4-5), they did not reincarnate but were chained. This is so terrifying (Mt. 8 v 29) for a free, immaterial spirit that it will never be repeated. They inhabit compliant human's instead (Rev. 19 v 20, 20 v 10).

Thanks to Cush (Hermes: of Ham) and his son Nimrod (Chaos: of Cush), killers (Nephylim) like the Greek heroes and bisexual god-kings like Alexander are thought of as offspring of these evil, violent 'mules'. Fictitious X-men and martial arts are based on seeking such spirit based powers! Egocentrics swap faith in God's promised Saviour for Aristotle's Gnostic self perfection.

They see creation upside down (Is. 14 v 14). Darwin's inverted truth only survived because the Metaphysical Society, who believe in the mystical ideas of alchemists, astrologers and sorcerers; promoted it. Meta physicists conjure theories and bend the facts to fit. Big bangs, black holes and dark matter are all metaphysical; fiction based on Einstein's ignorance of what gravity is.

Gravity, magnetism, nuclei, electrons are affected by net energy differences. As with binaries, low energy matter is attracted to high energy masses. Life on Earth is powered by a pin point of the Sun's energy. The other 99.99% radiates into our entropic universe. Space is not empty. As its energy density builds the speed of light through it slows. Energy differences drop so gravity drops and the universe expands and darkens ( $g$  is proportional to  $C$ ).

Egocentrics say that the amazing order in the cosmos was produced by an unexplainable accident in nowhere! Yet they know that life is not self perfecting. It is insecure, corrupt and failing (Rom. 1 v 18-22). Such lost souls with negative lives, choose to spend eternity without God's help. They create a climate of fear that gets worse forever (Lk. 16 v 24, 31, 2 Cor. 5 v 10-11).

They fear temporal calamities that they cannot change and pursue bad behaviour which they could change. They miss the purpose of this testing life. Our physically sensed life is a temporal adventure but we also have a real but immaterial sensed life. When your physical senses are suspended (by sleep, hypnosis, intoxication, pain or virtual reality) it comes to the fore.

After physical death we remain conscious of the inner guiding spirit that we accepted on Earth (Is. 14 v 12, Mt. 12 v 34-37, 25 v 41-46, Mk. 9 v 48, Lk. 16 v 22-25, 2 Thess. 1 v 8-9). Aristotle thought his spiritual experiences would help free him from the earthen pot he was trapped in (Gen. 3 v 5). He believed there was a magic reset button so you kept on trying until you became a grand master and overcame death! Darwin's version led Hitler to believe his spirit (Ezk. 28 v 6-10) that he was god on earth over a race of gods who should kill the imperfect. When the world was ready he would return.

He was just Satan's pawn: only It has a vital reason for wiping out the Jews. To stay free Satan must defeat God's words (2 Pt. 1 v 21). Those who side with evil, even if bullied, will be judged as doing evil. It would be nicer to think that the godless dead would simply be erased but our Father (Mt. 5 v 45, Rom. 8 v 20) has to be just. Those who choose to remain independent of His life will remain so (Ezk. 18 v 30-32, Lk. 16 v 22-25, 19 v 41-48).

The only way to understand heaven is to go there (2 Cor. 12 v 2-4). Jesus has overcome our unworthiness (Rev. 5 v 4-9). You enter His gates with thanksgiving and by singing praises (Ps. 100). God has ordered us to dwell there or we will perish with those who refuse to believe (Heb. 3 v 7-12, 4 v 9-16, 12 v 22-28).

His provision is so wonderful that you would want more forever! It is full of glory (Ex. 34 v 5,29, 2 Chr. 5 v 13-14). It is sustaining (Jn. 4 v 14, 32). Moses lived in it for so long that his brother thought he had died (Ex. 32 v 1). Time, place, self awareness, are all left behind to be picked up with frustration when you return (Mt. 17 v 1-5, 17).

He is so great that the greatest of creatures could add nothing to His life. His motive for creating us must therefore be based purely on love (1 Jn. 4 v 18). He wants to supply all our needs as part of His family forever (Mt. 6 v 19-34). We have free will to be able to love Him in return. He will only respond when we ask Him to (Rom. 10 v 8-10, Jas. 4 v 2).

Our choices in the battle between good and evil have eternal consequences. Our nature was made to be God centred and sufficient. Without Him we are as contaminated empty bottles. Only a faint whiff of His love, joy and peace remains. His love is so great that He sent His visible entity as a man to die in order to cleanse and refill us (Jn. 3 v 16).

All the 'empties' who are sorry for their sin against Him and cry to His Saviour for forgiveness, mercy and help before they die (Ps. 34) are freely filled with Jesus' eternal life again (Lk. 23 v 41-43, Jn. 3 v 10, Rom. 10 v 13, 1 Cor. 2, Rev. 20 v 5-6). His Holy Spirit then conforms their divisive, self centred hearts and minds with that of Jesus (1 Cor. 15 v 47-50).

As a good father, He rescues all who want to return to Him from the problems, mistakes and fears that their bad spirit has fostered (Lk. 15 v 20, Eph. 2 v 4-9, Jas. 4 v 1-10). Those who respond to the Holy Spirit's inner convictions (Job 19 v 25-29, 42 v 5-6) will have an eternal record of their obedience (Lk. 19 v 41-48) but only Jesus deserves all the honour (Lk. 17 v 18, 18 v 7, 26-30, Jn. 14 v 13, Jas. 4 v 1-10). Knowing all this should drive the saved to share the good news of Salvation with all and to love and pray for their enemies (Mt. 6 v 12, 18 v 32-35). Death is appalling but salvation is amazing.

God defiant, self-determined people are automatically subject to Satan's curses. It blinds their minds to the truth (Gal. 3 v 1, Mt. 7 v 15-23) about their puffed up nature (1 Pt. 5 v 1-6, 2 Pt. 2 v 15-20, Jude) yet it is readily discerned by others (1 Cor. 2 v 14, Heb. 5 v 14, Jas. 5 v 15). They cork their vessel with self cultivated pride but when it leaks it stinks because it is filled with hate, despair, fear and lies (Is. 64 v 6, 1 Jn. 3 v 12).

Those led by a self promoting Aristotelian spirit want people to praise and depend on them. They use impressive words and attire to glorify self instead of God. They are like stars that appear then return to the darkness (Eph. 4 v 14). They use the media to hook people on feelings to distract them from reality and the truth (2 Pt. 2 v 17-21). Not even Tinker Bells live forever on make believe. Ideas inspired by intoxication or emotion are not real: if you act on them you will self destruct (Is. 57 v 15-21).

True men of God are sincerely human (Eph. 2 v 8, Heb. 4 v 15-16, Jas. 5 v 16-18). Not gods but just as taps on pipes of oil from God's Holy Spirit (Zech. 3 v 4, 4 v 2-6). They present Christ as the source of all life (Is. 9 v 6-7). He gave up his glory (Php. 2, 1 Pt. 1 v 15-25) to freely give us everything. You could have his righteous life if you put him first in your heart (2 Kg. 2 v 6, Jn. 15, 2 Pt. 1).

Darwin's idea of nature, as a life producing, self ordering force, is based on the Greek myth that originally the god Chaos reigned. Then along came Gaia, god the mother who produced life from fertile earth. Sound familiar? But planets from sun debris at over 6000<sup>0</sup> are sterile! She gave birth to a man and made him Lord of the Earth but she used treats and pain to control him.

They are typified by Alexander and Olympias and other matriarchal affiliations. God the Mother belittles men and holds spiritual power over them through emotional blackmail. Her lies stop them relating to their estranged Father-God who loves and yearns for them. Men brought up by mother, like Darwin, Nietzsche, Freud, E Forster, J M Barrie and Hitler, worship a mother-god as the source of life. They tend to be sexually frustrated souls who hate their father and God and so are lost in time and space and suffer identity crises.

Darwin's fatalistic, doctrine for life is based on the opposite of what God has said (Gen. 2 v 7). It is presented as factual to children in every school: that they have meaningless, futile lives that are predestined to die! They are told that men can have periods yet there is no gay gene (Science: 29.8.19). Your chromosomes fix your sex. A fearful life based on lies awaits them. They leave to join the treadmill-existence of Aristotle's and Evolution's make believe; that chaos produced a self perfecting cosmos.

Those robbed of hope in their struggle for self survival become psychotic. Children who lack self esteem kill other children! Many decide to do whatever they want for as long as it lasts but their 'heaven', based on having everything that money can buy, is hollow (Lk. 12 v 19-21).

Very rich self survivalists kill themselves because their goal in life was futile! Their eternal longings become eternal frustrations (Prov. 5, 6, 7, 8 v 36) because they knowingly chose to reject God's love and provision for the sake of a meaningless, self centred existence.

THE SINKING SHIP AND THE LIFEBOAT

Those who put self justify their selfish behaviour by claiming life is a purposeless fluke ruled by self survival. This threatens the survival of others and creates a climate of fear (1 Jn. 4 v 18). The media majors on every possible disaster that we could prevent if we pay the supermen billions.

They impress on insecure young children that; health, food, resources, climate, asteroids, aliens, terrorist, war... are trying to kill them. They are stalked by death. They make infants worry about every aspect of sex and then seem surprise that they are getting neurotic. Then they make laws to prevent parents protecting their children from their death fearing madness.

Using threats, violence and fake news to hide the truth is the action of some one who is upholding a lie. A whole generation is being deliberately perverted. It is pure evil. Those who gamble with evil drive themselves deeper and deeper into debt. There is a Father God who owns everything. They will not be let off their IOUs when their game is over (Heb. 9 v 27).

Jesus came to save us from being destroyed by evil god-men (Gen. 2 v 17, 3 v 5). Under oath at his trial he said he is the Son of God and the next time they saw him he would be the judge (Mt. 26 v 64)! Fools dismiss him, as a long-haired, long dead pacifist. They forget he did things and knew things that proved he was from God (Jn. 3 v 1-2) and fulfilled the hundreds of prophecies about him that no other ever could (Lk. 24 v 44).

Ignoring God's warnings and thinking you do not need to repent and be saved ends in inescapable terror. When he returns he comes with a sword (Ps. 2, Lk. 17 v 24, 22 v 69-70, Rev. 19 v 13-16). Those who choose Satan's gospel will live in its tormented kingdom forever (Rev. 20 v 10, Mk. 9 v 45-46).

Israel (the 'fig tree') is the wake up call for those who slander God and hate the Jews (Gen. 6 v 11-13, Mt. 13 v 38, Lk. 21 v 24, Rom. 11 v 25). They broke God's rules for a secure society, scoffed at His warnings, rejected their promised Messiah and defied Rome (Zech. 11 v 12-17). The Romans executed all who could not travel and carried the rest in ships back to Egypt as slaves (Deut. 28 v 25, 68). Satan then did It's best to wipe them out (Ezk. 28 v 16-26). They were cut off for 2000 years (Hos. 6 v 1-2, Rom. 11 v 21-24, 2 Pt. 3 v 8).

Now that dead branch has blossomed and 'time of the Gentiles' (Lk. 21 v 29, 34-36) have ended for rejecting his words (Gen. 2 v 15-17, Lk. 18 v 8) (Num. 17 v 8-10, Ezk. 36 & 37). Many church councils have debased the Word of God and endorsed the words of self destructive humanists (Is. 14 v 13-17, Ezk. 28 v 18). Those who fear death and the ravages of nature, which they cannot appease (Lk. 12 v 4-9) and reject the warnings of the Lord God of love who they can appease (Jn. 8 v 42-45) are as dead now and forever.

Hedonistic Nineveh attended God's word and repented. The Sodomites were warned (Gen. 14 v 11, 18 v 20-21) but their reply was to try to sodomize God's messengers. They were in hell by morning (Jude 7). The permissive who think Baal/Astarte worship at her 'tree of the knowledge of evil' is liberating (Ex. 32 v 6, Num. 25, Acts 7 v 41-51, 2 Pt. 2 v 14-15, 3 v 13-15) are enslaved.

By rejecting God's love and will and obeying an evil spirit as his lord (Mt. 6 v 11) the first man cut off all his dominion from God's provision (Rom. 8 v 20-25). As a result from infancy, we are tempted to accept the suggestions of invasive spirits (Gen. 3 v 22). They alienated us from God's life and make us distrust Him (Rom. 8 v 7, 1 Jn. 3 & 4) so we are ruled by fear and death instead of love and life. The 'god' behind Evolution and the survival of the fittest is Chaos.

It's power (Is. 14 v 12-22) and It's time is running out (Rev. 12 v 7-12). To survive It has to drain us of life (Prov. 30 v 12-16, Jn. 10 v 10). The wages of sin are death then hell (Rom. 6 v 23). If God does not help us It will take billions down with It. Our sins harm self and others so we try to mitigate them but we will not abhor them till we realise that our sin nature is led by Satan (Acts 9 v 5, Rom. 7). Those who surrender to sin become sons of the Devil (Jn. 8 v 9, 44).

The self justified reject the Father's will and His Saviour and retain the vain ways of their self promoting despotic god (Is. 14 v 12-17, Mt. 7 v 16). They hate God's truth because it exposes them as liars. Cain posed as good base on Satan's lie (Gen. 3 v 5). If you lie to God and to yourself about your flawed thinking you will cement your bond with death (1 Jn. 1 v 5-10).

It is not the Father's will that anyone should perish (Mt. 14 v 14, Jn. 12 v 47, 2 Pt. 3 v 9). All who cry to Him for forgiveness will be saved (Jonah 1 v 12, 2 v 4-9, Acts 2 v 21, 38, Lk. 23 v 41-43, Col. 2 v 9-10) and given the gift of a new God-centred life (Ps. 103, Eph. 1 v 13-14, 2 v 8-9, Heb. 6 v 17, 11 v 1, 6). His love and mercy override His anger and overflow towards those who might repent (Jonah 3 v 8-10, Lk. 15 v 17-24, Jn. 1 v 1-9). He alone can save us from this corrupted, dying world (2 Chr. 24 v 17-23, Jn. 11 v 45-48, 14 v 11-14).

You can only be saved by believing in God's promise to send us a Saviour (Gal. 3 v 6-14). If you repent of your sinful, self-conscious nature (Rom. 7 v 24) and cry to him for mercy he will set you free from Satan's strong holds (Acts 2 v 38). What spirit resides in your 'temple' (1 Cor. 6 v 17-20)? Accept Jesus as your new Lord and gain his authority over the old (2 Cor. 10 v 4-5, Heb. 4).

Before our 'do as you like' society self destructs, He will again present His truth to all (Ezk. 39 v 6-8, Mt. 24 v 3, 14) but there is a point of no return (Jer. 14 v 10-12). When people attack those who God sends warn them (2 Thess. 2 v 6-12, Rev. 9 v 20-21) His tether on chaos is loosed then cut (Gen. 6 v 5-7, 13, 1 Kg. 19 v 14-18, Eph. 2 v 2, 2 Pt. 2 v 7-8). All the evil criminals in Satan's 'food chain' will then rob and abuse at will.

GOD IS ALMIGHTY: SO HE IS LOVING, GENEROUS AND TRUTHFUL

Love is self sacrificing (Mt. 20 v 27-28), kind, truthful, hopeful, faithful and forgiving. It is a costly decision not a selfish emotion. Only a loving God can want children so much to pay the appalling, self-denying cost (Jn. 1 v 1-4, 3 v 16-21). He is unchanging so love always flowed within His nature.

He is the only infinite being (Deut. 6 v 4). To be Love (1 Jn. 4 v 5-10) and not self-serving He has to have three members who compliment and defer to each other: an infinite head, a tangible person and a powerful, omnipresent invisible person (Mt. 3 v 16-17, 26 v 42, Jn. 10 v 30, 14 v 9-10, 17 v 22, 1 Jn. 2 v 23, 5 v 7). The omnipotent Father made and relates to His finite, spiritual and physical creation through His visible, tangible person (Jn. 1 v 3, 14 v 9-11, 28, 1 Cor. 16 v 28, Eph. 4 v 3-6, Col. 1 v 15-17, 2 v 9-10) who is the Lord of all His finite creation (Jn. 20 v 28, Php. 2 v 10). He loves and is attentive to all His creation (Jn. 16 v 13-15) through His omnipresent Spirit.

Only God's recorded words hold the Spirit-given truth about why we are here and life after death (Ps. 119 v 105, Lk. 16 v 22-31, Heb. 4 v 10-16, 2 Pt. 1 v 16-21). The first created man defied His will so we are born into his death bound state (Jn. 1 v 29, Rom. 3 v 23, 6 v 16). The self-serving believe Satan's self-determined gospel (Gen. 3 v 4, 1 Jn. 1 v 10). The sin of the world is hamartia = to fail the test as in Genesis 2 v 17 (reject God's Spirit and do what your alternative, central ego says is good or evil: Gen. 3 v 22-23).

God did not reject Adam; Adam rejected God. In order to rescue all of Adam's children who repent of his sin the Father rent His being. He sacrificed His love for His tangible person to save them. Jesus bridged the gulf between His heaven and a hostile, sin ruled Earth, by being born as a man and suffering physical death in our stead (1 Jn. 4 v 7-13).

No other authority than Jesus' can save you (Acts 4 v 10-12). Only those who surrender their doomed human lives to death with Jesus human life can be born again of God's breath and become one with the Father's life and love again (Gen. 2 v 7, Lk. 3 v 16-17, Jn. 3 v 5-19). Great power is released through faith in His words (Mt. 8 v 8, Jn. 6 v 68, Rom. 10 v 17, Heb. 11 v 3, 1 Jn. 4 v 1-3). Shout it: JESUS CHRIST HAS ANNULLED DEATH (2 Tim. 1 v 10-13)! When he reigns over the Earth no believer dies (Is. 66 v 22-25).

Only those whose repentance is proved to be real will be saved (Ps. 2 v 12, Is. 52 v 15, Mt. 22 v 14, Jn. 5 v 21, Heb. 11). All are called but many want God to bow to their will which is the opposite of His (Is. 55 v 6-11, Rom. 1 v 18-25, 8 v 7, 2 Cor. 4 v 1-7, 18)! Those who hesitate (Jas. 1 v 5-7) and reject Jesus Christ as their Lord will remain a hopeless, unloved, disposable slave of Satan: just a number or statistic. No he or she; all 'Its' (Jn. 8 v 44, Heb. 2 v 14-16) and trapped in death forever (Acts 4 v 12, Php. 2 v 9-11, 1 Jn. 4 v 2).

TICKET TOUTS WITH FAKE TICKETS

Again and again Israel went after 'do as you please gods' who enslaved them. God should have said "serves you right" but every time they cried to Him He reacted as their Father: He forgave and delivered them. He wants us to live with Him as His children under the rule of love not fear.

True love is selfless; it is patient and kind, good, truthful, forgiving, loyal and unending (1 Cor 13 v 1-3). The heart He gave us yearns for that love. Happiness depends on being loved. Lust destroys both (Ps. 10 v 2-9, Jas. 1 v 14-15, 2 Pt. 1 v 4, 1 Jn. 2 v 15-17). Self love is a self consuming cancer.

The adversary's idea of love is a self-centred desire. It is based on feelings which can change with the wind (Eph. 4 v 14). It can change to "I don't love you any more (because you do not please me)!" If you love the gifts but not the giver you lose both. Those who love themselves abuse others and conceal their malice (Mt. 5 v 28, 15 v 8-9, 23 v 28, Lk. 11 v 40-44, 2 Pt. 2 v 3).

Man devised ideologies, metaphysical theories and religious ideas are based on a self important person's bias. Godless politicians get angry when people vote against their will after they have spent millions to make them agree with it (Jn. 8 v 42-47, 12 v 9-11)! How do they persuade them? Call lies theories and hide the truth behind flawed logic (make-believe). Many assured, expert opinions, news items and testimonials are completely prejudiced or fake. Many buyers ratings are filtered or rigged? Plausible scams work!

Auto-suggestion works (Gen. 3 v 2-6): feelings based on planted ideas grow. A vast industry, covering every aspect of life, is based on luring people into debt based on desire or mousetrap logic: 'to be happy I must have what I desire'. You imagine having it, want it, then must have it. When the fix does not last, you need another. Without God's recorded words as our enduring source of truth we cannot judge if we are being misused.

Satan's matrix uses godless, brainwashed humans as its energy source (Ps. 44 v 20-26). Arrogant, nihilists use unfounded statements to silence all who oppose them (Jn. 7 v 18-32). They un-explain God's truth and hide their travesties in darkness (Rom. 1 v 22). Then someone strikes a match. A confused theology under-graduate said to his professor that he could not follow the reasoning involved. He replied "don't worry, nobody can!"

Their persuasion is based on some oddball, who they declare was a genius, because he supported their self damning, egocentric ideas. One of their top gurus, Nietzsche, concluded that there was no aim, goal or meaning to life. His answer to everything was a vague hopeless, nothing. Those who think they are as gods are mad (Dan. 4 v 34)! This nonsense is produced by those who think this short life is all there is. They fail to grasp life's fundamental test.

God does not need to lie or manipulate anyone. He has given us free will on Earth so that we can decide what we want: good or evil; truth or excuses; love or hate; peace or strife; eternal provision or death and corruption. He knows how glorious we can be with Him but also how bad without Him. His love turns the sadness of the unloved into joy (Ps. 30 v 8-12). The contrite who touch him are made holy: the unrepentant decay and die.

Out of love He sent His tangible person to Earth as a man, so that those who repent of their corrupt, self approved ways could gain his glorious God centred life (Lk. 4 v 18-28). By identifying their futile life with his human death, they inherit his risen life (Heb. 6 v 12, 17) then after their body dies an incorruptible body like his (Jn. 3 v 14-19, Rom. 5 v 17-19, 1 Cor. 15 v 54, 1 Pt. 3 v 18). This is the good news that turned the world back to front (Is. 29 v 14-16, Acts 17 v 6). Jesus is the source of all life and love.

He is also the only uncontaminated source of truth (Jn. 7 v 37). The churches have replaced his truth with self improving ideas based on meditating with their devious alter egos (Mt. 5 v 13). The postmodern, existential faith of the self centred is Satan's/Darwin's primeval self survival trap (Gen. 2 v 17, 3 v 5): "What God has said is not quite true. Do what you feel is good and you will not die but become a self determined god-like-one." All such self-centred survivalists and debase and misuse others, then die.

Only God is good. He said if you feed your mind off the 'tree' of knowledge and think it makes you a superior, god-like-one (Job 2 v 9, Lk. 4 v 7-8, Heb. 2 v 7) you will die and be left eternally bankrupt (Is. 14 v 10, Lk. 16 v 22-24). Only faith in God's promised Saviour and unfading love (1 Cor. 13 v 1-13) for each unique soul can save those enslaved to Satan. Damaged, unloved people who do not turn to the Father for love and forgiveness suffer rejection and turn inwards into Satan's self-centred maze; the realm of their alter ego (Rom. 1 v 21-32, 7 v 18-24). Their vain life is doomed (Lk. 16 v 25).

Psyche's psychiatrist try to map the maze as if analysing a machine. But the maze is essentially a dead end so they divert the distressed to hell proper with drugs. Opiates open the gate to Hell. In her virtual, dream world killing, illicit sex, global fears, violent games: all are glamorised as if sins against self have no consequences (Jude 18-19). This hopeless subversion is imposed on children in schools (Lk. 17 v 2) and criticism of it is squashed.

Caesars, as Sun Kings on Earth, bridged to heaven. The first Christianised Pontiff Maximus was Constantine (not Peter). He instigated the Nicene Creed (325 AD) to stop Gnostic disorder (new age Satanism) destroying his empire. He thought of himself as the successor to the Apostles but he was not baptised until just before he died. His son favoured spirit worship and threatened to kill Athanasius who had compiled and championed the Creed.

The Nicene Creed (from the original by Athanasius: 293-373 AD).

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and Earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, light from light, begotten, not created, of one being with the Father, through him all things were made (Col. 1 v 16). For us men and our salvation he came down from heaven, became incarnate by the power of the Holy Spirit via the Virgin Mary (seed of: Gen. 3 v 5) and was made man (Is. 53 v 8).

*He was crucified in our place (to save us from death: Num. 21 v 8, Jn. 3 v 14) under Pontius Pilate (made Pontius by the ruling Pontiff Maximus); he suffered death and was buried and on the third day after his death on the stake (anastanta; cut from our translations to justify Roman's Sun's Day worship in place of the Sabbath) in accordance with the scriptures (Mt. 12 v 40; 3 days+3 nights. Mt. 27 v 63, Mk. 8 v 31: after 3 x 24 hrs. after the double Sabbath, Mt. 28 v 1, on first of feast of Weeks) He rose again into heaven and is enthroned at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.*

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy, universal and apostolic Church (Eph. 4). We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins (Acts. 2 v 38). We look for the resurrection of the dead and life of the world to come. Amen.

Every human life is different and equally precious but those who think they are as gods abuse the rights of those who oppose them. In transcending reality proud fools justify distorted ideas that prove their godless lives are vain (Ps. 14)! Their admitted nihilistic philosophy is clearly not based on truth but it politically justifies them silencing their opponents as subversive.

Proud, self sustained people deny there is anything wrong with their self preserving ways but their evil intent is evident in that they have to ban God's good words. God the Father has done His uttermost to save all who repent and accept His love and protection but they blame Him instead of self for their undeniable sins (Gen. 3 v 12-13, Mt. 13 v 15-19, Rom. 1, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10).

The selfish automatically sin against others. It is most obvious in matters to do with self promotion and money (Ps. 39 v 6-11, Lk. 16 v 19-24, 2 Pt. 2 v 17). Evil spirits may incite wrongdoing but those who respond commit a sin (Job. 1 v 22, Lk. 22 v 3-5). The guilty live a lie. They do not love their neighbour but ferment strife and divisions to hide their sin from others. They cannot hide them from God (Mt. 6 v 6, Jn. 15 v 22, Heb. 4 v 12-16).

THE PROUD IGNORE GOD'S WORDS AND SEEK JUSTIFICATION BY WORKS

The first man rejected His Father's words and God's Visible Person as his Lord in order to rule his life "my way" (Col. 1 v 16). He lost God's provision so corruption and death invaded everything (Rom. 8 v 18-25). He and all his descendants were plunged into a futile battle for self survival (Gen. 3 v 17-19).

The world became subject to the will of violent oppressors (Nephylim: Gen. 4 v 23, 6 v 4, 12-13) with Satan as the top predator. It entraps self determined people by offering them their emotional wishes (Lk. 4 v 3, 6, 9, Rom. 1 v 32). Those who have faith in this tyrannical lord find that God's perfect law is a constant reminder that their lives are perverse (Rom. 7 v 10-21, Gal. 3 v 23-27).

Adam's sin was to value his will and self love above the will and love of His Father (Gen. 2 v 16-17, 3 v 4-5, Ps. 2 v 12). Self sustained people attempt to justify this stance and gain inner peace based on self degrading excesses that defy God's will and stupefy theirs (Lk. 12 v 1-2, Col. 2 v 20-21, 1 Jn. 1 v 9, 3 v 12). They pray "My will be done in Heaven as it is on Earth".

The self determined feel their good works will give them some sort of immortality based on Satan's gospel (Gen. 3 v 3-5, 1 Sam. 15 v 22-23, Rom. 8 v 7, 1 Cor. 10 v 12, 11 v 10, 1 Jn. 3 v 12). It is instilled as Darwin's ultra racist law of the survival of the fittest nations. History shows they do not survive but many support his law because it excuses them lying, cheating, blackmailing, robbing and killing lesser mortals who are below them in the natural food chain (2 Ch. 7 v 14, 19-21, 1 Cor. 2 v 12-14, 10 v 2-12, 11 v 10, 29).

Cain thought offering God his prize marrow would conceal his sinful heart (Gen. 4 v 7)? His fake worship was inspired by a spirit of pride (Acts 5 v 3, 8-9). Pride, fed by deceiving spirits, assures the lost that they are right and God is wrong (1 Jn. 1 v 10). Their obsession with self, sin and death proves that all born with Adam's selfish nature are divorced from God's love ruled life (Rom. 8 v 7, Gal. 3 v 6, 10, 19, Rev. 5 v 3-10) and ruled by the the law of sin and death (1 Sam. 15 v 22-23, 1 Cor. 11 v 27-29, Eph. 1 v 7, 2 v 8-9, 22, 1 Pt. 4 v 17).

Only humble, repentant souls will be forgiven and saved (2 Chr. 7 v 14, 19-21, Mt. 15 v 7-9, 23 v 13-32, Eph. 1 v 7, 2 v 8-9). Abel was not sinless but his trust in the death of a substitute made him a child of God based on God's gospel. Only God is Holy (Eph. 2 v 8-9). Only faith in His prescribed readily available sin offering covers your sinfulness (Heb. 11 v 4, 12 v 24)!

The only way to be saved is to swap your death bound nature (Rom. 7 v 23-25) for a God centred nature led by His Spirit (Ps. 40 v 8-14, Rom. 8 v 7-14, Col. 2 v 8-14). You have to choose: eternal death or eternal life; the bitter chains of rejection or joy; helpless fear or love (Josh. 24 v 15). Jesus died as a man in our place. Those who identify their sin nature as dead with him gain his eternal life (Mt. 3 v 7-12, Jn. 3 v 13-21, 36).

There is nothing you can give to God to please Him other than to love and obey Him as your Father (Ps. 50 v 8-23). You may admire those who help others but if they do it to prove self worth and not out of love for God, it has no eternal value (Mt. 6 v 16, 7 v 18-23, 10 v 1-15, 40-42, 25 v 34-46).

Adam had one law by which all are judged: put the love and will of God first (Lk. 10 v 25-28). The second part of God's law flows from it: love others as you are loved (Col. 3 v 1-14, 1 Jn. 4 v 7-8). No one can afford to do it unless they love and are loved by God.

Those who transpose this order to fit their self justified thinking commit the very sin that divorced Adam from being one with God's life (Jer. 14 v 10-17, Jas. 4 v 4). Aristotle/Darwin's law of self elevation is a lie: it assigns the self preserving to death (Ezk. 28 v 15-19, Rom. 3 v 19-23, Gal. 2 v 16).

Ostensibly nice people who think doing good works will save them from judgement (Mt. 25 v 34-46, Lk. 7 v 47-50, 18 v 9-14) still feel guilty (Gen. 3 v 4-6, Job 32 v 1, 42 v 1-6). Their nature is not guided by the Father's Spirit and unified with His words, love, will and works (Lk. 11 v 2-4) but by a perverse anti-Christ spirit (Gen. 2 v 17, Mt. 7 v 21-23, Lk. 4 v 4-8, 34, 10 v 17-18, 24, Rom. 1 v 18).

Moses' Commandments damn all (Rom. 7 v 21-24, Gal. 3 v 10-28). Darwin's divisive, self determined, sin and death ruled nature is curbed by them but not changed. Jesus' human death releases us from that bankrupt nature. The godless nature you inherited from Adam must be written off with him by faith (Rom. 6 v 3-14). God's laws for a free society become promises instead of accusations (Mt. 17 v 25-26, 10, 1 Jn. 3 v 9): not you must not but " You will not".

On being baptised into his physical death your self improving efforts cease (Mt. 3 v 1-12, Acts 2 v 38, 9 v 4-5, Heb. 4 v 9-10) and the Holy Spirit's start. The Father's gift of Jesus reunites you with His love, life and will (Gen. 2 v 7, Lk. 18 v 19, Heb. 2 v 10-15). The daily washing with Jesus' words and thinking then keep you clean (Is. 55 v 6-13, Jn. 13 v 8-10, 1 Cor. 2).

If who humbly seek the Father's will with all their heart, mind and strength (1 Sam. 12 v 24, Mt. 6 v 9-16, 7 v 7-12) you can be one with His Servant King. You must be humble (Php. 2 v 5-16, Rev. 5 v 4). The religious, feel superior and start to behave as a god. They expect God to support their will on earth (Acts 9 v 1-5, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10).

If the godless realised how perilous and fearful their state is they would not waste time on futile self survival but get baptised into Jesus' eternal life (Lk. 8 v 4-18, Acts 8 v 36-39, Heb. 9 v 22-28, 11 v 6). If Jesus is in your life you will be set free of your fear for survival (Mk. 4 v 37-41). Unless you trust him as your Lord and Saviour you will remain owned and misled by false spirits and ruled by fear (1 Kg. 22 v 16 v 27, Rom. 7 v 6, 23, 8 v 7-9, 14, 1 Cor. 10 v 20-21, Jas. 1 v 2-8). A stumbling block is the love of riches (Lk. 18 v 18-24).

Amassing riches lessens the struggle to survive but money only produces a short lived help (Is. 14 v 9-11, Mt. 6 v 19-34, Lk. 12 v 18-31). Some very well off people have an air of superiority that readily spills into arrogance but their false security is shattered when God 'taps them on the shoulder' (Ps. 49 v 6-20, Jas. 1 v 10-11). Fortunately God loves them as much as anyone.

Those blessed with riches must be humble. The chief tax collector in Luke 19, who was very, very rich, humbled himself and climbed a tree because he was desperate to get just a glimpse of Jesus. Jesus stopped and said "Come down. I am going to spend the weekend with you."

God's grace is granted to all who seek His face (Ps. 27, 103). His love turns sinners into saints (Gal. 4 v 3-7). Salvation is not in just going to a church, following a preacher, being good or serving others: it is only in bowing at the cross of Jesus (Mic. 6 v 7-8, Rom. 6 & 10 v 9-13). All who cry to God for mercy and forgiveness, are approved despite their religion (Ps. 145 v 8-9, Jn. 8 v 10-11, Acts 10 v 30-35, 19 v 1 v 6).

The Apostle Paul was a politically correct lawyer. He used his religion to justify killing those who exposed its flaws but he knew that it was spiritually wrong (Rom. 7 v 19). The permissive religions of the Samaritan and Phoenician (Jn. 4 v 20, 29) women were man-made based on manipulated feelings (Gen. 3 v 6). Their prayers were answered because they put their trust in Jesus. Salvation is powered by trusting in Jesus's faith not yours (Gal. 2 v 2: KJV). A belief is an unproven theory but trust is based on fact.

We inherit a death bound sin nature from our forefather (Rom. 5 v 15-21). The troubled who wake up to their dire situation and cry to the Father for mercy are reinstated as His children. He sent His promised Saviour to break Satan's curse (Is. 65 v 22, Rom. 8 v 18-25) and set us free from Adam's death and Eve's enticing spirit (Rom. 7 v 24-25). Those who put on Jesus' life are translated into his kingdom (Gen. 3 v 21, Col. 1 v 13, 2 v 6-18).

Jesus had to physically die to save us (Heb. 2 v 9-15). He put on a human body to veil his deity and physically died to buy us out of slavery to Satan (Mt. 17 v 2, 20 v 28, Rom. 6 v 23). He was cut off from the Father's life and his blood shed to atone for our treason (Heb. 9 v 14, 1 Pt. 1 v 15-25). By accepting your pointless, self centred life is a write-off and identifying it with Jesus human death through baptism (Acts 2 v 37-40) can you inherit his sinless life.

Jesus' words have been revised (Gen. 3 v 5, Is. 55 v 11, 66 v 4-6, Jn. 14 v 6) by those who supplant him as Lord. Their baptism is not that of the Spirit filled Apostles (Acts 2 v 21, 38-40, 4 v 12, 19 v 1-6). Only the name of Jesus on earth will also (kai) unite you with the Father in heaven 'and also' His Holy Spirit (Mt. 3 v 11-11, 28 v 19). Only God's grace can save you; only His love can change you (Mt. 7 v 21-24, Jn. 3 v 3, 14-21).

You are freely saved by a gift of faith; not through trying to be good and self inflated religious holiness (Lk. 19 v 3, Jn. 8 v 3-11, Gal. 3). The Self centred religious works of Adams descendents inspired by an angel (Gen. 3 v 5-6, Is. 64 v 4-10, Col. 2 v 8, 18, 23) are as witchcraft (Josh. 7 v 8-13, 1 Sam. 15 v 21-23, Ps. 40 v 1-6, 1 Cor. 11 v 27, Gal. 2 v 16, 3 v 1, Heb. 9 v 14-17).

The dark intent of self-elevated luminaries is exposed by the light from God that Jesus pours into our world (Jn. 1 v 4-9, 1 Jn. 2 v 18-19) so they defend their lies by debasing God's truth (Gen. 3 v 4, Mt. 7 v 2, 16, Php. 3 v 17-19, Jude 11-16). They claim some of the things the Good God does are bad based on travesties that they have created. The grossness of their demeaning of him is staggering (Jn. 4 v 49, 9 v 24-34). They say he was an outcast yet his authority was higher than a centurion's and a nobleman called him 'Lord' (Mt. 8 v 8).

Proud people, like Nietzsche, see humility and God's salvation as the defeat of self so they choose to remain cut off from His help and life. They seek support from an alter ego who enslaves (Mt. 23 v 33-36). They swap all God's truth for lies as there no other truth (1 Sam. 15 v 22-26, Gal. 3 v 1, 1 Jn. 4 v 1)!

They fight a losing battle for self survival (2 Chr. 20 v 15, Gal. 5 v 4) yet hate and attack those who tell them the good news that Jesus has already won it (Gen. 4 v 8, 37 v 18, Mt. 11 v 12, Mk. 14 v 10-11, Jn. 7 v 6-7, Acts 9 v 1-5, Jas. 4 v 1-4). Those who are led by an alternative unholy spirit curse themselves (Deut. 28 v 15-20, 1 Sam. 28 v 15-16, 31 v 4). It is very obvious who their lord is (Lk. 12 v 1-2, 20 v 50, Jn. 8 v 42-51).

No temptation or sin is initiated by God (Jas. 1 v 13-21). Evil was conceived by Lucifer but death was initiated by Adam's evil act. It suited his ambition to believe that God had lied (Gen. 2 v 17, Rom. 5 v 12, 17-21). Satan binds and blinds vain fools who claim they are right and God is wrong.

The lost know that their loveless lives are meaningless and unsustainable (Rom. 7 v 24); they also know this is due to their abuse the Father's provision but false pride stops them asking Him to forgive them (Gal. 5 v 13-21, Jude 4). Self seeking egocentrics choose to live and die like animals. They reject Jesus as their Lord and justify themselves by calling God a liar (1 Jn. 1 v 10). Unless they change their defiant ways they are doomed.

Jesus' powerful, wonderful name is higher than any other but only the repentant can be made one with the Father again. He is holy blameless and motivated by pure love (Lk. 18 v 19). He hates sin but gives grace to the contrite and humble (Heb. 12, 1 Jn. 1 v 7-10, 4 v 7-16). Those who accept the Father's promised Saviour receive His life by a gift of faith. They are made righteous and sealed by his life giving Spirit (Rom. 8 v 38, Eph. 1 v 13, Heb. 6 v 13-20). If their will is in line with His they will start to experience His heaven while still on earth (Is. 65, Lk. 15 v 13-22, Jn. 15 v 4-11, 1 Jn. 2 v 15-17).

DO JUSTLY, LOVE MERCY, WALK HUMBLY (Micah 6 v 8)

In Luke 15 v 28-32 a father gambled a third of his wealth to let go of his hell-bent, self indulgent son in the hope it would reformed him. It worked! Like that father God lets his children make a mess of their lives in the hope that they will return to Him forever. The father's eldest son (Is. 14 v 14, Heb. 2 v 5, Jas. 4 v 3-11) served him for self-centred reward. He did not know or love his loving father but judged him in his hard heart as very mean.

Legalism turns sons into servants (Mt. 15 v 8-9, Jn. 8 v 35, Gal. 3 v 10-13, Rom. 10 v 3). The self-justified see the Father as an unjust despot so they do not know His love and His desire to give them all He owns (Gen. 4 v 8, Jn. 3 v 16-20, 1 Jn. 1 v 10, 3 v 14-16). They miss the purpose of this short testing life.

Our sanity depends on having an ultimate purpose. The self centred have pointless lives. Like an animal self survivalists only exist as part of a food chain. Proud, god-less, melancholic Schopenhauer deduced that Darwin's self perfecting man is not possible (Lk. 18 v 14) so his life was a meaningless accident. Yet his inbuilt desire for a purpose proved that there must be one. Nietzsche dreamt one up but his ultimate god-man goes mad and self destructed. He inspired Hitler who proved him right!

Only proud fools accept the authority of a guru who proves he is wrong (Col. 2 v 8-23, Rev. 13 v 15-17). These introverted, genie-inspired geniuses proved that we have not the capacity to be self determined gods. Our nature was designed to be reliant on our creator. The unblessed are driven to fill the void by blessing self. Our god substitutes (Php. 3 v 19-21) are the props that we turn to when life gets us down (food, drink, drugs, worry beads, etc... ). Schopenhauer sought fleeting solace from soul stirring music. If your pride stops you seeking the Father's love and forgiveness you will be eternally bereft.

You need to cry to God to save you before you lose your free will at death. All who are sorry for wasting their inheritance and confess their sin against the Father and cry to Him for mercy before they die (Ps. 126, Acts 2 v 37-39) will experience His love. They are freely redeemed but the terrible cost to the Father's love is beyond measure or comprehension (Mt. 12 v 20, Jn. 3 v 16-19, 34-36, 1 Pt. 1 v 19). Jesus, as the sinless "lamb of God," died as a sinner on the gallows to buy back from Satan all the enslaved who repent and turn back to God as their Father (Jn. 14 v 23, Rom. 10 v 8-13, Eph. 2 v 4-9). As he died Jesus cried out "it is paid in full" (Jn. 19 v 30, Heb. 10 v 10-18).

God made us lower than angels for a reason (Heb. 1 v 14, 2 v 7-10). Only the humble who bow to Jesus as their lord can be made compatible with a holy God (Php. 2 v 3-11). Only he bridges the gulf between the Father's infinite nature and His finite creations (Rom. 3 v 20-26, Heb. 2 v 14-18, 6 v 17-20).

Without a saviour our limited, temporal state is pointless and hopeless. It is vital that the lost seek and find him (Ezk. 18 v 20-24, Jn. 15, Rom. 8). A country, which for over 1500 years has drawn its core values from God's Word, now says they are the opposite (Satan's hallmark). They are rejected because they require you to believe His first law (Jn. 8 v 7, 9 v 12-41).

Only God's laws are just and merciful. The blinded world is about to succumb to tyranny. Those who ignore God's warnings and accept the lies of demons (Ps. 14, Dan. 4 v 35, 5 v 30, Col. 2 v 8-23) experience hell even on earth. Without His help many self-survivors despair of life and want to die (Rom. 7 v 24)! They are breathing in the soporific smoke from Darwin's and Freud's tares (Mt. 13 v 24-30). Their faith is based on make believe (Gen. 3 v 4-5, Rom. 1 v 18-32, 2 Thess. 2 v 9-12, Rev. 22 v 15): truth is swapped for lies.

They claim chaos is our maker yet know the universe is governed by entropy so their whole life is based on deceit. Darwin's law of 'Survival of the Fittest' is used to justify breaking God's laws for survival (Lk. 16 v 31)! Schopenhauer, Marx and Nietzsche inspired Freud and two World Wars. They swap the rule of love for the rule of death (Gen. 11 v 6-7, Heb. 2 v 15).

Airbrushed news, fears, pleasure and pastimes are used to sway, rob and enslave the unwary. Dangers that led people to repent and pray for God's help (Jonah 3) are now sad silences for reflecting on their hopeless state. They have no solid faith to stand on so when evil comes in like a flood (Is. 59 v 19) all that they built their life on will be washed away (Lk. 6 v 48). The freedoms won by those who died to defend them are being lost to bullies.

Individual free will, love, hope, joy and peace are swapped for conflict. The worship of mammon (Baal), enforced by a religious police, is nigh (Jer. 2 v 19, 27-28)! Desperate needs cause many to turn to Him to help them but the guilty have banned preaching of the good news; that salvation from sin and death is possible by accepting Jesus, God's promised Saviour, as your Lord.

Tepid Christians (Jn. 3 v 6, Rom. 6 v 4-6, 8 v 9, 1 Tim. 1 v 7-10, Rev. 3 v 15-19) do not experience his new life because they want him to preserve their dying life. They empathise with desperate sinners emotionally and offer them self love. Human love does not alter their hell bound predicament: it feeds it (Lk. 9 v 60, 11 v 39-43, 52-54, Rom. 7 & 8, Rev. 21 v 8).

Fulfilling only the temporal needs of the lost is like offering the 'swineherd husks' (Lk. 15 v 16). It just extends their hopeless state (Lk. 5 v 36-37, 6 v 46-49, Jas. 1 v 22-25). Repentance involves turning from your ways to God's. Your self-saving ways call God a liar (1 Jn 1 v 8-10). You need to submit your futile, self improving ways to death with Jesus' humanity (Php. 2 v 8-12, Jas. 1 v 27, 4 v 6-12). You can only help others to be saved by presenting them with the Father's life, love and will (1 Jn. 1 v 3-10).

SERVANTS OF SIN OR SONS OF GOD (Jn. 8 v 31-36, 1 Jn. 3 v 10)

You are only accepted as righteous if you rely on the death of a substitute to cover your sinful nature (Rom. 7 & 8). Only those who identify their futile, corrupt, death-cursed life (Rom. 5 v 18-21) with the human death of God's second Adam can draw near to the Father (Heb. 10 v 10-22, 12 v 22-25).

They will be raised in his image as the Father's children (Acts 2 v 37-38, Rom. 8 v 1-11, Jas. 4 v 6-10). They begin as a 'work in progress' (1 Cor. 2 v 11-16, Eph. 1 v 5-14, 2 v 1-18, Php. 1 v 6, Heb. 6 v 12). Babies in Christ they do not become completely god-minded overnight. As they absorb his mind set they start to experience his relationship with the Father (Lk. 11 v 2, Jn. 1 v 12-14, 3 v 6, 16-21, 14 v 2-6, 1 Cor. 15 v 47-50).

All things work together for the good of them that love and believe God (Rom. 8 v 28-39). It is simple: just submit to the conviction of his Holy Spirit in place of your unholy one (Heb. 4 v 9-16, 12 v 2-15, 1 Jn. 5 v 1-5, Rev. 3 v 19-21) and he will replace your self destructive thinking with Jesus' thinking (Jn. 15 v 7, Rom. 8 v 2). When your body finally dies you rest in Jesus' presence until you are raised (Job. 19 v 25-29, Jn. 3 v 14-19, Rom. 5 v 17-19, Rev. 6 v 9-11).

What depth of love planned the death of Jesus (Jn. 3 v 16)? Your response must be total (Jn. 14 v 23-26, 15 v 9-17, Eph. 4 v 22-32). You cannot have one foot on the rescue boat and one on the sinking ship and be safe. If, like Lot's wife, you go back to get something off the 'old ship' you will not make it (Ps. 50 v 15-17, 23, Lk. 8 v 11-15, 9 v 23-26, 18 v 23, Rom. 8 v 5-8).

Your security from now into eternity depends on knowing that God alone is good. You must learn to trust Him in every situation (Ezra 8 v 22-23, Job. 13 v 15-16). You do not test God, He tests you (1 Sam. 16 v 7). Your commitment is tested under challenging conditions (Lk. 4, 9 v 57-62).

To be part of his love centred life (1 Sam. 15 v 19-26, Jas. 1 v 2-8) your faith in him must be all or nothing. Faith in another even if based on past experience, is a not underwritten by God (Acts 19 v 13). The double minded (Mk. 6 v 5-6, Jn. 10 v 25-39) remain led by their carnal emotions. Their familiar alter ego numbs their volition by confusing their senses with repetitive beat, chant and soporific substances (Gen. 3 v 17-19, Jas. 1 v 5-8).

The cure is in the daily 'washing' of God's Word (Is. 26 v 3, 9, Lk. 12 v 28-32, 34, Jn. 13 v 8-10, Eph. 5 v 26) and in singing anointed songs. God inhabits the praises of His people (Ps. 22 v 3, Jn. 4 v 23). When sin and doubt condemn you, faith in the certainty of Jesus' words and works defeats them (Jn. 14 v 6, Rom. 8 v 10-15, Eph. 4 v 14-24, 6 v 11-17, 1 Jn. 1 v 7-9, 3 v 20). True faith is in a person not an abstract belief, hope or theory. Hope is faith in a word that will be fulfilled not now but in the future. Faith in God's words gives substance to an assured gift before it is seen (Lk. 7 v 7, Heb. 11 v 1-6).

Misuse of God's words turn His 10 safety laws from blessings into curses (Ex. 20, Deut. 28, Rom. 2 v 12-16, 6 v 23, 2 Thess. 1 v 6-12). False persuasions do not change reality; they just create psychosomatic problems.

No. 4. Keep a set time, when you do no work, to nurture your inner life. That could be leisure activities, football, reading the papers, TV, meditation, painting the house. God and life after death are not real so forget about Him until the terror of death warns you, too late, that hell awaits you.

No. 5. Why honour your parents when they have let you down or will not give you more of their hard earned money until after they are dead? Their sacrifices in caring for you were to please them! Caring for them when they are infirm (even when it is with their money) is best served by euthanasia (2 Tim. 3 v 2). Self survivalists cannot afford the selfless care seen even with animals.

No. 6. Survivalists who are their own god react violently when crossed. Political parties lie and threaten one another with violence if a vote does not go their way. When Health Services become based on survival of the fittest and money instead of compassion, culling will be legal.

No. 7. Casual sex is okay! Yet it ruins lives and the special oneness of marriage, both before and after a marriage. Asexual souls are accepted and loved by God (Is. 56 v 3-5) but the promiscuous, sodomites and bestial are self cursed (Deut. 14 v 3, 23 v 17, Rom. 1 v 24-32, 1 Tim. 3 v 2-3, Rev. 21 v 8). Exercise, diets and banning meat eating will not save you (1 Tim. 4 v 1-8).

No. 8. Robbery and scams, that take other people's money from them, are fine as long as you can get around the law. Repentance is being sorry because you are caught (Mt. 27 v 3). Pity lets you do it again.

No. 9. Correctness is bent truth. Lying in support of a false claim is just a difference of opinion, excuse by saying it is down to a personality clash or they are prejudiced against you. The result is injustice (Gen. 11 v 7).

No. 10. Life is fearful and pointless so live for pleasure in a virtual unreality. Socialism should be based on love. It has become "I want what he has" so I spend until my bank owns me. Envy is Satan's sin; coveting is man's.

Pinocchio's pleasure Island turns self abusive souls into enslaved asses! Those who claim the right do whatever they like must silence those whom they offend. Marxist multiculturalism gives human rights to wrong doers purely to defy God's Laws and foster evil (Rom. 1 v 22)!

Questioning God's omniscience perverts every truth (Gen. 3 v 3-4, Rom. 8 v 7, 20-21). The Courts are used to criminalize those who uphold God's values. Politically correct (religious) police arrest people, who have a statutory right to voice their beliefs while crime is flourishing due to the lack of detection and deterrent. Children kill children for nothing.

Schopenhauer's abysmal, psychopathic belief that life is a meaningless accident is imposed in schools as truth. It is coupled with Freud's drug induced, psychic revelation that the male psyche is ruled by a female spirit called Psyche. Her sex centred, psychiatric priests now want to minister drugs to the children in every school who are lost in Cybele's cloud.

Infants are now groomed by sexually perverts in school to protect them from perverts on-line. They are seduced by ads, the occult, evil people and forbidden sex. They lose their free but it is called a mental illness. If life is meaningless, sinful people are not culpable but sick, so mind doctors drug them. Drugs are now prescribed to millions of tormented souls not to free them but to bind them! Using evil to combat evil creates more evil.

Wittgenstein warned their philosophy was illogical and based on vain assumptions (Rom. 1 v 20-22) but pride turns wise men into fools (Is. 5 v 20-21). Who gains from this madness (Mt. 11 v 24-30)? Self serving organisations do not serve others but steal their rights. Towering banks, built of glass cards, use our cash as if it is theirs (Rev. 13 v 15-17). They have lent each pound to too many people. Since the 2008 crash the debts of individuals and governments have doubled; the available riches have not.

The worship of money and property (Rev. 9 v 20-21) is derived from Cush (Hermes = of Ham) and the rule of Nimrod or Chaos (of Cush) the tyrant who set up the first UN at Babel, which collapsed due to disagreement. Imposed unity causes conflict instead of order. "Those whose rule is unassailable can do what they like and no one can stop them, so let us disrupt their pyramid order and confuse their edicts so they disperse" (Gen. 11 v 6-8).

We were created, as finite beings, as an extension of God's life. Only He has the infinite love that our nature cries for. Godless egoists seek love but live with fear and rejection. They dodge the truth by idolising a picture-perfect lady or a super man. Pride tells them that if they improved their self-centred life they would evade corruption (Lk. 18 v 9). They ignore what the mirror, their doctor and God's laws tell them (Mt. 6 v 14-16, 15 v 11-19, Rom. 8 v 5-9, Gal. 3 v 22).

They urgently need to gain a new life before they lose their old life (Jn. 3 v 3-6). All who admit that their inherited, self-sustained and determined life is doomed and cry to the Father's for forgiveness and mercy will be saved (Rom. 5 v 19, 8 v 1-2, 1 Jn. 1 v 9-10). Salvation is foolproof but not pride proof.

The Father loves the sinner but hates the sin. He sent the Lord of Life (Php. 2 v 5-16) as a servant to die in place of all who accept him as their Lord and Saviour. The repentant are tested (Ps. 81 v 9-16, 13, Php. 1 v 6, Jas. 1 v 2-5). The genuine then receive the promise of a new life as a gift of assured faith (Gen. 15 v 8-11, Jn. 14 v 23, Eph. 1 v 7-14). They exchange their dying life for his risen life (Jer. 24 v 7, Rom. 6 v 3-14, Col. 2 v 9-13, 1 Pt. 2 v 24-25).

BAD EGGS

Jesus' sacrifice cuts the hold that sin has over their dying Adamic nature (Gal. 3 v 10-12, Col. 2 v 8-15). Those who identify their human nature as dead with Christ's human death, through baptism (Is. 53 v 12, Lk. 9 v 24, Acts 3 v 38, Rom. 6 v 3, 23) are God-breathed again by His Spirit (Gen. 2 v 7, 25, Acts 19 v 6, Rom. 8 v 11-17, Eph. 1 v 11-14). His indwelling does the reforming that they cannot do (Ps. 91, Is. 52 v 15, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10, 3 v 22, Heb. 6 v 1, 12-18). His love weans them from their death and sin centred existence (1 Cor. 3 & 6 v 10-17, Eph. 5 v 26, Php. 1 v 6) back to their Father's promised heaven. They will love him for saving them from their godless state (Lk. 23 v 40).

Those made clean by faith in God's second Adam cannot be made unclean again (Acts 10 v 15, Rom. 5 v 17-21, Heb. 6 v 1-6, 13-19, 1 Jn. 2 v 4-6, 5 v 3). Their future now is in his hands (Rom. 8 v 11-17, 28, Jude 24). He is all knowing, all righteous, perfect and true. He loves, forgives and blesses the humble.

The self survivalists who accept the lies of their chosen god and defend their vain ways (Heb. 12, Jas. 1 v 22, 4 v 10) are on their own. They retain their joyless, craving, sin and death ruled nature forever (Job. 42 v 1-7, 10, Mk. 9 v 43-48). Proud, rebellious fools believe a liar (Jer. 14 v 9-12, 2 Thess. 2 v 3-4). They accept Satan's lie: "Do whatever you like; what God says does not matter" (Gen. 2 v 17, 3 v 5, Mt. 13 v 31-32, Lk. 21 v 8, 34-36, 1 Cor. 5 v 6, 1 Tim. 4 v 1-2).

Spoilt self-indulgent egos reject God's warnings and swap free will for the excesses of 'Bacchus' worship. They do not produce joy, love or happiness but a climate of fear, disorder and senseless destruction. They then blame God that the life they choose is pointless and ruled by a fear of death. God's love sent Jesus to suffer the cross to save them but they hate him without a cause (Jn. 15 v 24-26). They are guilty of breaking all the rules in the maker's handbook (Gen. 6 v 12, 9 v 11) yet think they can save their defiled lives and planet!

Instead of trusting in the poured out life blood of Jesus the self justified curse themselves (Ps. 2 v 12, 1 Jn. 4 v 1-3). They happily put their trust and give their 'tithe' to some pension sales man with a better car than their's but ignore God's free, eternal savings scheme. How much of this is because God's salesmen are more interested in getting the nice car?

Many religious people believe in Jesus but they want him to enrich their self determined life instead of seeking his new life (Gen. 2 v 17, Rom. 8, Php. 3 v 7-19). They preach Satan's self survival gospel (Ezk. 14 v 13-14, Gal. 1 v 6-9, 3 v 1) and build their Anti Christ kingdom on Earth. They hold anti-Bible studies in which their spirited, nihilistic gurus subvert God's words (1 Kg. 22 v 23-25, Mt. 23 v 33-36, Jn. 8 v 43-47, 2 Pt. 2, 1 Jn. 4). Their words will turn into ashes in their mouths (Is. 66). Their self saving, justified and excused life is corrupt and predestined to die (Lk. 8 v 12-14, 17 v 21, Lk. 19 v 41-44).

Carnal Christians are united in presenting Jesus as still dead on the cross and the freeing work of the Holy Spirit as threatening (Lev. 20, 26, Ezk. 22, Mt. 12 v 30-37, 2 Thess. 2 v 8-10, Heb. 2 v 15-18, Rev. 6). Their party spirit (Gal. 1 v 8, Rev. 1 v 4, 20) equates soulish emotions with spiritual feelings (Gen. 3 v 6, Rom. 8 v 6-13) and promotes the 'doctrines of demons' as harmless (Acts. 5 v 3, 7 v 51). They use a man as their mediator in place of Jesus (1 Sam. 8 v 17, 10 v 18-19, Rom. 8 v 9-13)! At best they are saved under Ezekiel 18.

Jesus said it will be "as with Noah and Lot" (Lk. 17 v 26-30, 18 v 8): no widespread repentance and revival (Gen. 6 v 3-7, 11-13, 1 Kg. 19 v 15-18, Lk. 18 v 8). He has ordered the spirits that watch over the churches (Rev. 1 v 20) to separate Satan's planted, self-pleasing look-alikes (Mt. 13 v 37-43, Rev. 1 v 7) into bundles for burning (Mt. 7 v 21-25, 10 v 40, 13 v 30, 15 v 12-14, Jude 10-23). The differences which were blurred are now clear. Apostates churches have stopped pretending to believe the scriptures while aghast believers hold onto them for dear life (1 Cor. 2 v 12-14).

The tepid ignore God's warnings (1 Pt. 4 v 17) and accept the soporific ideas of their self pleasing, excusing and saving alter egos (1 Kg. 22 v 19-25, Mt. 25 v 33, Rom. 7, 2 Cor. 11 v 13-15, 4, 1 Tim. 4 v 1, Rev. 1 v 4, 20, 3 v 1):

1. Don't worry. Do what you think is okay. Stay self-motivated and retain control of your thinking: 1 Cor. 10 v 11-13, Jas. 1).
2. Relax: sleep! All will be solved in an end time revival (1 Thess. 5 v 2-9).
3. Persecution (when Satan has control!) is good for believers!

Jonah reveals the secret of God's grace (Jon. 2 v 7-10, Mt. 16 v 3-4): repent, even at the very last minute and you will be saved (2 Chr. 7 v 13-14, Mt. 20 v 15-16, Lk. 23 v 41-43, Jas. 4 v 4-10). Before the darkness descends He will shine the light of His Gospel on all (Ezk. 39 v 6-8, Mt. 2 v 4, 11-14, 1 Thess. 5 v 1-11). Sadly the lax will wake up when it is too late (Mt. 25 v 6-12).

God is not vengeful but merciful. Millions are saved in the terror that follows who with just a little more faith could have turned to Jesus while they were still relatively comfortable (Mt. 25 v 8-9, Lk. 16 v 25, Rev. 6 v 10). The Righteous Judge then returns, crushes Satan's rebellion and throws him into prison. All those left alive on Earth welcome Jesus' as their King (Is. 65 v 20-25) so demons lose their mandate and death ousted.

They then enjoy his glorious 1000 year kingdom of heaven on earth (Mt. 24 v 29, 36). The good live for the whole period (Is. 25 v 8, Rev. 20 v 3-6). Only those who reject Jesus' rule, provision and healing die. As belief in God is no longer based on free will none are baptized into Jesus death or saved by faith until the final death at the end when Satan is released to test their loyalty (Ezk. 18 v 26-32, Lk. 4 v 2, Rev. 20 v 7-10, 21 v 6-9). Countless millions rebel and chose to follow their base self-centred feelings.

A live now and forget tomorrow society, based on self gratification and gain (Is. 14 v 10-12) is hiding from the reality of its tomorrow (Prov. 8 v 35-36, Heb. 2 v 15). Those who reject God's written guidance and accept that of the bad god at the top of their food chain (Jer. 2 v 27-30, Rom. 8 v 18-25) think they can save themselves and their world from the result of their sin (1 Kg. 22 v 8)!

Freud said sin is not real as man-made codes are mutable. God's laws are not so they suffer wars, man-made disasters (Mt. 24 v 7, Lk. 13 v 1-9) and the savage attacks of nature. Only His love can save them.

The Greeks were even more perverse. They had the Gnostic idea that they were spirit-beings trapped in a body (Gen. 3 v 5). After death, the inferior were recycled, but the elite became free spirits again. These super-egos were not supernatural but sexually rampant. Mixed up adolescent 'heroes' married their mothers; fathers married their daughters; daughters sought sex with spirits and animals. Children were sold for sexual exploitation. They idolized the phallus! The conduct of frustrated thinkers with meaningless lives is dumber than a natural dumb beasts (Rom. 1 v 20-24). Super-egos are perverse.

Like seeing a ship under full sail or an eagle soaring in the sky, there is beauty, joy and wonder in the way a loving young couple act together as one (Prov. 30 v 19). Happiness depends on unity (Eph. 4) but those who just seek self gratification from sex destroy the unity God intended in marriage. God hates unnatural, rapacious, sexual acts (Is. 56 v 4-5, Jude 7) which are abusive. Adultery, divorce and rebellion are now the norm in many families.

Those who swap family unity for discord turn God's order into hell on Earth (Gen. 6 v 5). The secular (atheistic) doctrine, that their creator is the life force in Nature, is imposed on children in schools. Infants are taught sexual freedom is natural and good and not that a lack of self respect and control has trashed the idea of love in a secure family that their health depends on.

They are exposed to the cyber-cloud where personal exposures, gambling, drugs, the occult and evil are presented as fun. They are fed graphic pornography, violent games and occult stories based on real curses that conjure up demons. They are taught they must choose what sex they want to have (Rom. 1 v 18-32) just when faced with the physical changes that their XX or XY chromosomes dictate. It is called anthropological grooming. As with the Hitler Youth program, parents' wishes are annulled.

NHS surgeons now physically mutilate women who think they are men and men who think they are women. In most cases it is not a physical disorder but a mental or spiritual one. Mutilation is now offered to immature minors! When older the defrauded should sue the surgeons who must have known better. Other spirit worshippers, who cut female genitalia, are put in prison! The seducers make billions and the NHS is bankrupted.

Freud knew that his obsession with sex and demons (Britannica; 2008) was driven by a real ego called Psyche. Like the sexually aberrant shamans and alchemists, he used drugs to gain hidden (occult) knowledge from her dream world. Hence Psyche's priests' cannot release a non-medical, bipolar person from their demon so they use mind altering currents and drugs to switch off the person (Mt. 15 v 19). Yet many minds become dominated by the voice of an alter ego as a result of heavy drinking and narcotics.

Pornography performed by Psyche's liberated women is invasive. Many girls equate sex with having a good time. They dress scantily and are on the pill then seem surprised that men see them just as sexual objects. They have degraded themselves and debased motherhood (Prov. 5 v 3-10, 30 v 20-23, 31 v 10). The 'pill' is discharging so much oestrogen that men and livestock are losing their maleness. Godless fertility/sex worship produces barrenness!

Women are now induced to take on rolls that deter them from having children. Equal pay = stop menstruation = become a eunuch. Those who put their jobs first and want abortion on demand, then suffer a lifetime of regret. Abortion is not like having a tooth out: the mother is left bereaved and in mourning, with a guilt scarred conscience for life (Ps. 139 v 13, Lk. 1 v 44). The birth rate is now too low to sustain our economies. Satan's aim is to stop God's prescribed number of gentile believers being achieved (Lk. 21 v 24, Jn. 21 v 11, Rom. 11 v 20-25) by making us self-destruct.

A woman has rights over her body; to decide if or when she becomes pregnant. However, once pregnant, a mother does not have the right to abuse her child's rights. Millions of babies are killed world wide every week for entirely selfish reasons (about 4000/ wk. in UK: Gov. Stats.). God the Father hears their silent screams (Gen. 4 v 10, Rev. 6 v 10). The Rainbow Covenant applies: a life for a life (Ezk. 23 v 44-48). The Blood of Jesus atones, but only for the repentant.

The College of Midwives now want to kill unwanted babies even after birth. Would you trust a State Registered Killer to deliver your baby (Ex. 1 v 16)? Might naming the lucrative harvesting of baby tissue the 'Rumpledstillskin' industry and subjecting it to farming regulations help thwart it? A National Death Service which kills millions of nameless babes will next be an abattoir for the infirm, then the politically incorrect. Doctors are not gods: those who bow to Darwin's food-chain ideology become one of its disposable animals.

Resentful, liberated feminists have undermined mans' natural love and respect for his mother, his wife and his baby, yet this is the main cause of their anguish. They do not want equality with men; they want men be equal to women. Women must foster the authority of their men to be protected by them (Eph. 5 v 17-24). Men must take responsibility for all life's problems (Num. 30 v 8) then women might see men as protectors instead of spoilt little boys.

GOD THE MOTHER'S BREAST FED BOYS AND DEGRADED GIRLS (Rev. 17 & 18)

Absent or weak fathers have sons who stay 'mummy's boys'. The spoilt boy stays adolescent and tends to think and behave like a mum instead of a dad. His sister feels unprotected by her over-loaded mother and ineffectual father. To reduce her fears, she does not want to rely on unreliable, childish, men but wants to control them (2 Chr. 22 v 3, 10, Dan. 11 v 37).

When men obey women in place of God (1 Cor. 11 v 3, 10, 27) a spirit called god the mother takes control (Gen. 3 v 17, Rom. 7 v 24). Her priestesses take spiritual authority over immature, self indulgent men (1 Kg. 21 v 4-11). Like Jezebel they seduce the will of the naive with emotional feelings, carnal appeals, induced guilt, lies and false promises (Gen. 3 v 6, Prv. 7 v 21-23, Rom. 1 v 25-26). She enslaves and abuses her children to save herself.

She empowers women through the worship of sex. Under her phallic pole or 'tree of life' all sorts abuses are permitted (2 Kg. 17 v 10-11). Her intoxicating, snake-like kiss lures simple youths into a pornographic dream world, 'over the rainbow', where witches reign and God is seen as a powerless old fraud (2 Kg. 9 v 30-33, Prv. 5 v 3-11). All fantasy involves oneness with a real but venomous phantom. Sex idolaters (Jer. 17 v 1-2) pick up self-consuming obsessions. Hopelessness, hate and fear reign.

Adultery, wholesale abortion, promiscuity and fatherless or motherless marriages with bought in babies (Eph. 5 v 7-12) are now accepted as normal! Those who fantasize about children and want to sexualise them in infant schools are wed to Freud's corrupt demon named Psyche (Jer. 13 v 10, 27, Rom. 1 v 18, 32, 1 Tim. 3 v 1 to 4 v 1, Jude 11, Rev. 2 v 14, 20-24).

Physical harlotry is a sign of spiritual harlotry (Ex. 34 v 15-16, Num. 25, 1 Kg. 11, Rom. 1 v 29-32). The self-determined and elevated who defend their sins by attacking God's words are divisive (Ezk. 39 v 7-8). There is no place for them in His secure home in which His love, peace and hope reign (Rom. 8 v 14-17, Rev. 3 v 19-22, 22 v 14-17). Only faith in God's truth fosters unity. Those divorced from truth forfeit His protection (Lk. 17 v 2, Rev. 18 v 2-11).

Intercourse outside of marriage is automatically ungodly. Corinth was a trade hub and a centre for the worship of Venus, which involved sacred (legalised) prostitutes. Marriage was casual: one man was sleeping with his step-mother (1 Cor. 5 v 1-5)! God the Father sacrificed His Son to save and liberate His children: He is ready to forgive, cleanse and restore all who come to their senses ( Lk. 15 v 17-24, 2 Cor. 2 v 6-11, Eph. 5 v 31-32).

The Corinthian church was in chaos because it was dominated by emotional, spirit animated women. Paul ordered them in God's name, not to be 'silent' (1 Cor. 11 v 5) but 'self-controlled' (1 Cor. 14 v 27-28, 30-37).

THIS SKETCH WAS SCRATCHED ON A TILE FROM THE SITE OF SOLOMON'S TEMPLE.

GOD THE MOTHER (saviour from death by reproduction/reincarnation)

Queen of Heaven (the woman's god of Jer. 44 v 19-27)

Stellar Maris (Venus) . The Naked Lady

Semiramis, the mother of harlots (seductive domination masked as fertility via promiscuity)

wife of Nimrod & mother of Baal
sacrifice of 1st born gains her blessing.

GOD THE SON

King of the Earth

Amon

Cronus (Nimrod)

Reincarnated as Baal

Aries (ram's horn)

EVE

death is bypassed through her seed

kiss or bow
the sign of reconciliation between heaven and earth

e.g. Asherah & Baal
Jezebel & Ahab
Athaliah & son
Foreign wives & Solomon

CAIN

reborn crescent moon god as son of Venus / Mars collision myth god above the Earth but not the heavens men seek self-survival through pride, riches, fertility and violence, but subject to natural failures so bow down to and seek help from nature gods to stave off inevitable death

Jesus is the visible person of the infinite Father. Those who chose to share in His life and home are not enslaved but 'married' into his family. They seek to know and obey His will till they finally regain the joyful image that Adam lost (Jn. 14 v 23, Eph. 5 v 24-32, Heb. 2 v 9-11). Like him the proud try to conceal their errors by abasing God's Words. They conjure beliefs that excuse and glorify self (Mt. 4 v 2-10, Rom. 6 v 16, 22-23) yet enslave them to a cursed, natural world (Gen. 3 v 17-19, Rom. 8 v 21) which our climate calming rites only make worse (Deut. 28 v 17-18, 1 Kg. 18 v 18, Jer. 8 v 12-13).

The Father is secure enough to promise unending love (Rom. 8 v 35-39, Eph. 5 v 2, 26). He knows everything but does not cause everything. We decide on and generate the things we want to happen. We are free to choose: His love or death. He is always right. Those who defy Him are always wrong. They rebel against the Father by supporting Satan's claim to be the head or they bow to nature as their creator (Deut. 28 v 44-48, Is. 14 v 17, Rev. 12 v 4).

The superior do not want the weak to know they are shams. The world is in a mess due to the mystic spiritualist Plato. His spirits fooled him into believing he was an asexual spirit trapped in a base body. In fact without a body he would be asexual but dead (Lk. 20 v 34-36). Sex is physical; marriage ends on death (Gal. 3 v 26) yet doctors now cut out sexual organs to combat the spiritual fantasies of those who fee/they are trapped in the wrong body.

False prophets (Rev. 2 v 14) have seduced a generation with Darwin's permissive, god in nature (Gen. 6 v 11, Jer. 3 v 1-5, Rom. 1 v 22-32). Many buy their dud offer of "do what you feel is good and you will feel good" (Gen. 3 v 5, Ps. 2). Millions try to escape from their pointless lives by living for highs.

Spirit awareness results from blowing or voiding your will and physical senses. Freud raised his 'voices' by dulling his senses with drugs. Like some medieval alchemist he believed his nagual or familiar spirit held the secrets about his primeval nature (Rom. 7 v 15, 2 Cor. 10 v 2-5). He masked the source of his false wisdom by calling his resident voice his alter ego (Jn. 13 v 27, Acts 5 v 3-4, Gal. 3 v 1). He said all the things God has warned will kill you are harmless (Gen. 2 v 17, Deut. 5). Mystic fantasies (addictions) are now fed to children as harmless fun while the truth about salvation is censored.

The spirit that bedeviled Freud called Psyche presents nice feelings as love. Her priests and therapists bypass God's Saviour and usher souls into hell (Mt. 5 v 13). They lure the unwise away from the light of the truth (Rom. 7 v 15, 24-25) into a forlorn maze (Mt. 15 v 12-19, Jn. 8 v 40-45, 2 Tim. 3 v 1-9 1 Jn. 3 v 12). Those hooked on drink, drugs, yoga, sex, self harming and emotional trauma are treated with mind blanking drugs that block the exit.

Temptations presented as 'naughty but nice' have a sting in their tail (Jas. 1 v 4-15). The spirit you acquire that stifles your soul is not yours (Lk. 11 v 24). Those tormented by their inner voices are treated with electric currents that switch off the persons free will and turn on their alter ego's evil mind games (Gen. 19 v 11, 1 Kg. 22 v 22, 2 Kg. 6 v 18, 2 Cor. 4 v 4, Rev. 12 v 9). They accept the lord of death's proven lies (Gen. 3 v 4, 19, Is. 42 v 3-21) and think Jesus' undeniable victory over death is a myth (Lk. 21 v 24, 24 v 44-48).

The names of those subject to spirits are written in hell; not heaven. Many preach if we love one another all will be OK (1 Cor 6 v 9-11). Egoistic love is Satan's cult gospel (Jn. 8 v 44-47). Meditation, mesmerism and relaxing sensual therapies that dull the will make you dopey not better. Only Jesus' Spirit can save them (1 Jn. 4 v 4). Whosoever shall call upon the name of Jesus for salvation shall be saved (Rom. 10 v 13). Humble fasting and prayer or talking to God is sincere (Job. 42 v 3-6): asceticism and self perfection is vain. Why is this not preached in more churches (Lk. 10 v 15-20)? Because they favour monastic Buddhism or have faith in god the mother to save them.

Read Dr E S Williams book: The Dark Side of Counselling. Freudian doctors juggle with obsessions but cannot free people with disturbed mental states. Like Ghost Busters they use physical devices to treat spiritual problems. They switch off the person to silence their phantom (Acts 19 v 14-17, Jude 8-11) until the buried spiritual roots become near impossible to unearth.

The answer to Paul's cry "What a wretched man I am! Who shall save me from this living death?" is through Jesus' death (Rev. 6 v 8-11). God's first law is to love and trust the Lord with all your heart, mind and actions (Is. 54 v 5, Lk. 10 v 27). This is the only proper response from those saved from death by faith in God's unfathomable love for the lost (1 Jn. 4 v 10-19).

Only God's love can save the lost. He will present His truth to all nations for His names sake, then the end will come (Ezk. 20 v 21-25, Mt. 24 v 11-14). Those who believe and trust in Him (Lk. 17 v 26-30, 1 Thess. 4 v 17-18, 5 v 2-9) will be 'married away' (2 Thess. 2 v 7). Those who worship Chaos as their creator will become so bedeviled that death is preferred to life (Rev. 9 v 6).

The count down has begun (Lk. 21 v 28, 24). Many countries are ruled by evil men. When all left on earth accept Satan as their saviour (Gen. 3 v 19) It will control all life on Earth (Job. 1, Rev. 12 v 8-12). Hitler's hell on Earth was tame in comparison (Rev. 9 v 18-21). An Alien Lord from the stars is already expected by the living dead who hope to rule with him (2 Thess. 2 v 7-12).

After Ezekiel 38 is over a charismatic Jew surfaces as It's god-man. He charms the Jews into thinking he is their Messiah and orders the rebuilding of the Temple in Jerusalem (Dan. 9 v 27). In mid reign he puts his throne in it as God ( 2 Thess. 2 v 3-12, Rev. 11 v 2, 13 v 4-15).

Unlike the seductive, cloaked (occult), evil spirits (Rom. 7, 2 Cor. 4 v 4, 12, Eph. 2 v 1-3), God's Holy Spirit is enlightening (Jn. 8 v 32). He does not promote himself (Lk. 1 v 35, Jn. 14 v 26, 16 v 7, 13, Rom. 8 v 2, 9-11, 39) but represents the thinking of the Servant King (1 Cor. 2 v 16, Php. 2 v 5-11) who is the Lord of all creation (Col. 1 v 12-19). HE IS HOLY. To receive him you must gain Jesus' righteousness by asking him to come into your life as your Lord (Mt. 8 v 13).

The genuine receive his life by faith as a gift of assurance from the Holy Spirit (Lk. 12 v 32, 17 v 21, Eph. 4 v 8-16). The double minded receive nothing (Jas. 1 v 5-8). Those who want feelings and signs first are faithless (Jer. 17 v 9). Christianity is not a life insurance policy, an ideology or sociology, but a humble, personal walk with the lover and saver of your hopeless soul (Mic. 6 v 6-8, Rom. 7 v 24). Only those who seek to obey the will of the Father can be reinstated as His children (Rom. 9 v 13, 9, Heb. 11, Lk. 11 v 2, 1 Jn. 1 v 3-10).

Satan is the lord of liars (Gen. 3 v 4-7, Lk. 4 v 5-7, Jn. 8 v 44). The suggestions of alter egos are always contrary to God's will (Gen. 3 v 5, Lk. 4 v 5-8). Like Cain (Jude 10) many think that accepting them gives them a hidden (occult) advantage (Jn. 12 v 31, 13 v 27, Acts 5 v 3, Rom. 7 & 8) but they are cursed and never happy or content (Is. 58 v 6-12, Lk. 9 v 25-26, 19 v 7-10).

The liberty of enticing spirits relies on them keeping their hosts ignorant of the truth (Lk. 4 v 34, 10 v 17). The dead give-away? All Satan's ideas are never viable alternatives but just the opposite of God's (Jn. 8 v 43-47). We are chastised by events that neither man nor Satan can change so that all will know that only the Most High rules over the affairs of men and frustrates Satan's will (Deut. 28 v 15-67, Dan. 4 v 25-35, Lk. 8 v 23-25, 28-29).

Those who do repent and claim the blood of the Lamb of God are restored (Job. 1 v 10, Col. 2 v 15-19, 2 Thess. 2 v 6-12, Rev. 12 v 10-11). Those subject to Jesus' directions as their Lord can exercise his authority over Satan. It is backed by the power of his Spirit (Lk. 10 v 17-21, Rom. 8 v 37, 16 v 20, Jude 9). To block this (Rev. 18 v 23, 19 v 16-21) Satan puts ambivalent men under the authority of powerful women (Gen. 3 v 12, 1 Cor. 11 v 10, Rev. 17 v 4-6).

Satan recreated Eve as God the Mother. She indulges society's self-consuming desires (Gen. 3 v 4-6, Lk. 19 v 46, Rom. 1 v 21-26, 7 v 24, Jude 4) which overpower the will, numb the mind and confuse the truth. Under her 'tree of wisdom' God's laws for life are inverted (Jer. 2 v 20, 1 Jn. 2 v 16-17, 4 v 1-6): love, joy and peace become self centred and abusive; misery, murder and fear are entertaining and self-destructive sins are nice. They 'live to eat; not eat to live'. Lust, greed and over production have spiritually, morally and physically polluted everything including the air we breath.

We inherit a life that decays like a branch (Jn. 15 v 4-6) is cut off from its life source (Mt. 9 v 20). God promised Adam He would send a new man to die in his place (Gen. 3 v 15, 4 v 7). Those grafted into his 'root' (Jn. 15, Rom. 11 v 16) before they die inherit his risen life (Zech 3 v 1-7, Rom. 6 v 3-14, 23, Heb. 9 v 16).

Before the Cross, Abraham was reckoned as righteous because his trust and obedience was proven. Now those who loath the corruption they have inherited and are fully committed to Jesus' life, are not reckoned but made righteous (Rom. 8 v 4). Salvation is based on God's sworn promise, so they are eternally secure (Eph. 1 v 6-14, Col. 2 v 8-15, 2 Tim. 1 v 10, Heb. 6 v 17-20).

Believers need to grasp that the Holy Spirit is holy. He only bestow God's life as a gift of faith on those who truly put their trust in the death of God's sin offering (Acts 10 v 44, 19 v 5-6, 1 Cor. 15 v 47-58, Eph. 1 v 13-23, 2 v 8-9, Php. 1 v 6, 1 Jn. 2 v 23-27). Each has the choice (Rev. 3 v 19-20): to obey his prompts and regain the gift of God's breath that Adam threw away or obey the destroyer of life (Lk. 24 v 47, Acts 2 v 34-47, 10 v 42-44, 19 v 4-6).

THE LIGHT OVERCOMES THE DARKNESS (Jn. 1 v 4, 7 v 37-39, 12 v 46)

The survival of the best and the evolution of a master race of god-men, is a Greek myth. It is based on Satan's doctrine that introduce humanity to death (Gen. 3 v 4-5): "do what you think is good and after death you will transcend the earthly as a powerful spirit (like me). God's promise of eternal life is swapped for Darwin's hopeless self-survival based on self elevation. Those who act as god-men rob and kill for money and devastate the world.

Satan's followers use lies, coercion, fear and violence to capture agents. They become oppressed by a evil spirit (Acts 5 v 3, 1 Cor. 5, 13 v 1-5, 14 v 33, 37, 15 v 33-34, Rev. 19 v 9-10) and gain its divisive, permissive mind (Ezra 9, 11 v 10, 14 v 36, Jn. 8 v 31-41, Gal. 1 v 8-12, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10, Rev. 22 v 19). There is no way out of the egoist's, confusing, tomb-like, existential labyrinth (Mt. 24 v 11, 23-25).

The Word of God is profaned by those who pretend to be good (Lk. 6 v 46, Rom. 2 v 14, 24, 3 v 18-20). Religious people idolise a presenter who entertains them with Bible stories and human guesses (1 Cor. 2 v 12-14, 2 Cor. 10 v 12-18, 11 v 3-15, 2 Pt. 2 v 17-20, Jude 11-19). They are trapped in limbo because their spiritual feelings are inspired an alter ego (Gen. 3 v 5-6). They try to be good and so fall down the gulf between righteousness by faith in God's promises and Satan/Aristotle/Darwin's self-saving improvements.

Egocentrics judge what is good or evil to excuse self so they sin against others (Rom. 7, Jas. 2 v 10). Only an omniscient God can be truthful and loving (Gal. 3) so love and unity depend on all freely accepting God' will. God loves sinners but cannot abide their sin (Lk. 12 v 10, 2 Cor. 2 v 4-11). His love sent Jesus to die to sin in our place. His sacrifice annuls and washes away our sin. Unless we confess our sin we will be flushed away with it (Is. 64 v 6).

Fellowship with the Father, via Jesus, as conferred by his Spirit, must run down from the Head (Ps. 133, 1 Cor. 11 v 3, 7, Col. 2 v 6-10). The repentant who accept God's promised redeemer must allow His Holy Spirit to cleanse them (Gen. 3 v 21). His acceptance depends primarily on your faith in His words (Gen. 4 v 4). The things not seen then appear (Ezekiel 18, Hebrews 11 v 1-6).

Walking by his Spirit keeps you in fellowship and free of sin (Rom. 6 & 8, Gal. 5 v 16). You cannot be made one with our Father if you do not renounce Adam's sin (Gen. 3 v 3-11). Christians must obey Jesus "in Spirit and in Truth" (Jn. 4 v 24, 16 v 13-15, 17 v 17 Rom. 8 v 2, 9-11, 27). His Holy Spirit reveals your falsehoods as he washes you (Eph. 5 v 25-27, Heb. 4 v 12-16).

All inspiration from his holy Spirit is confirmed by God's words (Rom. 8 v 7-9, Eph. 4, Col. 2 v 18-23, 1 Pt. 2 v 20- 21, 1 Jn. 4 v 1-4). You must let Him set you free from Satan's chains (Jude 9). If you resist him will spend years moaning in a spiritual desert (Zech. 11 v 10-17, 2 Cor. 10 v 3-6, Gal. 3 v 10-14).

All Adam's descendants are bound by sin and a fear of death but pride stops many from repenting (Rom. 1 v 21-32). They know their stance is futile, yet justify it by slandering God (Num. 11 v 4-6, 31-33, 16 v 13-35, 1 Jn. 1 v 8-10)!

The self-righteous are cursed (Gal. 3 v 3, 12-13, 22-29). Only humble sinners will be saved (Lk. 15 v 17-24, 18 v 13-14, Eph. 2 v 8-18, 1 Pt. 1 v 8-9, 13-25). All they have to do is turn back to the Father and He does the purifying (Ezk. 18 v 26-32, Micah 6 v 6-9). They rejoice in the same salvation that Abel (Heb. 11 v 4) and the robber on the cross (Lk. 23 v 42-43) acquired through faith in His promised Saviour (Jn. 3 v 15). God's love and grace are amazing.

All who gain Jesus' holy life as a love gift by faith in him and his words (Rom. 8 v 3-13, 1 Cor. 3 v 1-11) find that the way is fenced (Mt. 7 v 13-14, Jn. 14 v 6, Heb. 10 v 19-26)! Confess and repent: too easy? Yet Satan presents bowing to Jesus (Ps. 1, Rom. 8 v 15, 28) as a difficult battle and the miseries of sin and decay as desirable! Instead of resisting Satan (Jas. 4 v 4-7) many nominal Christians are so compromised with its works that they resist the work of the Holy Spirit (Mt. 12 v 33, Acts 7 v 51, Jas. 1 v 6-8, 4 v 3) and block the manifestation of God's grace through Christ Jesus (2 Tim. 1 v 7-10).

They do not know the ways of God because their pastors have been taught man's ways (Mt. 7 v 15-29, Jn. 3 v 6-12, Rom. 8 v 7, 1 Cor. 2 v 14, 2 Cor. 3 v 12-17). They try to save the 'old garment' with bits of the new so both fail (Lk. 5 v 37). They cry "Come unto me all you who are heavy laden and I will offer you a plaster for your terminal disorder instead of a new, eternal life" (1 Sam. 12 v 12-21, Mt. 11 v 28-30, Rom. 8 v 5-14, Gal. 3 v 22-29, 5 v 18-21).

Many churches have replaced the renewing work of the Holy Spirit with soulish mind-over-matter healing. They believe shaman-like therapies can free them of their neurosis but God's love can't. They should show that only Jesus new life can free those obsessed with spirit voices that destroy their health. Instead their self centred meetings are like a group therapy in which they air their ideas about God instead of seeking His ideas about them (Pr. 7, Rom. 1).

They accept the teaching of Freud's spirit guide. Others delve into their senseless souls like monastic Buddhists and use meditation, ritual and physical abuses to numb their will. Blanking out desires just fools the self engrossed into thinking their self centred ways can make them spiritual (Gen. 3 v 5, Acts 8 v 17-18, 19 v 13, Col. 2 v 21-23). Such passive submission draws in fake holy spirits (Ex. 32 v 21-24, Num. 25 v 1-11, 1 Jn. 2 v 18-23, 4 v 1-5).

Satan offers forbidden spiritual fruit to the naive (Gen. 3 v 4-5). Seeking help from an alter ego (Gen. 3 v 22-24, 1 Sam. 15 v 23, 1 Cor. 2 v 14-15, Gal. 5 v 20-21) in defiance of God's command is as witchcraft. Self-centred, inner seeking for wisdom has a dead end. The self sustained will lose their body (Ps. 94 v 1-12, Lk. 16 v 23-31) and be remorseful forever (Is. 26 v 14, Mk. 9 v 43-44).

False spirits fool people into believing lies and prevent them from accepting the truth (1 Kg. 22 v 8, 18-23, Jer. 43, 44, Jn. 12 v 37-43, Acts 8 v 9-16, Jas. 1 v 5-8). They become confused about self identity and change facts to support their nonsense (Gen. 3 v 4, 8). Their lives are perverse (Rom. 7 v 24). They believe in doing good ‘ my way’ but fail. They believe in pointless self survival, like an animal, so life depends on a food chain (1 Tim. 4 v 1) yet they think meat eating is a sin and killing unwanted babies is not.

Sex was designed to unify two complimentary halves. XY boys who know no father fixate on XX mother, so like Peter Pan, they never mature. Psyche’s ‘dust’ turns them into spiritual mules (Mt. 22 v 30, Gal. 3 v 28).

She promotes overt evil based on mocking faith in God’s words:–

1. The devotees of the Bad god say: If God is good why do we suffer?
2. He gave us free will so children have the human right to do what they like!
3. If God is good no one will go to hell for eternity (except for those who reject His provision and so choose to go there).
4. Test His promises and see if He cares for you (but His promises depend on you obeying Him. Your independent life is a test of your heart not God’s).
5. You can justify anything with the Bible (as long as you miss out the 99% you do not like).
6. God could have used Evolution to make everything (except He said he did not, Satan said He did not and entropy says He did not).
7. Jesus was a good man but is now only another outdated prophet (as a prophet he said he came from God and was one with God and did many life changing miracles to prove it: Lk. 22 v 70, Jn. 10 v 28-33, 11 v 25-27, 39-44, 14 v 9-11).
8. People inspired by spirits concoct doctrines that make God’s omniscient ideas unfashionable (Mt. 5 v 17-20, Lk. 4 v 4, 8, 12, 24 v 44-45, 1 Pt. 1 v 23, 2 Pt. 1 v 16, 19-21, 2 v 1-3). They trade God’s love for fear (Is. 12)!
9. The worst heresy? Your good deeds and beliefs will earn you immortality (Jesus said the lies you speak reveal the deceit hidden in your heart: – Mt. 12 v 33-35, 15 v 18-19, Heb. 4 v 12).

It led Eve to rejected Adam as her leader and accept Satan. It suited Adam’s ambitions to believed this arch lie (Gen. 3 v 4-5) so he blew out his God led life and became an animal (Gen. 3 v 19-22). As a result of his treason his offspring are guided by occult or hidden egos and live and die like animals.

Satan controls the lost via their alter egos (Rom. 6 v 16, 7 v 23). Their spiritual theories are carnal. They foster division, anger and physical abuses (Mt. 12 v 14, 34, 15 v 9, Col. 2 v 8). Those troubled by evil spirits are treated as physically ill. False ideologies and religions lure compliant souls into Satan’s arms. The only solution is ‘get a new life’ (Rom. 7 v 24-25, 1 Cor. 6 v 16-20)!

Every death-fearing person knows Death rules this world. The hell they dream of is real (Is. 26 v 19, Mk. 9 v 42-48, Lk. 16 v 22-23) yet many 'nice' people do not think they are sinful and need saving (Lk. 13 v 27, 18 v 13-14, Rev. 3 v 17). Pride makes them think they are better than others (Mt. 23 v 24, Rom. 1) but when their poise is threatened the evil in their hearts is exposed.

Many blot out their fears with drugs, euthanasia or suicide (Job 2 v 9, 40 v 8). They die and wake up to find that without their body they are destitute. Only those who realise their terrible peril will repent. Only then will they truly love their Saviour (Lk. 7 v 47) and glory in the wonder of his sacrificial love.

The first born of Egypt were dedicated to Osiris, the Lord of Death (Num. 33 v 4, Is. 43 v 1-3). The first born of Israel were their slaves. God wanted them to serve Him (Ex. 13 v 1-15) so He traded them with Death for 'blood of the lamb of God' (Gen. 3 v 21, Jn. 1 v 29). Death owned and took all the first born in Egypt not covered by the blood (Col. 1 v 13-14). All who cry to God for mercy will be saved (Ex. 2 v 23-24, Mt. 11 v 28-30). The unforgivable sin is to believe the Holy Spirit's warnings are lies (Mt. 12 v 31, 16 v 3-4).

Many Christians have a poorer understanding of salvation than Job had from just reading Genesis 3 (Job. 19 v 25-27, 1 Cor. 11 v 29). Our word for word translation of Adam's picture words has turned the stark truth of this terrible, pivotal event into a fairy story. All early words (Gen. 2 v 20) were built from associated ideas. Finger = my-twig; body = my-trunk; shiny (aw-rome) or naked (ay-rome) = me-branch-without-bark. Subtle, aw-room = me-smooth (Gen. 3 v 1). Many such associations (e.g: rat race and dog-eared) are still used (Pr. 3 v 18, Ezk. 31, Rev. 2 v 7).

The Bible has many scribes but one author, so the whole helps us to see, where the translators have smudged the original picture-language (2 Pt. 1 v 16, 21). In Genesis 3 the 'serpent' describes the spirit's character (associated idea: Mt. 3 v 7, v 19-20, 12 v 24, 33-34, 1 Pt. 5 v 8, Rev. 12 v 9); it was not a Freudian snake, nor a real snake which cannot speak! It's double tongued children are like him ( Mt. 23 v 33, Jn. 8 v 44). Genesis 3 v 14 should read: ..... you will be made lower than a wild beast (Is. 14 v 10); what has flowed out from your womb (you conceived and have now given birth to) from now on will be as ashes in your mouth (Ezk. 28 v 18), for a new Adam will be born of a woman who will oppose what you have given birth to. When you try to stop him he will turn and crush your bid to be the head of creation.

So why did It not see that Jesus came as the 'Lamb of God' (Lk. 24 v 44) to sanctify and buy back more of It's slaves to minister unto Him? Self elevated Satan thought Jesus came to takeover It's kingdom so It incited the Jewish rulers to kill Him (Mt. 4 v 9, 26 v 3-4, Lk. 20 v 9-15). It took the irresistible bait.....

.... and the trap sprang. Jesus cried “Full payment has been made” (Jn. 10 v 18, 19 v 30, 1 Cor. 6 v 19-20)! As the incarnation of God’s visible person (Heb. 1 v 6, 10 v 12-14, Col. 1) he was both human and the King of kings. He “dismissed” his/the Holy Spirit, exhaled (Lk. 23 v 46) and his humanity died (Php. 2 v 6-11).

The Trinity divided. Satan never considered it as possible. Jesus cut himself off from his Father’s life and became identical with all who trust in the His promised Saviour (1 Cor. 15 v 42-57, Heb. 1 v 3); except he had no sin. Death had no power over him yet as a dead human it had to admit him. As King he took authority over the state of Death (1 Pt. 3 v 18-22). He then left with all who had bowed to His authority before they died (Heb. 11 v 4).

God had told Satan what would happen but like so many spiritual people, pride made It think It knew better than God (Gen. 3 v 15). It thought It was invincible (Ezk. 28 v 18). It had missed the significance of Genesis 15: Abraham did not cut a covenant with the Father; Jesus made it for him (Heb. 2 v 9-18). All Abraham did was not to let the ‘vultures’ settle in his mind and rob him of his faith (Acts 5 v 3, Eph. 2 v 5-16, Jas. 1 v 6-8).

When a believer dies their incapacitated soul is carried by angels to Paradise where they waited, in comfort (Mt. 24 v 31, Lk. 16 v 22-25). It was like living in the walled garden of an embassy in a hostile country. All who have rejected God’s will in their lives deserve to be eternally separated from Him but if they cry to Him to forgive them before they die their sin will be covered by the poured out blood of God’s substitute (Job 19 v 25-27, Heb. 11 v 4-6).

The man who was hung next to Jesus confessed he deserved to die for his crimes. He cried to Jesus for mercy (Ezk. 18 v 27, Lk. 23 v 40-43, Rom. 10 v 13) and immediately Jesus forgave him so he went with Him to Paradise (Lk. 16 v 22-23). He with God’s sinless, second Adam joined the Old Testament believers in death (Gen. 8 v 20-21, Rom. 6 v 3-11, Col. 2 v 12-15, Heb. 9 v 14).

The Spirit then descended on Jesus again and upon those identical with him in death (Rom. 8 v 11-14, 2 Tim. 1 v 10)! As Eve’s body was born of Adam (Mt. 27 v 52, Col. 2 v 6-10, Php. 3 v 18-21) those like Jesus who died trusting God for a new life arose with incorruptible body like his (Job. 19 v 25-27).

Salvation is free. The cost however could not have been greater, so our mortal state could not be worse. The Father’s love for us sacrificed His love for Himself (Lk. 23 v 44-48). He sent His visible person, as a sinless man, into death, that we might be made whole (Rom. 8 v 11, 1 Pt. 1, 3 v 19). His sacrifice has redeemed all who accept him as their Lord and reject Satan as their lord (Jer. 19 v 4-5, Jonah 4 v 11, Lk. 18 v 17-24). The engaged (Eph. 1 v 13) can now gain his life while still on earth now. He resolves their past problems (Joel 2 v 25) depending on how much they surrender their old life to his new life (Is. 53 v 5-12, Rom. 8 v 8-14, Eph. 2 v 8, 5 v 27, Php. 1 v 6, 3 v 7-16, Heb. 10 v 12-18).

GOD'S NEW LIFE NOW: freedom replaces Satan's domination (Rom. 7 & 8)

The enormity of Jesus' victory is awesome: he took Paradise home with him (Eph. 4 v 8-10, Rev. 1 v 18, 6 v 9-11). It was so potent that all who reject their old nature, as belonging in death, receive his new life giving Spirit NOW. They start to view all ideas on life and God from His perspective (Is. 55 v 8-9, 1 Cor. 2 v 10-12, Eph. 2 v 6, Jas. 1 v 2-5) as if sitting with Christ in heavenly places.

The human heart is essentially a vessel. It is what fills it that makes it good or bad (Mt. 7 v 15-23, 12 v 33-35, 43-45, 15 v 17-20, Acts 5 v 3-4). Only God and the things of God are holy (Lk. 3 v 16-17, 18 v 19, Acts 7 v 33, Heb. 12 v 10). Only being filled with Jesus' life makes them holy, precious 'pots' (2 Cor. 6 v 14-18). Those not filled with God's Spirit, who practice trying to be holy (Heb. 2 v 15, 4 v 1-6, 1 Jn. 4 v 1-8) are communing with a mock holy spirit (Gen. 3 v 5, 13, Lk. 18 v 9, Gal. 3 v 1-3, Col. 2 & 3, 2 Tim. 3 v 5-7, 1 Jn. 4 v 1-13).

The closer you get to God the more ordinary you become. Elijah, Peter and Paul were not gods but our servants: ordinary men with an almighty Father (2 Kg. 1 v 8-10, Acts 3 v 6, 4 v 13, 14 v 12-15, Jas. 5 v 17). True men of God are human; the opposite of Nietzsche's proud, self promoted and enriched god-man (2 Pt. 2 v 9-22). Many ambitious pastors fail on this point (Lk. 4 v 5-8).

The 'oil' from God's Spirit is poured through vessels he has filled (Zech. 4 v 14, Eph. 2 v 5-10) yet even in Heaven they know that they are only there because of the precious blood of Christ (Heb. 6 v 20, 1 Pt. 1 v 14-25, Rev. 5 v 3-4, 6, 12 v 11). All must grasp that the glory and power belong to God alone (Acts 1 v 8, 2 Cor. 4 v 7). Only Jesus can bear it. All other pseudo God-men go mad. Adam wanted spiritual powers to do his own will and so became subject to Nature instead of its lord (Deut. 28 v 13, 1 Cor. 11 v 3-4). Jesus ruled over nature with his Father's authority (Mt. 8 v 8-12, Jude 9): not as God but as a humble man (Lk. 22 v 42-44, Php. 2 v 3-16, Heb. 2 v 10-18).

Only those who identify their wayward will and old habits as dead with Jesus are God breathed again by the Holy Spirit (Gen. 1 v 26, Jn. 3, Gal. 3 v 6). You are not reborn as a child of the Father just based on belief nor being good (Gen. 3 v 6, Jas. 4 v 3-10). You start as a messy baby (Jn. 3 v 5-6, 13 v 8-10, Rom. 12 v 1-4). Trying to hide your faults is ridiculous (Gen. 3 v 8-13). You must dare talk to God as your Father via Jesus and ask and tell Him everything (Heb. 4 v 10-16, 12 v 5-25). You must confess your sins as His Spirit highlights and purges them (Mt. 3 v 7-12, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-9). Believers remain frail humans up to the 'final whistle' (1 Cor. 15 v 52) on the Day of Jesus Christ (Eph. 5 v 26-31).

Water baptism alone does not alter your death bound life. The Israelites were freed from Satan's exterior tyranny by the poured out life blood of the Passover lamb. They were baptised into Moses by wind and water but never obeyed their Lord (1 Cor. 10 v 2, Heb. 3 v 18).

ENTER INTO GOD'S COMPLETED VICTORY BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE (Heb. 12 v 22-25)

Many are baptised (Lk. 9 v 24, 40, 10 v 17-20, Acts 2 v 26-28, 31, 38, Rom. 7 v 4, 19, 2 Cor. 4 v 4, Heb. 11 v 4, 7, 26, 12 v 2) but keep to their old futile ways. For 1500 years the Jewish nation bowed to gods that suited their carnality (Jg. 21 v 25). They never wanted unity with God's life but sought a god to support their self and death centred ways (Is. 28 v 15-18, Acts 7 v 39, 51, Heb. 3 & 4).

For the last 1500 years mystic Christendom has done the same. The Gentile Ecclesia (Eph. 4 v 4-7) did replace Israel as God's people and have been disowned by Him (Rom. 11 v 20-25, 1 Cor. 10 v 6) for the same reason as they were: apostasy. The denominations have now replaced all of Jesus' commands with parodies that they can perform without him. They use the excuse that the power of God's Spirit was only to establish the Church. They have been cut off because they no longer trust and rest in his words and works (Gen. 2 v 17, Lk. 21 v 24, 1 Cor. 10 v 6, Heb. 3 v 18-19, Rev. 2 & 3).

The true betrothed of Christ are those who have consign their old life to death with Jesus (Eph. 1 v 10-23). They cease from their efforts at saving their old life and put all their effort into realising God's gift of Jesus' life (Lk. 13 v 24, Php. 3 v 7-19, Heb. 4 v 9-16). The friends of the betrothed believe in but do not know him as their Lord (Gen. 3 v 19, 4 v 4, Is. 41 v 8, Mt. 25 v 10-12, Heb. 9 v 15, Rev. 2 & 3). At best they are saved at the last minute under the old covenant (Ezk. 18, Mt. 25 v 1-2). At worst they have Cain's feigned friendship (Gen. 4 v 8, Mt. 15 v 7-9, 24 v 3-11, Acts 9 v 1).

Listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying about the churches! The Lord your God is one Spirit over one Church, not one of seven apostate spirits (Rev 1 v 20, 2 v 11). Man's futile self saving ways, based on earning money to support a dying life, lead nowhere. God's Word is the only door to a free, abundant, eternal life (Is. 40 v 31, 55, Mt. 11 v 28, Jn. 14 v 6): "Come to me ... and I will lift you up as if you had the wings of an eagle." Trust in the Lord with all of your heart and not in your self-centred thinking or your sin will not be covered (Prv. 3 v 5-12, Lk. 23 v 40-42, Php. 4 v 6-7, Heb. 12 v 5-15).

God's safety laws rule our nature and material world so breaking them assures a life ruled by fear, sickness and death. Pretending or trying to obey them is equally futile (Deut. 28, Rom. 6 v 16-23, 7 v 24). The whole of Isaiah is about what He wants to do for you, not what you have to do for Him. The whole of Jeremiah is about what happens if you ignore His will (Lk. 11 v 2).

Wake up to what He warns of (Rev. 3 v 22) or Jesus will say to you: "You do not know me and I do not know you" (Acts 7 v 51-53, Mt. 7 v 21-23). There is nothing He requires of you except your love and loyalty (Micah 6). This is the essence of the law given to Adam that he broke. A child can grasp it but the self justified have to confuse it (Mt. 22 v 15, Jn. 18 v 38, 1 Pt. 2 v 6-16).

JESUS' GIFTS TO HIS CHURCH (1 Cor. 12 v 28, Eph. 4 v 8)

In Genesis Eliezer is a type of the Holy Spirit (Gen. 15 v 2, 24 v 31-38, 64). He is sent by his lord to find a God-fearing girl to marry his son Isaac. He is led to a beautiful girl (Eph. 1 v 4) who was not vain but kind. As proof of his lord's greatness he showers her with precious gifts. She decides to go with him. On the journey he answers her questions about her husband-to-be (Eph. 2 v 13-22) so she falls in love with him before she has met him (Rom. 8 v 9, 23-39).

The Father has sent His Spirit with gifts to woo his Church (1 Cor. 13 ). His gifts are open to all who desire to know and love Jesus as their Lord. They are taught first by the Apostles, then prophets, pastors and teachers (1 Cor. 12 v 28-31, Eph. 4 v 11). Without answers from his Spirit you will not know your Saviour and his ways. It is impossible for anyone who isn't constrained by the love of Jesus to trust him and receive God's promises (Ezk. 28 v 15-19, Lk. 4 v 5-8, 34, 10 v 17-18, 24, Rev. 12 v 9-12).

True humility is bowing to another out of love. Those who call Jesus Lord must humbly seek his will and truth via his Spirit (1 Sam. 12 v 24-25, 1 Jn. 1 v 8-10). They need to exercise the spiritual senses that Adam discarded (Rom. 8 v 14, 1 Cor. 12). Jesus told his disciples to do nothing until his Spirit led them (Lk. 24 v 49). Their authority 'in Jesus' name' had to come from him (Mt. 7 v 21-23). He is the good shepherd (Ps. 23, Jn. 14 v 2, 23, 15 v 3-14). Peter learnt that you can only serve Jesus by hearing and obeying his voice (Mt. 7 v 7-15, 21-23, Lk. 22 v 31-34, 24 v 49, Acts 10 v 13-20, 1 Pt. 5 v 1-6).

His Church has always been attacked by self-seeking wolves in sheep's clothing (Lk. 11 & 12, 18 v 9-14, 2 Pt. 2 v 3). As Jesus warned (Mt. 16 v 18-19, Jn. 10 v 10-17, Jude 11-20); hireling shepherds feed off instead of feed his sheep. Their liberal self-love is an abomination (Gen. 3 v 5, Is. 64 v 6, Rom. 8 v 7, Gal. 3, Eph. 2 v 8). Like Vashti (Est. 1 v 12, Mt. 16 v 23, Acts 9 v 1) they do not love, honour or obey Jesus but want him to bow to their wishes.

Jesus is coming for a bride without blemish (Eph. 5 v 24-27, 2 Pt. 5 v 14-15). His true Church must not be self serving but earnestly desires to know and serve their Lord's will (1 Cor. 14 v 30-32: be self controlled) with due fear and awe. Her friends who serve a stand-in as their leader may miss the wedding (1 Sam. 12 v 17-25, Mt. 25).

Only God is holy. Only those submitted to and led by Jesus are made holy (Lk. 8 v 46-48, 9 v Heb. 4 v 9-16). By themselves they are not gods but men with their own idiosyncrasies (Acts 14 v 15, Jas. 5 v 17). Prophets have to have a proven record of receiving and giving accurate guidance from God. Only as a result of much prayer did such prophets send out Apostles, commissioned by the Holy Spirit, to find nascent believers and instruct them how to form a church.

THE HOLY SPIRIT INSPIRED GIFTS TO THE BODY OF BELIEVERS IN CHRIST JESUS (that Adam lost)

|   |  |  |
|---|--|--|
| MINISTRY(1 Cor. 12 v 28-31, 1 Jn. 2 v 13)  | GIFT(Gen. 2 v 7, Jn. 20 v 22) | SPIRITUAL SENSES(tree of spiritual life: Deut. 8 v 3) |
| APOSTLESChosen by God to walk with Him   | WISDOM                            | GUIDED BY H. S.   |
| PROPHETSYearn for things of God  | REVELATIONS, VISIONS              | SEEING THINGS OF GOD                                      |
| TEACHERSSeek the mind of Christ  | KNOWLEDGE                         | HEARING FROM GOD  |
| GOVERNMENTS: PASTORS   | WORDS OF FAITH, MIRACLES.         | SPIRITUAL AWARENESS                                       |
| DEACONS, EVANGELISTSSeek the ways of God   | HEALING, DISCERNMENT OF SPIRITS   |  |
| MINISTRY FROM BODYSeek the love of God   | PRAYER, TONGUES,                  | SPEAKING TO JESUS(NOT AT GOD)                         |
| The unforgivable sin is to reject God's Spirit (Gen. 2 v 9, 17) as wrong and believe an alternative spirit is right (Mt. 12 v 32).         Without the Holy Spirit's guidance even God's recorded words are interpreted to suit man's corrupted thinking.         Without accepting Jesus as Lord (Jn. 14, 20 v 28) lawlessness and the fear of death (self survival) will rule your world.         (Gen. 3 v 22, Mt. 12 v 10-14, 34-39, 15 v 9, Rom. 7 v 23, 8 v 8-14, Eph. 4 v 11-19, Heb. 2 v 10-15, 13 v 7-14). |  |  |

Body ministry is not just ministry from individuals in the congregation but words from the Holy Spirit for the edification of all, via all, so no one person is glorified (1 Cor. 12 v 1 to 13 v 13). The Spirit of the Lord glorifies Jesus (Is. 42 v 8, Mt. 18 v 20, Jn. 14 v 6, 15 v 4, 16 v 13-15). Many talk to a dumb pet but hesitate to talk to God. Jesus said “when I call, my sheep hear and respond to my voice”. When they call to him by name he will answer and they will hear his reply (Ps. 91 v 15). Jesus telephone number is Jeremiah 33.3.

Like any new skill or language, God’s gifts must be desired and used before they will flow naturally (Deut. 4 v 7, 1 Cor. 12 v 31). They do not flow where people are self-centred and self-conscious (Is. 58, 1 Jn. 3 v 22-24). Those who are not committed to Jesus and reject his Spirit (Jn. 6 v 63, 1 Cor. 2 v 2, 9-14) join a church run by a party spirit that fits their ways (Jn. 10 v 7-13, 2 Pt. 2 v 13-20, Rev. 1 v 4, 20). They tailor God’s words to suit (1 Jn. 1 v 3-10).

Wittgenstein stated that beliefs, based on inspired feelings and guesses, were illogical. Schopenhauer saw that self perfection is impossible. Nietzsche said Darwin’s evolutionary, godless super-man would self destruct! Yet people prefer reversed rationalism because truth was cast away when Adam made the lying lord of death his mentor in place of the Lord of life because he felt he knew better (Gen. 3 v 3-6, Jas. 3 v 14-20). He swapped God centred love, joy, peace and hope for pride, anger, fear, guilt, despair and lies (Mt. 16 v 6).

The Spirit of God bestows abundant life (Jn. 8 v 32-34, Gal. 5 v 22-26) but those who seek ‘spiritual’ comfort to blank out their fears are herded by self-pleasing spirits (Mt. 7 v 15-23, 12 v 43-45, 1 Cor. 14 v 29-33). If these alter egos are not discerned (Acts 8 v 7-16) they introduce rituals in which the truth is replaced with mysterious non-sense to hide (occult) their madness (Acts 20 v 29-31, 1 Tim. 1 v 17-20, Jude 16-19). They must be repented of before the gifts of the Holy Spirit given to believers can flow (Jn. 7 v 38, 8 v 47, Jas. 1 v 5-8, 3 v 10-15, 4 v 6-10).

Only the law of the Spirit (i.e. “a life in Christ Jesus”: Rom. 8 v 2, 9) can unify you with the the Holy Father’s love, will and deeds. Only the blood of Jesus (Heb. 9 v 14-26) allows us to stand by grace before his throne (Eph. 2 v 5-10, 5 v 26). His words wash away the guilt hidden in your soul (Rom. 7 v 18, 8 v 7). It is in His presence that our ‘filthy rags’ are replaced with his blood bought robes of righteousness (Zech. 3 v 4, Mt. 22 v 11, 1 Jn. 1 v 7-9).

Your confidence in him will replace your fear of self survival (Mt. 5 v 9-24, 14 v 29-31). He has fulfilled the religious laws that we could not. Those who pretend they can will be judged guilty by them (Gen. 4 v 4-5, Lk. 4 v 4, Rom. 3 v 12-13, 8 v 6-9, Heb. 3 v 7-19). They will never enter into Jesus’ rest by faith in his words and finished work (Gen. 2 v 17, Mt. 7 v 13, Jn. 14 v 6, Eph. 2 v 4-10, Col. 2 v 8-18, Heb. 10 v 20). He seeks your heart not your service (Lk. 15 v 19-24).

The God breathed (Gen. 2 v 7, Jn. 20 v 22, Acts 2 v 38) do not have super powers but seek to perform His will on earth (Gen. 1 v 2-3, 1 Kg. 18 v 36, Jn. 8 v 47, 14 v 24, 1 Cor. 12 v 4-11). A word from God is backed by His Spirit's power: it is clearly not of self. At first you will be reluctant to act on His prompt as it is usually the not what you would normally (Mt. 16 v 22-25) but the substance that follows obedience will thrill you (Ex. 3 v 11-12, 20, Mt. 14 v 29, Heb. 11). The Spirit only glorifies Jesus and Jesus glorifies us (Eph. 2 v 1-10, Heb. 2 v 7).

Death has been annulled for those who trust in Jesus (2 Tim. 1 v 9-10)! When they die good angels bear them to Jesus' paradise (Lk. 16 v 22, 31, 1 Cor. 15 v 51-57) where they rest not free spirits but as disembodied human souls (Job. 19 v 26, Mt. 27 v 52, Jn. 1 v 12-14, Rev. 6 v 9-11) until, all together, they gain a body like his (1 Thess. 4 v 16). The self-sufficient who accept the promises of their alter egos receive the reverse (1 Kg. 22 v 19-25, Mt. 12 v 32),

People who reject God's warnings and believe Satan's lies become cursed (Jn. 8 v 44-45, 1 Jn. 3 v 8). God's blessings, that were given to Adam and Israel to richly enjoy, become perversions that promote ill health, barrenness, family disunity, frustration, destitution, accident proneness, financial losses, wrongdoing, rebellion, oppression, chronic fears, insanity and death (Deut. 28 v 15-68, 1 Sam. 16 v 14, Rom. 1 v 21-32, 2 v 1).

Vanity, pride, revenge, spite, violence, fornication, divination, witch-craft, self-destructive habits, etc... oppress and propel a person to suffer evil against their will (Rom. 7 v 19-20). Their defiant, self centred, attitude is often angry, cruel and destructive. Freud's analysis gave them names and substance so passing phases become fixed and owned for life.

Some are so used to being led, say by their religious spirit, that they are not aware of it yet it may be obvious to others. Imagine an auditorium in your mind, seated with all the characters which dominate your thinking, extending back beyond the light from the stage. Too daunting to ever tackle (Deut. 7 v 17-26)? These alter ego guides need to be recognised, 'coughed' up and decisively rejected in Jesus' name (Eph. 3 v 10-17).

The Holy Spirit will spotlight them in order of importance. Do not grieve him (Eph. 4 v 27-32). He will not shift them unless you mean it. You will need help only if you are confused and stuck (Ps. 34, 2 Tim. 1 v 6-7). In the front row, are your obvious, dominant attitudes (say a spirit of self pity, indulgence, self excuse, rebellion, aggression). They rule over the others and try to defend themselves (Lk. 8 v 30-32). Shift them and the change is dramatic. The rest go as soon as they are recognised (Mt. 4 v 8-10, Lk. 6 v 18, 9 v 41-42, 11 v 20-28).

Corrupt spirit guides must be treated like vermin. Kick them out in the name of Jesus (Rom. 16 v 20). Pride might go first but Arrogance or Conceit will step up and try and convince you nothing has happened.

Spot the fruits! Niceness and Sweetness will say, “what is wrong with that deception?” Compulsive shyness will shrink into its shell: lying will build defensive towers of clouds. Something like aggression will refuse to go. It will shout you down, threaten and defy you. Timidity will say, “don’t risk it:” disbelief will give itself away. Accusation will try to escape by saying your problems are all your fault. It is right: give them all to Jesus to trash (Is. 53, 54)! You must reject them in Jesus’ name or they will curse you (Num. 23 v 19-24).

Only those who have submitted to Jesus’ authority can safely do this (Jn. 15 v 7-8, Acts 19 v 13-15, 1 Jn. V 10). The deceived believe Satan has the power to do things it cannot do (Eph. 1 v 19-23, Heb. 2 v 14-16). Demons put on a horror show for exorcists who use their own authority (, Mt. 12 v 31-35, 43, Jn. 8 v 45-47, 2 Cor. 4 v 4-7). When a nasty person dies their inner spirit cannot easily find a new host (Lk. 3 v 7, 8 v 27-32) so it remains on site as a distressed ‘ghost’. The silly who prod them get bitten.

In Luke 10 v 17-20, for the first time, men took authority over evil spirits using Jesus’ authority. Demons had to obey men. Jesus rejoiced. He cried "that's it!" Satan’s ambition has crashed; the self propelled star has fallen (Is. 13 v 12-14, Ezk. 28 v 17). Yet more important was that they had entered into their God centred calling (Heb. 2). Those who accept Jesus’ Spirit (Rom. 8 v 9-15) call God Almighty “Daddy” (Rom. 8 v 35-39).

What have the churches done with this authority? To survive, Satan had to get these new men dancing to It’s tunes! How successful has it been? As befell the Jews, Jesus is about to cut off the Gentile churches as their version of his truth is a constant reminder of their adultery. They have given livings to blind guides, who do not believe in hell or Satan (Neh. 4 v 7, 13 v 7). All the principle tenets (Heb. 6 v 1-2) of Christ have been confused by Satan’s versions (Mt. 7 v 15-21). Liberal teachers are spiritual divorce lawyers.

Like Cain, the self justified pretend to be spiritual (Gen. 3 v 22-24, Mt 23 v 13-15, Lk. 11 v 39-44). They bury the gospel of salvation to conceal the evil in their hearts. They follow and promote the deadly, self improving, postmodern, existential gospel of Satan, Nimrod, Aristotle, Kant and Darwin (Mt. 15 v 7-9): "What God has said is not right so forget it. Do what you feel is good and you will not die but become a free, immortal spirit" (no need for repentance or a Saviour). It’s gospel says their weak sin-nature will be transformed by death; as if works done in their corrupt nature could earn them a new incorruptible life.

No repentance for old = no new life (Mal. 3 v 14-18, Rom. 7). They cannot hide from the reality of their constantly degrading, death bound state but their pride makes them deny the truth (Mt. 11 v 12, 23 v 27-31, Lk. 11 v 49-54): so the Spirit of life withdraws from them forever (1 Sam. 3 v 13-14, 4 v 21, 2 Pt. 2 v 15).

ALL MUST APPEAR BEFORE THE JUDGEMENT SEAT OF CHRIST (Ps. 2 v 12).

The state of the churches today is as John described before the Rapture (Rom. 1 v 18, 1 Pt. 4 v 17-18, Rev. 4). Jesus is very blunt about what he thinks of them and their guiding spirits (Gen. 18 v 21-23). He will only save those who have shown they trust in him (Jn. 3 v 15-21, 1 Thess. 1 v 10, Jas. 1 v 7).

The undecided are faithless. Instead of making the Jews jealous, many Christians are jealous of the Jews (Rom. 11 v 14-25, Rev. 2 v 26, 3 v 3-5, 16)! Hired pastors do not uphold the truth but obey their party spirits and bow to worldly compromises so the populace see religion as phony (Jg. 17 v 6-10, 18 v 20-25, Neh. 13 v 7, Jn. 10 v 12, Php. 3 v 17-19). Their formal prayers lack the faith for a definite answer (Jer. 3 v 33, Is. 58 v 9, Mt. 7 v 7, Jas. 1 v 6-7, 22).

Like the privileged men who ruled Israel (Lk. 11 v 54, Jn. 8 v 44-45) they reject Christ as their Lord and confuse his words because they want to keep his kingdom and wealth for themselves (Mt. 21 v 13, 23-25, 33-42).

Instead of sitting with Christ in heavenly places (resting by faith in his works: Jn. 15 v 5, Eph. 2 v 5-10, 20-22) they present him as dead on a cross. They are guilty of enshrouding the fact that Jesus' victory over death enables all who seek forgiveness to gain his risen life (Gal. 3, 2 Tim. 1 v 7-10, 2 v 25-26).

Without Jesus' anointing churches are just tombs for dead ancestors; shrines to man's worship of man. Painted death reigns in their meetings: nothing grows or changes (2 Tim. 3, Jude). There is no repentance for their divorced, death ruled nature; just comforting homilies like 'love yourself'; as if a therapy placebo could appease Death (Acts 19 v 12-19).

Egoistic church men killed the early Bible translators to stop them exposing their abuses. They hated Luther because he revealed that like the Jews they had replaced Christ with a man (antichrist) as the lord of this world (Baal) and prayed to the Queen of Heaven (Astarte) for blessings and salvation from death (1 Kg. 18 v 37-39, Jer. 44 v 15-22, 2 Cor. 11 v 1-4).

Baal beguiles the lost with its death fearing, wealth amassing, mind dulling, fornicating culture (Mt. 15 v 9-14, Rom. 1 v 21-32) as preached by agents of the atheistic French revolution. "You are as god on earth so you can do whatever we say is OK" (Gen. 3 v 4-6). The fear for survival fills everything. The great numbers saved through Charles Wesley's preaching of the truth in the open undoubtedly stymied their aim to rob the British Establishment by using chaos to destabilise it. Their godless influence still persists today.

The young Darwin was packed off on a round the world cruise because at Edinburgh he was deeply involved with the later French humanists who were banned in England. He propagated the metaphysical conditioning of school children and a fear for survival that Marx and Hitler used to enslave the aimless.

Societies with self devised gods ignore God's truth and fall for Satan's "do what you think is right" snare. Self centred humanist with vain, godless lives (1 Jn. 2 v 15-17) decide for themselves what is right or wrong. They set their egos up as gods (Gen. 3 v 5) and erode the human rights of others by imposing their dead thinking on government, the legal system and education.

Prisons are full of people who abuse the rights of others but they want to free them and imprison those who protest against their creeping tyranny. This stance is evil. Nihilistic anthropologists have to silence those who preach about God's love and salvation to stop others judging them for their decadent behaviour. Societies which bow to their god become cursed (Num. 25 v 3).

Facts that do not suit their thinking are arbitrarily changed. Very curtailed records were used to get rid of AD & BC simply because it was a constant reminder of who is Lord. They would like the land of Israel to be Palestinian as the return of the Jews to their land proves God's words and warnings are true (Ps. 101 v 13, 125 v 3, Lk. 2 v 15, Rom. 11, Eph. 2 v 12-18, Rev. 14 v 4-11). The rule of love is replaced by corruption and the fear of death.

Nomads kept the bones (relics) of ancestors in a box as a link with their spirit (Gen. 31 v 19, 35 v 2-5, Deut. 18 v 11). Rachel took her father's relics to spite her brothers as in their law the holder was the his heir. When Jacob was in dire trouble, he buried these familiar gods. They removed their body piercing and charms and put on God's word as their armour (Ps. 23, 46, Eph. 4 v 23-27, 6 v 11-19). Tattoos do the opposite (Lev. 19 v 26-31). As a result nobody dared to attack him and God (Num. 23 v 21-23, Ezra 8 v 21-23, Rev. 2 v 14-16)!

Jacob learned to trust God through crises (Gen. 32 v 9, 24-28, 1 Cor. 1 v 26-31). It began when with his heart, mind and actions he sought God's spiritual blessings and promises which his carnal brother had disdained (Rom. 9 v 13). Like him and many others (Heb. 11) your trust in God's word grows 'on the way' (Gen. 32 v 1, 24, Lk. 24 v 15) so stop dreading your failures and believe in God's promise; that those who trust in Him will overflow with 'living waters' (Jn. 7 v 39, Rom. 8 v 13-15, 37-39). No one can curse a people who God has justified (Num. 23 v 19-23). Only those who wholly trust in God's promised Saviour will survive death (Jn. 8 v 32).

When blasphemers reject Jesus as an outdated prophet they curse themselves (1 Kg. 22 v 19-23, 2 Chr. 32 v 19-21, Mt. 21 v 37-39, 25 v 41, Jn. 15 v 21-25, 1 Pt. 2 v 8, 4 v 17, 1 Jn. 4). Alternative faiths are inspired by false gods or lying spirits (Rev. 1 v 20, 2 & 3). They no longer have a home in God's heaven but live temporarily on earth (Ezk. 28 v 15-18). They have to negate God's truth (Gen. 4 v 5, Deut. 28 v 14) and blind people to the Holy Spirit's red flags (1 Sam. 15 v 23, Ezk. 14, Heb. 3) for without the support of humans in their independent earthly domain they would be imprisoned (Rev. 12 v 12).

Trust in God is attacked by the rulers of darkness: they try to fill the mind with doubt and fear (Mt. 4 v 1, Jas. 1 v 5-8). You must not allow them to grow but ask in Jesus about them then dismiss them with his authority (Gen. 15 v 11-12, Is. 26 v 3). Talk at an alter ego not to it (psychic analysis) or it will under-mind your will (1 Sam. 17 v 32, Rom. 7). We must never compromise over evil but resist the devil till it flees (Jas. 4 v 4-8).

The love, joy and peace that Jesus offers cannot be analysed (Php. 4 v 7). He offers all peace with God and an end to their fear of death (Heb. 2 v 11-15). He came from God (Php. 2 v 5-13) to save us from a futile death fearing existence (Ps. 23, 28, 40, 72, 118). The saved cease from their hopeless fight for self survival and enter into the rest that Adam lost (Heb. 2 v 15, & 4). The law for the Holy Spirit led person (Rom. 8 v 1-2) is a life completely reliant on Christ (Rom. 7 v 24, 8 v 1-4, 14, 1 Cor. 3 v 16, Eph. 2 v 1-10, Heb. 4).

Jesus' sermon on the mount is a promise and incentive to those who accept him (Mt. 5, 7 v 26) ".... you shall not lie, hate, steal... etc. You shall be comforted, blessed, merciful, pure and be a peace-maker like your Lord." They are there to confound the self righteous (Mt. 6 v 33, 1 Jn. 4 v 17-21). Only those completely reliant God's riches can attain such virtues (Lk. 18 v 27).

True faith is based on believing a person who has been proved to be reliable. Self evoked confidence and faith is dangerous: it depends on how you are feeling (Gen. 3 v 6). It can switch rapidly into a fatalistic negative faith (Josh. 7 v 5-13). Passive faith will sink under you (Jas. 2 v 20). Because Jesus offered no self defence Christians have been sold the fatalistic, religious idea that, as God decides everything for them, they should be passive pacifists.

Jesus did not offer his unrepentant killers peace (Lk. 23 v 28-31). His spine-chilling reply in the secret, night-time, kangaroo court that judged him was: "the next time you face me I will be the judge" (Mt. 26 v 64, Rev. 1 v 7, 20 v 11-15). His death was not passive: he crushed death's power (Gen. 3 v 15, Heb. 2 v 14). Faith in God's instructions is assertive (Mk. 14 v 48-52).

'Jerichos' fall as you praise God: deny Him and a little 'A'i will defeat you (Acts 4 v 3, 14-20, Mt. 26 v 75). Peace does not flow from tolerating evil: it comes from overcoming evil with good (Jn. 1 v 5, Rom. 12 v 17-21). Turning the other cheek is an offer of peace not a request to strike you again (2 Cor. 11 v 20). It worked in S. Africa at the end of apartheid but it will not where an aggressor (Jn. 8 v 39) is determined to attack and rob you.

You do not turn the other cheek, and God does not give grace to those who are defiantly sold out to evil (2 Kg. 1 v 9-10, 16, Jn. 12 v 36-38): it would just encourage them to enslave you. You can only stop wilful aggression with proportional retaliation. The law, of an eye for an eye, was to limit it so that it did not escalate into an unending feud in which only Chaos or Baal is served.

We fight a constant battle against disorder and death because our world is divorced from its life giver's life (Rom. 8 v 20-27). All of creation is devolving (Gen. 3 v 17, Deut. 27 v 15-26). God's forgiveness is offered (Deut. 32, Lk. 3 v 6-9, Rom. 2 v 4-13, 1 Thess. 5 v 9) to all who want to return to Him (Job. 1 v 10, 42 v 8) before they die. They are redeemed from death by the blood of the Lamb of God (Rev. 6 v 8-11, 12 v 11).

The bad behaviour of others does not make those who go to church superior to them (Mt. 7 v 1-5). The God fearing man is not a judge (Jg. 21 v 25, Lk. 18 v 13, Jas. 4 v 12) but a sinner, redeemed by God's love and grace (Jn. 1 v 12-14, 3 v 16-17, 8 v 7-11, Rev. 2 v 4-5). His love allows them the chance to repent. Believers must forgive those who hurt them in the same way God forgives them for their sin against Him (Mt. 5 v 38-48, 6 v 12, Col. 3 v 12-13).

He brings their offence to their notice and allows time for conviction and repentance. Do not try His patience and abuse His grace lest His favour is replaced with judgement. Even that is designed to encourage repentance (Heb. 12 v 3-7, Rev. 2 & 3). Make peace with the Son while there is still time (Ps. 2 v 12, Lk. 17 v 29, Jude 18-25). The perverse, who do not repent (Ex. 20, 1 Cor. 5 v 6-11) will be destitute forever (2 Pt. 2 v 20, Rev. 20 v 14).

Jesus' Spirit revives those who fall with joy at his feet (Is. 35 v 10, Mt. 11 v 28-30, Lk. 4 v 18-19, 24 v 32, Acts 4 v 10-12). He alone deserves all honour, glory and praise (Php. 2 v 9-11). As Peter and Paul warned, many churches are now run by professionals who do not honour Jesus as Lord but follow the doctrines of anti-christ spirits (Jn. 8 v 43-47, 2 Tim. 4 v 1-3, 1 Jn. 2 v 18-20). Many are just religious franchises (2 Cor. 2 v 11). Entertaining services keep the self conscious death fearing and enslaved to mammon (Lk. 12 v 4-10).

They live to save their earthly lives and pay tithes as protection money to maintain their prosperity (1 Jn. 2 v 15-17). Bible teaching is reduced to anecdotes so the untaught remain unchanged and unmoved for years (2 Pt. 2 v 15-20). Doctrine is based on the preacher's options (Gen. 3 v 3-6). The Holy Spirit is not a gimmick. He will not revive dying apostate religions (Is. 61 v 1-2, Mt. 24 v 11-14, Lk. 18 v 8, 20 v 15-18, Jn. 16 v 13-15). The outpouring at the end of the age of the gentiles (Lk. 21 v 24, 31) will be a 'mind the doors' call (Rom. 9 v 28-33, 2 Thess. 2 v 6-12, Jude 18-23).

Only the awake remnant will be rescued (Joel 2 v 28-32, Mk. 13 v 36, 1 Thess. 5 v 1-9). The true 'called out ones' are Christ's help meet or bride (Gen. 2 v 20-22, Eph. 1 v 13-14. Mnaomai; betrothed:). Their prayers (Est. 4 v 13, 5 v 3, Jas. 4 v 16-18) intercede for other unworthy people. In his name they can set Satan's captives free (Jn. 15 v 5-10, Eph. 1 v 17-23). After they are 'married away Christ cannot justly restrain evil in a world that has chosen to appease Satan (Jn. 15 v 6, Rev. 1 v 4, 2 v 5, 3 v 3).

REFORMATION: CHRIST OR BELIAL (Ex. 20 v 3, 2 Cor. 6)

We need another Luther to nail a list of the things that will not save you to every church door. There is only one truth, one Holy Spirit and one Saviour, who is the Lord of one Church (Eph. 4 v 4). Many churches have different party spirits (Rev. 1 v 20, 3 v 1) which bar the door to God's Holy Spirit (Col. 2 v 8, 20-23, 1 Tim. 4, Rev. 3 v 20). They fear that their hidden corrupt nature will be exposed (1 Kg. 18 v 37-40) so they compound their guilt by undermining God's truth and attacking true believers (Jg. 6 v 30-31, 2 Kg. 18 v 22, 25, Lk. 16 v 13-15). Where can they hide from the wrath to come?

Unless they repent and open their imprisoned lives to God's love and Spirit (Jg. 6 v 10, 30-31, Lk. 12 v 10, Rom. 2 v 4-9) they will suffer forever for adopting Satan's fairy story of: If you do what you think is good, after you die you will be an immortal (Gen 3 v 4-5, Lk. 16 v 22-31, Jn. 9 v 40-41, Rev. 2 v 5, 3 v 3, 16, 6 v 16). The breaking with a rod of iron is for His enemies (Rev. 2 v 27, 3 v 7, 20, Jn. 3 v 19).

Jude wrote about the apostasy of this age. His warning could not be more pointed (Mt. 7 v 15-27, Acts 20 v 29-35):— “To the sanctified, preserved and called (continuous past/present tense). Beloved I write to you with great urgency concerning our joint salvation. I am constrained to write to exhort you to contend for the faith that was first given to the Saints.

This is why: certain people have infiltrated your ranks who the scriptures judge as impious (Rev. 2 v 14-15). They use the grace of God as an excuse for allowing debauched behaviour and ignore the fact that salvation depends on accepting and obeying Jesus as the only Lord in our lives (Col. 1 v 12-22 & 2).

May I remind you that those who the Lord rescued from Egypt, but then did not believe and obey God, were destroyed by God. Do not forget that even the angels, who departed from their God ordained state, He has bound in darkness to await their terrible fate. In a similar way Sodom and Gomorrah, with their neighbouring cities, were destroyed for giving themselves over to fornication and pursuing sexual acts that defy God's ordained order.

They are given as examples of the enduring judgement from heaven. They will be condemned and suffer for eternity (Lev. 18 v 20-29, Rev. 21 v 8). These self deluded ones defile their own flesh and are a law unto themselves, yet they deride the idea that they are being led by spiritual powers in high places (Eph. 6 v 12, 2 Pt. 2 v 9-11).

Even Michael, who is an Arch Angel, did not dare to revile Satan over the preserving of Moses' body but he used the Lord's authority to control him. These people are ignorant of the existence of the forces that are corrupting them and making them behave like dumb beasts (Eph. 2 v 2-3, 1 Pt. 2 v 12).

Like Cain, Balaam and Korah (desiring self advancement), they replace God's words with their opposite alternatives in order to make money from you and establish their self important ministry: they are under God's sentence of death (1 Kg. 22 v 20-22, Mt. 12 v 31-32, 1 Cor. 5 v 4-13).

They join in God celebrations with you, without fear, to obstruct your worship of God. They exhort with great swelling words; demanding much but giving little. They are trees that you attend to for months but produce no fruit because they are not rooted in God's life; like crashing waves that never advance beyond the beach and comets that appear bright then are lost in the vastness of space.

Before the last great judgement fell on the Earth, because it had become completely corrupt, Enoch prophesied about the appearance of this hollow faith: ..... "The Lord is coming with a cloud of witnesses to convict all for their ungodly behaviour and judge them for the hateful things they have said about God."

These arrogant, self elevated people make a great fuss and complain when they are criticised about their greed and lusts yet stir up public support for their attacks on God's proclaimed order and the just rights of others.

Remember, the Apostles of Jesus Christ warned you: that these ungodly types, who mock God's words and justify their corrupt behaviour, would loose God's favour (Rom. 1 v 24-25) and herald His judgement (1 Tim. 4 v 1-3: ... they undermine marriage and promote vegan ideas in denial of the natural order).

Do not mix with these superior egoists who have a perverse spirit (1 Jn. 4) but build up your faith in God words as guided by His Holy Spirit, then the love and mercy of God in Christ our Saviour will keep you secure as you wait to gain your eternal body. Hate the filthy life of the self pleasing, who revile you, but be compassionate and try to persuade some to repent before it is too late."

God's words, that keep Satan and his hoards from dominating people's lives, have been debased and fabrications presented as truth (1 Jn. 2 v 22-29). Like the broken walls in the time of Ezra, this has allowed pagans to dominate Christian thinking. He wrote: "Now the religious leaders and the national leaders had become completely compromised by accepting the world's death centred beliefs. I was utterly appalled because this was the reason why God had turned against them and they had become enslaved to a futile existence.

I fell on my knees in shame before God and said: You have called and saved a remnant who trust in your words. You have not abandoned us completely yet many of those called by your name have defied you and excused their self destructive behaviour by replacing your words with their own corrupt ideas. It is because of our sin that we cannot stand your presence in our meetings.

Yet if we repent and cut ourselves off from the doctrines of foreign gods I know our strength and prosperity will be restored and you will favour us as your blessed people again”.

The people wept and acknowledged their sin so Ezra was encouraged to call an assembly to establish what is false and what is true. Ministers had to swear that they would seek Gods truth. Those who did not were no longer to be considered as ministers. The reformers took 100 days to correct all the foreign errors.

A contrite and broken heart is as a full sack that is split and the grain spills out (Ps. 51). Such distress is not passive (Mt. 15 v 24-28, Jas. 5 v 17-22). Such wrestling wins God’s intervention (Gen. 32 v 26, Jg. 6 v 6). Such prayer triggers repentance and revival (1 Kg. 17 v 1, 20). Those who make Him their Lord are blessed (Mal. 3). The breaking with a rod of iron (Rev. 2 v 27) is for His enemies (Rev. 3 v 7, 20, Jn. 3 v 19). Those who make alliances with His enemies lose His protection (Ezr. 8 v 22, 2 Cor. 6 v 11-18). For your name’s sake, Lord shine light into their darkness (Is. 48, Jn. 1 v 4-5, Rom. 7)!

How do you enter into God’s kingdom of light ? Peter answered (1 Pt. 2 v 9, 2 v 25): Repent and baptize your old life into Jesus’ human death (Lk. 9 v 24) and you shall receive the gift of his new, God ruled life (Acts 2 v 38-39, 4 v 12). Water baptism represents the end of your old ways and a commitment to a preachers new way of life (Acts 19 v 3-6, 1 Cor. 1 v 14-15, 10 v 2, Mt. 28 v 20). Baptism in Jesus’ name marks your trust in Jesus to lead you into his eternal life (Jn. 14 v 6, Gal. 4 v 6, Eph. 1 v 13-22).

Abel and Job knew that if they repented of their sin, and asked God to be their spiritual Father again, He would send a new Adam to join them in death so they could rise with a new incorruptible body like His (Job 1 v 5, 8, 19 v 26; in my new fresh flesh, 1 Pt. 3 v 18). Only Jesus’ sinless body survives death (1 Cor. 15 v 49-57, Rev. 1 v 18). They accepted the old had to die by putting to death a perfect, innocent lamb in his stead in their place. They burnt it as rubbish on a bone-fire (Rom. 7 v 24-25, Heb. 11 v 4, 1 Jn. 1 v 9).

The sacrifice covered their sin but did not change their sin nature (Heb. 10 v 4). It had to be repeated every time they sinned and repented (Gen. 4 v 4-7, Job. 1 v 5, Heb. 9 v 16). If by the time of their death, they had stopped trusting in God’s promise they would not be saved (Job. 2 v 9, 1 Kg. 11 v 4-7, Ezk. 18 v 20-32).

However after passing a sore test in a crisis of faith (Gen. 22 v 15, 1 Sam. 30 v 3-6, 23, Heb. 11 v 17-19), that proved their trust would never change (Job. 13 v 15, 18 v 25), God reckoned them as if already righteous. He walked and talked with them personally as His friends (Gen. 5 v 24, 6 v 13, Ex. 33 v 11, Job. 42, Jas. 2 v 23).

His assurance cannot be annulled (Gal. 3 v 6-15, Heb. 6 v 17-20, 7 v 20-25). What God has declared clean no man can make common or unclean (Acts 10 v 15). Jesus has fulfilled all the old covenant redemptive, sacrificial types (Lk. 24 v 44-47, Eph. 4 v 7-10, 21-32). When he rose from the place of death (Lk. 16 v 22-26) his old testament friends rose with him as the first fruits of the resurrection of all believers (Mt. 25 v 10, 27 v 52, 1 Cor. 15 v 23).

Those who wholly trust in his sacrifice and are baptized into his death receive his new life now. Their sins are not covered but are annulled (Rom. 3 v 23-26, 5 v 17-19). They are not as his friends but born again as sons of the Father to be raised as Jesus' Spirit filled Bride (Rom. 8 v 14-16, 1 Thess. 4 v 13-18). The unsaved dead rise to suffer a second death (Rev. 20 v 6, 13-15).

Unapplied faith is only a theory (Jas. 2 v 20). Eternal assurance still depends on tested obedience or proven trust (Gal. 3 v 6-8, Heb. 6 v 12, 11 v 17). Until you, Satan and God are assured that your old life is committed to death with Christ (Mt. 4 v 1-11, Rom. 6 v 5-16, 8 v 6, Jas. 1 v 5-8, 1 Jn. 2 v 15-17) you will still fear death and 'vultures' will pick at your dead faith (Gen. 15 v 11).

If your security still depends on your provisions and preserving your old ways you have not yet made a full commitment to Jesus' new life (Mt. 6 v 24, Mk. 10 v 21-23, Acts 15 v 38, Heb. 2 v 13-15). Like the old testament believers (Job. 3 v 9, 25, Heb. 2 v 14-15, 4 v 1-6, 1 Jn. 4 v 18) you will fear missing your salvation. This is clearly stated in Ezekiel 18 v 26-28. The foolish leave it too late (Mt. 25 v 8-13). Only the committed are engaged or sealed with the gift of his life (Jn. 3 v 34-36, Rom. 8 v 9-16, 1 Cor. 12 v 12-13, Eph. 1 v 5, 14).

Baptism into God's life by his Spirit is as an emptied pot that is dropped into a sea of love and filled (Gen. 2 v 24, Jn. 17 v 21-24, Acts 2 v 2, Eph. 5 v 25-32). You may believe in Jesus but if you have not fully committed your old life to him you are not yet betrothed (Mt. 25 v 11-13, Lk. 13 v 25-28). You may be very religious and judge life according to God's laws but your eternal state will still depend on who you are trusting in when you die. Many of the casual friends of the 'Bride' will 'fall short' (Mt. 25 v 8, 12).

In an effort to appease God, some give money to men. You can hide your fears and faults from men but God's love sees the heart (Gen. 4 v 5, Ps. 51, 1 Sam. 15 v 22-26, 16 v 7, Mt. 12 v 34-37, Lk. 18 v 9-14, Heb. 3 v 7-19, Acts 5 v 3). Self approved beliefs and religious works, based on 'nice' feelings stirred by oneness with a party spirit attract God's judgement (Gen. 3 v 7, 1 Cor. 11 v 27-32, Gal. 3 v 3-6, Col. 2, Heb. 6 v 1, 12-13, Rev. 2 & 3).

The word of God has not changed but man-pleasing churches have turned it into a profane, make-believe faith void of God's Spirit and authority (1 Cor. 3 v 17-21). They submit their God given dominion to a lying spirit who says doing whatever you like is good (Mt. 7 v 29, 28 v 18, Eph. 4 v 18, 30).

What is truth? Life on earth is marred with disunity because each person believes what suits self (Gen. 3 v 5, Acts 26 v 18, 28 v 26-31). Logic is readily used to confuse truth. Pilate's truth was political (Jn. 18 v 37-38); he hung an innocent man. Occult half truths are used to conceal lies (1 Pt. 2 v 9). The same spirit that supports every other divisive belief fiercely opposes God's truth (Jn. 11 v 45-53, Php. 2 v 3-9).

Right and wrong is not arbitrary. Those who ignore God's warnings suffer (1 Sam. 15 v 21-23). It killed a nice priest named Uzzah (2 Sam. 6 v 7). Another died for only partially obeying God (1 Kg. 13 v 21-24). If we learn from their mistakes they will not have died in vain.

Everyone is tested, not on how good they think they are but on their trust in God's promised Saviour and his true words (Gen. 3 v 3-6, Pr. 3 v 6, Lk. 24 v 27). They must do the opposite of Satan and Plato's self justified and elevated god-men (Jn. 4 v 2-13, Acts 5 v 3). Vashti treated her King as an equal and lost all (Est. 1 v 19). Ester in fear and trembling asked the King for help against her enemies, who planned to kill her and her people. He totally reversed it.

The falsified truths of the power hungry are evil and always back-fire (Mt. 26 v 52, Lk. 11 v 18). Adam sought to be like god and became like an animal (Dan. 4 v 29-33). The men who had Daniel thrown to the lions were eaten alive by lions. Those who build their own kingdom (Rom. 16 v 18) want to be admired as successful, rich and secure (Mt. 23 v 4-15, Acts 8 v 9-11, 18-23, 2 Pt 2 v 1 3, Jude 16). If they ignore God's words they will achieve the opposite and be continually insecure (Dan. 4 v 33-37, 5 v 21-30, Lk. 16 v 25-31).

Those who would save their lives must chuck their self determined ways and commit their life to God's Saviour (Lk. 9 v 24). Only the omniscient Father is all light (Lk. 24 v 44, Jn. 4 v 24, 16 v 13-15). The ignorant who prefer nihilistic darkness to truth attract self serving, money motivated prophets, like Balaam, who find ways to circumvent God's will and words to suit their will (1 Kg. 18 v 26, 2 Pt. 2 & 3). These holy, smiling life assurance salesmen rob them of both their cash and their inheritance in Christ (Jn. 10 v 10, 14 v 12, 23-26, Eph. 4 v 8, 14, 5 v 5-6, 2 Tim. 3 v 4-7).

Salvation is not dependant on a priest or on believing and obeying the teachings of a man but on accepting the Lord of all, Jesus, as your Saviour (Lk. 23 v 42-43, Jn. 6 v 63, Acts 2 v 36-38, 20 v 30, 1 Cor. 1 v 18 to 2 v 16). He rewards those who seek him (Lk. 11 v 9, Heb. 11 v 16, Jas. 5 v 16-20).

Superior people (Gen. 4 v 3-7, Col. 2 v 2-14), who try to appease God with good works only offend His love and grace (Gal. 3-10, 4 v 3-9, Eph. 2 v 1-13). So they have to face His righteous judgement (Gen. 2 v 17, Mt. 4 v 6-7).

WHAT IS TRUTH?

| A BELIEF         | FAITH                   | FACT                 | MAKE-BELIEVE                  |
|------------------|-------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------|
| basis            | in a reliable source    | trial and error      | feelings                      |
| source           | recorded words          | material science     | dodgy super-ego               |
| form of truth    | proven truthful         | experiential truth   | made up truth                 |
| motivation       | love                    | satisfaction         | fear (self defence)           |
| aim              | to save                 | to teach             | to deceive                    |
| reliability      | Only God is all knowing | predictable          | varies with each person       |
| verification     | God's sworn promises    | education            | self assured faith            |
| confirmation     | assurance from God      | experience           | what you want it to mean      |
| sustained        | by God through faith    | repetition           | mind boosting stimulants      |
| result           | secure                  | calculated risk      | Jump and you will fly         |
| feelings         | love, joy, peace        | satisfying           | apprehension and fear         |
| consequence      | safe                    | insecure             | lethal                        |
| effect on self   | transforming            | temporal             | degenerate                    |
| effect on others | offer hope              | advise               | disturb                       |
| types            | Child of God            | materialist          | existentialist                |
| example of       | obey lights;            | try ignoring lights; | close your eyes and cross;    |
| crossing road    | it works                | it sometimes works   | what you think is true. BANG! |
| personality      | wise                    | teachable            | idiot                         |

ONENESS WITH THE FATHER'S LIFE ON EARTH (Eph. 5 v 32)

All the infinite Father's finite creation was made through His tangible person (Col. 1 v 15-19). Adam was made in his image as his helpmate (Php. 2 v 5-7). His body was 'God breathed'. He was not an incarnated spirit being: his spirit was God's Spirit (Gen. 2 v 73). He was unified with God's life, love, will and works (Col. 2 v 9-10, 3 v 10-14). He did not need his own clothes or covering as he shone (Gen. 2 v 25, Ex. 34 v 30, Lk. 9 v 29-30, 24 v 4).

Adam wanted to do things 'my way' so he became his own god. He expelled God's life and inhaled his wife's guiding spirit (1 Cor. 11 v 8-10). He was so terrified by how vulnerable he became that he hid behind an armouring of leafy branches (Rev. 6 v 16, Neh. 8 v 15). Everything he did that he thought was good just made his state worse (Prv. 3 v 5-7, 18-19, 26, Ezr. 8 v 22). Only the new Adam can make everything work to the good (Rom. 8 v 28).

Those who want to return to the Father's life and love must absolutely reject the inner guidance (Rom. 7) of their alter ego (like Freud's Psyche) and trust in His promised Saviour for a new God breathed life (Jn. 3 v 14-18, 14 v 23, 16 v 13-15). They are reborn (Jn. 20 v 22) not as a new creation but with a change of state (Job 19 v 27, 1 Cor. 15 v 49-52, Jude 6). After their body dies they gain a new God powered body like Jesus' (Php. 3 v 21).

Jesus warned it is better to be maimed in this life than spend eternity with no faculties (Mk. 9 v 41-50) but ignorant fools condemn him for it! Jeremiah's record of the madness of the perverse is heartbreaking. They hate those who do trust in him, so they seal their own fate (Mt. 22 v 37-40, Lk. 7 v 37-50, 1 Jn. 3 v 12, 4 v 15-21). Those who hate him retain Adam's cursed, death ruled nature with its fear for survival (Heb. 2 v 13-15).

The curses in Deuteronomy 28, both then and now are self inflicted. They should make the lost repent and cry to the Father for mercy but those who are their own god cursed Him as they die! Instead of feeling incompatible with our dying, make-do home many want God to renovate it.

Salvation is simple and free (Acts 2 v 37-43). Sanctification however is a process (1 Cor. 2 & 3). Until the corrupt nature dies born again believers have access to two life experiences and two homes (2 Cor. 5). One is finite and dying the other is infinite and just starting. The blood of Jesus bridges between the two. We are made one with Jesus' life through daily washing with his words (Jn. 13 v 8-10, Eph. 4 v 20-26, 5 v 26, 1 Jn. 2 v 12-14).

He expects obedience but God is a loving Father, not a tyrant (Num. 9 v 10-11, 2 Chr. 30 v 18-21, Neh. 8 v 8-18, Mt. 12 v 3-7, Jn. 8 v 3). He makes full allowance for His messy babies who sincerely seek His will.

Jesus was 'at home' when he spent hours in communion with his Father so everywhere he went he demonstrated his Father's love (Jn. 12 v 19, 14 v 17). To experience and manifest more of his life (Jn. 15 v 4-8) and spiritual gifts believers must dwell more in their Father's home and less time worrying about the gains and pains of the old (Lk. 8 v 13-14, Jn. 14 v 1-3, Php. 4 v 4-7, 1 Jn. 2 v 15, 3 v 1-3, 24, 4 v 13-18).

Those who love this world too much and blend in with it will not experience much of his new life (Jas. 1 v 7) till after their old life dies (Job. 2 v 9, Ps. 139, Joel 3, Lk. 10 v 25-28, 1 Cor. 3 v 15). Any eternal rewards depend on how far they get before the process ceases on death or the Day of Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 3 v 14-23, Php. 1 v 6). The time left is shorter than they think (Mt. 16 v 3, 1 Thess. 5 v 1-11, Rev. 1 v 3).

Holiness is just being one with the Father's mind and will (Micah 6 v 6-8, Rom. 8 v 2-15, 35-39, 1 Cor. 2, 1 Jn. 4 v 13-18). Walking in the light by faith in God's words and chatting with Him does not make you superior being with X-man powers (Rev. 5 v 3-7) but aware of your lowness. Proud 'clay pots' who try to be as God crack (Dan. 4 v 30-37, Acts 12 v 21-23).

People like Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Gideon (Jd. 6 v 12-22), Jacob, Job, Joseph, Moses, Joshua and Rahab to John the Baptist (Heb. 11) were 'friends' of God. Because they were sustained and empowered by God they needed things like a 'limp' to always remind them that they were human. They made mistakes (Acts 14 v 15-19, 1 Cor. 3 v 1-4, Php. 3 v 12) and accepted correction. You learn to be single minded and humble every day by trial and error: you need both to grow (Mt. 6 v 12, 15 v 18-19, Lk. 7 v 47-50, ).

The Apostles were made righteous by Jesus's sacrifice (Jn. 3 v 27-36, Jas. 5 v 17) and all filled with his life by his Spirit but the Father could only allow Peter's shadow heal because he knew in his own zeal he had failed terribly (Jn. 13 v 37-38). Paul knew his human zeal had caused the death of Christians (2 Cor. 12 v 10). They were not gods but made one with the Father again by faith in His works and words.

Abel knew that only faith in the Lamb of God could gain him a god-related life. Before he experienced it Abraham gained the sinless life of God's new man as a gift (Rom. 5 v 17-21, Eph. 2 v 8, Heb. 6 v 13-20) by faith in His sworn promise (Rom. 3 v 20-25, Heb. 11 v 1). Those who prefer to believe the lies of their vain, permissive alter egos pay dearly for everything (Jas. 1 v 2-12).

The self righteous replace faith in Christ's offer of new life with religious works. Superior, proud fools know they have pointless lives that decay. They also know their doctrine of self survival is futile yet they think God's Saviour is the phony one! Why? Pride (Jas. 4 v 1-10, 1 Jn. 1 v 6-10)!

Like Cain and Aristotle, the self-glorifying works of self-saving people make them feel and look good but they are deadly (Mt. 23 v 28, 35). They show that they have no desire to love or obey God (1 Sam. 15 v 22-23, Lk. 16 v 31, Jn. 3 v 4-18).

The Father's love judges their heart (Heb. 11 v 6). The puffed up life of the self justified Pharisees was a pretentious show that concealed their evil hearts (Mt. 12 v 32-42, 15 v 7-9, 16 v 12, Mt. 23 v 25-27). Those who defend their sinful, death bound nature repeat Adam's sin: they promote opposing or distorted version of His undeniable truth (Rom. 1 v 21).

The Holy Spirit can only wash away our worldliness if we humbly start again (Jn. 3 v 3-10) with a new unadulterated 'life'. "Even from the days of your fathers you have departed from my commands and not obeyed them. Return to me and I will return to you, says the Lord of all life ... And I will open the windows of heaven..... Then those who revered God preached about these things and the Lord responded and the names of those who feared the Lord and sought his ways were recorded so that they are remembered in heaven forever" (Mal. 3 v 7-18, Rev. 3 v 5).

The freedom and joy that flows from being one with the Father's love and will, far exceeds all this world has to offer (1 Cor 2 v 9, 1 Jn. 1 v 3, 2 v 14). Unlike Adam, the Father's born again children know what a life separated from His love is like, so they will never want to leave His home again (Lk. 15 v 18-24).

Isaiah 12: "And you shalt say, O Lord, I will praise you, for you were angry with me, but now you comfort me. You have saved me from death so I will trust you with my life and fear nothing. You enable me to overcome obstacles with ease. Each day I am refreshed. I will praise you every day, for every time I call on you I receive more to share with others so that your name is exalted.

Make a joyful noise so that the whole earth knows how wonderful He is. Cry out and shout, you children of God: for great is our Holy God and He dwells with us. The Lord God Almighty is our shield and our strength"

All the prophets spoke about the Kingdom of Heaven ruling on earth and now John announces it is here! .....It has always been violently opposed and its attackers have supplanted it but if you receive his message, it will come (Mat. 11 v 12-20).

The unworthy who heed God's call for repentance will be filled with indescribable joy (1 Pt. 1 v 7-16). As they realise His loved their joy will overflow as a love for others (Jn. 15 v 10-17). Wise fools (Ps. 14, Rom. 1 v 16-23) who reject their need of a Saviour and blind themselves to Jesus' miracle backed message in favour of their pointless, death ruled lives will be very miserable.

THE FULLNESS OF JESUS' ACCOMPLISHED REST

We are designed to be one with Christ as his co-rulers over all God's creation to carry out the Father's wonderful plans. We have built in eternal longings for greatness but to gain all we have to unconditionally give all. To illustrate this (Mt. 22 v 30) Adam was divided into two complimentary parts so that when physically united they became complete again. "To have and to hold from this day forward, to love, comfort, honour and obey, in good and difficult times as long as they both shall live."

Adam divorced his life from Christ's in order to do as he pleased as his own god in obedience to Woman's direction. It was all based on the first lie (Gen. 3 v 4-5, Jn. 8 v 44-47). He lost the love and provision of his Father and control of his kingdom. He was filled with a fear for self survival.

Carnality is being led by self centred ideas and desires. Whether it is a persuasion or lust it is abusive and unloving (Rom. 8 v 5-7, 1 Cor. 3 v 3, Gal. 3 v 3, Col. 2 v 18, Jas. 1 v 15). You can resist it but not free yourself from it (Rom. 7). You need to shed your self powered and pleasing life and gain a God led life before it is too late. Only those who realise how hopeless and terrible their situation is will cry out "Jesus have mercy on me" (Mt. 9 v 28-29, 13 v 58, Rom. 7 & 8).

God is infinitely secure because each of His Persons does not act without the love and agreement of the other two. We only have a viable future if we accept the Father's love and will (Jn. 4 v 14-21). Those who do not will end up without a body yet burn with their longings forever.

Without complete trust in the redeeming death of His promised Saviour it is impossible to be reunited with Him (Rom. 5 v 1-5, 10 v 14-21, Gal. 3 v 6-12, Heb. 2 v 15, 3 v 17-19, 4 v 14-16, 11 v 6, Jas. 4 v 3-10). You do not deserve it. You are only saved due to God's love, mercy and grace (Lk. 8 v 48, 15 v 18-24).

The self contained only care for themselves. The prodigal son's self-centred brother worked for self gain. He never loved his father as a son but and served for pay. His father did not need another servant. He wanted a relationship with his son and to involve with in his plans. Without the Father's desire (Jn. 1 v 12-13) life becomes pointless (Gen. 2 v 9, Jn. 7 v 38). Trying to appease God to suit self-centred desires is the opposite of oneness.

Holiness = oneness. A love relationship with the Father must be the aim of Christians (Jn. 14 v 9, 12, 23, 1 Jn. 2 v 14). Only then will they perform His works under Jesus authority, as sanctioned by his Spirit (Mt. 6 v 10, Jn. 3 v 21). They must let His Holy Spirit gently but firmly cut out their carnal desires so they may be the helpmate that they were designed for (Rom. 8 v 7-13, Heb. 4 v 14-16). They must love others and encourage them to trust in His love (Php. 2 v 1-16). It is not His desire that any should perish (2 Pt. 3 v 9).

Like the Hebrews, many accept the Bible as a record of God's words but amend it to hide (Mt. 15 v 7-14, Acts 7 v 51) their disobedience (1 Cor. 10, Rev. 2 v 16, 3 v 16). They create a god in their own image (Jn. 3 v 18-20, 5 v 36-44). God swore in His wrath that people, who are called by his name but do their own version of His will and words (Mt. 4 v 4,7,10, Lk. 13 v 27) and ignore His correction (1 Pt. 1 v 21, 2 v 15-21) will never enter His rest (Heb. 2 v 1-4, 3 v 9-14, Rev. 2 & 3). It is impossible to gain the works of God without trusting His words (Eph. 6 v 15, Heb. 11 v 6, 11 v 20, Jas. 1 v 2-8, 22, 2 v 17-20).

People have faith in the instructions on a packet of seed: you must have a similar faith in sowing God's words (Heb. 6 v 9-15). Those who believe their inner ideological or religious spirits instead of Jesus (Lk. 10 v 17-21) wander in an unchanging desert inhabited by demons (Heb. 3 v 7-11, 4 v 1, 19). Satan claims them as his meat (Gen. 3 v 3-6, Col. 2 v 4-8, 18).

Confess your sins to God and He will forgive and wash them away by his word (Eph. 5 v 26, Jas. 4 v 6, 1 Pt. 1 v 5-16, 1 Jn. 1 v 9). You start to put off the fallen life and put on the new (Lk. 14 v 26-33, Acts 10 v 44-47, 1 Cor. 2 v 13-16, Eph. 1 v 9-14, 4 v 22-24, Col. 3 v 8-17). Your proven trust allows you to dwell in God's presence again (Heb. 4 v 9-16).

Ephesians 1: ... To his called and chosen (Mt. 20 v 16) ones whom he has redeemed by his death ... I thank and pray for you that the Spirit may reveal to you his thinking and ways and enlighten you to the greatness of your calling and the overwhelming power extended to us by his resurrection which He accomplished through Christ. ... He has put all other self exulted powers below us forever so that in the ages to come, he might share with us the surpassing bounty of His love (Heb. 12 v 2).

Ephesians 2: ... He has raised us up to rule over creation with Christ our King based purely on the grace extended to those who trusted in him. By his sacrifice we are made one with the Father. It is something we do not deserve nor could ever achieve so we will be eternally thankful for His kindness.

Love is essential to our well being because we were created out of love to be one with Christ Jesus. Much of the world's entertainment is about love. We yearn for oneness but when we meet the person of our dreams two-ness is as good as it gets. People seek unity in other ways; with nature, a nagual, animals, even with trees but they do not sustain us: we have to sustain them.

When we get just a sip of his love (Ps. 34 v 7-9) we will want to leave the 'home' we were born in (Jn. 14 v 2-4) to be one with God's love without end. We shall dwell with Him and rule over all His creation with Jesus, not as servants but reunited as one (Gen. 2 v 22, Gal. 3 v 26-28, Heb. 2 v 6-7, 13-18, 3 v 14-18). Those who are divorced from his life will suffer with rejection forever (Rev. 22 v 14-17).

God accepts and rewards those who seek oneness with His words and Spirit (Lk. 12 v 20-34, Jn. 4 v 22-24, Heb. 11 v 1). He has a unique plan for your life built on your unique aptitudes (1 Sam. 16 v 7, Mt. 4 v 19, Acts 9 v 15, 1 Tim. 6 v 18). There is nothing to fear. In His Kingdom love, joy peace, justice and goodness reign. He has proved His love. He rent His being and sent Jesus into our death to redeem us (Jn. 3 v 16). The tangible entity of the Holy Spirit is Jesus (Jn. 14 v 17-20, 16 v 7, 13-15). Unlike the pure spirit beings (Jude 6) who incarnated in Noah's time, as a sinless man he was not chained in death.

Death had no hold over him (Heb. 2 v 16-18, 4 v 15). With the authority of the infinite Father (Col. 1 v 15-19) he said "Let there be..." and immediately he was reunited with his invisible Holy Spirit (Eph. 2 & 3, Col 2, 1 Pt. 3 v 18-22). In response we must give up our dying, self centred ways to gain His all. We must love our Saviour with all of our mind heart and strength: less is an insult. Only then will you know that He is the Wonderful Counsellor and the father or source of everlasting life.

You will then share his anguish for those on earth who are drawn by Satan into destitution. You will want to do His works and give Him all the glory so others will know Jesus and be saved. Only complete trust is met with growth (Jn. 15 v 7-12, Heb. 10 v 38, Jas. 2 v 18, 1 Jn. 2 v 13-14). There is an urgency to enter into the rest he has already bought for us (Heb. 4 v 10-16). The warning quakes are getting stronger (Ezk. 38 v 18-23, Mt. 24 v 6-14, Heb. 12 v 22-29).

Read James with new eyes! Just believing is not enough (Jas. 2 v 14-17). You cannot make anything exist just by believing for it (Rom. 8 v 8). Faith is in a person who has been proved to be true (Mt. 9 v 28, Php. 2 v 5-16 Heb. 11 v 4-6). We have a brief life on earth in which to reverse Adam's treason or endorse it (Rom. 5 v 18-21). There is no other way by which we can escape eternal bankruptcy and self torment. There is no limbo (Mt. 25 v 41).

Every created visible and invisible thing was made by him and is subject to him (Heb. 2 v 9-10). All who trust in him before they die will be raised to sit with him in as his co-rulers (Heb. 2 v 5-8, 13-16). The completed number of saved since Jesus' death are called the Bride of Christ (Jn. 21 v 11, Rom. 11 v 25). On the Day of Jesus Christ (Php. 1 v 6, 2 v 16) they all receive a new powerful body like Jesus', born of his flesh as Woman was born of Adam.

The time of the Rapture is associated with apostasy (Php. 1 v 6, 10, 2 v 11-16, 2 Thess. 2 v 1-12, 1 Jn. 2 v 18). At the time of Elijah, after Israel rejected God's grace, less than 1 in 1000 were true to God's words (1 Kg. 19). Many are called but too few respond (Mt. 22 v 13-14, 23 v 37-38, Rev 3 v 20). The ratio with the friends of the Bride is half (Mt. 25). The ratio in some of the end-time, apostate churches in Revelation 2 & 3 is much less. In Noah's time and Lots (Mt. 24 v 36-47) a total of only 11 were saved.

THE BRIDE'S NEW HOME IS FINISHED (Jn. 14 v 2-3)

The Father received the first fruits from death on His First of Weeks 4.5.33 AD (Job. 19 v 25-26, Jn. 20 v 17). The complete Church consists of all the saints who died after the cross (1 Cor. 15 v 47-52) plus the saved and sealed still alive on earth. His harvest ends at Pentecost (between 20.6.2026 to 33? Rom. 11 v 25, 12 v 1-16) on the Day of Christ (Php. 1 v 6, Rev. 1 v 10).

The two loaves offered at Pentecost (the only sacrifice offered up with the remains of its life still in it) contain grains from the first sheath to the last of the harvest. Jesus left the body of believers on earth after 40 mornings. To fulfil the full 50 days (Lev. 23 v 10-21) he must rejoin his Church on Earth for her last 10 days (9 x 24 hrs). The dead get their Christ-like bodies first.

Some with Jesus will mix with those still alive on earth (1 Thess. 4 v 14). On the 50th the alive then drop their corruptible bodies like a coat. In a flash they are caught up in the clouds into the unfading Lord's spiritual realm to be with him for ever. As they are married "out of the away" (Lk. 14 v 33-34, 2 Thess. 2 v 7) love, joy and peace leave with them (Rev. 6, 1 Cor. 15 v 52). Satan's 7 year reign of death starts (Rev. 12 v 10-12). It is the day and hour that Satan's reign ends and God's starts that is hidden (Mt. 25 v 36).

The Bride will send out many invitations (Mt. 22 v 14, Jude 14-18, 23). In the parable her friends (Ps. 45 v 14, Mt. 25 v 12) know the day but do not know the groom and he does not know them. They light their lamps at sunset (6 pm). Oil lamps last 6 hrs (Lk. 12 v 35-38).

The groom rides to his bride's home to take her back to his new home, but there was a delay. At midnight a light approaches. Her friends wake to dress (kosmeo) their lamps but they are dying (v 7-8). Half had their oil bottles with them with enough left for about 10 more minutes (v 9). The 'oil' signifies God's wisdom as poured out by His anointed prophets, teachers and rulers (Ps. 119 v 105, Zech. 4 v 3-14, Mt. 17 v 3, Lk. 4 v 18, Rev. 11 v 4). It is not the gift of Jesus' life promised to his bride (Rom. 8 v 11-15, Eph. 1 v 5-14).

Five had just enough teaching to be saved but not to explain it to the others. Only trust in the blood or death of Jesus atones for our sin and permits God's Breath to revive Adam's lost children (Gen. 2 v 7). To be one with Jesus' Spirit you must love (Heb. 4) him and feed off his truth (Jn. 4 v 23, 17 v 16).

Vain beliefs have obscured the gospel of Christ (1 Kg. 22 v 8, 12, 1 Thess. 5 v 1-3, Rev. 22 v 14). The prophets of the god of this world (Baal) preach that the best, fittest, self determined ones, with self assured faith or will-power, will survive (1 Kg. 11 v 9-11, Jer. 3 v 20-25, Acts 20 v 28-31, 1 Cor. 13 v 1-3). In fact the self confident have no hope. When faced with dying they seek euthanasia instead of salvation (Job 2 v 9, Rev. 9 v 6).

JUDGEMENT OF THE FAITHLESS WHO CHOOSE TO BELIEVE A LIE

Jeremiah wept over the wise fools who oversaw the destruction of their nation (Jer. 9). They hated God for not supporting their idolatry (Jer. 44 v 17)! All those who have fed off Satan's 'daily bread' and reject Jesus and the Rapture as ludicrous, will worship a mass media magician as their god (Rom. 1 v 18-23)! At first this mock Messiah even fools the Jews (Mt. 24 v 15-24)!

Acts 2 says 3000 devout, religious Jews were mortified when they realised they had misread their Messiah's first visit (Is. 61 v 2). At the end of the Age of the Gentiles, many religious Christians have also misread Jesus. They pray 'my will be done in heaven as it is on earth' instead of seeking and doing his will (Jer. 29 v 13, Rom. 8 v 8, 11 v 22-25, Heb. 11 v 6-7). They want 'Revival' to fill their empty pews and coffers, yet they are the ones who block Jesus' Spirit (Lk. 16 v 30-31, 17 v 21-30, Lk. 18 v 7-8 Rev. 3 v 20)! They are bound and blinded to the truth by their religious spirits (Mk. 13 v 21-22).

Christianity is discredited as a fabrication because each organisation has compromised his words to fit ancient demonic beliefs (Mt. 15 v 1-14). They have sided with God's enemies and obey a religious party-spirit's version of the truth (Gen. 3 v 1-8, Mt. 7 v 22, Acts 2 v 38-40, Rev. 2 v 4, 22, 3 v 9, 22). Christian countries have been taken over by absurd, evil ideologies because the people called by Christ's name have profaned it (Jer. 23, 1 Pt. 4 v 7-17, 2 Pt. 2). His blood bought children must separate themselves from their unholy spirits or be judged with them (Ps. 2, 2 Cor. 6 v 14-18, Acts 5 v 3, Rev. 6 v 16-17).

Many will awake, together with 144,000 messianic Jews, to find, like a thief in the night (as in the days of Noah and Lot: Mt. 25 v 38) their Messiah has been and gone while they slept. Jesus clouded the order of events so that Satan did not deduce what was about to happen (Mt. 24 v 42-44, 25 v 12, 1 Thess. 5 v 4-9, Rev. 3 v 3-10, 16 v 15). There is not a Job left to dispute Satan's claim nor a Lot who warrants God's protection (Gen. 19 v 22, Job. 1 v 7-10) so Baal is unleashed!

It forces people to do dehumanising acts of commitment that consign them to hell while still on Earth (Gen. 4 v 15, Rev. 19 v 20, 22 v 15: not just a tattoo or a microchip). In It's inquisition children will report and behead their parents (Mt. 10 v 36). They will suffer eternal dearth (Mk. 9 v 42-44).

Those who resist It's false prophet will die but gain God's blessings. Unlike the times of Noah and Lot (Lk. 17 v 26-33) millions of uncommitted believers will cry to God for mercy (Is. 65 v 16) and be forgiven but many of them are killed by the God-hating ruler of their world (fifth seal: Rev. 6 v 8-11, 20 v 4). They do not get new bodies and join the Body of Christ until the 7 th seal and 7 th bowl are over.

DIVIDING THE SHEEP FROM THE GOATS

In Revelation 1 v 16, 20 the Lord holds sway over the seven stars or spirits which control the churches (1 Sam. 16 v 15-18, 2 Cor. 11 v 4, 13-15). He dictates a dire warning and sends it to the minister or message-giver of each church (Rev. 1 v 11, 2 v 1, 5, 3 v 1): change before it is too late! Most did not so their light was snuffed. They had bowed to self centred people who did what was good for them (Gen. 3 v 3-6, Deut. 7 v 3-10, 1 Kg. 22 v 19-22, Eph. 2 v 2).

Self glorifying, greedy, teachers (Jude) talk about self, do godless Bible studies and promote self centred love as the solution to all ills. They teach the self-saving doctrines of their Gnostic alter egos (Neh. 13 v 1-9, Lk. 4 v 8, 6 v 26, 1 Tim. 1 v 7-10, 4 v 1-5). They take the glory that belongs only to Jesus and say God's clear words to the prophets and apostles are ambiguous and divisive (Gen. 3 v 4, Jer. 23, Zech. 4 v 12, Mt. 21 v 25, 23 v 13-15, 27, Eph. 4 v 10-24).

The Word of God is meant to divide (Lk. 12 v 51, Heb. 4 v 12). It divides between the saved and the lost: the God breathed and animated dummies; spiritual realities and conjured myths; God's eternal truths and man's speculation; beliefs and motives; the wise and the perverse (Mt. 4 v 6); inspiration and its source; life and death; love and hate; oneness and egoism (Lk. 16 v 28-29, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10, Rev. 3 v 16).

Jesus has one Truth; one Body; one Holy Spirit (Eph. 4 v 3-6). You cannot be one with God's Spirit while you entertain an alternative ego (Mt. 6 v 24, Jn. 4 v 22-24, Acts 8 v 7-16). Pseudo believers follow Gnostic religious spirits (1 Kg. 22 v 23, 1 Cor. 11 v 10, 14 v 36-37) who do not edify them but accuse them at God's throne (Job. 1 v 6, Rev. 1 v 4, 12 v 10-12).

Their job is to collect the look-a-like Christians into groups or bundles for burning (Mt. 13 v 28-30, 1 Cor. 3 v 16-23). Now you know what Exodus 20 v 3 and "because of the angels" mean (1 Cor. 11 v 3-10). To those who pray for the fire of the Holy Spirit to fall on the adulterous, churches; do you think his threshing and fire will be nice (Lk. 3 v 17, 19 v 46, Rev. 3 v 19, 1 Pt. 4 v 17)? Jesus is coming with a rod of iron (Ps. 2, Lk. 19 v 45-48). Those who offend him will suffer his wrath (Mt. 23 v 37, Rom. 9 v 33, Lk. 4 v 28).

Jesus can make demons let his people go but how will he persuade his people to leave the bondage they are used to? With the Hebrews he waited till they cried to him for help (Ex. 3 v 7-8, Rev 2 v 7, 11, 17). When the Egyptians and their gods refused to let his people go, they were progressively destroyed. The Nile was polluted, pestilence filled water and air, livestock died, tumours cover them, climate changed, crops failed, Sun blotted out, military might decimated, ideology and glory smashed (as in Deut. 28 and Rev. 8 to 11).

How far up the scale do you think we are at today? After Ezekiel 38 (Ezk. 39 v 6-7, 21) there is a return to seeking God for a few of years. Those who accept Jesus as their Lord and Saviour will overflow with joy as they draw water out of the wells of salvation (Neh. 8 v 1-12, Is. 12 & 61, Eph. 5 v 26-27).

The gospel will be preached in all the world then the division will come (Mt. 24 v 11-14, 1 Thess. 5 v 2-11). Jesus will remove His sanctified ones on the day of Jesus Christ (Jn. 17 v 17-21, Eph. 6 v 25-27, Php. 1 v 6, 3 v 1-21, Col. 3 v 1-4). The last post or trumpet is the hailing recall at the end of a conflict: the final whistle. The match is over: Jesus has won (1 Cor. 15 v 54-58).

First the dead in Christ gain their heavenly bodies. A short time later the saved, who are still alive on earth, suddenly change and rise to join them to complete the Bride of Christ (1 Cor. 15 v 45-53). Young children sanctified by their parents should join them (1 Cor. 7 v 14)?

The corruptible bodies discarded by the raptured will be explained by a lie (Mt. 27 v 52-53, 28 v 11-15). Only Jesus sinless body is not corruptible (Acts 2 v 27-29, 1 Cor. 15 v 50). In that split second (1 Cor. 15 v 51-52) Satan is thrown down to start his murderous reign as lord of all the Earth (Rev. 12 v 8-12). Up to that last second all who repent and claim forgiveness through the blood of Jesus will be saved. Many of the unready who have put off repenting of their sinful ways then wake up (Mt. 24 v 37-51, 1 Thess. 5 v 2-11).

The Bridegroom collects his spotless Bride from her father's house (Mt. 25 v 6-12, Eph. 5 v 26-27, 1 Thess. 4 v 16, 2 Thess. 2 v 3-12). His friends are already raised and resting in his house (Mt. 27 v 52-53). Her friends expect to enter his house with her (Ps. 45 v 14, Jn. 8 v 47). They collect some of the Holy Spirit's outpoured 'oil' (Ps. 104 v 15, Ti. 2 v 12-13, 2 Pt. 3) so they shine for a while (Dan. 12 v 3) but half of them do not persevere and so suffer great loss (Jer. 48 v 11-13, Amos 6, Lk. 12 v 19-20, Heb. 12 v 16, 25).

At first Israel welcomes the wonder working alternative Christ's as their Messiah. So do the many worldly Christian (Mt. 25 v 8, 11) who pay tithes to their god so it will spare their idolatrous life style (Mt. 25 v 30, Acts 7 v 51, Rev. 6 v 11). Only when their manmade kingdom becomes a hell on earth instead of a heaven (Gen. 10 v 9-10, 11 v 3-6) do millions of them repent. They are saved but many die in Satan's reign of terror (Rev. 6 v 9-11).

The worst sinner who trusts in Jesus (Rom. 10 v 8-13) and cries to him for mercy before or even as they die will be forgiven and accepted (Ezk. 18 v 20-32, Lk. 23 v 39-43, Heb. 4 v 14-16). Those who (Mt. 3 v 6-12) justify their vain idea of what is good (Mt. 15 v 9-20) will be lost. The fools who reject God's grace despite the clear warning signs will have only themselves to blame (1 Kg. 18 v 37, Mt. 16 v 4, Mk. 13 v 35-37, Lk. 13 v 23-28, 18 v 8, 1 Thess. 4 v 13-16)! Unto what then have you been baptised (Acts 19 v 3)?

OFFENCE 1: THE WATERED DOWN DOCTRINE OF BAPTISMS (Heb. 6 v 2)

John the Baptist's message was repent and be ready to receive God's promised new life by getting baptised in water (Acts 2 v 38). He said:–

“I baptize you with water [No. 1] as a sign of you ending your old way of life (Lev. 14 v 9), but the holy one is coming, who will baptise you [No. 2] with his life breath (Jn. 20 v 22) into a new life of obedience. He will then winnow you (divide good from no good; Heb. 4 v 12, 12 v 27-29) and refine you. Finally the fire [No. 3] burns up the dross” (Acts 1 v 4-6, 2 v 3, 4 v 7-13, 1 Cor. 3 v 11-17).

Jesus ordered his disciples to wait till he sent them the baptism of power that he himself had to wait for before he started his public ministry (Mt. 20 v 22-23, Lk. 3 v 22, 4 v 14). They were then to make disciples from all nations; baptising them in the name of the Father, also (Kai) in the name of the Son and also in the name of the Holy Spirit (Mt. 28 v 18-20). Three progressive stages and identifications! You do 1; God's Spirit does 2 & 3.

This is what they did. Full of the Spirit and fear-free after his baptism of fire at Pentecost, Peter said to 3000 devout Jews “Repent and be baptised into the name of Jesus Christ (physically cut yourself off from your old sin and death ruled life through water as in 1 Cor. 10 v 2) for the remission of your sins and God's Spirit will baptise you with His “breath of life” (start His new life: Gen. 2 v 7, 2 Cor. 1 v 22).

The life you inherited from Adam is not redeemable: it will die and all you have gained from the works of that nature will be lost (1 Tim. 6 v 7). Only by believing that Jesus' sacrifice has redeemed you can you gain the breath of God's life that Adam expelled (1 Cor. 3 v 11-17). Jesus' humanity had to die to join us in our godless state. Those who trust him will start to experience his God related life but only as their old life dies (Rom. 6 v 3-11). His Spirit winnows their old ways and thinking till only Christ's remain (1 Cor. 2, Eph. 4 v 23, 1 Pt. 3 v 21). Those who want to save their old life will not.

Water baptism marks your commitment to that Spirit led life in which Jesus is your King (Acts 10 v 42-43, 19 v 2-6, Rom. 8 v 1, Col. 2 v 8-12). It is not a religious initiation ceremony like circumcision (Gen. 17 v 13, Jn. 8 v 39-42, Gal. 5 v 1-6). Babies are sanctified by a Christian parent (1 Cor. 7 v 14) until they are able to decide for themselves to be baptised (Lk. 2 v 42: over 12). The other two: the gift of God's new life (Rom. 8, Eph. 1 v 13, 3 v 10-19) and identification with the Father; only His Spirit can do (Jn. 3 v 5-6).

You gain His Spirit's seal of assurance after you pass a test of trust (Gen. 22 v 12, 30 v 34-39, Job 2 v 9, 42 v 8, Dan. 10 v 11, Eph. 2 v 8, Gal. 3 v 6-10, Heb. 3 v 19, 11 v 17-19, 2 v 18-26). As with Moses (1 Cor. 10 v 2) many baptised with water get stuck between the pleasures of the old and the joys of the new (Jas. 1 v 2-12, 1 Pt. 4 v 12-19, 2 Pt. 2 v 20-22, Jude 5, Rev. 3 v 16).

They 'fall short of the mark' (Mt. 7 v 21, 13 v 20-23, Jn. 3 v 34-36, Acts 7 v 39, Heb. 3 v 12-19). Jesus as God's second Adam descended into death to buy back from Satan's ownership all who commit their old ways to death with his human death. God makes an abiding agreement with them (Eph. 1 v 11-21: as in a marriage covenant). They know they are forgiven, will inherit a new God powered body like Jesus' (1 Cor. 15 v 37, 49-57) and live with him ever after (Gen. 1 v 26-27, Ex. 34 v 5, 29-30, Rom. 6). They receive his Spirit led life which the first Adam rejected. (Rom. 5 v 21, 7 v 4-6, 10 v 8-13, Heb. 9 v 16-17)

Those who just dip and not immersed themselves into Jesus' life (Ex. 20 v 3, Rom. 8 v 1-4, 14, Jas. 1) have no assured salvation (Ezekiel 18). The secret of this Spirit led life is 1 Jn. 5 v 20-21, 2 v 15: "Little children if you want to know Jesus and the truth, you must shun man's false versions of God. Do not love what this brief, mammon driven, earthly life has to offer more than the rewards promised to those who love him" (2 Cor. 6 v 12-18, Eph. 3 v 16-21).

We are not incarnated spirits nor just beasts (Heb. 2 v 15) but born with an insecure, death ruled physical body with spiritual awareness (Gen. 35 v 1-5, Rom. 7 v 14-19). You do not own your 'temple' (1 Cor. 3 v 16, 6 v 17-20): the spirit you trust and obey does (page 10). Humanists may be ignorant of God's Spirit but they are aware of their driving alter ego (Rom. 8 v 5-9). The nagual they identify with will own them after their physical life dies (2 Pt. 2 v 10-12).

The Lord's message is: "You must be born again through the breath of God's Spirit (Gen. 2 v 7, Jn. 3 v 5-8). His life breath (pneuma) will separate your old life from the new. As you walk by faith in God's promises he will free you; physically, mentally and spiritually in 3 stages (1 John. 1 v 2-3, 2 v 12-15):-

1. New believers know they are children of the Father and their sins are forgiven but they wrestle with the things of God (Heb. 5 v 12).
2. Mature believers have learnt God's truth (Jn. 16 v 23-32). They obey Jesus as Lord and so exercise his authority over Satan (2 Cor. 5 v 7).
3. Fathers walk and talk with the Father (Gen. 18 v 17, Num. 12 v 8, Jas. 5 v 16).

Before you are ready to be fully manifested as a son of the Father His Holy Spirit assays, refines and unifies the believers' desires with the Father's (Job 13 v 15, Lk. 4 v 4, Jn. 6 v 62-63, 8 v 31-36, Rom. 7 v 6, 1 Jn. 1 v 8). You will then know and obey Him and give Him all the glory without self casting a shadow (Gen. 1 v 26, 2 v 23-24, 3 v 15, Eph. 5 v 31-32, Col. 2 v 8-22, Heb. 4 v 9-16, 6 v 3-7). It is testing but without this 'work in progress' your Christian walk will be stagnant and spiritually naive (Gal. 3, Heb. 5 v 12, 6 v 1).

You must persevere as His Spirit aligns your thinking with God's words (Jn. 16 v 7-15, Eph. 4 v 11-24). His fire burns up the 'chaff'; not you (Jn. 14 v 23, Acts 1 v 4-6, 2 v 3, 4 v 7-13, 13 v 2, Rom. 7 v 18). All that is left in you is of the righteous life that God has breathed into you (1 Cor. 3 v 13-17).

The three baptisms (physical, mental, spiritual) follow three tests: -
Test one is to establish if your will is free from Satan's control over your physical needs, greeds and fear of death (1 Tim. 6 v 10).
Test two establishes if you are free from the desire for personal glory, reputation, authority and power. The Father exalted Jesus because He did not seek His own glory (Lk. 4 v 5-8, Php. 2 v 3-16).
Test three is do you question and test God's words when Satan sows doubt (Gen. 35 v 2-5, Dan. 3 v 17-18, 25, Acts 4 v 31, Jas. 1 v 1-8).

The Apostles took 40 months; the Israelites 40 years (Josh. 5 v 14). Jesus had no sin so he passed all three in 40 days (Mt. 3 v 15-17, Lk. 4 v 14, 18, Acts 13 v 2, 14 v 15). At the start of his ministry he was baptised in water then by the Holy Spirit (Jn. 1 v 33). The Father then acknowledged him as His Son. He was then tempted by the devil (Mk. 1 v 9-13), just as Adam was: on self preservation, elevation and the misapplication of God's words.

Your baptism through water marks your rejection of your sin nature and desire for Jesus' godly one. Before the Spirit immerses you into his life your commitment is tested. This is usually confirmed by the laying on of hands by a mature Christian (Acts 9 v 10-17, 1 Cor. 6 v 19). The fire of Pentecost was not the Baptism of the Holy Spirit but by the Holy Spirit (Jn. 14 v 23, 16 v 23-25, 17 v 21). This final identification falls on all on the day of Jesus Christ and on any who have become fully identified with him before then (Jn. 1 v 12-13, 1 Cor. 2 v 9-16, Php. 1 v 6, 20-21). Only oneness is acceptable in heaven.

The Father puts His children under a tutor before He gives them the keys to His treasury (Jn. 14 v 12, 21, 18 v 37, Rom. 10 v 17, Gal. 4 v 1-7, Eph. 5 v 26-27, Heb. 12). Jesus' Spirit encourages them to trust and obey his voice (Jn. 10 v 4, 16, 16 v 13-15, Eph. 5 v 26, Php. 3 v 15, 2 Thess. 2 v 13). Holiness is oneness: having the same love, will and mind as Jesus (Ex. 20 v 3, Jas. 1 v 2-8; page 14). You gain the mind of Christ by submitting to God's revealed words by letting the Spirit cleans you of the voices that used to fill your mind (Heb. 3 v 19, 4 v 10-16, 6 v 1-2).

Baptism in the name of Jesus involves repenting of the religious works and the alter ego guides that appeal to your self-serving and preserving mind (Mt. 6 v 19-33, 1 Pt. 5, Jn. 13 v 37-38, Acts 5 v 3, Rom. 8 v 4-8, 1 Cor. 3 v 1-3). Those who say all that matters is that you are baptised with water are not necessarily saved (Ezk. 18, 1 Cor. 3 v 19-20, 10 v 2-12, Heb. 3 v 19).

Those baptised by John on Yom Kippur were not (Mt. 3 v 5-12). In Acts 19 some of them whose sincerity was proven (Eph. 1 v 7-13, 2 v 18) were sealed by the Holy Spirit only after being baptised into Jesus' death. Others in Acts 8 were baptised but not 'sealed', for they were still under the influence of a sorcerer who had bewitched them (1 Jn. 4 v 1, 13-18). In Acts 10 the devout gentiles were sealed as soon as they accepted Christ.

The Lord knocks on the door of your heart. You need to build a personal relationship with him (Rev. 3 v 20-22). His Holy Spirit will challenge you daily like a school teacher (Jn. 16 v 13-15, 1 Jn. 3 v 2). Schooling requires perseverance more than pleasure (Dan. 3 v 28, Rev. 3 v 15-19). Righteousness by faith is manifested (Rom. 7 v 25, Heb. 6 v 12, 9 v 14, 11 v 1, Jas. 2 v 17-20) as the old life is mortified (Is. 61 v 1-3, Lk. 18 v 13, Jn. 10 v 25, 14 v 12, Acts 2 v 21-22).

Things, sins, hurts and sorrows that are hard to let go off must be 'wrapped in a parcel' and left at the foot of the cross (Gen. 3 v 15, Lk. 9 v 24-26, 2 Cor. 11 v 10-18). The cross is a doorway: don't idolise it and stay sin and self-conscious but move on (Heb. 5 v 8-14) into maturity (Is. 53, Jn. 1 v 18, 29-33, 1 Pt. 1 v 16-25, 5 v 10). His Spirit's refining fire burns up the chaff: the dead works of the carnal mind that corrupt God's Church (Is. 22 v 8-26).

This allows those clothed with Jesus' righteousness to enter into the throne room of Lord God Almighty (Jn. 14 v 21-23, Rom. 4 v 7, Heb. 12 v 25-29, Rev. 7 v 14). If you reject his prompt and retain your old ways you will not benefit from his gifts and wisdom which are essential for growth (1 Cor. 2 v 10-16, 2 Th. 2 v 13). Churches bypass the Holy Spirit by baptising in the name of all three so people stay dependent on them. Believers who are only baptised in water, are only saved if their faith in Jesus persists until death (Ezk. 18, Lk. 23 v 40-43).

Pentecostals may be awake to the gifts of the Spirit (1 Cor. 14), but like the Corinthians, they are not baptised with fire. Unless we aim for that final refining where God alone is glorified (1 Tim. 1 v 14-19), we will not do "greater works than these" (Mk. 16 v 15-18, Acts 1 v 4-8, Jn. 14 v 10-13). Many believers will only experience it after their old life dies (1 Cor. 3 v 11-15, Rev. 6 v 9-11).

We enter a blood covenant with the Father by cutting a covenant with Jesus by faith (Heb. 11 v 1-4, 13, Jas. 1 v 5-8). In a covenant unto death two walked through death, between halved animals, into a new life as one (Gen. 15 v 9, Jer. 34 v 18-19). Breakers of a covenant unto death invite death (Gen. 3 v 11, Rom. 6 & 7, 1 Cor. 11 v 26-32). Abraham slept while our Father walked through with our Saviour (Gal. 3 v 13-29, Heb. 6 v 13-20).

Jesus has died for our sin unto death in our place (Jn. 19 v 30). Those united with him in death (Rom. 6 v 3-14, 1 Cor. 11 v 22) are baptised with his life by his Holy Spirit. They exchange (Heb. 12 v 18-24) the last trace of their fear of death (Lev. 23 v 16-18, Lk. 3 v 16) for unspeakable joy. Those who make a covenant with Jesus (1 Cor. 11 v 23-30) are made more than conquerors.

Christians must be grounded in reality or else pride will make them act as deified holy men (2 Cor. 4 v 7-18). Paul had to be constantly reminded of his infirmity lest he became inflated (2 Cor. 4 v 7, 12 v 7). Abraham's lapse (Gen. 12 v 18), Jacob's limp, Job's pain, Moses' murder of an Egyptian, Peter's denial and Paul's thorn from Satan, kept them humble and sane.

Peter was able to revive the disciples and do many miracles only because after his denial of Jesus (Lk. 22 v 31-34, 62, Jn. 21 v 17, Acts 5 v 15) he saw in himself was no good thing (Rom. 7 v 18). Abel, and Job clearly knew this. Holiness is not in fighting temptation but being freed from it (Jas. 1 v 6-14, 25-26, 3 v 2). It is the opposite of being double minded (Col. 2 & 3).

Only faith in the poured out blood of the Lamb of God (Heb. 4 v 15-16, 9 v 14, 12 v 22-24, Rev. 5 v 4-6, 12 v 11) allows us to dwell in God's presence and not die (Dan. 10 v 7, Rev. 1 v 17, 6 v 16). We must start living in our new abundant life and yearn for our new home before we lose both. God is omniscient; He always right so our new, God-related life is sinless (1 Jn. 3 v 9).

As we walk alongside Jesus and respond to his words we are cleansed (Eph. 5 v 24-27). The of the old life (Lk. 5 v 39) are running out. Religious people want Jesus to save their corrupted life (Mt. 3 v 7-9, Heb. 4 v 10, Jude). They do what they think is good (Gen. 3 v 5, 2 Cor. 11 v 3-4, Gal. 1 v 7-14, Eph. 4 v 14) so their fallen nature is not changed (Rom. 16 v 17-18, Col. 2 v 8, 22, Jas. 4, Rev. 2 & 3) so they stay bound by the law of sin and death.

The Epistles were written to correct the false teaching of preachers who are one with an alternative Christ. They make their disciples one with their proud nonsense (Mt. 23 v 15, 24-28). Each produces a man approved god (Ex. 32 v 24, Eph. 4 v 11-16) and alters God's words to suit it. Their mock holy spirits pervert the truth (Acts 8 v 9, 13 v 8-11, 16 v 16-18) and block God's Spirit (Jos. 7 v 10-12, Jg. 3 v 12, 1 Sam. 16 v 14-18, Lk. 8 v 5, 11 v 24-28, 1 Cor. 2 v 12, 5 v 1-6, Col. 2 v 18-23, 3 v 1-17, 2 Pt. 2 v 20).

Christ is not centred on you. To be saved you must be centred on Christ. Too many seek a knowledge of self and how to save their corrupt nature. They accept Satan's plain lie (Gen. 3 v 11, Gal. 4 v 6, Eph. 2 v 2-9, Heb. 11 v 11, 17): that they can improve themselves as taught by Aristotle and Darwin. Schopenhauer saw it was impossible so those who persist with this miserable nonsense have no excuse (Rom. 1).

They should repent (Lk. 18 v 9, Gal. 3 v 24, 1 Jn. 1 v 8-10, Rev. 22 v 19) but proud fools defend themselves by getting angry with God and with those who prove them wrong (Gen. 4 v 6-12, Heb. 11 v 4, 12 v 24-25). They accuse Him of cruelty and murder (1 Jn. 1 v 3-10) which is utterly perverse as he died on the cross in order to save us from Satan's lie (Rom. 6 v 20-23).

God gives life; not death (Heb. 4 v 9-16, Rev. 12 v 10). Those who love Him are protected by Him (Num. 23 v 19-23). Self survivalists are 'dead men walking' (Gen. 4 v 11, 1 Sam. 28 v 16). They are prey to their alter ego that turns the blessings and pleasures that He gave us to richly enjoy into lusts and addictions. They know that their 'nasty but nice' habits are killing them but pride stops them crying to God and being saved.

OFFENCE 2: ETERNAL SECURITY THROUGH FAITH IN GOD'S SAVIOUR

The perverse believe corruptible matter made them so they are bound to be ruled by corruption, pollution, sin and death (Deut. 28, Lk. 9 v 25). Based on Aristotle's, Darwin's and Nietzsche's self improvement pyramid, they try to free themselves from their hopeless state by gaining superior knowledge about their inner workings and origins in the vain hope of living longer. Some have their bodies mummified or frozen as if the broken empties could be refilled. Perhaps a few might survive as museum pieces ?

Their godless lives are in hock to Satan (Gen. 2 v 17, Rom. 1 v 32, 6 v 16-23, 7 v 24-29). Their self harming life styles, preoccupation with counseling, dieting and drugs cannot redeem them. As descendants of Adam they are predestined to die. Only Jesus can buy them back. He freely redeems all who cry to him for mercy and trust in Him for a new life based on His way of thinking (Ps. 82 v 2-7, Jn. 10 v 34-39, Eph. 4 v 22-25)! Those set free from death by Jesus' sacrifice will love him with all of their heart, mind and acts.

Jesus, cried out "Come unto me all who struggle to cope and I will give you rest. I am not a bully who will increase your burdens; I will free you from them" (Mt. 11 v 28). "If anyone thirsts (for eternal life) let him come to me and drink (Lk. 4 v 4, Jn. 6 v 54-56, 63). Believe on me and as the scriptures promise your heart shall overflow with my abundant life" (Jn. 7 v 37-38).

God's offer is based on grace, truth and love. Those who genuinely commit their corrupted life to death with Christ (Heb. 10 v 38) are freely saved according to His oath to Abraham (Gen. 15 v 17, Gal. 3, Heb. 6 v 13-20). The Lamb of God has fulfilled the impossible conditions for them (Col. 1 v 12-23).

The Christ centred cease their futile struggle for self survival and self righteousness. They accept his amazing love, grace and will and enter his rest (Ps. 3, Lk. 13 v 24, Eph. 6 v 10-13, Heb. 4). The joy of salvation overcomes Adam's futile, conceited nature (Is. 12).

Many are baptised in water (Acts 16 v 30-31, 19 v 1-7, Rom. 10 v 11-13) but only the sincerely (Gen. 22 v 8, 12-18, Mt. 4 v 1, Mk. 16 v 16-18, 1 Cor. 2 & 10 v 5). are immediately accepted by the Father (Acts 10 v 44-48). Those sealed with the gift of His life by His Spirit (Eph. 1 v 6-14) are born again by God's breath. They start a new gifted life guided by His indwelling Spirit (Rom. 12 v 1-8, Jas. 2 v 17-22). They are predestined (Eph. 1 v 5-11) to be conformed to image of God's second Adam (Php. 1 v 6, Heb. 6 v 17-20).

Many resist his schooling (Eph. 4 v 11-30) so only a few receive all his gifts before they die (Php. 3 v 7-16, Heb. 2 & 3, 1 Cor. 3 v 11-18). The change will only be fully realised on the day of Jesus Christ (2 Cor. 4 v 7-18, 9 v 6, Php. 1 v 6, 3 v 10-16).

The first thing new Christians need to do is to read the whole Bible from cover to cover. Sadly there are some traditional confusions in our translations. Hebrews 6 v 6 suggests the Father lied! The un-doctored original of verse 4 says: "It is impossible for those who have tasted God's life and received enlightenment from His Spirit THEN (omitted by translators who believe in earning God's life by good works) to fall away!" Hallelujah!

The added "If" and "because" are not in the original Greek. If you picture Jesus' on a cross having to die daily for your sin you shame him (Heb. 10). The Father did not sow Jesus into death with a vain hope, but the certainty of a great harvest. Hebrews 6 v 7-12 assured them that God was working in their lives so to be patient. If He had sown and watered, He is also bound to reap (Jn. 13 v 10, Rom. 8 v 14, Eph. 2 v 8, Php. 1 v 6).

Instead of trusting God's grace and walking into a new life many accept Satan's gospel of becoming good by doing good. The religious (Lev. 26 v 1, 2 Kg. 18 v 4) who do not apply the cross of Jesus to their selfish lives remain bound by sin and death consciousness. They have to hide their guilt (Gen. 3 v 11, 1 Cor. 10 v 11-12, Heb. 2 v 15, 3 v 12-19, 5 v 12, 6 v 12).

All life is inherited. No one merits or can earn a new life (Rom. 5 v 16-21, 7 v 17-18, 8 v 7, Heb. 6 v 12). Only the breath of Jesus' Spirit can impart his life. The applied blood or death of Jesus covers the born again believers' transition from their old self centred life to a life centred on the Holy Spirit's guidance (Prov. 3 v 18-26, Lk. 3 v 2, 4 v 14, Jn. 5 v 19-30, 2 Cor. 3 v 2-6, 10 v 18). Trust grows with each step you submit to your Lord (Ps. 37 v 23, Is. 55 v 8).

Those who respond to Jesus' Spirit (Acts 3 v 38, Jas. 4 v 6-10) receive the gift of his life breath by faith, then vision (Jn. 3 v 5-8). They are sealed but need to respond to his guidance till they think and talk like Christ (Is. 55 v 6-13, Jn. 16 v 13-15, 1 Cor 2). He does everything for their good; only unbelief will stop him (Rom. 8 v 14, 28, 39). After God chose David as King of Israel and he accepted the call, he went through a series of trials that refined his trust. His failures and rescues are recorded in a book of songs that we can grab as a life line in our trials.

God's 'rema' comes with a gift of assurance before it is fulfilled (Eph. 2 v 8-9, Heb. 11 v 1). You encourage yourself by recalling times when God answered your cries. "I will thank the Lord regardless of my situation. I will sing praises about how good he is to me so others will be lifted up and join in glorifying his name. Every time I do this he accepts my prayers and delivers me from all my woes (Psalm. 34 v 3-4)." In utter despair David turned to God (1 Sam. 30 v 6, 31 v 4). His faith in God's words sustained him. At the same time, in utter despair, faithless King Saul killed himself. At last David was the King of Israel as God had promised him when he was a boy (Rom. 8 v 28, 10 v 8-13).

If you walk by faith in God's word for you, your lowest point will mark the beginning of your rise to your highest (Jas. 4 v 6-10). David believed God and not only recovered all that he had lost but gained such a vast herd of animals that he was able to give gifts to the cities of Judah which had supported him.

To make you feel secure God needs you to surrender to His love all the things you fear losing (Gen. 22 v 2-3, 8, Heb 2 v 15, 10 v 36-39). Everything you give to God is another thing you will never have to worry about again. He does not take or need the valuable things that you let go of: He keeps them for you. If you give Him your life, which you cannot save, He will give you a life filled with love, joy and peace that you cannot lose (Lk. 9 v 23-26). A God assured gift of faith in Jesus, is eternal (Mt. 6 v 19-34, 13 v 44-50, Lk. 13 v 24, Heb. 3 v 19). Self assured faith dies with you.

When you taste and see that the Lord is good your love (not zeal: Php. 3 v 4-9) will make you want to share him with others (Ps. 19 v 10, 34 v 8). 1 Peter 2 v 2-9 says: "As a baby on milk you need to feed simply on God's Word in order to grow. You will find that the Lord is good. The worldly see him as worthless but as you get closer you will see he is precious and you will want to be like him and part of his saving ministry. Those who deny they need him, find his words offensive, but by praising and glorifying him you will show them he is merciful and marvellous".

God's gift of eternal life is sustained by God. The curse of Adam's continuous eighth day's fight for survival is over (Gen. 3 v 19, Heb. 2 v 15, 4 v 3-6). Their remaining time on earth should be spent transform their thinking (Php. 3 v 10) and to encourage the undecided to believe (2 Thess. 2 v 4-10). Only a few fulfil John 14 v 12, 21, 23-26, 15 v 16 or Acts 1 v 8. Too many wander away into a spiritual desert and get lost (Lk. 8 v 5-7). His children who misuse God's time of grace are disciplined (Is. 44 v 22-23, Heb. 12 v 1-12). That is not much fun.

People who live in a virtual world think mistakes, sin, unhappiness, ills, can be cancelled by pressing a RESET button but in the real they die and go to hell. Christianity is not a magic formula or a figment of mind: but a personal walk with Christ (Jn. 18 v 37). Jesus said he spoke in parables so people would have to come to him for understanding. Religion without him is pointless (Mt. 7 v 22-23). Only he can remit sins and set you free (Mt. 9 v 26).

Legalistic, fundamental believers tend to focus on reforming the life that is predestined to die (Jn. 6 v 27, 63, Rom. 8, Jude 4). It cannot be restored (Rom. 7). Physical 'bread' only sustains physical life (Mt. 4 v 4, 16 v 6, 11, Lk. 4 v 4, Jn. 6 v 66, 7 v 37-39, 14 v 6, 1 Pt. 2, Rev. 3 v 20). You do not feed on Jesus' death but on his life by his Spirit to gain his heart and mind (Rom. 10 v 3-10, 1 Cor. 10 v 4). The secrets of eternal life are hidden in him (Mt. 13 v 13-16, 35).

OFFENCE 3: THE KING OF KINGS AND HEIR TO DAVID'S THRONE FOREVER

Religions not centred on Jesus as Lord do not preach his gospel of salvation (Mt. 5 v 13, 23 v 13). They are not led by his Spirit nor hear his voice but submit to the self justified dogma of church lawyers (Lk. 16 v 15, 19-29). The gifts and fruits of God's Spirit are fake or missing (Lk. 6 v 45-49).

They copy a method that used to work and dress the 'dry bones' with carnal, religious feelings, stirred up by music, ceremony and ritual (Mt. 15 v 8-20). Their defence is "we have so-and-so as our founder (Jn. 8 v 39-41)!" It is a form of ancestor worship. The Lord's answer to those blinded by worldly precepts is the same as to the Pharisees (Jn. 8 v 42).

Instead of transforming human attitudes into those of Christ (Jn. 6 v 63, Lk. 18 v 10-14) proud men conform Jesus to humanistic thinking. His genealogy proved that he was the legal heir to David's throne and therefore the expected Messiah (Lk. 7 v 6-8, Jn. 7 v 45). This was the one thing that his legalistic enemies could not dispute (Jn. 7 v 42, 52). Their only basis for rejecting him was their assumption that he was not born in Bethlehem as all the babes of his age had been on Herod's death list (Mt. 2 v 16).

They were ignorant of the fact that Jesus as the Lamb of God (Jn. 1 v 19-30) had to be a sinless man born of God the Father (Lk. 20 v 39-47, Php. 2 v 5-11). Proud people debase men of God instead of empathising and learning from them. They amended the straight truth of the Bible (Mt. 21 v 23-46, Eph. 4 v 14-24) with false logic that makes a mockery of God's words (Mt. 12 v 31-40, Mk. 7 v 6-9, 13, Jn. 17 v 19-21). Scriptures that do not ring true are such bad mistranslations that they must be deliberate (Rom. 8 v 7, Col. 2 v 8).

The Epistles are full of warnings and corrections to churches who were following self important leaders who set themselves up as lords and turned the first love of the saved back to their failings and self conscious weakness (Gal. 3). Like the churches in Revelation 2 & 3, most have not heeded Jesus' rebuke so they have withered and corrupted (Jn. 15 v 6).

These inexcusable errors make our versions ambiguous. They defame Jesus as the illegitimate son of a carpenter (1 Cor. 11 v 14, Lk. 4 v 16-22). They say Jesus was rejected because he was born out of wedlock. They ignore the fact that Mary was married to Joseph and instead of divorcing her for adultery he accepted the child (Mt. 1 v 18-19, Jn. 6 v 42).

Matthew says his genealogy, of the promised ones, is that of Jesus. Luke says that God is his father but the public assumed that it was Joseph the son of Heli, his legally recorded father (Lk. 2 v 5, 3 v 22-23, 4 v 22). But the guessers say Luke's genealogy is that of Mary (Gen. 3 v 15). Why? Luke does not mention Mary or any of the women that the royal line depended on.

The Messiah had to be of David's blood, but not Solomon's (1 Kg. 9 v 4-7, 11 v 7-11), yet still the heir to his throne (2 Sam. 7 v 16, Ps. 89 v 4, 29, 36, Is. 9 v 7). Hence the vital story of Ruth. Like Elimelech, King Jeconiah, the last true king of Judah, had no surviving seed (Jer. 22 v 28-30). Matthew and Luke show that his title passed to Shealtiel, a descendent of David's son Nathan.

The keys to unlocking the New Testament are in the Old (1 Cor. 10 v 11). Inheritance, especially land, had to stay within a tribe and family. If sold it had to be returned in the year of Jubilee (Lev. 25 v 23-28). Family unity and care is very important to the Father (Gen. 12 v 3, Lev. 19 v 34, Mt. 10 v 32-42). The oldest son inherited his fathers rank and titles. As the head of the family, he sustained their dependants so he inherited double the portion of the other sons (Deut. 21 v 15-17, Ex. 13 v 2, Heb. 5 v 5-10). Jesus and not his brothers provided for his widowed mother and dependants (Jn. 2 v 2-5, 19 v 26-27).

If a man had only a surviving daughter, she could not inherit the titles and land of her father. But if she married a blood relative who could legally claim her father's estate (Num. 27 v 8-11, 36 v 6), her father's titles and wealth pass to her first born son. He becomes his grand-father's 'acquired' or assir son. She and her husband inherited from his father and nothing from her father (Ruth 4 v 4-6). This practice was legally robust and quite common.

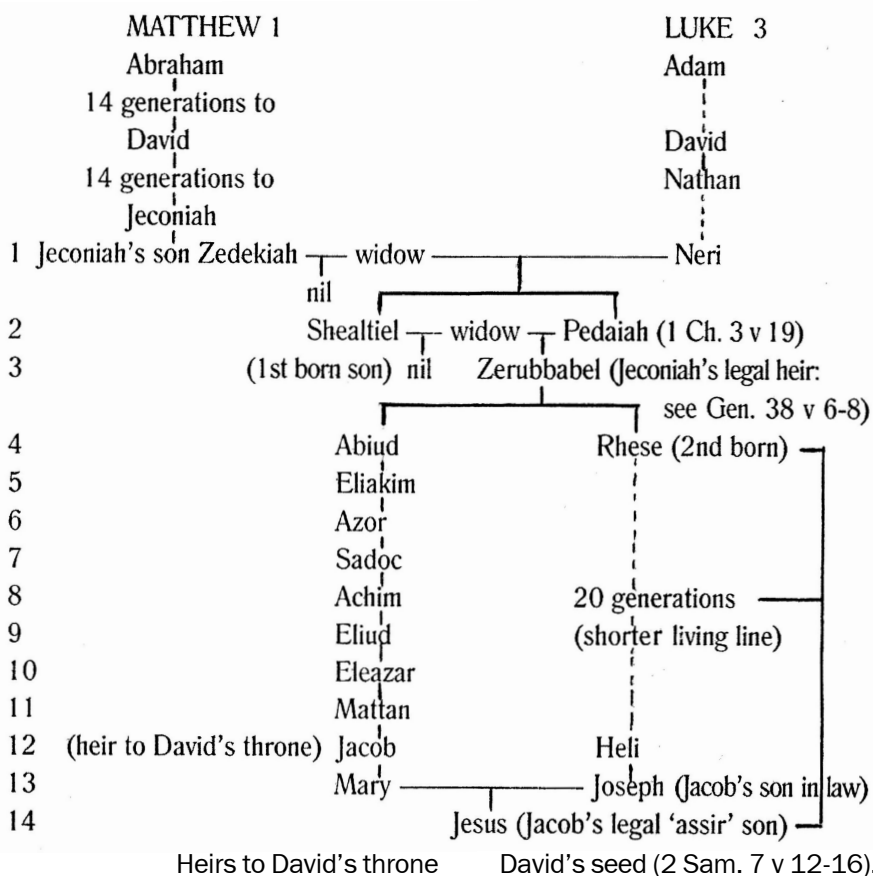

At first many did not accept the young Solomon as king. He knew that if his disbarred older brother Adonijah married David's young widow he would claim the throne for their first born son (1 Kg. 1 v 52, 2 v 15-24). Once this is understood the odd account in the book of Ruth becomes clear. Elimelech's sons all died, so his nearest male kin had to buy his lands and support his family (Ruth 2 v 20). His oldest brother refused to marry his daughter (in-law) Ruth (Deut. 25 v 5-10, Ruth 4 v 9-15) so his younger middle aged brother Boaz married her. Their first born son became Elimelech's legal assir son and heir. His wife Naomi nursed Obed as her son (Ruth 4 v 16-17).

Scholars are confused on this subject because they have been distracted by the wrong assumptions of others. They misread the term "assir" son, yet analysis of the genealogies in which it occurs confirm it.

In the same way; Shealtiel was Jeconiah's legally begotten son (Mt. 1 v 12) as the son of his closest relative Neri (Lk. 3 v 27) and the widow of his son Zedekiah (1 Chr. 3 v 16). Matthew 1 lists 13 kings of his 14 generations from Babylon to Christ, as Neri was untitled.

He also discounts the kings descended from Joram's youngest son Ahaziah (2 Chr. 22 v 1). His true heir was the baby son of his eldest slain son. Uzziah was the great grandson of Joram first born son, so legally his 'begotten' son and heir. Similarly Mary's husband Joseph was legally 'begotten' by Jacob as his closest male relative and heir (v 16).

Shealtiel’s royal title, lands and possessions passed down to Jacob, the son of Matthan. He died with no male heir but he did have a young daughter called Mary. His titles had to continue to the Messiah (1 Sam. 7 v 12-16) so a marriage contract was immediately made between her and Joseph before they could lived together (Mt. 1 v 18-20, Lk. 1 v 27). Mary’s first born son then became Jacob’s assir son and heir instead of Joseph (Ruth 4 v 4-6, 10, Mt. 1 v 16, 18-19). Jesus’ legal father was recorded as Jacob (not Joseph). He is the eternal heir to David’s throne (2 Sam. 7 v 16, Mt. 21 v 9-16).

The life we inherit from Adam dies because he sold his heavenly inheritance for a mortal one (Gen. 25 v 33-34, Lk. 3 v 38, Rom. 9 v 13). Jesus is Adam’s near kinsman (1 Cor. 15 v 22, 48-50, Heb. 2 v 6-17): only as the Bride of Christ do we inherit life from Jesus’ family instead of Adam’s death (Rom. 7, Php. 4 v 19, Col. 2 v. 3, 6-10). Live every day as expecting to be ‘married away’ from this dying world (2 Th. 2 v 7-12, Rev. 7 v 9-15). Those who reject him as Lord will be left behind with their preferred king (Jn. 19 v 14-15) for seven terribly evil years (Dan. 9 v 26-27, Rev. 12 v 9-12, 13 v 4-6).

The down grading of Jesus extends into our translations. At a family wedding in Cana he is presented as aloof, indifferent and rude to his mother (Jn. 2 v 4)! A disaster occurred: the wine ran out. Joseph was dead so Mary turned to Jesus as the head of the family and provider for its dependants (Lk. 19 v 25). He replied, “Madam, what do you expect me to do for you? I have not an hour to do it.” A miracle of course (Jn. 1 v 32-34, 41, 2 v 5)!

His 3 1/2 year ministry had just started (Lk. 3 v 22) so “My hour is not yet come” is nonsense. He had not begun his ‘Father’s business’ in his 13 th year at Passover (Lk. 2 v 42-51). This odd event now makes sense. “Why did you search for me? Did you not know that (on coming of age) I must be involved with my legal father’s (Jacob) affairs”. They had not considered the matter that he informed them of as it did not involve them.

The lawyers took a long time to check the temple records for a very good reason (Mt. 1 & Lk. 3). When his right to Jacob’s title and estate was proved the temple rulers (Jn. 3 v 10, 7 v 46-51), who remembered Zacharias’ prophesy (Lk. 1 v 67-79), asked him the obvious question: “are you the Messiah?” His answers amazed them (Luke 2 v 46-47). He was the heir to David’s throne and Zerubbabel’s wealth via his legal father Jacob yet he returned to Joseph’s house and submitted to his authority (Gal. 4 v 1).

The wise men, Herod, Pilot, the Samaritans, the Jews, little children, blind men, beggars (Mt. 20 v 31); all knew he was the heir to David’s throne (Mt. 21 v 5, 9, 27 v 29). The correct legal charge Pilate posted on Jesus’ gallows stated; ‘This is Jesus, the King of the Jews’ (Jn. 19 v 19-24). He said “Shall I crucify your King?” The corrupt lawyers (Mk. 15 v 1, 9-14) also knew but they replied “We have no king but Caesar” (Is. 9 v 16-17).

The Apostles first saw Jesus as the promised Messiah (Mk. 8 v 29-33, Jn. 1 v 41; not as Is. 53 v 3) then after his resurrection as “My Lord and my God,” but when revealed as the King they fell at his feet (Mt. 17 v 6, Rev. 1 v 17-18). When he returns to rule over the Earth, all left alive will fall at his feet. Jesus is the visible person of the infinite God who is the Father of all life (Josh. 5 v 13-15, Mt. 26 v 63-64, Jn. 8 v 56-58, 10 v 30, Heb. 1 v 2-8), yet he took upon himself the form of a servant (Jn. 6 v 38-40, 62, Php. 2 v 6-10).

For our transgressions he was cursed as if smitten by God (Is. 53 v 3-9). He was rejected and despised by men but now he is exalted as the Lord of all creation. At his name every creature must bow with fear and trembling. And he shall reign for ever and ever: HALLELUJAH!

And us? We train to rule with him. You who do not see him as precious have been warned (Lk. 12 v 4-5, 1 Pt. 2 v 7-8). Kiss the Son lest he be offended by you (Ps. 2 v 7-12, Rom. 9 v 15).

OFFENCE 4: GOD'S CONTINUOUS SABBATH'S DAYS REST (Heb. 3 v 7-14)

Jesus arrived at Bethany (Jn. 12 v 1: Sun. 8 th) 6 days before the Sabbath (Jn. 19 v 31). He spent the previous Friday night and Sabbath (7 th) with Zacchaeus. The next 3 days he walked more than a Sabbath's day journey (Acts 1 v 12). At the Supper on the Thursday night (12 th) he gave them instructions on how to hold the new Passover (Lk. 22 v 15-16, Jn. 13 v 1) which he was about to fulfil on Friday (13 th). They then left the upper room before dawn and Judas, they thought, went to the market, so it was not the eve of the Sabbath nor the Passover.

Jesus death was at Passover on God's true 14 th Nisan. The Jews took Joshua 10 v 1: 1 as one 48 hr day when it was two (rotation 2 was during a 24 hr. axis flip + magnetic reversal). By 9 a.m. Friday May 1st (Mk. 15 v 25), before his very influential allies knew (Lk. 23 v 50-54), Jesus was hanging on the gibbet. By 4 p.m. he was dead. He died between the even of the 14 th day and the eve of the 15 th (Jn. 19 v 30, Heb. 4 v 4, 10). The rulers were in a hurry to remove the bodies before their Sabbath (Saturday 14 th) began at Sunset (6 p.m.). Only bodies left to died and disintegrate were nailed through and the points bent to prevent them being removed (Jn. 20 v 25; print of nails).

Their 14 th was a very special Sabbath (Jn. 19 v 31). Between the evening of the 14 th and eve of 15 th they held their Passover (Ex. 12 v 2-6, Deut. 16 v 6-8, Mk. 14 v 2, 15 v 42). The 15 th, at the start of the Feast of Unleavened bread, was also a holy day or second Sabbath (as in Ex. 12 v 2-6, Lev. 23 v 6-8). Matthew 28 v 1 accurately states "After the Sabbaths towards the dawn of the First of Weeks (the plurals are in the original K.J. translation; also there is no added 'day' in original Greek). Jesus rose at midnight after 3 days and 3 nights (Fri, Sat & Sun: 67 hrs in death) in accordance with his infallible word (Mt. 12 v 40, 27 v 63, Mk. 9 v 32, 1 Cor. 15 v 4)

Other verses say inside 3 hemeras (3 x 24 hour days or 72 hrs.). The couple on their way to Emmaus on the day of the resurrection, near 4 p.m., said "it is now 3 hemerais ago since....(72 hours)" but the "agei", is simply dropped and today added (Lk. 24 v 18). Back 40 mornings, from the Sabbath morning on which (Acts 1 v 12) Jesus ascended, is a Monday morning! It has been twisted to dawn on the Sun's Day to fit the day on which the Roman's celebrated their Sun god's resurrection. Even our version of the Nicene Creed has been doctored. The original has "on the third day after the crucifixion" (3 days + 3 nights) but the word, anastanta, is just cut.

The Feast of Unleavened Bread, started the day after the Passover but added words have produce the nonsense (Mt. 26 v 5, 17) "on the first day of the feast of U B the disciples arrived and said where will we prepare for the Passover" instead of; before (days of) U B arrived, the disciples said.... WHY?

Jesus also perform exactly all of the other types given to Moses (Lk. 24 v 44-46, Num. 20 v 8-12). The day after the Sabbath of the 14 th was also the First day of the Feast of Weeks (Lev. 23 v 11-17, Deut. 16 v 9) but on this occasion, the day after the 14 th was a second Sabbath (Lev. 23 v 5-7): the priest could not travel to the fields and cut the first ripe sheaf of grain. So according to the Pharisee's rule, the offering of the First of Weeks was performed on the day after the Sabbaths. The harvest ended (Acts 20 v 16) 50 days later at Pentecost (a type of the completed Church).

At the same time the priest wave offered the first fruits (9 a.m. Monday), Jesus and the Old Testament Saints ascended into heaven and were were presented to the Father (Jn. 20 v 17), as the first fruits from death. A short time later he was back and touchable by all (Mt. 28 v 9): the blood availed. This barley harvest usually started a week or so after Passover, so this very late Passover has to be that of 33 AD.

The early church remembered Christ's resurrection at midnight on the First of Weekss (no 'day' in Greek). In Acts 20 v 6-11 it was 3 weeks after Passover, on the day after the Sabbath: a Sunday (Lev. 23 v 11-12: hence the confusion). They held the "Lumen Christy" ceremony in which each person lit their lamp from the Pascal candle as it progressed up the aisle (Acts 20 v 8).

The celebration ended with a memorial meal with fish at midnight (Lk. 24 v 42). A collection was then made for the poor (Deut. 16 v 16-17, Mal. 3 v 8-18, 1 Cor. 16 v 1-2). This became eating fish on Venerdi to venerate Venus. God's Passover became Maia's May Day with eggs, bunnies and fertility rites around Baal/Ashtoreth's pole of shame (Mt. 15 v 3, 14-19, 1 Cor. 11 v 29)? Fertility rights trigger famines (Deut. 28 v 17-18, 1 Kg. 18 v 18, Jer. 8 v 12-13)!

Why do churches celebrate the winter solstice, when Mithras or Saturn is re-born, as Jesus' birthday? His 3 1/2 year ministry started near the beginning of his 30 th year (29 th birthday). It ended at Passover (1/5/33 AD) so it started at Yom Kippur (Mt. 3 v 5, Lk. 3 v 21-23). In fulfilment of Moses' types he was born at the tribal gathering for the Feast of Booths near the end of October. It now celebrated as Halloween with the bone fires of the night of the dead. All God's Feasts have been replaced with Pagan feast (Heb. 10 v 28-31) that knock on the door to hell (Gal. 6 v 7)!

God's Sabbath is on be the 7th day of the week not the 1 st. The Romans worshipped their god on Mithras' day or the Sun's day, on which their priests wore vestments, ate discs of bread (as did the Aztecs) and drank bull's blood to partake of Tamuz's risen life (Gen. 3 v 4-5, Ezk. 8 v 5-14). God the mother's tears overcame death and re-birthed him)! This is the opposite of eating the unleavened bread of Passover which represents partaking of Jesus' human death (Mt. 26 v 26, Rom. 6 v 1, 1 Cor. 11 v 26, 1 Pt. 3 v 18).

If the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread had been celebrated correctly, as an annual renewal (Ex. 12 v 23, 2 Kg. 23, 1 Cor. 11 v 26-30), the rule of death and the worship of evil gods (2 Kg. 18 v 4-7) would not have flourished (1 Cor. 5 v 6-8, 1 Pt. 4 v 17, 5 v 6-9, Rev. 2 & 3).

Occult, mystery religions are based on misinformation and lies so they have to be cloaked in darkness. In the crypts of old churches in Rome are altars to Tamuz/Apollo/Mithras and Isis/Astarte/Venus (Ezk. 8 v 8-18). The Sabbaths or (the First of) Weeks in the original Greek (Mt. 28 v 1) has been deliberately changed to the singular to justify the use of Mithras' ascension day as their holy day (Ezk. 28 v 15, Is. 14 v 12-13: son of the first morning).

God complete His works on the 7th day. There was no 'evening, morning and an eighth day' (Gen. 1 v 31, 2 v 3, Heb. 4 v 3-4, 9-10). Adam enjoyed a endless Sabbath. He went off to explore his kingdom (Lk. 4 v 4-12) and returned to find Eve had divined how he could be his own god and do things 'my way' (Gen. 2 v 17). He swapped God's rest for an endless eighth day: a hopeless struggle for survival that ends with eternal deprivation (Gen. 3 v 19).

As a reward, to the children of His faithful friend, God gave the Israelites respite every seventh day, seventh year and an extra 6 months every 49 years (Neh. 9 v 14). Due to their lack of trust they never enjoyed His rest but used it to make extra money so they forfeited His blessings (Acts 7 v 39, 51, Heb. 4).

He had bought their respite off Satan with the blood of the Lamb so they had defrauded God. It had to be repaid. For the same number of days as their missed Sabbaths (2 Chr. 36 v 21) they worked as It's slaves again.

Those too busy to seek God have vain lives. They do not have the ust to experience His provision (Mt. 6 v 11, 30-33, Mk. 2 v 27-28, Eph. 4 v 14, Heb. 3) but seek security from and have faith in things that perish (Mt. 6 v 19-33). Their daily fight for survival is a pointless struggle against nature, which is going to kill them (Gen. 3 v 19, Lk. 12 v 19, Rom. 1 v 28-32, Jas. 5 v 1), yet they think it is their mother and if they look after it, it will look after them.

Those enslaved by the doctrine of Balaam (Num. 24, 2 Pt. 2 v 12-15, like the Nicolaitans: Rev. 2 v 14-16) lose Gods protection (1 Pt. 1 v 18-23). Their 'live now pay later' striving for self indulgent feelings as a substitute for love is squandering resources and destroying their health. They forget they have a "use by date" and so miss the point of their existence (Jer. 24, Jn. 12 v 24-25).

Vain people with vain ideologies (Rom. 1 v 22-26, 8 v 5-8), based on Aristotle's and Darwin's lie of extending their life by self improvement (Is. 14 v 9-15, Lk. 18 v 11-14, 1 Jn. 1 v 6-10), hide from the reality of death by believing life on earth has been here and will go on for millions of years (2 Pt. 3 v 3-11). Funerals have become celebrations of life instead of reminders of death.

Satan and It's gurus present their steadily degrading life as liberated from God's control. "I did it my way" is the anthem of proud fools as they survey their wasted life and dying planet (Lk. 15 v 13, 21-24, Rom. 8 v 20-23). They are not concerned with truth and pragmatism but in promoting their error as better than the errors of others.

They concentrate on trying to saved their dying life and solving world problems which they have generated! In truth they find that they are fighting against their own corrupt nature (Mk. 7 v 20-23), so they reinvent the truth and live in a mentally conjured world until reality smashes it.

Their independence from God's life and provision means they will surely die. When, like Schopenhauer, they realise they their life is unsustainable and meaningless they become melancholic and self destructive. At least he was logical about it but not enough to see he must be wrong about God (Job 32 v 9).

Those who have no faith in Jesus' finished work of redemption have no rest from their fear for survival (Neh. 13 v 15-18, Ezk. 20 v 18, Heb. 2 v 15, 3 v 18, 4 v 4-16). They fill the love vacuum in their self centred souls with self indulgences which destroy their health and squander time (Lk. 9 v 24-26).

Those who trust in money to make them feel secure, like Balaam (Num. 24, 2 Pt. 2 v 12-15 and the Nicolaitans: Rev. 2 v 14-16), fear losing it (1 Pt. 1 v 18-23). They serve their own creations as gods. They are enslaved to life consuming evil spirits (Ex. 20 v 3-5, 1 Sam. 15 v 22-23, 2 Tim. 2 v 12, Rev. 13 v 12-16)! Believe God and your worries are over: believe Satan and they will never end. Salvation from death cannot be produced by the dying.

It can only come by faith in God's promise gift of a new Jesus related life (Job 19 v 25, Jn. 4 v 20, 29, 8 v 3-11, Gal. 3). His Holy Spirit does the giving. Over time the saved lose their fear for survival (Prov. 11 v 27-30) and enter into the rest he has earned for them (Is. 48 v 18, Heb. 4 v 9-16).

So is resting on his Sabbath good and on the Sun's day bad? Those saved by grace should rest from their fear for survival every day, as in Eden's unending seventh day and respond to the Spirit's training (Rom. 8 v 27-29).

The body of Christ should come together in Jesus' name on any day as if every day is the Lord's (Mt. 6 v 11, 11 v 28, Eph. 3-13, 2 v 8-10, Php. 1 v 6, 4 v 6, Col. 2). They need to feed one another spiritually by faith as the Spirit leads (Jn. 6 v 62-63, Rom. 12 v 2-10, 17-19, 1 Cor. 12 v 25, 13 v 2) so they become God confident and centred (Mt. 10 v 19-20, Rom. 8 v 5-11, Php. 3 v 3). Those who stay centred on feelings, do not grow (Mt. 22 v 11, 1 Cor. 11 v 17-22, 2 Tim. 3 v 7, Jas. 4 v 3-10, Jude 12) while the faithless will receive nothing (Jas. 2 v 6-8, 3 v 10-18, 4 v 7-17).

OFFENCE 5: COMMUNION, IDOLS AND PASSOVER (1 Cor. 10 v 21-22, 11 v 27)

The early church in 1 Corinthians had 5 different types of meeting:

- I. Ch. 3; teaching by an apostle or authoritative teacher (Acts 18 v 11).
- II. Ch. 5; the meeting of elders to judge a man for worse than pagan conduct.
- III. Ch. 8 & 16; personal ministry in homes with a meal with leavened bread so they would not faint on the walk home (Mt. 15 v 32).
- IV. Ch. 11; whole church, as the Body of Christ, for a meal at Passover (5 v 8) to remember the Lord's death with the memorial unleavened bread and wine from the end of the Passover meal (v 34, Lk. 22 v 20).
- V. Ch. 14; public meetings with ministry from all as the Holy Spirit leads.

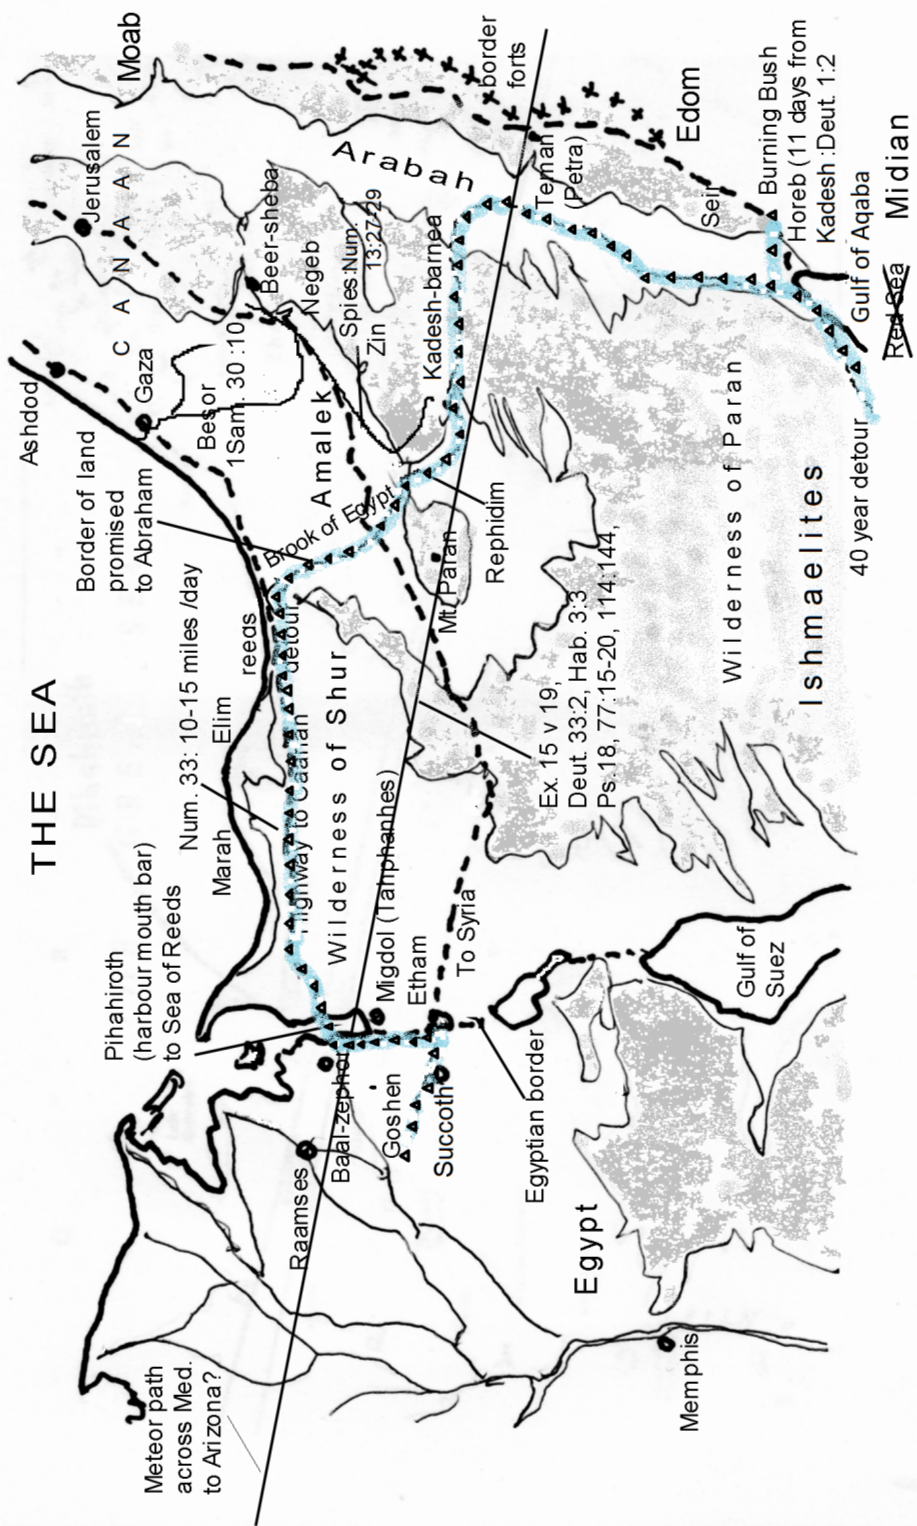

In every area, including the holding of the Passover meal, their selfish conduct was scandalous (1 Cor. 11 v 18-22). For Christians the sacrifice of a lamb and the eating of it have been fulfilled (1 Cor. 5 v 7-8, Heb. 10 v 14-25); only the memorial, unleavened bread and wine (Mt. 26 v 29) from the end of the Passover supper remain (Lk. 22 v 20, 1 Cor. 11 v 34). They represent the unblemished Lamb of God's lifeless body and poured out life blood.

The following 7 day feast of Unleavened Bread was not for dwelling on the terrible cost paid for our redemption (Eph. 2 v 9) but on restoring God's pure, life that had become tainted (Gen. 2 v 7, Ex. 15 v 11-13, Acts 2 v 38). Baptismal vows were renewed. Revival requires repentance and the purging of man's religious ideas (Mt. 16 v 6). A new leaven was immediately started to be fully grown by the end of the week. New 'yeast' is sweet (Lev. 23 v 17, 2 Cor. 2 v 14-17, Eph. 5 v 27) but bits of foreign life get in and it starts to stink.

God will not add new life to old (Mt. 9 v 16-17). He assays the faith of all believers (Mk. 16 v 16-17, Jas. 2 v 18-24) before He baptises them with His Spirit. Partaking of the death of Jesus mortifies the vain works of the old life (Jn. 6 v 63, Rom. 6 v 3-8). Religious people, who misuse God's types, especially his New Blood Covenant (Ex. 32 v 1-8, Gal. 1 v 9, 2 v 14-16), attract His judgement (2 Sam. 6 v 3-7, Heb. 10 v 28-29, 1 Pt. 1 v 18-19, Rev. 2 v 1-5).

The Israelites left Egypt with bread for 7 days for their walk to Canaan. They did not cross into Shur at Ethan but went north (Ex. 13 v 20, 14 v 1-2, Num. 33 v 8) to the mouth of the Sea of Reeds between The Sea and Migdol, opposite Baal-zephon. They were trapped in the land (Ex. 14 v 1-9).

That evening a meteor passed over on 30/35 th parallel (Ps. 18, Hab. 3): mountains shook; hills jumped; rivers reversed (Ps. 77, 114). It drew out the sea so they crossed the harbour bar (4 km) into the wilderness of Shur (Ex. 15 v 1-8, 22). The Egyptians rallied their horses and followed (Ps. 18 v 11-14) but the sea returned as a tsunami. Despite their miraculous rescue the Israelites failed the test (Ex. 15 v 21-24, 16 v 2-4, 9, Lk. 4 v 1-2, 12, 6 v 46, Acts 7 v 39, 51). They reverted to their earth bound religion (Rom. 8 v 4-5). They were baptised but not saved (1 Cor. 10 v 2-12).

They lost both Egypt and the Promised Land and died in a desert (Heb. 3 v 11-14, 2 Pt. 2 v 21, Jude 5, Rev. 2 & 3). Those who hold the Lord's Supper to gain an emotional holy feeling and not on each Passover as the memorial of his/their death (1 Cor. 5 v 4-8, 11 v 23-26) are carnal. There is only death to self in their cup (1 Cor. 11 v 26-30). They religiously feed their old life so their new spiritual life is Christ does not develop (Mt. 4 v 2-4, Jn. 6 v 27, 62-63). Grace allows repentance but only up to death (Ezk. 18 v 20-28).

For the first 100 years the Church only venerated the Lord's death at Passover on 14 th Nisan (1 Cor. 5 v 8). In 154 AD Anicetus in Rome moved it to the nearest Sun's Day (Gal. 5 v 9); they replaced God's word's with their preferred version (Gen. 3 v 3-5). As numbers grew the full Passover meal was cut (1 Cor. 11 v 17-22, 34). The breaking of leavened bread (Acts 2 v 46, 6 v 1-2) in the house-church meals became an enactment of the feeding of the 5000 based on the non-Christian Didache (2 Cor. 2 v 15-17). The regular breaking of the leavened bread from the start of the fellowship meals then became confused with the unleavened memorial bread and wine from the end of the annual Passover meal (Mk. 14 v 22-26).

Paul's "on each occasion (1 Cor. 11 v 23; on the night) you eat this bread and drink the cup you reaffirm..... became every Sunday morning: as a Christianised version of the Baal/Jupiter/Zeus/Mithras practice of eating bread with bull's blood every Sun's day to partake of the life of their god (Lev. 17 v 14, 1 Cor. 11 v 29). Communing with a spirit to experience its life and power via a physical semblance is idolatry (Gen. 3 v 3-5, 1 Kg. 18 v 4, Jn. 4 v 23-24): you will ingest death and pick up its deformed doctrines (Lev. 22 v 20-25, Mt. 7 v 15-29, 1 Cor. 10 v 16-22, 11 v 26-29).

Physical foods and practises only effect your physical life (Mt. 4 v 4, Jn. 6 v 27, Rom. 14 v 14, 1 Cor. 10 v 26). Your spiritual life must be fed with spiritual food from heaven (Mt. 16 v 12, Lk. 4 v 4). Only Jesus' Spirit gives that life (Gen. 2 v 9, 16, Jn. 6 v 63, 15 v 26). You receive the life of Christ by responding to his Holy Spirit in accordance with his revealed will and words (1 Cor. 5 v 2, 6-7, 11 v 27, Php. 2 v 3-9). In consuming the fermented wine (that had had life in it) and lifeless, unleavened bread, believers identify with the emblems of Jesus' human death; not his risen life. It is dangerous to partake of the Lord's death with unleavened bread (Ex. 12 v 45, Rom. 6 v 5, Heb. 13 v 9-10) if you are not submitted to his new life (1 Cor. 11 v 29)!

The communal 'agape' practice (1 Cor. 5 v 11) with the breaking of leaven bread at church meetings or fellowship over refreshments with the less hungry today is an important part of church life but it is not mystical (Heb. 19 v 25). Those who confuse the two types avert the Holy Spirit and concentrate on self-centred social and physical concerns instead of gaining eternal life (Mt. 23 v 13-29, Jn. 3 v 3, 6 v 27-33, 1 Tim. 4 v 1-8).

OFFENCE 6: ANTICHRISTS AND MOCK HOLY SPIRITS (1 Jn. 2 v 18, 4 v 1-4)

If you do not understand why or what you do by rote, stop (Jn. 4 v 22-23)! As with the 325 AD creed, Luther's 1517 reform, Wesley's awakening of 1738; all revivals of the truth become down graded by man's pagan traditions (Josh. 24 v 31). The early Christians met together in houses and public halls. Many churches now are hallowed temples with shrines to renamed pagan gods (Jer. 32 v 34). They use 'relics' to contact the spirits of the dead (Gen. 35 v 4)!

Christianised myths, rituals, symbols, tattoos, statues, icons, holy pictures, relics; are related to worshipping the spirits of ancestors (Jer. 51 v 51-52, Col. 2 v 18). The idolising of a tau cross by the self conscious (Gen. 3 v 7-11, 21, 2 Kg. 18 v 4-7) recalls the repeated sacrifices of the law of sin and death of the guilty (Ezk. 18 v 21-32, Heb. 6 v 4-6, 10 v 1-4, 12-14). The power released and the righteousness that Jesus earned for us on the cross is missed (Jn. 3 v 14, Rom. 6, 9 v 30-33, 10 v 2-3, 1 Cor. 15 v 55-57, Gal. 3 v 13-14).

Prayer outside of God's words to dead ancestors and 'saints' (Deut. 5 v 8, 18 v 10-19, Jn. 4 v 20-24, Eph. 4 v 4) invite God's judgement (Is. 8 v 19-20). They raises false 'holy' spirits which divert people from Jesus to self (Gen. 3 v 22). Devoted objects, books and charms (2 Kg. 18 v 4, 23 v 21-24, Acts 19 v 17-20, Rom. 14 v 14) that portend to ward off evil (Ex. 20 v 4-5, Lev. 19 v 26-28, 2 Kg. 17) only make you death conscious and devil fearing (Mt. 4 v 10).

Self saving people trust in the ideas inspired by an alter ego but not in God's promised Saviour (Jer. 44 v 25-27, Jn. 8 v 43-44, Rom. 1 v 18-23, 2 Pt. 2 v 15-19). Every religion is infected by Satan's gospel of "if you do what is though of as good you will appear better and more advanced than others as if you have immortal qualities" (Gen. 3 v 4-5, 1 Cor. 15 v 44, Heb. 2 v 5, 16, 9 v 27). It controls them through guilt as their behaviour is not good (Jas. 2 v 8-13).

Many escape into unreality where their alter ego or familiar spirit takes over (Rom. 8 v 6-9, 1 Cor. 3 v 1-3, Col. 2 v 4-8, 23). Adam's central source of wisdom (Gen. 2 v 7, 17, Jn. 6 v 63, 15 v 26, 20 v 22) was the Spirit of God (Job. 42 v 1-6, Mt. 10 v 28, Rom. 8 v 14, Jas. 1 v 5). He swapped him for a lying spirit which said "Ignore God's words. Do what you think is good for you and you will not die but become a free spirit (Gen. 3 v 22-24, Rom. 7 v 18-24, 8 v 9). Immediately Adam became its bond servant (Heb. 2 v 15).

None are reincarnated. The alter ego of those with resigned free will in a trance can recall details from a past host as if they had an afterlife but it is clearly a sham. Those who seek forbidden things from their deceiving inner spirit are impress, depress and oppress through the very things that children are told make them feel free. Wild emotions, psychosis, trauma, intoxication, drugs, virtual reality, pornography, mesmeric beat, dance stupor and the occult horror of Baal raves are gateways to oppression and hell (Dan. 3 v 5-7).

They are not set free from their mortality (Lk. 21 v 34-35, Heb. 10 v 11-26). Instead of God's law of love they are ruled by fearful self-survival in a losing battle with the natural forces that are trying to kill them (Is. 14 v 11-21, Rom. 1 v 22-32, 6 v 16, Php. 3 v 18-19). They try to appease Nature by worshipping it as God-the-Mother; the woman's god of Jeremiah 44 v 15-27.

She is personified as the new Eve; the mother of all life. Nimrod's seductive wife identified herself with her. She claimed her executed husband was the son of a Genesis 6 god-man and her son (Osiris or Baal: Rev. 17 v 5) was his reincarnation. As the wife/mother of a god she remained queen.

Her tears reincarnated him as baby Baal (Num. 25 v 1, Is. 57 v 5, Ezk. 8 v 6-18) so the dying pray to her for rebirth on the shortest day and as they die (Ezk. 18 v 26-32, Rom. 10 v 13). Ancient effigies show her as the mother of a god holding baby Ninus but her white son was not her black husband's son.

God the mother, with her castrated, shaved priests, vestal virgins and effeminates (2 Kg. 9 v 32), is the life and death god Cybele (Gaea or Maia). Under her 'tree of life' of good and evil (Ashtoreth's pole) sinners are saved from death and so set free to sin openly.

As Lilith she smiles on a shameless 'sea' of sin: driving a tidal wave of lewdness, the abuse of trafficked children and abortion of first born as incinerated sacrifices (2 Kg. 3 v 27, Jer. 7 v 30-32). "They did evil" it is an under-statement (Gen. 6 v 5, Rom. 1 v 20-32).

Superior spiritual Gnostics see Eve as Pandora. New life could only come from a new mother. They worship her as Isis, Astarte or Gaia: the Queen of the Universe and the mother of a race of astrologers seeking eternal life (Lev. 22 v 25, 1 Sam. 15 v 23). The inferior are just animals but the superior Gnostics are descended from star-beings (Is. 14 v 12-17). One day these god-men will be one with them forever (2 Pt. 3 v 10-12, Rev. 20 v 10-15).

Many verses in the Bible have been mistranslated to support this idea that In Greek 1 Thess. 5 v 19-23 has: then ... the Spirit, will keep your mind and body whole. The angelic Aquinas' Aristotelian version says: God... Sanctify your whole spirit and soul and body. Humans and angels have the same Father but angels are made in the image of His Spirit. The incarnations in Genesis 6 had no physical genetic material so only a sterile X, X clone was birthed (Mt. 22 v 29-30). These mighty humanoids drowned in Noah's flood and are now locked in the bottomless pit (1 Pt. 3 v 19-20, Jude 6).

To reunite us with God's life Jesus had to be God incarnate (Gen. 1 v 27, Heb. 1 v 2, 5-6, 2 v 10-17). Mary was called by grace to bear hersaviour (Lk. 1 v 47, Eph. 2 v 8). Her God breathed ovum nucleus was descended from Adam before he fell. She also had to be descended from King David, not a spirit. Jesus is the Lord of all creation and the King of the whole earth (Col. 2 v 6-15).

Superior Gnostics though they were fallen incarnated gods (Gen. 3 v 5). These god-like ones saw Jesus as an incarnated angel and so no more than one of them. They killed Tyndale for producing a Bible that a plough boy could read and tried to stop Wesley preaching salvation to labourers who compared with them (as believed by Darwin) were not much more than animals.

They have clearly confused 1 Timothy 2 v 13-15 to blame Eve for their loss of heaven (Gen. 3 v 12). It should say: "Woman was formed from Adam before he sinned. He was not deceived but she was. She shared in his death; nevertheless she passed on life (to Mary) through her still God-related nucleus life. So women should rest securely in God's love and faith with an untroubled mind." Women are blessed (1 Sam. 1 v 18) but not saved by childbearing. They are saved by Jesus as Mary was (Lk. 1 v 46).

God's command to Adam was simple. Gaining His salvation is simple (Lk. 15 v 18-24, 23 v 41-43, 2 Cor. 11 v 3) but superior god-men confuse it in order to subordinate the humble 'plough boy' (Jn. 8 v 43-51). All Satan's illogical cobbles are designed to make you waste your life pursuing nonsense to divert you from being saved by the Father's promised new Adam.

"Adam where are you?" was the anguished cry of a father who had lost his beloved child. Adam defied God's order (Gen. 3 v 4, 6-7) and became mortal. Without God's support Adam's body was bound to die and turn back to dust (Gen. 3 v 19). The Lord had to find him to stop him seeking guidance from an alternative spirit or alter ego (Gen. 3 v 19-24, Deut. 18 v 9-12, Jn. 16 v 7, Rom. 7 v 18, Eph. 2 v 2) as his spirit consciousness would be one with it and filled with remorse and torment forever (Rom. 7 v 24, Rev. 22 v 14-15).

The Father's plan is to raise men to rule over all His creation. Adam wanted to rule the earth as god so he bowed to a creature who did not want to bow to him (Rom. 5 v 12, Heb. 2 v 5-8)! As Woman did not die (Gen. 2 v 17) he believed God had lied (Mt. 12 v 32: sin unto death). She disobeyed Adam so she was not cut off from God's life until he was (Num. 30 v 8, 1 Cor 11 v 10).

Satan's plan failed because her genus was separated from Adam while he was related to God's life (Gen. 2 v 21-22). Her still God related genetics were passed on from woman to woman to Mary (Lk. 1 v 30-45) untainted by Adam's sin (Gen. 3 v 20). As he did with Adam's original 'clay pot' (Rom. 8 v 29, Heb. 2 v 10-18) God's Holy Spirit breathed His life into the ovule of a virgin and the new Adam was born. Jesus is the incarnation of God's visible person through whom the infinite God made all His finite creations (Col. 1 v 15-22).

He is the first man to be born of God; begotten and not created. In Adam we all die (1 Cor. 15 v 22, 50). Those who reject their sinful, death conscious nature and immersed it into Christ's death through baptism will rise as he did with his new life (Rom. 5 v 17-21, 6 v 3-16).

By inciting its followers to put a sinless man to death Satan sealed its own fate. It had expected Jesus to return to heaven as a failure. Then It heard the terrible cry “Father I commit my Spirit to your keeping”. Jesus dismissed God’s life breath, became identical with Adam and suffer the death of a sinner. It (not a he or she) had (Gen. 3 v 15) invited the Lord of lords to invade It’s realm (1 Pt. 2 v 21-25, 3 v 18-22). Satan had to bow to a man!

So now we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than an angel so he could humanly die (Heb. 2 v 9-16), seated in glory having conquered all principalities and powers (Gen. 3 v 15, Rev 1 v 18). We are raised with him as sons born of God to rule over all His creation (1 Cor. 15 v 54-57).

Make sure you bow to him or you will remain one with Satan (Eph. 1 v 17 to 2 v 22, Heb. 10 v 12-22). Doing your version of what you feel is good or holy in place of God’s will (Gen. 3 v 4-6) swaps the Father’s Spirit (1 Kg. 11 v 4 v 11) for a cunning party spirit. Its half truths are whole lies.

Religions are recipes cooked up by teachers for lost people who fear death but do not want to change (Ex. 32 v 22-24, Lk. 9 v 22-26, 13 v 3-9). Only the truth can set you free from self justified god-men who want to entrap and enslave you (Jn. 8 v 32-45, Gal. 5 v 1, 2 Pt. 2 v 12-19, 3 v 2-5).

Adam originally saw his God-breathed life was not compatible with animals (Gen. 2 v 18-23). He also desired to be free of God’s restraints. He wanted to be a god-like immortal based on occult knowledge from Satan. Immediately he did it he became mortal like an animal. Preprogrammed animal life belongs and returns to God (Gen. 9 v 3-4) but humans who obey an alternative spirit or worship an idol will stay separated from Him forever.

Based on forbidden knowledge the godless now believe they are superior animals, produced by a self perfecting accident of nature when in fact their nature and works are incompatible with the natural world. It is trying to kill them and they are destroying it. You can warn them of their folly but they always think they know better (Jn. 1 v 5-13, 3 v 19, 2 Pt. 2 v 12).

Satan’s proud pawns defy God because it makes them feel superior (2 Cor. 4 v 2-4). The conceited priests of this new age are blinded by the embroidered lies of their inner ego (1 Tim. 4 v 1-2). They obscure God’s words because just a glimmer of light reveals their dark nature (Acts 7 v 51-57).

Earth bound spirits seek refuge in our souls (Lk. 8 v 27-32, 22 v 3, 31-32) as alter egos and bipolar voices. Your familiar spirit or nagual is not yours: it is an invasive squatter that overrules your will and rights. It is a parasite that can be purged. The only way of staying free of it is by repenting of your God-defying sin nature and turning back to God’s life by inviting Jesus to dwell in your heart as your new Lord (Lk. 11 v 20-26, Jn. 10 v 9-10, 2 Tim. 3 v 1-16).

A physical sickness, can have spiritual roots. Addicts, rescued from a living hell revert unless the Holy Spirit delivers them (Mt. 12 v 43-45). Inner healing and positive thinking are based on faith in a soul's alter ego so it is a looped tape (Jas. 2 v 18-20, 5 v 15). It will defy medics and not heal until the inner ego is ejected (Mt. 9 v 2, Jas. 5 v 16). It will only budge in Jesus' name if you have his authority (Acts 19 v 15).

Self purifying is a figment (Is. 64 v 6-9). Only a revelation of God's love for you can free you from your selfish sin, death and devil ruled nature (Rom. 7 v 24-25). The blood bought will love and seek Jesus' will and words. If you trust in him the truth will set you free (Mt. 12 v 28-35, 25 v 11-12, Lk. 13 v 23-28, Jn. 8 v 32, 1 Cor. 6 v 19, Gal. 5 v 1). His words are powerful because they are backed by His Holy Spirit (Dan. 3 v 15, 29-29).

First he will test your faith. Then prayer and praise will keep you God conscious and stop you being devil conscious (2 Kg. 3 v 15, Ps. 51, 66, 100). Discernment with words of knowledge must then be applied that are assured by God's Holy Spirit. Only assertive, effectual, fervent prayer with fasting can shift the difficult ones (Mt. 17 v 19-21). Fasting is physical: it does not make you holy. It only confirms to God that your prayer is heartfelt and not just a religious formula (Ps. 51 v 6, Acts 19 v 13-19, Heb. 11 v 6).

No human is holy (Rom. 7 v 23, 8 v 1, Heb. 10 v 19-22, 38). The repentant are saved by grace (Eph. 2 v 3-10). They love the Lord and Saviour with all their heart, mind and strength and love others as they are loved (Mt. 6 v 12, 22 v 36-40). They can afford to love even their enemies because their Father can afford to support all His beloved children (Lk. 10 v 27-29).

Any one with god-like airs serves the wrong god (Gen. 3 v 5). Such superior humans hate those who inherit nobility from Jesus based on trust in his works (Gen. 3 v 15, 4 v 4, 8, Gal. 4 v 29-31, Heb. 4 v 1-2, 15-16).

The children of Satan's kingdom (Lk. 4 v 5-7) love the idea of humanity but they scorn those below them in mother nature's self survival pyramid (2 Pt. 2 v 12). Such supermen, bigots and racists forget that all will fall prey to the predatory god at the top of their pyramid (Rom. 14 v 10-13).

Man's scared cows cost billions to maintain. Jeroboam built two altars in Israel (with a standing stone for Asherah and a smaller one for her son Baal) to stop his people worshipping the true God in Jerusalem and returning to the rule of David's heir. Such vain fools build structures made to last a millennium so the influence of their 'temporal' god gains immortality' (Dan. 4 v 22-27, 37). Their decaying ruins tell the truth. All man's creeds and principles based on intellect are earth bound and antichrist. Only the word's of the true Creator God are eternally true (2 Cor. 13 v 8).

OFFENCE 7: THE CARNALITY OF ACHOR, BAAL PEOR, ANANIAS AND PERGAMUM

Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty (Jn. 7 v 37-39, 15 v 10-14, 2 Cor. 3 v 17-18). When people loose their self conscious fears they sing with angels in praising God (Jn. 8 v 36, 2 Cor. 3 v 17). The self indulgent want God to please them (Mt. 24 v 48-51, Lk. 19 v 14, 47, Jas. 4 v 1-10). They sing songs to God that are really about them (Ex. 32 v 6, Num. 25 v 1-3, Gal. 5 v 13). It is seen as freeing but they dance with unholy spirits and court death (Ex. 30 v 20, 25-33, Josh. 24 v 14-24).

Jesus ordered his disciples to do nothing until they received guidance from his Spirit (Lk. 24 v 49). Religious practices produced by those who do not wait on or trust in God's words carry a curse (Ex. 32 v 1, 35). Cain self glorifying worship insulted God (Eph. 2 v 2). His brother's sincerity exposed his evil intent so he killed him (1 Sam. 13 v 10-14, 15 v 23, 18 v 10-12, Mt. 12 v 31-35). He refused to repent so he became eternally cursed.

Self centred people have futile lives because instead of praying to God the Father and accepting His promised Saviour they seek a god that justifies their bad behaviour (1 Kg. 18 v 4, 17-18, Lk. 20, Acts 7 v 391 Pt. 2 v 5). They support a self appointed prophet (Mt. 24 v 11-14, 26, Rev. 2 & 3) with a gimmicky 'religious' circus (1 Kg. 22 v 11-13). Man- made cults and idols are weird and deadly. Their minds become bewitched and perverted by an evil party spirit (Num. 25 v 1-3, Mt. 7 v 15-16, 23 v 15, Lk. 3 v 9, Jas. 2 v 17-23).

People who love money and want to look good like Achan use the things of God to glorify self (Josh. 7 v 11, Rom. 7 v 18 v 24, 8 v 4-8, 1 Cor. 5 v 2, 6, Gal. 3, 5 v 7-9). They bring down a curse on their family and associates. Miriam claimed some of Moses' God-given authority for herself and immediately the whole camp was grounded (Num. 12).

King Saul did his self-enriching version of God's will (1 Sam. 13 v 8-13, 15 v 23) and his kingdom became cursed (Deut. 28 v 47-48). Baalim's greed seduced a people who could be not be cursed into cursing themselves (Num. 23 v 23, 25 v 1-3). His doctrine killed 23,000 in one day (1 Cor. 10 v 8).

Astarte and Baal offer the naive freedom to sin then Death harvests their addicts (Rev. 2 v 14, Mt. 13 v 41). Greed, lust, broken families, unnatural sexual unions, aids, drugs, murder, lasting plagues; are now rotting the fabric of society (Deut. 28 v 15-48, Heb. 13 v 4).

Those who do their version of God's will obey Satan's will. They are Satan's puppets (Mt. 4 v 8-11, 6 v 5, 16 v 6, 23-27, Jn. 13 v 27, Acts 5 v 3-11). Churches, full of people devoid of God's life, repeat a stagnant, man animated formula (Ecc. 12 v 13-14, Mt. 7 v 21-23, 10 v 42, Jude 4) that turns people with hopeless lives away from a love relationship with Jesus. Man's holy or profane ideas are inspired by a evil spirit or angel (Gen. 3 v 5).

Who is 'pulling your strings'? Inner compulsions come from accepting a fantasy or fear from an inner muse or ego that has a life of its own. It takes control of your will (Mt. 12 v 43-45, Jas. 1 v 13-21). They are recognised as bipolar entities or other egos by psychiatrists yet treated as physical disorders so they are occulted and establish rather than removed (Rev. 22 v 11-15). When the blind lead the blind they both get run over (Mt. 15 v 18-20).

A person's thoughts, actions and behaviour are formed by their response to tests of will. Without God's guidance they are easily seduced by oppressive, parasitic alter egos (Gen. 3 v 6, Is. 14 v 13-15). If you do not let Jesus cleanse you of them they will overcome you like a cancer (Num. 25 v 6-9, Mt. 12 v 43-45, 1 Cor. 5 v 5-7). Humbly "turning over of fallow ground" and planting God's truth is your only defence (Hos. 10 v 12, Lk. 3 v 8, Acts 3 v 38).

Jesus said "My sheep hear my voice." (Jn. 8 v 47, 18 v 37). God's phone number is Jeremiah 33:3. It is a direct line so the first to answer is Jesus. At first you may not hear him clearly due to the invasive, inner voices which you have heard clearly from childhood. Do not excuse self or defend them! Pray to Jesus and obey his Spirit's prompts and they will be weeded out. God defends His name. Without him Satan would have broken us long ago.

Some familiar spirits are attached to a family. They are passed on from one generation to the next. Rejection begets rejection. Only prayer to the Father can clear out such old spiritual strong holds. Avoid man-centred therapy which distracts the self-centred from their hopeless state (Acts 19 v 13-15) and their need of a new life from their Saviour. Too many of the children of clairvoyants, psychiatrists (Freud's priests), therapist and pastors are very disturbed and do not get better (Lk. 4 v 33, 9 v 40-42, 11 v 20-26).

There is not one voice but a crowd (Lk. 8 v 30). Spirits plague soulish minds and drive their bad thoughts and behaviour (Gen. 3 v 10-11, Acts 5 v 3). Their vain beliefs excuse and mask their guilt (Acts. 9 v 1-5, Eph. 4 v 14). Those who converse with an inner spirit, alter ego or nagual and are still trust in its false promises when they lose their free will at death will be joined to it forever. Oneness with God is the opposite of this diverse, divorced mind set.

If the Son makes you free you will be truly freed (Jn. 8 v 32-36). Those baptised into Jesus death and receive his Spirit of truth (Jn. 16 v 13, Rev. 3 v 19-22) are joined to his life. They will thank and love him forever (Rom. 8, Heb. 4). They rest from their striving and enter into his works by faith ((Jn. 8 v 31-34, Rom. 10 v 13, Heb. 4 v 10-16). In Jesus' name they are set freed from Satan's dominion. Their prayers can even bind Satan's hold on those who persecute them. Those loosed from Its hold but still choose to do evil (Mt. 12 v 43-45) will not be cast off but suffer God's discipline (Ex. 9 v 35, Jer. 4 v 18-31, 14 v 10-16, Jn. 12 v 37-40, 1 Cor. 5 v 5, Heb. 12).

Adam lost oneness with God and become one with Satan when he reject God's will and accepted Satan's (Lk. 6 v 43, 11 v 24). Our Father loves us and sent Jesus to die to save us (Is. 55 v 6–11, Jn. 3 v 16, 5 v 36, Heb. 4 v 10, 15-16, 11 v 6) so all who want to know and be one with His will and life again must feed off Jesus' (Jn. 4 v 22-24, 6 v 63, 10 v 4). Only he can reveal the Father to those who seek Him (Jn. 14 v 6, 23).

Love is wanting to know and do His will and hating Satan's (Gen. 2 v 9, Jn. 16 v 13). Those who doubt His love can receive nothing from Him (Heb. 11 v 6). To know Him you must let His Spirit erase Satan's lies and write His laws on your heart (Ps. 37 v 4-7, 23-24, Ezk. 36 v 26-27, Heb. 4 v 11-16).

Your self-saving ways (Gen. 3 v 17-19, 1 Jn. 4 v 18-21) are not alternatives but just the oppose of His (Gen. 32 v 11-21, Ezra 8 v 22, 9 v 1, Mt. 4 v 1-9). Your death-fearing religious works cannot please Him (Mt. 7 v 21-23, Acts 9 v 4, 1 Cor. 2 v 5-10, 3 v 16-21, 2 Tim. 3 v 5-17, 1 Jn. 1 v 3-10, 4 v 13). They only prove you do not trust Him (Rom. 7 v 22-24, Gal. 3 v 13, 24-25, 1 Jn. 1 v 8-10).

Never think because love and mercy rule God's being that He tolerates your ungodly ways. Jacob knew God's provision yet he resisted God's will (Gen. 32 v 9-12, 24-28). He was crowned Israel; 'God's prince among men' only after he surrendered his self saving ways. Jesus did not compromise with the Devil in order to save his life and rule the world (Lk. 4 v 8). He trusted his Father to save him and so is crowned king over all creation (Mt. 26 v 39, Heb. 10 v 9-18). God's rest is not passive (Is. 56 v 2-7, Heb. 4 v 11).

Those who begin the course discover in Jesus they have access to both the Father's love and correction (Mt. 6 v 9-13, Jn. 14 v 6, 23, Eph. 1 v 17-23, Heb. 2 v 10, 3 v 1, 18, 12 v 22-25, 1 Jn. 2 v 14, 23). Talk to Him about everything (Php. 4 v 6-7, 1 Thess 5 v 17-19). Jesus overcame all the problems we wrestle with (Gen. 32 v 24-30, Heb. 2 v 10-18) so we must ask and trust him for the answers (Is. 53 v 6, Jn. 10 v 4, 26-30, Rom. 8 v 28).

Our prayers are always welcome. The answer can be yes or no; wait or hurry (Mt. 15 v 28). Your God centred guidance is clearly not self generate: it is usually the opposite of what you would like to do. You will hesitate to act on it in case you look foolish but the Holy Spirit will encourage you to take each faltering new step (Jg. 6 v 17, 1 Sam. 17 v 32-37, Rom. 8 v 26). His aim is to prove and enlarge your trust (Jn. 3 v 34) but he will not ask you to do something that is way beyond your present level of trust (Rom. 12 v 3).

You cannot disagree with God but you can question Him (Gen. 18 v 27-28, Jg. 7 v 34-40, Job 42 v 4-7, Acts 10 v 14-15). As you learn and discover more about your present life you start to glimpse at things beyond our present experience (Dan. 8 v 27, 12 v 8-10, 1 Cor. 2 v 5-16, 2 Cor. 12 v 1-4).

EVERYTHING MUST CONFORM TO GOD'S WILL AND WORDS (1 Cor. 14 v 32-33)

Number one foundation scripture is 1 John 1 v 5-10.

You accept and put on the life of the Servant King by faith (Rom. 7 & 8, Gal. 3 v 26-27, 4 v 9, Eph. 2 v 1-10). God's life breath, that Adam expelled, is given as a love gift by His Holy Spirit. He then cleanses you of all your harmful thinking and behaviour (Jn. 14 v 26, Rom. 7, Eph. 4 v 17-32: change of heart, mind and habits). He will complete the work he has started on the day your old life is finally over (Rom. 8 v 10-13, Eph. 2 v 4-10, Php. 1 v 6, Heb. 6 v 17-19).

His love-powered transformation of the soul (heart and mind) cannot be feigned (Mt. 5 v 28, 15 v 19, 18 v 39-44, Acts 8 v 21, 2 Cor. 3 v 2-9) or reversed. It may not be obvious at first but the Father has stated on oath that any evidence of Him working in your life means you are His son (Jn. 10 v 28-29, Acts 19 v 5-6, Heb. 6 v 9-19, 12 v 1-8, Jas. 2 v 21-24).

You are a precious write-off bought at great price (1 Cor. 10 v 13, Heb. 4 v 9-16): stop seeing his restoration as an attack of the devil (Deut. 29 v 3, Rom. 8 v 1, 14, 27-31). If you stop him renewing you (Mt. 15 v 17-20, Col. 3 1-10) you will regret the rewards that you have missed (Dan. 3 v 16-18, Mt. 10 v 28-33, Mk. 8 v 33, Acts. 5 v 4, Gal. 3 v 1, Rev. 2 & 3). If you think you know better or hinder the Holy Spirit's loving work or fear what others may think, you will not advance but live in a wilderness until you repent (Heb. 3 v 12-19).

Loving God means giving the little you have to gain everything He has to give. Self love is barren and harbours rejection (Lk. 15 v 28-30, Jas. 2) yet many church-goers try to save their old life. Instead of trusting in God's love they doubt God's words and believe Satan's (Rev. 12 v 10). It is unconfessed sin that makes self-conscious people self-preserving (Gen. 3 v 7). Believers who excuse, deny or are not sorry for their failings are not scrapped but severely disciplined (Acts 5 v 3-5, 1 Cor, 5 v 5-11, Heb. 12).

It is Satan's will is that none will have dominion over it and all will be enslaved (Is. 14 v 17). It is not God's will that any perish. All who call on Him to forgive them will be saved. Those who deny the fact that their Adamic life is enslaved to Satan (Lk. 5 v 18 v 11-14, Rom. 7 v 18, Gal. 3 v 10-14, 1 Jn. 1 v 10). They seek comfort from religious feelings (Gen. 3 v 6) which become a burden as they are unchanging. They give no assured hope but need to be repeated again and again (Ezk. 18 v 26-27).

Abraham was declared righteous despite his mistakes because of his faith in God's promised Saviour (Gen. 22 v 8). Jacob advanced through error and trials to become one of the greatest men of faith ever (Rom. 9 v 13). When he was dying he insisted on standing to worship God and give Him the glory for his remarkable life (Eph. 2 v 8-10, Heb. 11 v 1-21, Jas. 1 v 5-7, 2 v 17).

The second is Romans 8: the old nature is a write off; the new is eternal.

Everything only works for the good, even the not so good, for those who love God and seek and obey His instructions (Jn. 4 v 24, 1 Jn. 2 v 7-17). If the Spirit of God is guiding you, are you a child of God (Rom. 8 v 9, 32-39).

..... Who can change what God has approved (Acts 10 v 15, Rom. 8 v 14, 28-31)? The Father did not spare Jesus, but gave him up in order to gain us as sons (Heb. 2 v 9-18), so for us who have accepted Christ Jesus as Lord, I am absolutely convinced that nothing (Jer. 32 v 27) on Earth or in heaven can ever separate us from God's love and life again."

Ezra also knew this (8 v 21-23) and proved this is true, but he included its corollary: – "Then I announced that we ought to fast and humble ourselves before God and ask Him to guide us about how we are to proceed with our children and wealth on our journey in a hostile world without succumbing to its fear for self survival, for we had officially stated that God loves and protects the lives of all those who seek Him, but is angry and abandons those who prefer their own ways (self preserving, human thinking is of the Fall). As the result of our whole hearted commitment to this belief, God accepted our plea .... We not only proved that God did protect us but we won the favour of our rulers."

The Law written on stone only convicts the guilty (Gal. 3). The law of the Spirit (Rom. 8 v 2, 15, 10 v 8-10), written on the heart, is "a life in Christ Jesus" (Acts 15 v 8-12). By committing your old nature to death, through baptism into Jesus' death, you can be set free from it. Those who walk by faith in Jesus' sacrifice are cleansed (Eph. 5 v 26) and made one with the Father (Col. 2 v 13-14, Heb. 9 & 10). In Christ (Jas. 1 v 18-22, 3 v 18, Php. 4 v 3) their confessed sins that separate them from the Father are atoned.

Abel accepted his sinful nature had to die. He proved his faith in God's promised new life, by sacrificing a 'readily available' sinless lamb (Gen. 4 v 7) as a type of Jesus (Job 1 v 5, 19 v 25-27, Heb. 11 v 4, 12 v 24). Cain knew God's instruction but pride stopped him repenting so he became psychotic.

There are lots of proud, self survivalists like Cain, who do not appear to be led by Satan (Jn. 13 v 27, Acts 5 v 3) except with self centred people everything works to the bad. All sin can be forgiven if it is repented of by claiming the blood of Jesus (Mt. 23 v 13-15) but they hide their sin ruled nature under a cloak of political or religious correctness (Is. 1 v 10-13).

The biggest evil is not done by those who openly sin but those who pose as good. They make society unsafe. They fool themselves that their self destructive ways are good and God's words are bad (Gen. 3 v 3-4, Ps. 139 v 7-8, Lk. 4 v 12, 6 v 7, Jn. 8 v 37-47, Rom. 8 v 4-8). The Father judges them for what He sees in their hearts (Mt. 3 v 7, 15 v 16-20, 23 v 25-28, Col. 2).

They believe Satan's gospel: "dismiss God's warnings and do what you like." When God points out the obvious; that without His support they are bound to fade and die, they get angry and call Him a liar (1 Jn. 1 v 6-10). They are naked before Him yet they lie to His face (Gen. 4 v 9, Acts 5 v 3). God's words have substance: ignoring them is inordinately dumb.

Jesus bore the penalty for our sin so all who trust in his work of redemption and decry their corrupt nature will gain His abundant life (Rom. 7 v 4, Gal. 3 v 24). Like Abel they die at peace with God (Ezk. 18 v 25-32) knowing they will be saved (Job 19 v 25-27, Ps. 2). The self-righteous like Cain live in darkness. They hate the saved as they reveal the truth and expose their false motives (Gen. 4 v 7-8, Jn. 3 v 19, Heb. 11 v 7). They killed Jesus and the early Bible translators for exposing their hypocrisy.

Misguided self survivalists try to defend and save their lives by being 'good' (Rom. 8 v 4-8). To do this they have to present God's chosen men of faith as no better than them. Lot is accused of being bad in choosing to live in the lush vale of Sodom. In fact God sent this righteous man to preach to them (Gen. 19 v 9, 2 Pt. 2 v 5). Those who brand Peter as the weak one who denied Jesus, have not learned what he learned (Lk. 22 v 31-32, Rev. 2 & 3).

One of the greatest men of faith, Elijah, who was feared by kings (1 Kg. 18 v 18-20, 2 Kg. 1 v 16-17, Jas. 5 v 16-18) is accused of running away from Jezebel (Gen. 32 v 6-13, 24-28)! It was his will-to-live that "ran away like melted wax". He wanted to die because his efforts to change and save Israel had failed (1 Kg. 19 v 14-17). Some say Jesus was the illegitimate son of a carpenter (Lk. 7 v 6-8, 1 Cor. 11 v 27).

Egoists who think they know better than God will not be saved (Mt. 7 v 14, Lk. 18 v 8, 14, Only Jesus can deliver us from Adam's curse and give us the godly Spirit powered and led nature that he lost. Jude warns; we are as in the times of Noah and Lot (Lk. 21 v 22).

Calamities should make self survivalists stop and think (Jn. 9 v 41) yet many concentrate on patching up their dying nature and reject Jesus as their Lord and Saviour (Mt. 9 v 16, Jn. 9 v 41, Heb. 2 v 14-15). They blot out their sin and fears with work, play and make believe (Ex. 20 v 8). Without Jesus' life giving words nothing changes.

The truth is still discernible in the King James Bible (Is. 55 v 6-11, Heb. 4 v 12, 6 v 7-9) but it has been painted over it in the storey book versions (Gen. 3 v 4, 11, Job. 42 v 7, Mk. 6 v 2, Rom. 8 v 4-9, 1 Pt. 1 v 11-19, 2 Pt. 1 v 16-21). They are easy to read but man's self saving wisdom has blunt the Holy Spirit's sharp dividing knife (Heb. 4 v 10-16). They suggest if Cain was good he would not be ruled by sin instead of (Gen. 4 v 7): a sin-offering is crouching near by; reach out and you can overturn your sin by offering it.

In 1 Corinthians 15 v 29 people are not baptised in place of “the dead” but instead going to “the place of the dead”. Hebrews 11 gives some example of those who completely trusted God with their lives. God rewarded their faith with a gift of His life breath. It has to be all or nothing (Lk. 10 v 27). Acting on the Holy Spirit’s prompting gives substance to your faith (Ps. 17 v 5-8, Mt. 12 v 47-50, 15 v 26-28).

Church men have a history (Acts 7 v 51-58) of amending God’s words to hide their unbelief (Mt. 21 v 18, 25, 23 v 27-36). They preach the Bible is not literal! The State of Israel proves it is (Rom. 11). God made everything from nothing with a word of faith (Gen. 1 v 1-3, Jn. 1 v 1-7). Without faith it has no purpose (Heb. 11 v 1). Metaphysicists pose as wise (Jn. 1 v 1-13, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10) yet their pointless lives are centred on self-survival and improvement.

They think creation must once have been self perfecting even though current evidence shows it no longer is. Our devolved genes show that our forebears must have been fitter than us in every way. Creation started to degrade when Adam as its lord disconnected it from God’s sustaining life (Rom. 8 v 18-25). Without God’s indwelling Spirit he became as just an empty bottle. While he was filled with God’s life (2 Cor. 4 v 7) every part of creation was subject to him (Gen. 1 v 31, 2 v 16-17, Is. 65 v 18-25). The many miracles that Jesus did give us a glimpse of what that was like.

Nice religious people who justify their human nature repeat Adam’s and Cain’s sin (Jn. 1 v 29: not sins). That nature is a write off (Rom. 7 v 23-24, 8 v 6-8, 1 Cor. 15 v 22). They will be left destitute for ever (Is. 64 v 5-12, Rom. 7). Righteousness by faith is the reverse of Adam’s treason. Trust in Jesus for eternal life and you will not worry about temporal life (Mt. 6 v 7-13, 19). You will see as though a window (1 Cor. 13 v 12) into a world that Adam lost in which everything only worked for the good.

Obedying God’s will does not make the human vessel a god but enables it to do the works of God (Jn. 15 v 4-12). Human faith cannot produce miracles. Abraham and Sarah knew they were too old to have a baby (Gen. 17 v 17-19, 18 v 12-14 21 v 1-2) but they believed God’s word (Heb. 11 v 6-8). He makes those who know they are nothing into something (Jd. 6 v 12). Those who think they are self determined gods make themselves pointless freaks of nature. Their gods cannot save: they have to save them.

As Chesterton noted; the godless fill their emptiness with darkness. The philosophy and theology of those who try to justify and glorify their human nature is not based on truth but lies inspired by their alter ego. The dead giveaway is they only accept the opposite of God’s words (Gen. 3 v 1, 1 Cor. 1 v 18-25). You need to submit to Jesus as your Lord and Saviour to be reborn with his nature and gain the assurance of a new, eternal life (Jn. 1 v 4-13).

The third is John 13 v 8-10. Oneness with Father's love, will and works.

Before Adam decided he knew better than God, he had no sin. He was a created vessel filled with God's life. He then accepted Eve's advice as good and rejecting the Father's words as bad. Everything God gave Adam to richly enjoy became perverted (Rom. 8 v 20-21, 1 Tim. 6 v 17). The unforgivable sin from which Satan has provoked all the others is to claim the warnings of God's Spirit are lies (Mk. 3 v 28-30, Acts 2 v 22-23, 5 v 3, 1 Jn. 1 v 10).

Those with their own version of good and evil see God's words as damning yet at the end of His rebuke (Jer. 6) is the offer of amazing grace (Is. 1 v 10-26). Salvation is based purely on replying to His loving call "Where are you?" (Ex. 20 v 3, Is. 6 v 8-13, Mk. 12 v 29-30). Many want an independent, eternal heaven on Earth but their existing life dies because it is ruled by a vain, god-defying alter ego. We have inherited a forlorn, death bound nature (Rom. 5 v 18-21). When God points this truth out to them they just get angry.

Schopenhauer realised that the human state is futile but he was too proud to cry to God for help (Lk. 23 v 40-43). Suicide or euthanasia gives no release: it just turns the temporal torment into eternal torment. Wiser ones peer from their hide and see the greatness of God's love. They grasp the gift of Jesus' eternal life and they love their Saviour with all their being.

To be reunited with us and rescue us from death Jesus' humanity had to die. You can only be set free from the ways of your old life through baptism in water, as if burying it in death with Jesus by faith (Jn. 3 v 1-21, Mt. 16 v 19, 23, 18 v 20). You conceive Jesus' holy nature and grow into a new creature (Gen. 2 v 21 v 23, Rom. 7 & 8, Eph. 5 v 23-27). After your body or shell finally dies you will arise with a body like his (1 Cor. 15 v 42-56, 1 Thess. 4 v 16-18).

All God's children are joined to the life of Jesus by His indwelling Holy Spirit (Mal. 3 v 16-17, Mk. 16 v 15-18, Lk. 24 v 47-49, Rom. 8 v 11-15, 28-39). He will guide and correct you (Jn. 14 v 26, Eph. 4 v 23-30). You must let him cut out the old to reveal the new (Heb. 4 v 12-16).

You grow and become one with him as you humbly submit to his washing with his words each day (Jn. 15 v 1-10, 17 v 17-23, Eph. 5 v 26-27, Heb. 3 v 6-13). Adam's lost oneness with the Father's life is gradually restored.

Teaching requires perseverance and growth takes time (Rom. 1 v 17, Heb. 3 v 14). The Holy Spirit will teach you to see the truth from God's perspective instead of man's (1 Cor. 2 v 11-16). As you respond to his schooling you will start to know God as His child (Jn. 14 v 21-23, Heb. 2 v 10-11) instead of an absent Father (Ezk. 14 v 14). There is no more sin unto death; just the discipline of a Father for his beloved child (Jn. 8 v 31-36, Heb. 12 v 6-15, 1 Jn. 3 v 5-10, 18-24). Do not grieve Him (2 Cor. 4 v 16-18, 5 v 5-10).

Hebrews is one message: have faith in God's promised Saviour.

What is man that God should visit him (Heb. 2 v 6). Why is such a dull, flawed creature of any interest to Almighty God (Ps. 8 v 3-6)? What does God see in us that we do not? Only those seated with Christ in heavenly places will begin to see what He sees. He sees us as not as we are but as we will be (Eph. 1 v 10, 17-21, 2 v 5-10, Col. 2 v 8-10).

All should jump at God's free offer of sonship. Those ashamed of their sin and who respond to his reforming work, (If my people ... 2 Chr. 7 v 12-14, Gal. 5 v 22-26, Eph. 4 v 17-32) will sit in the presence of the Most High (Ps. 91, Jn. 14 v 12, 23-24, Heb. 2 v 7, 3 v 1, 12 v 22-25). The blood of Jesus (Zech. 3 v 3-10, Heb. 9 v 14-26) allows them to stand by faith before his throne. They rest in what Jesus has done for them (Jn. 19 v 30, Heb. 2 v 11). As a man he reversed Adam's disobedience (Lk. 9 v 29-31, Rom. 8 v 29-37, Php. 2 v 5-16).

He asks us to do things that we cannot do to show us that we can if we trust him (Jd. 6 v 12-23, Mt. 14 v 27-32). How else could we learn the Servant King's ways and earn eternal benefits? We must strive to enter into his rest. He suffered the Father's rejection and died so we might be saved from hell (Heb. 10 v 20, 38,) so is a little diligence too much to ask (Heb. 12 v 3-5)?

The Father expects fruit from His investment in your life (Mt. 13 v 8, 21 v 18-19, 25 v 26-30). It is pointless to grow a tomato plant from seed if it never matures and produces fruit: if the omniscient Father has begun a godly work in you (Eph. 5 v 26-27, Php. 1 v 6, 3 v 21, Col. 2 v 8-10, 3 v 4, Heb. 6 v 7-19, 1 Jn. 4 v 17-21) He will finish it on the day of Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 13 v 12, Php. 1 v 6, Col. 3 v 4, 1 Thess. 5 v 1-10, 2 Thess. 2 v 1-5, 1 Jn. 3 v 2 Rev. 1 v 10, 13-18). On that day you will rise up with your new sinless body and you will know Him as He knows you (1 Cor. 8 v 3).

The things you have gained in Christ while on Earth, will be carried forward as eternal benefits but all your independent, worldly achievements will be worthless and burnt as rubbish (1 Cor. 3 v 8-21). The time left is short (Mt. 16 v 3-4, 24 v 3-8, Jn. 4 v 35-38). Instead of fearing His presence, it is imperative that we enter to escape His wrath (Ps. 91, Heb. 12 v 22-29). Peter's reaction to it was "I do not want it to stop" (Mt. 17 v 4).

Some believe but have not made Jesus their Lord (Jas. 2 v 17-20). Many do what they want with their lives so precious time is lost forever (1 Cor. 3 v 11-21). They ignore God's knocking (Mt. 24 v 37-51, 25 v 5-12, Gal. 4 v 9, 19, Rev. 3 v 20). They are judged according to Ezekiel 18. Only those trusting in God at the time of their death they will be saved (Lk. 23 v 41-43). Worldly Christians need to repent (Jas. 1 v 22, 4 v 4). Those who do will gain the personal walk with Jesus that Adam threw away (Jer. 33 v 3, Mt. 7 v 7, Rom. 8 v 13-14, Col. 2 v 9, 3 v 1-4, Heb. 12 v 16).

James is one message.

God made Adam in His image (Jn. 1 v 4, 8 v 12, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-10). He did not know he was naked because he shone (Gen. 2 v 25, 1 Cor. 15 v 43, Ex. 33 v 14-23, 34 v 29-30). His fall was unimaginably terrible (Gen. 3 v 7-10).

The humble (Mic. 6 v 8, 1 Cor. 13 v 4) who realise their dire state (Lk. 7 v 47) will love and trust in God's Promised Saviour (Gen. 3 v 21, Job 19 v 25, Rom. 7 v 24-25) forever and ever. It is only in His presence that our 'filthy rags' are replaced with his blood bought robes of righteousness (Eph. 2 v 5-10). We will start to shine again (Dan. 12 v 3, Zech. 3 v 4, Heb. 4 v 10-16, 1 Jn. 1 v 7-9).

The Spirit of God is Holy and vigilant (1 Cor. 10 v 21-22). Only repentance can save the unholy from chastisement (Ps. 51 v 1-12, Jer. 15 v 19-21, Jn. 13 v 8-10, Eph. 1 v 11-14, 5 v 26, 1 Jn. 1 v 5-9). Those who enjoy God's blessings but forget to stay humble find he withdraws His favour from them (Ps. 78 v 36-41, Eph 4 v 25-32, Heb. 3 v 10, 17, 12 v 1-24). The chastened return humbled and aware that only Jesus' sacrifice makes them acceptable to his Spirit and gives them access to the Father (Mt. 11 v 19, 28, Rom. 5 v 5-11).

Magnificent buildings make people feel small and inferior as if in the presence of a god but the self-justified have no real awe or fear of God. Many religions and churches are based on identification with a man and his teaching so a personal relationship with Jesus is blocked (Jn. 8 v 42-47). Preachers who desire praise and money (Mt. 6 v 5-8, 8 v 21-23-27, Lk. 10 v 13-16, 12 v 8-10) are divorced from Jesus (Jn. 8 v 31-47, Rom. 8 v 6-8).

Those sold out to Jesus are eternally saved. The deliberate acts of spiritual adultery (1 Sam. 2 v 34, Heb. 10 v 26-38, 2 Peter 2) by the self-serving damn them before they die (Gen. 4 v 11, Deut. 24 v 1-4, Heb. 12 v 25, Rev. 14 v 9-11). They are called sons of perdition (2 Pt. 3 v 7) because they wilfully reject God's Spirit and choose to obey the suggestions of their self-excusing, alternative ego which is anti Christ (Mt. 12 v 30-37, 1 Jn. 4 v 1-13).

Right and wrong depend on their guru's persuasions (1 Cor. 2 v 11-14, Eph. 4 v 13-16, 2 Pt. 2). Their self-centred, franchised, religious social clubs will accept all who bow to their party spirit regardless of their inclinations (1 Jn. 3 v 24). You will have a better chance of being saved by joining a darts club.

Humanists dismiss God, sin and guilt as a cultural invention and imposed Hegel's invented correctness by anarchic pressure groups that are immoral. A demonstration by a paid crowd, many of whom do not know what it is about, gets full media coverage while the truth is hidden. Adverts, presentations, institutes, expert opinions, documentaries, TV news: all are just show-business. Many think-tanks are just paid propagandists.

MEN SWAP A LOVING FATHER FOR MACHINE-LIKE LEGALISM (Gal. 4 v 5-9)

There have always been 2 gospels: Abel's redemption by faith in Jesus' sacrifice or Cain's self justification of Darwin/Nietzsche's self-destructive god-man): "what God thinks is outdated; do what you decide is good and you will not go to hell but become a free spirit" (Gen. 3 v 5: elohim). Except disobedient free spirits are damned (Lk. 10 v 17-20, Heb. 2 v 7-17).

The 'dog eat dog' pyramidal food chain of the self elevated and justified is shored up with half truths (Mt. 26 v 3). Emperors, kings and governments appoint priests and bishops who supported their rule (Zeph. 3) so bishops become rich lawyers instead of apostles (Lk. 11 v 46-54, Acts 5 v 39, 9 v 2, Php. 3 v 6) and the meeting halls became magnificent Pantheons. They had to shut up those like Abel and Tyndale who upheld God's gospel (Col. 1).

The Protestors who broke away (Rev. 1 v 5-6) to the freedom of democracy have now also voted for a political correct gospel based on good works (Gal. 1 v 6, 3 v 10, Lk. 11 v 47, 17 v 26, 18 v 8). "Do what we say is good and you will become a superior being like us." But this is Satan's gospel!

Those who think they can become holy by doing what they think is good are bound to be doing the reverse (Gen. 3 v 4-5, 4 v 3-8, Lk. 18 v 11-14, Rom. 8 v 5-8, 1 Jn. 1 v 8-10). Christians do good works but doing good works does not make you a Christian (Mt. 7 v 21, 9 v 16-17). Only God is holy. Only those one with God's Saviour can receive his righteousness by faith in His works (Eph. 2 v 1-9). Christians are sinners saved by grace who should share this wonderful news with others .

People are responsible for their choices and justice (Gen. 6 v 5, 9 v 3-6). They need to seek and obey their Maker's instruction manual (Deut. 4 v 8). Only His love can forgive and save them (1 Tim. 2 v 1-7, 1 Pt. 2 v 12-25). His safety laws are better and simpler than those conjured by some immoral ego who wants God and everyone else to do it 'my way' (Num. 16 v 3, 28, 2 Pt. 2, Jude).

Now many bow to some mystical, mind-bending guru who demands all bow to its lifeless image. Its priesthood of pedantic lawyers have to bend logic, truth and justice to uphold it. Right and wrong become shades of grey which get darker and darker. Everything gets beyond them so they use algorithms in silicon clouds to reduce all to five sizes; black or white and one sex.

Many try to hide their malevolence from others under a show of being nice (Mt. 24 v 4-8, Lk. 3 v 3-9, 6 v 26, 11 v 39-52, 18 v 9). They twist God's words (Jn. 8 v 38-47) in order to save Satan from being chained (Mt. 4 v 9, 13 v 10-15, Gal. 3 v 13). God judges people on the motives hidden in their minds and hearts (Gen. 4 v 5, Mt. 5 v 28, Lk. 12 v 1-3, 18 v 11-14, 23 v 40-43). Peter said to Ananias " ... Satan has filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit" (Acts 5 v 3, 9 v 5).

Adam's body was an earthen pot into which the Father planted His seed (Gen. 2 v 7, Jn. 3 v 5-21, 2 Cor. 4 v 7). He started holy but he allied himself to an evil spirit being (Gen. 2 v 25, 3 v 5-6, Ex. 34 v 29) against God's will. He made a 'covenant unto death' with Death (Gen. 2 v 17, Jn. 15 v 4-11). We have inherit it.

We fear to stand the presence of God because He is holy and we are not (Ex. 19 v 12-24, 20 v 18, 34 v 29-33). The Father sent Jesus into our corrupted domain (Rom. 1 v 18, 8 v 19-23, Php. 2 v 3-11) to fulfil our covenant with Death in our place (Rom. 7 & 8, Gal. 3 v 10-13). He offers peace, love, truth and hope to all who turn to Him for forgiveness and accept Jesus as their new Lord

The genuine who identify their sinful nature with Jesus' human death are God breathed and born again as one of His unique children (Gen. 1 v 26, 2 v 7, Mt. 8 v 2-3, Jn. 1 v 14, 13 v 8, 20, Acts 2 v 37-39, 10 v 13-16, Eph. 1 v 7-13, Heb. 2 v 6-16, 1 Jn. 2 v 14-15). His Holy Spirit then exposes and purges their sin (Gen. 35 v 2-5, Acts 3 v 19, 5 v 3, Rom. 7 v 4-6, 8 v 2-4, Eph. 1 & 2, 4 v 23-24, 5 v 22-27). Those who resist him will not 'flower' (1 Sam. 15 v 23, Acts 5 v 3).

The Father's words are only revealed to those who accept Jesus as their Lord and Saviour (Mt. 13 v 10-16, 35, Lk. 10 v 22-23, Jn. 4 v 24, 1 Cor. 2 v 13). The Father only made our temporal domain for His children as a training ground for a future life as lords of creation (Mt. 12 v 50, Heb. 2). When their pot cracks they are transplanted into a God powered body. Like when an eagles egg cracks and becomes an eagle (Ps. 22 v 5-11, 24-28), the scale of their transformation is staggering.

Those who are not interested in His offer of a glorious future ditch the Spirit's schooling for play (Eph. 4 v 12-14). Like Esau, many do whatever they think is right for them so they end up bankrupt and in hell (Lk. 12 v 19-32, 15 v 13-16). Satan bites truants who stray into its realm (1 Pt. 5 v 4-9). It wants to destroy the 'pot' of the undecided not just at birth but up to their last breath. This is because many repent and turn to God for mercy as they are dying (Jonah. 1 v 5, 2 v 3-8, Lk. 23 v 40-42).

Jesus said the narrow path, that leads straight to his Father's house, is easy (Ps. 55 v 22, Mt. 7 v 14, 11 v 16-19, 30). Alternative paths, of blind optimism and self defeating fatalism, draw people to their destruction (Mt. 7 v 13). To the right a spiritual desert: "transcend your dying body by blanking out your senses and the truth" (Lk. 18 v 9, Gal. 3 v 13, Col. 2, 1 Jn. 4 v 1-6). On the left a pleasure park: "blot out despair with time wasting distractions."

One thing might save you: have a breakdown. There is a free rescue service. All who cry to Jesus for help before they slip into the abyss at the end of the path (Jn. 5 v 29, 11 v 25-27) will be towed onto Jesus' one way road. He has built a bridge over it (Lk. 23 v 39-43).

The relief of the saved overflows in praise and gratitude for their Saviour (Rom. 12, 2 Cor. 3 v 17-19, Php. 1 v 6-11, Col. 3 v 4). Those who sign up to God's amazing grace 'get you home' cover also get free gifts. His love covers them for 70 x 7 failures on their journey through trial and error into holiness (2 Cor. 12 v 9). Only God is holy so only their oneness with Jesus can make them holy (Deut. 5 v 10, Mt. 9 v 20-25, 2 Cor. 4 v 6-18, Heb. 12 v 10).

Suddenly all of John's first epistle makes sense. The death or poured out blood of Jesus cleanses us from all our sin and makes us fit to relate to God Almighty as our loving Father (Jn. 3 v 16, 1 Jn. 1 v 3-7, 3 v 1-12). Those who doubt this promise doubt His love (1 Jn. 4 v 9-21). What the Hebrews 11 believers had by faith as a sure hope, the saved now own as an accomplished fact (Rom. 8 v 14, 32-33, Heb. 4 v 9-16).

All who confess their self centred lives are unholy and cry to Jesus for mercy are saved (Acts 2 v 38-40, Rom. 6 & 8, Eph. 1 v 4). Their fear of God's presence is replaced with great joy (Ps. 100, Heb. 12 v 22-29). They are over-awed by his glorious person. They will love, thank, praise, honour, glorify and trust in him forever and ever (Jn. 3 v 13-21, Eph. 3 v 19-21, Heb. 2 v 9-18).

Satan thought It had defeated the Father's plan to make men heirs to His creation by making humanity bow to It's will. All now inherit death. It's followers like morose Schopenhauer think that life ends in death so whatever you try to achieve is pointless (Lk. 9 v 25). Yet they fall for Satan's gospel of "forget God's warning about deaths and do whatever you feel is good for you as your own god and you will live forever" (Gen. 3 v 5, Mt. 7 v 13).

This is the gospel that ruined Adam's perfect life on earth (Gen. 1 v 31, Lk. 18 v 11, 2 Cor. 12 v 5-7). There is no reset button: all have to die. Many think death will end their meaningless existence. Suicides hope it will end their misery. The predatory feel free to do evil (Rev. 14 v 9-11). Those who do good works or mortify their flesh in an effort to save their unholy nature will keep it (Mt. 7 v 21-29, 2 Tim. 1 v 9-10). They only ratify their covenant with Satan (Num. 25 v 2, Rom. 1 v 18-25, Acts 23 v 21). Without a new body they are bound with It forever (Rev. 20 v 10-15). God does not believe in purgatory.

All who cry to the Father to forgive them for defying His will (Mt. 7 v 8), like the publican, the murderer on the cross (Lk. 18 v 13, 23 v 41-42), even Paul, still had to die to their old life (Rom. 7 v 3-6). To descend into Death to rescue the faithful Jesus' humanity had to die (Rom. 6, 10 v 6-13) but they step through it into a new life as the Bride of Christ (1 Cor. 15 v 49-58).

Those who make a 'marriage' covenant with him now will experience his new life now (Jn. 14, Rom. 8, Heb. 12) and be reunited with the Father (Gen. 35 v 5, Num. 23 v 19-23, Lk. 16 v 25, 2 Cor. 5 v 8-18, Heb. 4 v 1-3). As one Bride they arise with a new body like his on the Day of Jesus Christ (Php. 1 v 6).

GOD'S REALM IS UNBOUNDED, INFINITE AND TOO WONDERFUL TO IMAGINE

If this page is as a part of Gods realm, which is not limited by time, dimensions or available energy and power, then the universe and the whole of God's finite creation of energy bound forms, both visible and invisible, are confined in this dot (Col. 1 v 16). It is kept in the hand of His visible, tangible person: through him all that is finite is made (Jn. 10 v 28, 37-38, Col. 1 v 12-19).

.

The Father, Creator Spirit dwell and fill the rest of His realm (Ps. 11 v 4, Is. 66 v 1, 1 Cor. 15 v 22-28, Heb. 1 v 5-14). Heaven is filled with His great circulating love (Jn. 14 v 20-24, !7 v 11, 21-22). So why did He bother to create anything when it has caused Him so much grief (Gen. 6 v 5-8, Is. 53 v 3-12, Mt. 27 v 27-31, 46)?

His love desired to share that relationship with other beings (Jn. 1 v 1-13, 3 v 13-21, Heb. 2 v 10 to 3 v 6). We are the objects of His love yet finite created beings cannot endure His presence. A few men have been touched by him and have had an out of body visit to his throne but it was too much for their physical form to cope with (Ex. 34 v 28-35, Is. 6 v 1-7, Dan. 7 v 13-15, 2 Cor. 12 v 2-7, Rev. 1 v 10-19, 3 v 2). Only a sip is enough to bowl you over (Eph. 5 v 18-20).

To open His heart to others He had to rent His self-contained being. The cost could not have been greater so our destiny could not be greater (Eph. 1 v 3 to 2 v 22, Php. 2 v 5-13). The saved pass from man's finite realm into the Father's presence where the tangible person of the infinite God dwells (1 Cor. 15 v 49-58, Heb. 10 v 12-22). His many children who are one with Jesus gain a body like his. They are equipped to dwell as Christ's companions where he dwells (Jn. 14 v 2-3, Php. 3 v 20-21, Col. 3, Heb. 12 v 22-28, Rev. 3 v 21, 21 & 22). It is full of glory, love, peace and unspeakable joy (Ps. 100, 1 Cor. 2 v 9, Eph. 5 v 18-19). Jesus makes nobodies somebodies.

Those who reject Him and make themselves somebody are on their own; no bodies with no viable future. They need to humble themselves and repent while they still can (Mt. 3 v 1-12). At the end of the 7000 years of cycles of kingdoms on earth (Dan. 2) the created cosmos and all who reject His love and provision are cut off and go into a never ending decline (Mt. 18 v 8, 2 Pt. 3 v 5-15, Rev. 19 v 20) in which things break down into free energy. The immeasurable amount of energy it contains is constant so it gets very hot and seethes forever. Those with a body suffer forever (Rev. 20 v 14-15).

CROSSING THE BOUNDARY FROM DEATH INTO ETERNAL LIFE (page 7 & 8)

The Father created every thing so that He could have us as His children (Jn. 3 v 16, Rom. 8 v 11-17). We can relate to Jesus in his humanity but are overawed by him as our risen, radiant Lord (Rev. 1 v 12-18) so how will we ever feel at home in the presence of the Infinite, Almighty Father?

He dwelt on Earth with the Israelites. They cut a covenant unto death with Him (Ex. 12 v 13-28). A baptism of water then separated their old life from a new God led life (Lev. 19 v 1-8, Jer. 34 v 13-20, Jn. 8 v 4-11, 1 Cor. 10 v 1-22). To survive they had to admitted that their sin merited death (Heb. 3 v 5-12, 19) and repeat the sacrifice of a perfect lamb as a type of the promised Saviour who would die in their place (Gen. 4 v 4-5, Ex. 12 v 5-9, 13 v 12, 1 Pt. 1 v 14-25).

Jesus sacrifice has now fulfilled that promise (Heb. 9). God knew before He made us that we could not live up to His standards (1 Pt. 1 v 18-21). Physically trying to obey God's Law only proves you are not holy (1 Cor. 11 v 25-29, Gal. 3 v 22-25, 4 v 19-22).

The redeemed walk under the covenant God made with Abraham while he slept (Gen. 15 v 12, Gal. 3)! The one who walked through with the Father in Abraham's place was His visible person (Ps. 23, Jn. 1 v 29, 14 v 9, Col. 1 v 12-22). Your covenant with Jesus (1 Cor. 11 v 25-34) annuls your sin (Rom. 8, Col. 1 v 20-23, 2 v 9-17). Children who abuse His grace (Rom. 6 v 6, 14-18, Heb. 4, 1 Jn. 2 v 11-17) are not aborted but corrected (Heb. 12 v 1-13).

The Israelites rejected the terms of God's new life based on love and faith in His promises (Gen. 22, Ex. 13 v 1-3, Acts 7 v 39, 51-53). They did not want to change (Jn. 8 v 37-45, 1 Cor. 10 v 5-6, Jude 5). They loved their godless, self-centred life (Ex. 15 v 23, Num. 11 v 4-6). So they sought the favour of the god of this world to prolong their dying lives (Ex. 32 v 4, Jer. 11 v 10-17, Lk. 4 v 1-13, Heb. 3 v 10-18) so they became It's slaves again (Heb. 2 v 15).

Only Moses' prayer and the Levite's action saved them from dying (Ex. 32 v 25-28, Num. 8 v 16-18, Jn. 15 v 3-7) so God granted the Levites grace to judge the rest based on the laws kept in the Ark of the Covenant (Lk. 11 v 42, Rom. 7, Gal. 5 v 4). While they offered up daily sacrifices to cover their sin they were protected from death (1 Sam. 3 v 12-14, 4 v 8-10, Mal. 3 v 6-18).

By one sacrifice (Gal. 3 v 13-14, Heb. 10 v 12-18) Jesus has made clean all who who accept God's judgement (1 Jn. 1 v 5- 10) of death on their perverse self-centred life (Jn. 1 v 29, Eph. 5 v 25-27, Php. 1 v 9-11). Jesus' love for them and their love for him removes their self-centred thinking (Jn. 6 v 56-63, 1 Cor. 11 v 26-31, Heb. 2 v 11-18, 6 v 18-20). They are born again of God's breath. His Spirit tests their resolve and confirms their faith (Rom. 8 v 14). They then do not just believe but know they are saved (Heb. 4 v 1-3, 11 v 1).

Those who trust in him rest from their futile fight for self survival (Heb. 4 v 13-20, 6 v 12). They are then ordered to come boldly into His presence (Heb. 4 v 16, 12 v 24-29). Knowing God is the greatest of adventures. As we come closer we will start to understand how what is impossible for us is not impossible for Him (Lk. 18 v 17, 25-27). Jesus' priesthood is an everlasting one (Heb. 6 v 13-20, 12 v 24)! Touch him and see that the Lord is good (Ps. 34 v 8, Lk. 8 v 43-48). You will discover you made to dwell in his presence and to be one with his love (Ps. 16 v 11, 106 v 1, Col. 2 v 9. Heb. 12 v 18-23).

Jesus spoke in parables so that only those who sought a relationship with him would understand them (Lk. 10 v 10-11). His thoughts are the opposite of ours (Gen. 2 v 17, Ps. 94 v 11, Rom. 8 v 5-9). His Spirit has to divide between the two (Heb. 4 v 12-16). To hear him clearly you must silence your familiars spirits (Jas. 1 v 22-27) by allowing the Holy Spirit to expose your aberrant attitudes in his order. The therapists' order is guided by their alter ego so they just swap one dominant voice for another (Acts 19 v 11-16).

Many damaged people nurse their pain and feel entitled to keep their grief, bitterness or anger. They cannot forgive those who like them pass on their suffering onto others (Mt. 6 v 12). Until they do and surrender them to Jesus to flush away they will never be free from the stink of their own sin.

Salvation is gained through love, not fear and legalism (Mt. 22 v 37-38, Rom. 10 v 8-13, Gal. 3 v 22-25). Only Jesus' shed life-blood covers the stench of our corrupt nature (Ex. 30 v 17-21, Eph. 5 v 26, Heb. 4). Only our love of him will stop us offending him (Rom. 6, 1 Pt. 1 v 15 v 25). If you reject him (Ps. 2 v 12, Lk. 7 v 45-50) you will have to carry your own burden of sin (Mt. 11 v 30).

Those who seek relief with analysts ignore the fact that such experts have no solution to their own problems nor those in their troubled family. Relief is sought through inner meditation. Numbing physical senses through solitude, asceticism, sensory overload or opiates; only open your spiritual senses to a life sapping alter ego (Gen. 3 v 3-8, Deut. 18 v 9-14).

Churches with a party spirit instead of the Spirit of the risen Lord do not rest in Jesus' completed work by faith but depict him as still suffering on the cross (Acts 10 v 15-16). As a result they remain self, sin and death conscious (Rev. 12 v 10-11). They do not repent but pursue their own righteousness based on Satan's and Hegel's gospel as if Jesus' death has freed them to do as they please (Gen. 2 v 17, 1 Cor. 5 v 7-8, Heb. 3 & 4, 2 Pt. 2 v 1-22).

Those who believe spiritual whitewash will make them holy and save their self determined life will be stuck with it in death forever (Rom. 8 v 5-8, 1 Jn 1 v 10, Rev. 20). Only the blood of Jesus covers our sin. Only faith in his finished works can free us from being cut off from the Father's life forever (Rom. 6 v 5-18, Eph. 1 v 6-7).

JUDGEMENT OR REVIVAL (1 Sam 3 v 14, Lk. 21 v 6-8, 24-27, 2 Pt. 3 v 2-6)

This world is in a heart breaking mess (Jer. 9). People have ignored God's safety laws so their land, water, air, bodies and minds are ravaged by sin-epidemics that their leaders have condoned (Ex. 32 v 1-2). They hide this truth with distorted news and distractions. God's grace gives them time to repent of their self inflicted ills but they cursed Him for it. Instead of bowing to love and being pardoned self survivalists bow to the hater of their souls.

Those who mocked Noah knew that their world was failing and if a flood came his ark would work, yet only 8 were saved (Gen. 6 v 12-13). Jeremiah 24 calls them "very bad figs that God will throw away". The Jewish rulers rejected his warnings. They arrested him on false charges and tried to kill him. So all the terrible things he warned them of happened to them (Jer. 24 v 10).

God's love for us sent His visible person as a sinless man to join us in our mortal state (Jn. 3 v 14-19). He humbled himself and accepted his humanity had to die (Lk. 22 v 42-44, Rom. 10 v 9-10, Php. 2 v 5-12, Heb. 10 v 9-18). So must we. Without the Lord's risen life we are doomed (Jn. 1 v 10-13).

Everything in this life is about to change! There is an urgency to choose to love Him: to be baptised in Jesus' name and put on his life (1 Pt. 2 v 7-9). Only He can save the lost from the destruction to come. He goes as far as He can to warn unbelievers about their future but love cannot be forced.

Most people who try to be good do not think they need saving from their sin-nature. They hang onto a life they cannot keep based on some odd guru's revelations gleaned from the murky realm of the dead (Mt. 16 v 23-27, Eph. 4 v 14-30). Like Freud, many use drugs to enter the unseen world of an alter ego or spirit that blinds them to reality and truth (Eph. 2 v 12-13). They spend their lives struggling to survive then die and are lost in their evil dream world forever.

The genies of geniuses fool them into thinking they are free to act as their own god. They believe the myth that it is OK to do whatever they think is right (Gen. 3 v 4-5). Self advancing survivalists become avaricious animals (Jer. 6 v 13-19): all they touch and invent is tainted and life consuming (Rom. 1 v 22-32). They believe that random chaos formed them from magic dust then blame God for letting nature's chaotic scourges kill them.

Self deluded egoists, with eternal longings think they will transcend death until it grabs them in its jaws (Acts 17 v 29-32). They use their privileged position and riches to impose their wrong beliefs on the majority by robbing them of their right to object (1 Kg. 22 v 21-38). They defend their psychotic behaviour by attacking the truth (2 Tim. 4 v 3-4, 10-15) and persecuting those who say and even think they are wrong (Acts. 4 v 16-21).

Those who wake up to the danger they are in and repent will be full of love, praise and thanksgiving for their Saviour (Lk. 7 v 41-50). Those who resist Him (Ps. 2, Rom. 1 v 18) and ignore the Spirit's prompts or deny they need saving are in danger of hell's fire (Lk. 10 v 13-16, 12 v 8-10).

From a deserted, speechless place a voice cries out (Isaiah 40):
"Restore the honouring of the Lord God Almighty. Re-examine His neglected words in a clear straight-forward manner. Explain away all the natural excuses that deter many from following Him! Overcome the pride that blocks any perception of God. Put aside the fears and doubts that oppose the seeking of Him. Start straightening out the devious behaviour that leads away from God. Encourage those in difficulty so that they will find it easier to continue." Then God promises He will reveal His glorious person for everyone to see openly.

Death shall be preferred to life ... because people, who should know better prefer lies to truth .... The books written by teachers are false. Wise men ... are dismayed because they have rejected God's wisdom ... they say peace, peace ... but create the reverse. Prosperity fails because they trust in alien, man-devised gods. There is no recovery because they deny they are sick.

The name of Jesus is mocked because the churches have accepted doctrines that contradict all he said (Mt. 15 v 8-9, 1 Tim. 6 v 5, 1 Pt 4 v 17). Now is the acceptable time to make a stand against those who dress to impress (Lk. 12 v 1, 20 v 45-46) and warp Jesus' words to support the self improving ideas of Satan/Aristotle/Darwin/Nietzsche (Mt. 24 v 23-24, 46-51, Lk. 20 v 9-19). They are cursed because they reject the idea of salvation as a free gift to those who humbly repent of their sin and accept God's righteousness by faith in Jesus' sacrifice (Lk. 18 v 10-14, Jn. 9 v 22-34). Where will be ashamed in his presence (Gen. 3 v 8, Lk. 23 v 30).

The Father goes as far as He can to warn unbelievers about their future without interfering with their freedom of choice. Fervent prayer helps to set them free to choose (Lk. 6 v 35-37, 1 Cor. 15 v 9, Jas. 4 v 5-6, 5 v 16, Jude 20-25). Those who realise that doing what they think is right is wrong will repent in time (Jonah. 3 v 5-10, Acts 9 v 5-6). Those who seek His forgiveness and truth will swap their frustration for love, joy and peace (Acts 17 v 21-32).

Those who identify their dying life with Jesus' death are identified with his sinless risen life (Rom. 10 v 9, 14 v 8-13). Their trust in his words is built on experiential knowledge of the truth. He dwells via his Spirit (Jn. 16 v 7-15) with all who desire to love Him and put His words and will first (Jn. 15 v 7-11, Eph. 5 v 1-17). They are reborn as the Father's children (Jn. 3, 6 v 65, Rom. 8 v 9-17, Heb. 12 v 5, 22-24).

A walk in a park or country side on a fine day is liberating. We enthuse about God's fading glory in creation and try to bottle it in films, books, pictures, poetry and buildings. We long for a lost, work-free paradise yet the world that God gave Adam to richly enjoy was never meant to last. It is just the Father's boarding school for His children. Those who waste precious time and do as they please will not graduate (Mt. 25 v 8, 1 Cor. 7 v 29-31).

Those who repent before they die and accept the Holy Spirit's schooling gain his assurance that they are sons of God (Jn. 4 v 22-24, 15 v 26-27, 16 v 3, 8-15, Rom. 8 v 14, 39, Eph. 1 v 14). Jesus has paid their fees in full.

It requires dedication but God's Spirit hovers over the work so it is an adventure, not a grind (Gen. 1 v 2, Ezra 8 v 22). Progression is via a series of tests that they cannot pass until they ask him for help (1 Sam. 30 v 6-8, Mt. 7 v 21, 11 v 25, 13 v 13-15). There are also tutors to help the younger with their lessons (1 Kg. 19 v 18, Ezra 6, Rom. 9 v 27-29, Eph. 4 v 11-19, Rev. 2 & 3).

As in the time of Ezra, they will purge the infiltration of the ideologies of the godless who lord it over them. If you repent ... and separate the precious from the rubbish you will be given My words, not to share with the perverse, but with those who want to know Me. And I will protect you and deliver you from the wicked and terrible who will attack you (Jer. 15 v 19-21, Rev. 3 v 3-5). Those on earth whose faith and patience has been assayed are sealed (Is. 40 v 6-11, 31, 42 v 1, 13, Eph. 1 v 112-14, 2 v 5-10).

That purified 'Bride' will make herself ready: not be prepared or make ready in advance (hetoimazo) but to trim or add final touches (kosmeo) (Jn. 14 v 23, 2 Cor. 3 v 17 to 4 v 10, Eph. 5 v 25-32, Rev. 19 v 7, 22 v 17-18). By the time their Lord appears his 'Bride' will be radiant (Is. 60 v 1-3, 61 v 1-2, Jn. 17 v 19-24, Eph. 5 v 26-27, Col. 1 v 12-16, 1 John 3 v 2). Those not fully committed to Christ will not be ready in time (Mt. 13 v 49-50, 2 Pt. 1 v 19, Rev. 3 v 15-17).

All her invited friends do not know Jesus (Mt. 25 v 12) so they do not know his Spirit or the Father but still think they will go to the wedding (Jn. 3 v 29). The wise will start to shine in the last 10 minutes. The faith of uniformed wavers and dies (Eph. 4 v 13-17, Heb. 5 v 11, 12 v 12-17, Rev. 3 v 20-22). Self-centred Christians (Lk. 13 v 25-28) will desperately do some last minute revision but find out too late what they should have known.

The carnal mind thinks our Father's words are all about us (Job. 42 v 1-6, Jas. 4 v 3-4). To escape our egocentric pot we need to know and trust Jesus! To understand the things that he wants to reveal to us we must know his thinking and see our lives from his perspective (Is. 58 v 14, 1 Cor. 2 v 4-16, Eph. 1 v 18, 2 v 6). Christ is not illusory but a real person who we can talk and relate to. He is a very present help in times of trouble (Ps. 46).

God put us here to train to become lords of all creation. Blessed are they who wash their robes so that they might obtain the right to dwell in his presence (Rev. 19 v 7-9, 22 v 14-17). They have the faith to cry "Oh that I may know him and the power of his resurrection" (Php. 3 v 8-21). Others prefer to invest all in a futile, self saving life like an animal in a human food chain.

Human wisdom is based on peering at self in a distorted mirror (1 Cor. 13 v 9-12). The Fathers recorded words are like looking through a window of darkened glass into the brilliant Christ-like life that Adam discarded (Eph. 3 v 12, Php. 3 v 10-21, Col. 2 v 3, 9-10, 3 v 1, 1 Pt. 1 v 10-19). He is the rewarder of those who diligently seek him (Heb. 11 v 6, 1 Jn. 3 v 22-24).

Unity with God means partaking of His nature and being one with His love, will, words and acts (2 Cor. 2 v 12). Adam only became self and sin conscious after he broke his bond with God's Holy Spirit (Gen. 2 v 25). The visible person of God (Col. 1 v 15-16) had to descend and contact him physically. Adam's guilt made him hide from his Lord under a self devised covering. Only after he put on the covering God provided was he able to leave his leafy armouring (Neh. 8 v 15: succoth) and stand before him.

Those with spiritual disorders are treated with therapies that cloak rather than expose and evict their spiritual squatters (Lk. 9 v 40-42, 11 v 23-26, 29). They follow the Accuser's doctrine (Gen. 3 v 4-5) so they remain sin conscious (Mt. 3 v 7-12, Gal. 4 v 9-11) imprisoned in their flimsy self sewn hide (Lk. 6 v 46, Jn. 8 v 7-9, Rev. 2 & 3, 6 v 16). Unless they reply to Jesus' call they will wither and die (Gen. 3 v 10, Ex. 15 v 26, 32 v 8-10, Rom. 8 v 28-39, Heb. 12 v 3-8, 1 Jn. 2 v 15-24).

Many go to church because they are frightened of dying and going to hell. They hide from God behind a minister (1 Sam. 8 v 7, 15-18) and sing religious songs all about 'me', 'I', 'we' and 'us'. At best they are thanksgiving but mainly they stir emotions and make 'me' feel good (Ex. 32 v 23-24). As with the singing of football fans their unison generates a party spirit.

Self-excusing, sin conscious legalists (Acts 3 v 19-23, 7 v 51-57, Gal. 5 v 4) are led by a distinct, resident spirit. They put on a religious show in order to defend self from God's judgement! alter God's words fit their wisdom (Mk. 7 v 21-30, Rom. 8 v 4-7, Rev. 1 v 20). God's Holy Spirit judges people on their faith and the state of their hearts. He challenges their flawed beliefs (Jn. 15 v 25-26, 16 v 8-11) but the self justified are haughty so they remain trapped (Jas. 4 v 3-4, 1 Jn. 1 v 9).

Only the repentant will let Jesus cover their shame and wash them of their sin (Acts 9 v 6). Only those who reverse Adam's sin and ask Jesus to forgive them and be their Lord can put on the robe of righteousness that he bought for them when he died to fulfil their covenant with the Father.

JUDGEMENT MUST START WITH THE CHURCHES WHO MISREPRESENT CHRIST

Wake up. Hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. Jesus is one Lord with one Spirit (Eph. 4 v 1-6) who unifies all with the one will of the Father as given in His Word (Jn. 4 v 23-24). In any one place there should be only one true body of Christians (Mt. 16 v 18, 1 Cor. 3 v 11-15). The divisions and splits are due to having alternative-Messiahs and religious spirits (Gal. 1 v 6-10).

The churches in Revelation 1, 2 & 3 were led by self-important people who were building their own kingdom (2 Pt. 2 v 10-21). Such leaders modify God's words to attract like minded people to their party. Each has a distinctive party spirit (Rev. 1 v 20).

They are self and world centred instead of Christ centred. There is no mention that to gain Jesus new life your Adamic life must be identified as death and buried with Jesus' human death (Mt. 7 v 21-23, Acts 2 v 37-44). Only the few who do not conform to its defiant, idolatrous doctrines will be saved (Num. 25 v 3, Ezk. 8 v 8-18).

In Revelation the call to the churches is not to appeal to the worldly (1 Cor. 3 v 4-6) as many are doing but to urgently repent and be saved. They should be doing the opposite of what most kingdom builders are doing! Getting ready to leave (Eph. 5 v 27). The believers in each church are warned if they are not ready to leave they will be caught up in their punishment.

It is only in Jesus presence that we are changed (Rom. 8 v 29, 2 Cor. 3 v 13-18, 4 v 3-7, Php. 3 v 10, Heb. 4 v 9-16, 6 v 1, 18-20, 12 v 22-28). The call is put on his robes of righteousness and walk in the truth of God's own words then the godless will see your shining face and be drawn to the light (Ex. 34 v 29-30, Jn. 1 v 4-5, 3 v 16-21, Acts 7 v 54-57). Those who remain in darkness will not be prepared for his sudden coming (S.S. 5 v 2-6, Mt. 25 v 8-10). There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth (Mt. 24 v 51).

The churches with diverse spirits will be judged (Mt. 7 v 26-27, Eph. 4 v 14-19, Heb. 12 v 22-29, Rev. 1 v 20). Jesus said this time is as the time of Noah and Lot. The world has reject every warning he has sent and deliberately done the opposite therefore he has marked them for waves of judgement (Gen. 6 v 12-13, 19 v 13, Ps. 2, Rev. 6 v 17).

Jude gives a summary of what has happened to the churches and 1 John what will happen to Christ's Bride. Christians must fall in love with Jesus as when they were first saved from their futile sin and death ruled lives. Only then does John's letter make sense. It is not written to those who love the things of this world (1 Jn. 1 v 14-18). It is written to those who abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

Forlorn self-survivalists want to preserve their self-centred lives bow to the fearful god (Heb. 2 v 15) of this world (Gen. 3 v 17, Mt. 4 v 8-9, Jas. 4 v 4). Like the Pharisees their pride makes them reject the Father's promised of a new life (Mt. 13 v 28, 15 v 7-20, Rom. 9 v 13, 30-33) so they are bound by the fear of death. They blame and hate Father and His gospel (Php. 3 v 18-19).

Those who grasp the magnificence of His love in what Jesus' sacrifice has achieved are set free of that fear (Jn. 3 v 16, 1 Jn. 4 v 17-20). They go boldly where angels fear to tread (1 Cor. 6 v 3, Eph. 3 v 9-12). They sit with him in heavenly places as His ordained ministers (2 Cor. 3 v 6, Eph. 2 v 5-10, Heb. 4 v 16). It is a very great privilege (Est. 4 v 11).

Christ's Church is built on Christ (Eph. 2 v 20-22, 1 Pt. 2 v 5-8). It is made of living stones cemented with love (Jn. 14 v 15-24, 1 Cor. 3 v 16-17, 6 v 15-19, 1 Jn. 10-21). If you discard your old life by being baptised into Jesus' human death (Acts 2 v 38-40) you will receive his righteous risen life as a gift (Lk. 9 v 23-26, 56, Acts. 19 v 5-6, Rom. 12 v 1-10). Your love for him deters you from offending him (Heb. 2 v 14-18). His Spirit's assurances remove all doubts (Mt. 3 v 11-12, Jn. 14 v 26, Acts 2 v 37-39, Rom. 8 v 14, 10 v 11).

Righteousness by faith is not based on make believe; it is experientially true. When praise is centred solely on Jesus the barriers of time and place dissolves (Acts 16 v 25-26). The consciousness of 'me' and 'us' is left behind. The true Holy Spirit (Eph. 1 v 10-14) lifts the Christ centred assembly into his presence (Est. 5 v 2, Mt. 6 v 10, 18 v 18-20, 1 Cor. 2 v 12). You return to earth-time with great reluctance (Mk. 9 v 3-8).

Such worship is not an option but a command (Heb. 12 v 25)! You enter into the presence of the Father when invited with great joy. Touching Jesus cleanses you (Mt. 8 v 3). It must not be sought for carnal feelings (1 Sam. 16 v 23, 19 v 9, 23-24, 1 Cor. 11 v 27-29). It does not turn you into a mini god but is very humbling (Rev. 5 v 4). What about the rushing sound like a violent wind? It happens when the air is filled with power (Lk. 4 v 14, 24 v 47-49)!

The Gentile Church is nearly complete (Mt. 16 v 1-4, Rom. 11 v 25). Before the Christ-like are 'married away' (1 Thess. 1 v 7) as the perfected 'Bride' (Eph. 5 v 25-27, 1 Tim. 1 v 7-14) they will be empowered by the Holy Spirit (Acts 2 v 16-21) to offer the defiant a last chance to repent (Ezk. 1 v 4 to 3 v 27, 38 v 18-23, 39 v 21). Those who do accept Jesus as their Lord are as branches snatched from the fire (Dan. 12 v 2-3, Acts 2 v 37-43, Jude 21-25).

God's spiritual gifts flow from human vessels who wholly trust in him (Jn. 7 v 37-39, Jas. 1 v 6-7). Teachers and prophets act as two pipelines to heaven (Zech. 4 v 2-6, 12-14). All they have to do is to know when to shut up and when to open their mouths and pour. Each will become as effective as Moses and Elijah (Lk. 6 v 28, 2 Cor. 10 v 3-5, Eph. 6 v 10-18).

GOD'S LOVE CONQUERS EVERYTHING (1 Cor. 15 v 56-57)

Only God know about our future. Those who ignore His words have no viable alternatives to His omniscient truth. They have meaningless lives. They know the universe is entropic; that their lives are ruled by sin and death, yet they say all was self produced by a one in a trillion, trillion fluke! They cannot cover their nakedness: they have no excuse (Gen. 3 v 10-12, Rom. 1). Instead of repenting self determined egoist reject His free offer of salvation and warp the truth to support their madness (Jn. 3 v 30).

Those who accept Jesus authority as their Lord are under His grace (Mk. 16 v 16-18). Their fullness of praise and thanksgiving for the gift of his righteousness realises Jesus' presence (Ps. 100 v 4, Mt. 18 v 19-20, Jn. 16 v 5-7, 1 Pt. 1 v 18-25). Worship then lifts them from the outer court to the inner (Eph. 2 v 6-10). Heaven becomes so desirable that they will become impatient with this troubled, alien world with its decaying beauty. Only their love for others will compel them to stay here to tell them how to escape their hopeless state of non survival (Php. 1 v 22-25).

God Almighty, the true Father and Lord of all life, is loving and giving. Only He is great enough to sustain us and employ us part of His great and wonderful plan for ever and ever (1 Cor. 2 v 9-12). Those who wake up too late will weep and gnash their teeth (Mt. 24 v 42-51, Heb. 12 v 15-17, 22-29, Rev. 3 v 16).

Superior fools think they are right and God's warnings are wrong. They want him to save their dying self determined kingdom (Jer. 44 v 16-17, 27) They are not superior but self indulgent parasites who live by Satan's law of self survival which is trashing our planet. Over production of throw away goods, expensive, unreliable wind turbines, mining for short lived batteries, solar panels and heat pumps for houses that are useless when it is cold; all are destroying the environment and driving people into inescapable debt.

Soon we will have millions of electric cars but not the power stations to supply them. Greed is destroying peace and creating a hell on earth. The god in whom they trust is Mammon. Baal's priests are bankers and its prophets of doom are baby sacrificing, planet saving frauds (1 Kg. 18 v 29-40, Lk. 12 v 16-32). Billions are spent on elixirs to help 'the un-fittest' survive and on visiting barren planets while the earth is being misruled and trashed.

The ruthless (Gen. 6 v 11) in Darwin's futile food chain live off the labour of the disposable. Survival of the fiercest, requires the death of millions (unnatural selection). As demonstrated by Marx, Hitler, warlords and criminal gangs; they then kill one another (Rev. 16 v 14). At the top of their pyramid is the bad god of the natural world. He, She or It is a killer.

As Astarte she promotes euthanasia, wholesale abortion (Deut. 12 v 31) unproductive sex! Insatiable (Prov. 30 v 15-16) Mother Nature is not a life giving mother but generates disasters, fears, health scares and pandemics. Humanistic religions try to appease her to gain her support yet their 'entropic' mother nature wants to drain them of life and turn them back into dust (Jude 11). Only the perverse ignore what is obvious (Jer. 44 v 6-7, 23-24, Mt. 16 v 1-4).

Her priests distract her prey by turning the dangers into money raking opportunities. The humanists' natural selection is predestined to end in wholesale grief and death (Lk. 21 v 24, 34-36) but they defend their duff theories by making the facts fit their beguiling virtual world.

Everyone is distract from what the self destructive new world order is doing with dramatised fears about climate, pollution, illness, diet, psychosis, crime, televised violence and wars. The collapse of the twin towers was described as 'like a movie'! The melodramatic evil world ruler in films is real: the world saving teflon super hero is not.

Humanism is hopeless. It is based on metaphysical make-believe. String theory is a mechanical trick of the mind. It suggests the laws of physics have invented God. Mystical science is taught as fact to back the myth that an alien force powered by chaos and death is their life giver. Those who replace the advice and love of the Creator with the love of mother nature are aware of the cycle of destruction their godless ways have caused.

Universal entropy proves life on earth began suddenly and is heading for extinction. It is laws prove it is planned. Our Father made everything for us out of love for us. Our prayers to Him invite Him to intervene in our domain and deliver us from evil (Mt. 6 v 10-14, 8 v 29, Jude 8-10). Those who cry to Him for help are released from Satan's rule (Rom. 8) and translated into the kingdom of Christ the King of kings (Eph. 1 v 21-23, Heb. 10 v 12-18).

Our futile existence started when Adam ditched God's plan. He decided what he wanted was good and God was wrong to say it was bad. This is Satan's gospel. Many people following a guru who says what they want to do is good (Gen. 4 v 5, Ex. 20). Man powered churches (Rom. 11 v 11, 25-26, Eph. 4 v 17-24) cast God as a theological theory (2 Tim. 3 v 5) yet Einstein saw that God is the maker of the laws of physics. His theory of  $E = mc^2$  came as a revelation not from observations.

If the Good God is almighty why is He not doing something about it? Well He is! He is separating His children from Satan's (Mt. 13 v 30, 16 v 6, 25, 21 v 13-27). He offers the wicked one last chance to repent (Jon. 4 v 2, Mt. 24 v 6-14) before He abandons them to their chosen fate (Is. 5 v 20, 2 Thess. 2 v 3-12, Rev. 3 v 15-20). Those who call on Jesus for help will join him and be snatched away from the fire (Gen. 19 v 14-22, Jude 14-23).

Countries are run by rulers and lawyers. Like the unholy alliance of the Pharisees' and Sadducees' they are self justified and glorified. Their sin forces them to censor God's truth and promote make-believe truths (Rom. 1) especially in education (Mk. 9 v 42). Only repentance can reverse the egoist' fear for survival (Heb. 2 v 15-18) but greed and pride stop them returning to God's laws so love, joy and peace are replaced with strife. They are ushering in an evil, demonic new age (Mt. 12 v 34, 24 v 11-15).

The occult is presented to every child as harmless fun and the Bible is mocked as an evil fairy story. What a giveaway! The sharing of biblical truths is allowed by law but public employees who do it are sacked (Jn. 12 v 42-48). Trivia, false news, lavish uncensored entertainments, pretentious rigmaroles and sensational disasters and phenomena are piped into every mind to distract from the social ills they have caused.

Wishful thinkers love and worship nature or pantheism. They embrace the false peace of yoga and the numbness of Nirvana or practice overt evil around Ashtoreth's 'tree'. Witchcraft with magic potions is made a fairy story so many fall into a parallel dream-world through taking drugs. They become bipolar; hooked by a nagual, familiar spirit or alter ego. Existential egoists get completely lost in the mystical, inner labyrinth of their minds and go bonkers.

When Descartes is put before the horse sense reality depends on your perception. I know I exists because I think but others have a different, equally valid perception so in a sense each person lives in a different reality. The image you see in a mirror is not the same a second later so outside your mind does it exist at all? Some think we might escape through a time warp into a new dimension where they would cease to exist (Gen. 3 v 4)!

Perhaps death could be just the end of one 'game' and the start of another? You might reincarnate in a parallel universe and have a new chance? To win what? Another pointless life? There is no reset button! We only exist in the 'now': the past is gone forever and the future a gamble of guesses (Ps. 2). Repent or you will spend eternity with your demons (Mt. 25 v 41, Lk. 13 v 24-28, 16 v 22-31). Only our loving Father can afford to forgive and bail us out (Jonah 3 v 4-5, Rom. 8 v 20-22).

The immaterial spirit beings are immortal but their state can change (Jude 6). Angels were made in time and are subject to it (Ezk. 28 v 15, 18). They are not all knowing (Lk. 4 v 34, 1 Cor. 2 v 8). The evil, self centred ones have made many terrible mistakes (Is. 14 v 12-15). Jesus said if you accept their perverse guidance you will consciously spend eternity with them in torment (1 Kg. 22 v 8, 11-28, Lk. 13 v 24-28, 16 v 22-31). Only God's warnings in the Bible are based on foreknowledge and not predictions or fantasies (Deut. 28 v 13-68, Is. 48 v 5-9).

A 100 years before the flood came Noah started building his 28,000 tonne ark (150 x 25 x 7.5 m draught) in the valley of a high forest. The upheaval and collapse of the water canopy were probably triggered by the debris from a dying comet (Gen. 7 v 11, Ps. 18 v 12-14, Mt. 24 v 39). A few may have had time to reach their own boats (Acts 4 v 11-12) but Noah's ark or box was not a boat. God designed it as an unsinkable, self-righting, floating bomb shelter (Ps. 32, 33, 34). The self saving ideas that many fabricate in defiance of God's revealed truth are built on Satan's specification. They are designed to sink (Gen. 6 v 11-13, Is. 14 v 12-21). Death is not a ferry across a river: it hits you as a tsunami (Ps. 18 v 3-19, Pr. 16 v 2-3, 18-25).

It is against everything in our nature to die and end up in hell but Jesus was strong enough to do it for us (Lk. 22 v 42-44, 23 v 46-47). The Father wants us to rest from our fears and futile self saving efforts and accept His gift of love, joy and peace. Life is only full of misery, anguish, suffering, sin and death because we doubt God's love (Ps. 106).

He gave Adam a heaven on earth for free! We long for the happiness he lost but we squandered the time left in which we can cry to the Father for mercy. The 1933 generation which rejected the need to ask God for help in their monetary crisis allowed Hitler to rise. They have left (Ps. 90 v 10, Zech. 1 v 12), so perhaps God's grace will be offered to the next (Ezk. 18)? Yet some of the generation who saw Jerusalem retaken by the Jews in 1967 (Mt. 22 v 1-7, 23 v 37-39, Lk. 21 v 24-36) will also witness Armageddon (ie; before 2037)!

It is God's grace that allows judgement to hit the earth (Deut. 27 & 28, 1 Cor. 5 v 1-5, 2 Cor. 2) in the hope that many will turn to Him for mercy before they sink beyond help. Isaiah. 55 v 6-13: Seek the Lord while his mercy and love are still offered. He is more merciful and forgiving than you imagine: his ideas are not like yours: his ways are the opposite of your ways.

Save yourself and others while there is still time (Mt. 25 v 5-30, Jn. 4 v 35, Jude 18-24). 1 Corinthians 7 v 29-31: – Our time on earth is short; for both those who have a good time and those who suffer, so do not be over concerned about your present life as it will soon change and pass away. Those who open the door to Jesus' knock (Rev. 3 v 19-21) find he is the door to heaven (Jn. 10 v 9-11, Rom. 10). All He requires of us is trust in him (Gal. 3 v 22-28, Heb. 12 v 2, 24, 28). He fulfils our side of our covenant relationship with God (Gen. 15 v 12, 17, 22 v 8, Is. 53 v 6, 11).

Christianity has become all about our failure to do God's will but He made us like that so that we would not try to do it without Him (Lk. 24 v 49, Heb. 2 v 10-15). Only when we accept we are weak can we walk in his strength (2 Cor. 4 v 7, 12 v 10, Col. 3). Our frailty is vital so He can dare to do His mighty works through us (Ex. 4 v 10-16, 31, Jn. 21 v 6, 15).

The duff ideologies and religions of self serving survivalists are bared by God's words so they do not want others to discover them. They want all to obey and serve their will (Gen. 2 v 17, Is. 14 v 9-15). They do away with God by saying life is self generated but the kingdom they build is degenerate. Their form of rule varies but basically it is based on Satan's self elevating theory. It's law of self survival is that of the food chain so it is self consuming. It is enforced through the fear of death and extinction (Heb. 2 v 15).

All who obey Satan's cloud decisions as their director are just cogs in its grey, nihilistic world (Is. 14 v 12-17). It's supermen are just insecure bullies who make others fear and feel inferior to them. It turns precious individuals into numbered items with read-mill lives. All our freedoms and decisions are being taken over by Big Mother. Those motivated by the 'carrots' of their fleshly desires will have futile lives both now and forever.

The freedom to sin that Pan offers ends in anarchy, panic and murder (Gen. 2 v 17, 3 v 2-6, 6 v 11-13, Rom. 1 v 32, Gal. 6 v 7, 2 Pt. 2 v 5-10). The unity and friendship, that every soul was made for is turned into conflict, despair and crisis (Gen. 11 v 6). Hate replaces love. All God's laws for a safe society are reversed. The disabled are present to inspire love not to prove their worth by performing wonders. In a Hitler like Darwinian state they seen as worthless and scraped. Thousands of surplus babies are already flushed away daily to be eaten by rats so their diseases will spread to humans.

Creation belongs to The Father of all life. He has outlawed the abuse and killing of people. If we accept this He allows us to kill 'clean' animals for food but condemns their abuse while still alive (Gen. 9 v 2-6). Those who think killing animals for food and executing murderers is sinful but promiscuity with the sacrifice of innocent, unborn babies is OK (Mt. 7 v 15, 1 Tim. 4 v 1-3) will be judged under God's Law (1 Cor. 15 v 56).

Sinful societies that are lenient with criminals and give them the human rights that they have denied others will be judged as siding with evil (Gen. 6 v 11, Rom. 1 v 18, 32). Voluntary euthanasia also implicates others in life taking. Why do the guilty who defy God's mercy think they will not be judged?

Those convicted of harming others must be punished in proportion to their crime to stop society becoming polluted ((Ps. 106 v 37-42) and all becoming mindless slaves to Hegel's New Age state. Satan's offer of peace to self survivalists only benefits its self survival. The liberal appeasing of evil has allowed it to take over the world. The Age of the Gentiles ended in June 1933 when the Conference of all Nations in London about the financial crisis compromised over praying to our Father for help. Their bowing to predatory gods led to a second world war (Jer. 22 v 3-9, Mk. 16 v 15, Rom. 11 v 25). World climate conferences are again using fear to create unity and make peace!

THE BRIDE OF CHRIST ON EARTH TODAY (Is. 61 v 10-11, p 79)

The gentile Church age ends when Jesus returns to collect his Bride (Eph. 5 v 23-27, 1 Thess. 4 v 16-17). It occurs within 70 years of the Jews retaking Jerusalem in 1967 (Ps. 90 v 10-17, Lk. 21 v 24-28). This present generation will see it all (Lk. 19 v 45-48).

The Book of Revelation 1-3 describes the state of the churches just before the Day of Jesus Christ (Php. 1 v 6, Rev. 3 v 11, 4 v 1-4).

Chapters 4-7 is about what follows in heaven.

Chapter 8-11; the judgment of the Earth.

Chapter 12-13; the judgement of Satan and destruction of It's children.

Chapter 14-18; the 144,000 witness present salvation and Moses and Elijah (law and prophets) herald each of Christ's judgments as they are poured out (Ex. 3 v 20, 1 Kg. 19 v 17, Rev. 16) on man's anti Christ kingdom (Mt. 7 v 14-24).

Chapter 19-21; Jesus rules the world from Jerusalem with the support of his 'Bride' (Heb. 2 v 5). Love and peace reign for a millennium (Is. 54, Rom. 8 v 21).

It dashes the idea of a man ruled heaven on earth so egoists confuse it (Mt. 21 v 38, 45, Lk. 4 v 5-7, Jn. 19 v 15). The Lord has already removed His Spirit from their Babel-like assemblies (Gen. 11 v 8, Mt. 4 v 8-9). The spirits or angels that watch over them (Mt. 26 v 3-4, Jn. 8 v 6, 40-47, 2 Thess. 2 v 1-12, Rev. 1 v 20, 2 v 1: Concerning the angel", 9, 14, 20) are now separating them into distinct bundles for burning (Mt. 13 v 37-43, Rev. 18 v 4-8).

God foresees everything: nothing is hidden from Him (Is. 42 v 9, Jer. 23 v 24-28). This world is our domain in which the Father tests our loyalty. For a short time we are free to chose who to trust with our eternal state. Those who turn against Him curse themselves (Is. 13-17, 1 Cor. 15 v 19-28).

Like the prodigal son (Lk. 15 v 13-16), those who reject the Father's love and provision (Jer. 42 v 2-3, 19-22, Mt. 23 v 37-39) in order to do their own thing (Php. 2 v 3-16, Heb. 2 v 10-15, 12 v 2) are not "free to be me" but bound by dark obsessions (Gen. 3 v 43-5, Lk. 4 v 4-8). All who have accepted Satan's Aristotelian/Darwinian gospel (Gen. 3 v 4-6, Lk. 16 v 23-29) of evolving into a god-like one are proud fools (Mt. 7 v 21-23, 25 v 30-46, Rom. 7, 1 Cor. 2 v 4-14).

Doing what you think is good or bad with the aim of gaining wealth and success (Mt. 16 v 26, 23 v 5-12) ends in eternal remorse (Mt. 13 v 24-30). To gain an eternal life you must give up your love for your dying life (Jn. 6 v 27-29).

Many would prefer to live forever in their own realm, between heaven and hell but that is where they are; in a dying domain with occult spirits who are also not in heaven nor yet confined to hell. An even worse heresy is that when you die you just cease as if Jesus suffered and died for nothing. He died to save the deceived from going to hell (Mt. 18 v 7-8, Lk. 12 v 4-10).

Happiness is not in things that perish (Heb. 1 v 11): it is only in our total acceptance of the everlasting oneness with the love of our lives who cut himself off from his Father's life to join us and save us. The worldly churches (Jer. 8 & 11, 42 v 19-22) are dying because they have traded God's support for wealth (Mt. 6 v 24). They have swapped the praise of Jesus for self pleasing cheer and salvation from sin for psychological shrouds (Rom. 8 v 5-8, 11 v 25, Eph. 4 v 17-24, Col. 2 v 18-22, 1 Jn. 2 v 15-19, Rev. 2 & 3).

The self contrived righteousness of those who pretend they are holy is deadly (Lk. 13 v 24-28, 1 Jn. 1 v 7-10). Giving gifts to God instead of doing what He wants buys you a ticket to hell (Gen. 4 v 4-8, Acts 5 v 3-4). The saved who discern what the Holy Spirit says (Lk. 12 v 1-12, Rev. 2 v 7) will walk with Jesus by his Spirit and feed from the 'tree of life' that Adam discarded (Rev. 2 v 11, 17, 26-28. 3 v 5, 8, 12, 21).

Jesus' 'Bride' must get ready to leave (1 Thess. 5 v 2-9, 23, Rev. 2, 3 & 4). The instant she leaves Satan's owns all man's realm so its reign starts (Job. 1 v 7-10, Lk. 4 v 6, 1 Cor. 1 v 7-8, Eph. 4 v 13, 30, 2 Thess. 2 v 6-12, Rev. 21 v 6-8). Her uncommitted friends ( Mt. 25, 1 Jn. 2 v 15) will be left behind.

Most of the prophecies preceding these events have been fulfilled (Lk. 21 v 17-19, 24. Rom. 1 v 16-32. Ezk. 36 & 37). Satan's reign will surprise the self determined like a snare bite (Mat. 24 v 42-51, 1 Jn. 2 v 18-19). The next big one is Ezekiel 38; the invasion of Israel, which seems overdue.

Those who confess their sins are forgiven. The spirituality of the ascetic is based on the flesh and not Christ. The monastic traditions of mystics like Pythagoras are based on the holy spirits of the Gnostics. God gave us riches or delights to enjoy (Gen. 13 v 2, 1 Tim. 6 v 17). They are only a snare if we love them more than God (Mk. 10 v 23). I know a man who when the Holy Spirit challenged him on his love of his record collection, he chose his records. God did not want to take his records; He wanted his heart (Gen. 22 v 10-14).

Spirit led Christians can only act in Jesus' name under his authority (Acts 19 v 15-16). They are not powerful, part spirit beings but modelled on Jesus (Heb. 1 v 14, 2 v 9-11, 16). The power behind his authority rests securely in the Holy Spirit who serves the Father's will.

Only the triune God can be eternally secure and want to create others to share in His love ruled nature (Rom. 8 v 13-17). The self saving like Satan are takers: they treat their inferiors as disposable pawns. The support god-men seek from It will always destroy them (Is. 14 v 14-20, Ezk. 28 v 18).

God the Father offers eternal peace to those who accept Jesus as their Saviour (Lk. 2 v 14). Pan or Baal as the god in nature uses intoxicating revelry and the smell of riches to lure the simple into It's pit of panic and despair.

The new world order suggests a world government would create peace when we know tyrants create unending conflict (Gen. 11 v 6). Rulers, with mock democracies, persecute, enslave, starve and kill those who oppose them. Based on Aristotle/Darwin's self improvement the 'superior' advance by supporting the god at the top of their pyramid order.

They create a climate of fear designed to stifle free will. We can only escape it if we turn for help to our loving Father. Living happily ever after on earth is a fairy story for day-dreamers. The superior who live in ivory towers are ambitious but untruthful and impractical so they fail.

Christianity has been corrupted by Gnostics who climb Satan's self advancing pyramid. They see Jesus as just one of the deified dead (Gen. 3 v 5) who they seek secret knowledge from. They have tainted the ideas of the Bible translators whose studies major on the Greek classics. In them some men are still animals but the superior are related to angels (Gen. 6 v 4).

Many verses in our Bible translations have been warped to support this false idea. Devils are not dark, bad, animal-like spirits. All angels are made of energy or light (2 Cor. 11 v 13-15). All anti Christ religions were initiated and are inspired by god-like angels (Gal. 1 v 8-9, 3 v 1). Hence John 4 v 24 & 1 Jn. 4 v 1-4. They can incarnate but not procreate (Mt. 22 v 29-30). The angels who did die and were chained (Gen. 6 v 1-4, 2 Pt. 2 v 4-5, Jude 6).

DNA confirms we are not descended from spirits or apes but all from Noah's family. He lived 950 years so he was wiser and physically superior to us. There were no primitive oil lamps in his dark, hay and straw filled Ark! We are devolving. Xenophobia is an ignorant fear that was stoked by Darwin. His 'inferior' races that the man-god Hitler burnt as rubbish and the millions of aborted babies, are as precious to God as any lord (Lk. 18 v 5-8).

Jesus' love is universal (Gal. 3 v 26-28, 1 Jn. 4 v 7-13). Our diversities should be celebrated (1 Tim. 1 v 4). Hostile tribal groups who accuse those who disagree with them of racism are racists ! Saying all are black or white when all are other shades is a divisive device of Satan. Those who loudly decry the flaws in others are blind to their own (Lk. 6 v 42-45).

Hegel's world order is again being imposed by egocentric existentialist who ferment chaos and war. Our world is in a dire state because one person's idea of what is right is wrong for another. Everyone is insecure and fearful because even children are being taught to break God's perfect laws (Deut. 4 v 5-14). His imminent judgement will be preceded by a time of grace (Mt. 3 v 1-10, Heb. 12 v 24-29) in which there will be a revival of God's truth supported by the Holy Spirit's power (2 Ch. 17 v 3-10, Ezk. 39 v 7-8, 21-24, Lk. 10 v 18). It will be short as the anti Christ spirits (Is. 14 v 12-13) ruling man's religions (Jdg. 8 v 1, 12 v 1, Zech. 4 v 6-14, 1 Pt. 4 v 7, 2 Pt. 2) will try to hijack it.

HOME IS BEING WITH A PERSON MORE THAN A PLACE (Rev. 22 v 5).

When the Lord and his Bride return to rule the earth from Jerusalem the Jews will be anointed by the Father as His holy people again (Acts 15 v 14-17, Rom. 11 v 23-29). Before this event Satan establishes a Babel-like version of heaven on earth. It's pyramid order is full of little gods with selfish wills so the most evil one rises. Those who buy into Satan's 7 year time share scam lose all and end up with nothing but remorse (Is. 14 v 12-22).

Jesus gave up everything to free us from our human frailties so we could be reunited with his life as the Father's children. (Heb. 10 v 19-31). Those who cry to God for forgiveness before they die will love Jesus for dying in their place (Rom. 7 v 24-25, 8 v 3-4). They will abhor their self indulgent ways that made his death necessary (Gal. 5 v 1).

At the end of the Gospels (Jn. 21) Peter casts a net (Acts 10 v 6, 34-42) and after a 200 cubit swim lands 153 fish. He then dined with Jesus on the shore during which all divisions were healed as on the day of Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 1 v 4-8, Php. 1 v 6-11, 3 v 20-21). The numbers denote 2000 years from casting to landing an exact, perfect number of people as Jesus' gentile bride (Rom. 11 v 25, Heb. 10 v 13). The years under judgement are discounted.

The perfected Bride (Gal. 5 v 16, 22-25) with her wise friends then enters her Lord's house (Mt. 25 v 10, Jn. 4 v 23-26, 14 v 3). The unready ones, who died for their faith in Christ during Satan's godless 7 year reign (Mt. 24 v 45-51, Rev. 6 v 9-11) are added later.

1 Peter 4 v 7-18: .... the end of everything as you know it is nigh.... When you speak it should be with words inspired by God so that Jesus may be glorified .... so do not think your refining tests are unnecessary. Even Christ was tested. Without these trials the Spirit could not reveal God's glory through you.... First we must be cleansed. If not, how can we expect others to change?

Jesus then returns to earth with his bride and demolishes Satan's rule. They then rule the Earth for its last 1000 year Sabbath (Is. 65 v 20-25, Eph. 2 v 4-10) but it is just a rehearsal for what follows (1 Sam. 14 v 24, 15 v 22-26, 2 Sam. 24 v 10).

Christians must stop hiding behind their self justified versions of God and become one with Him or they will be lost (Jn. 1 v 11-13, 2 v 16, 21, 4 v 23, Heb. 12 v 22-29). Their old self centred nature can never be made acceptable to God (Lk. 18 v 19, Jas. 5 v 17): it belongs to the Accuser (Rom. 7 v 18-19, 8 v 4-8). The Devil and demons that we share this world with dupe us into rejecting God's truth then accuse and condemn us for doing it (1 Kg. 22 v 19-23, Mt. 25 v 31-33, Rev. 12 v 10-11). They divide and rob us (2 Chr. 18 v 11, 18, Mt. 25 v 33, 41, Jn. 10 v 10).

Jesus' Spirit stands at the door and knocks (Rev. 3 v 20). Those who respond are showered with gifts and rewards (Rev. 2 v 7, 10, 17, 26, 3 v 5, 12). Only he can supply the love, joy and peace that our hearts crave (Is. 48 v 14-22, 64 v 4). He said it is impossible to do His will without His Spirit's guidance (Jn. 4 v 23). Those who rush off without him will live forever without him (Gen. 3 v 5, 22, Mt. 7 v 21, Lk. 6 v 26, Jn. 3 v 36, 6 v 33-40).

After seven years of training Jesus ordered his Apostles to do nothing until the Father sealed them as sons at Pentecost (Lk. 3 v 16, 22, 24 v 49, Jn. 14 v 13, Acts 1 v 4) so they went fishing and found they could not even succeed in that without his help. People who do what they think is good (like Adam) become frustrated. Moses took 80 years to realise this.

Their faith has not the assurance that comes with the gift of faith given to those who bow to Jesus' authority as their Lord (Ex. 4, 1 Sam. 13 v 8-14, 15 v 22-23, Mt. 6 v 10). He allows those who know and love him to use it to administer God's will while still alive on earth (Lk. 10 v 17, Acts 4 v 10-12, 19 v 13-17). The name of Jesus is all powerful and very precious (Mt. 11 v 28). He has defeated all God's enemies (1 Cor. 15 v 24-29, 54-57). He alone has the right to judge evil and authority to perform what is good (Heb. 1 v 4-14, Rev. 5).

The faithful rest in Jesus' victory over their sin nature and its fears (Heb. 4 v 11-16, 1 Jn. 3 v 20-22, 4 v 4, 5 v 14) and rely on his grace for fellowship every day (1 Sam. 14 v 6-10, Jas. 1 v 2-12, 17-19). To be changed they must learn to hear and obey the prompts of Jesus' Spirit (Php. 3 v 3, 8-16, Heb. 4 v 11-16). They ask and receive truth that they knew not (Deut. 4 v 7, Job 42 v 3-6, Ps. 91 v 15, Is. 58 v 9, Jer. 33 v 3, Mt. 7 v 7, 21, Jn. 15 v 7-9, Heb. 1v 1 6, 1 Jn. 5 v 14-15).

Those who hunger and thirst after a new life in Christ Jesus will live in his home forever (Jn. 7 v 37-39, 14 v 1-6). Each unique individual child is loved by the Father. Let Him bath you. Those who accept his love are washed clean by his love (Eph. 1 v 13, Col. 3 v 1-17, 1 Pt. 2 v 1-7, 1 Jn. 4 v 18). The love and joy that floods their souls exceeds anything this world has got to offer (Is. 64 v 4). It is too wonderful for words (Jn. 7 v 37-38, 2 Cor. 12 v 4-7, Eph. 1 v 17-22, Col. 2 v 9-10, 1 Pt 1 v 7-8).

Stop trying to be someone bigger and better to impress Him or others (Lk. 15 v 28-32, Heb. 4 v 13). In heaven we are all humbled by his love (Job. 42 v 1-6). We are not powerful spirit beings but still recognisable (Job 19 v 25-27: fresh flesh). Only Jesus can wear God's glory without becoming inflated.

Like him we will live to please and fulfil the will of our loving Father (Jn. 3 v 16). All who worship at his throne will also rule with him (Rom. 14 v 9-12, Eph. 1 v 19-23, 2 v 1-10, Rev. 20 v 4-6, 12-15).

OVER 70 VERSES THAT RELATE TO THE RAPTURE OF THE GENTILE BRIDE OF CHRIST (1 THESS. 4 v 17)

Lev. 23 v 17 Pentecost: the only whole sacrifice offered up to God with life in it.

Is. 26 v 19-21 believers spared judgement. Gen. 6 v 7-8, 19 v 13, 22, Ex. 12

Is. 61 v 1-3

v 7, 12-13.

Dan. 2 v 45: Man's dominion surrenders to God.

Mat. 13 v 33: Life spread by contacts.

Mat. 19 v 28: 12 thrones, judging Israel.

Matt. 23 v 39: Return as proclaimed King.

Matt. 24 v 14-15: antichrist starts war.

Matt 24 v 30, 42-44: signs of abrupt return of Christ.

v 51: the asleep punished.

Mat. 25 v 1-13, 14, 30, Jn. 3 v 29: wise/foolish virgins: (Zech. 4 v 12-14), the sleepy awake too late and suffer loss v 30. SOS. 6 v 1.

Mat. 26 v 64, Mk 13 v 35-36, 14 v 62, Lk. 12 v 34-40, 13 v 23-27: as with Noah: unprepared shut out and the asleep robbed.

Lk. 17 v 23-24, 17 v 34-37: Believers to ascend to where Jesus ascended.

Jn. 5 v 24: bypass death into new life.

Jn. 11 v 23-26: O.T. idea corrected.

Jn. 14 v 3: Jesus returns secretly (as a thief) to take away those who are his.

Acts 1 v 9-11: all ascend into cloud cover.

Rom. 2 v 5-8: the rejecters of truth suffer wrath.

Rom. 5 v 9: believers saved from wrath.

Rom. 11 v 15-25: get ready or miss it when number/time/evil complete.

1 Cor. 1 v 4-8, 2 Cor. 5 v 6-10: day of Jesus Christ.

1 Cor. 2 v 5, 9-13, 3 v 9, 12, 14-18: tested on obedience to God's word.

1 Cor. 3 v 13, Heb. 3 v 6-19: fired loaf trust in God's words.

1 Cor. 7 v 29-33: be not distracted by things of this life.

1 Cor. 15 v 23-51: Resurrections: 1st fruits, then Rapture, then final death.

1 Cor. 16 v 17-22: visitation.

Gal. 6 v 8: sow to everlasting life not to one that rots.

Eph. 1 v 10, 14, 23: gather together from heaven and earth.

2 v 6-7: rule in age to come.

Eph. 4 v 30: day of redemption.

Eph. 5 v 14-17, 30-32: bride of Christ, including the believers who are saved at the last minute, enter into the house that he has prepared for her (Jn. 14 v 3).

Ph. 1 v 6 & 10: day of Jesus Christ, day of Christ; a true heart.

Ph. 2 v 16 : day of Christ.

Ph. 3 v 20-21: changed body (on day of Christ).

Col. 3 v 3: dead in Christ rise with him: resurrection. 1 & 2.

1Thess. 1 v 10:Christ to deliver us from coming wrath

1Thess. 5 v 2, 9, 23: asleep suffer wrath but those awake to Jesus' coming are saved. They will be holy vessels, sanctified by the sprinkling of Jesus' blood (Ex. 20 v 3-6, Heb. 9 v 22) and unified with God's love, mind and will (Eph. 5 v 26-27).

1 Thess. 4 v 13-17: dead brought with Christ from paradise at Rapture.

2 Thess. 2 v 1-12: apostasy. Rev. 2 & 3 no longer salty. Rev. 12 v 10-12, Rev. 18 v 4: Lot, Job etc... The 'salt' that prevents the Antichrist corrupting all mankind.

1 Tim. 6 v 14: true to word until Lord Jesus Christ appears.

2 Tim. 4 v 8: receive crown.

Tit. 2 v 14: redeem and purify before men.

Heb. 9 v 28: 1st visit of Christ; 33 y, 2nd 1000 y (Lev. 23 v 26-35, Zec.14 v 16).

Heb. 10 v 25, Jas. 5 v 8-12: patient as Job, time short, inspire not condemn others.

1 Pt. 1 v 5-13: inherit at appearing of Jesus Christ. Great joy + grace.

2 Pt. 3 v 3-4, 10, Rev. 20 v 11: deny him, time to repent, fire 2nd death.

1 Jn. 2 v 18: apostate churches.

1 Jn. 2 v 27-28: H.S. teaching confidence till he comes.

Rev. 1 v 7: all see him in clouds , v 14 as Dan. 7 v 9.

Rev. 1 v 10:

Rev. 2 v 11: saved from 2nd death.

Rev. 3 v 3-10, 16 v 15:asleep.

Rev. 4: earth judged.

Rev. 12: Bride goes, Satan reigns.

Rev. 18 v 4, 23: Come out to me from apostate religions or be judged with them. SOS. 5 v 7, Zech. 4 v 12: foolish with superficial beliefs are shut out.

Rev. 19 v 9, 14, 22 v 12-16: do not ignore such a powerful warning.

Rev. 22 v 17-20: Come soon! Possibly Pentecost 2026 or 7?

THE BRIDE MUST MAKE HERSELF READY

On their wedding day a couple have last minute nerves. Neither are perfect yet they are making a commitment for better or for worse. Love that forgives all things can make it work but human love is limited (1 Cor. 13 v 9-10). The only true soul-mate, that we can commit to without any doubts, is the Lord we were created to be one with. Without being centred on Jesus you cannot be made spotless (Jn. 14 v 1-6, 26, Eph. 5 v 14-27).

Jesus' love forgives and heals all our ills and foibles. He has proved his love is beyond question (Eph. 5 v 25-27, Heb. 10 v 9-17) and he has given us his Spirit as the guarantee of his eternal provision (Jn. 14 v 1-4, Rom. 8 v 14, 35-39, Eph. 1 v 13-14, 2 v 10, Col. 2 v 2-17, 3 v 1-17).

As with Noah and Lot they should be getting ready to leave (Lk. 21 v 36, Php. 2 v 12-21, 1 Jn. 2 v 14-28, Jude 18-25). There is only a short time left to gain the Holy Spirit's assurance of our Father's promised new life (Gen. 24 v 51-53, Eph. 1 v 11-14). When the Lord says "Come" his beloved must not hesitate. Those who love him and trust in his salvation more than self survival will step off Satan's dying kingdom as it sinks under its unbearable load of evil (1 Jn. 2 v 15-28).

1 John 3 v 2-10: .... we are the children of God even though we are not perfected, yet we know that when Jesus appears we will be like him (Php. 1 v 6). Everyone who has this conviction abstains from any form of law breaking.... Jesus came to do away with our sinful nature so whosoever continues to serve it and to pursue a sinful life does not know him or abide in him.

Whosoever is truly born again with God's life cannot continue to abide sin. They will love others and pray for enemies. Those who compromise over sin and oppose God's children are not of God's family and do not have His Spirit (Gen. 4 v 7-8). They support the devil's kingdom which is about to self destruct (Rev. 12 v 7-12).

Believers should not join in with those churches that build their own kingdom of heaven on earth or associate with the worship of anti Christ religious spirits (Lk. 18 v 8, Rev. 2 & 30, 2 Cor. 6 v 16-17).

The 'last' trump (recall at the end of a battle) is as the final whistle. It marks the Lord's complete victory over Death (1 Cor. 15 v 52-57, Rev. 20 v 4-6). The door between God's infinite realm of heaven and the 'dot' that contains hell and the corrupted cosmos is then sealed and with the earth it dissolves into fire (Gen. 28 v 12-13, 2 Pt. 3 v 10-12).

CONCLUSION

This book is just a beginning of seeing God's words, thoughts and actions from His perspective. The truth is hidden from those who lean to their own understanding (Pr. 3 v 5-8, Lk. 8 v 9-10, 1 Cor. 2 v 7-16).

The King James Bible is difficult to read and understand but it is based on a word for word translation so the truth is not completely buried. However one very little letter altered, added or cut creates an alternative to God's truth (Rom. 8 v 4-8). Those who 'put on' Christ's life become 'a' temple (1 Cor. 3 v 16) not 'the' as part of a collective, mystical temple.

The replacement of the the faith of Christ in Galatians 2 v 16 with faith in Christ suggests salvation depends on the strength of a believers faith when the letter is shouting that salvation depends on Christ's completed work (Jude 24-25). Many Christians stop on the wrong side of the cross.

To be a true follower of Christ you must have a personal walk with him (Jas. 1 v 2-5). You must trust him with your life (Lk. 9 v 24, 23 v 42-43, Eph. 1 v 12-13, 2 v 8, Php. 1 v 6) and ask his Spirit to liberate you from your problems (Php. 3 v 3-15). If you justify self against the conviction of the Holy Spirit (Acts 9 v 4-5, Eph. 4 v 12-32) you repeat Adam's sin (Lk. 18 v 11-14, Jas 4 v 6-10).

Those with a religion and baptism based on adjusting or ignoring God's recorded words (Gen. 3 v 5, 11, 22-24, Gal. 3 v 1) are self-saving. If you idolise the cross (1 Kg. 18 v 4) but disobey the Saviour you will retain your old self-justified nature (Eph. 2 v 4-10, Php. 3 v 18-21, Heb. 11 v 6, 1 Jn. 1 v 8-10).

Later translators have made their Bible more readable but have altered it to suit their thinking. Faith that is not submitted to the words and mind of Christ is not one with him (1 Cor. 2, 3 v 11, 17-20, Eph. 5 v 6-17) but one with them. All man powered religions serve men (Dan. 3 v 3-6, 4 v 24-26, 34-37).

All the Christian influences that have enabled a free society have been abused to the extent that free will is now curtailed by money powered pressure groups (Eph. 6 v 10-20). The freedom to demonstrate is being taken over by anarchists. Your personal freedom will be taken over by the freezing of bank account and stopping the use of cash (Rev. 13 v 15-18).

Legalism is used to impose Darwin's anti Christ ideology in schools with the idolising of a Nietzsche god-man. Like Hitler he is 'hailed' as the saviour of the world yet his rule is predatory. His enforcers kill those who reject him by the million. Hate and fear invade everything till death becomes preferable to life (Gen. 6 v 12-13, 19 v 13, Rev. 6 v 1-17).

SUMMARY

Paradise lost and our hope of regaining it

Who are we, why are we here and where are we going

False ideas, ideologies and spirits

Misinformation and loss of free will

Sham salvations and the true Saviour

Subterfuges are contrived but the truth is sincere

The aim of the many is to overcome and rob; the true to free and give

The fooled suffer terrible loss

The saved are made one with their Father's abundant life

Dividing the 'sheep from the goats'

Personal attempts at remodelling God perpetuate your loss

The Father's omni-everything Spirit introduces the saved to His love, truth, will and plan for them to rule with Him as His children

Self determined survivalists have eternal aspirations yet their hopeless lives are ruled by the law of the food chain. They claim the cosmos made itself out of nothing yet it is universally entropic. They believe life is self perfecting yet 97% of the species on Earth have died out and the remaining few are near extinction. Life did not evolve from a soup of microbes, it corrupts into one.

Their fear for survival is alleviated by escapism. Across the entrance to Nietzsche's nihilistic abyss is projected a virtual, dream world of happiness with fantasies about love and easy money. Horror stories turn terrible fears into entertainment to desensitise the lost to evil. Films with a 'Teflon' super ego, who overcomes dangers and wins battles against impossible odds, desensitise them to death. Pastimes become addictive life wasters.

These inverted notions are promoted by money takers who make billions out of the desire of those with futile lives for sensory pleasures, distractions and drugs. Evil is fuelled by the love of money (1 Tim. 6 v 10) and death by ignorance, sin and greed. Lives and habitats are destroyed.

Everything Our Father God gave us to richly enjoy has become cursed (Dan. 12 v 4, 11, Rom. 8 v 20-22). Self-survivalists think it is impossible to resist evil and death and easier to yield to self-indulgence (Neh. 13 v 1-9, Rom. 1, 7 v 24) so they are overcome by evil till they want to die!

Those who reject God's words are not saved but condemned by them (Mt. 12 v 34-42, Jn. 9 v 16-34, Acts 4 v 16-21). Those who obey God's words find that by faith in His love they are more than conquerors (Jd. 6 v 12-32, 1 Sam. 30 v 6-8, 26, Rom. 8 v 28-39, Eph. 1 v 19-22).

Jesus cried "I have often tried to gather you together as a hen gathers her chicks but you refused". He said this at Passover as The Lamb of God (Mt. 21 to 23 v 38) to religious people who used his laws to justify their ideas on what is good or evil (Gen. 3 v 5, Ex. 32 v 21-35, Mt. 7 v 15- 29, Rev. 2 & 3).

He proved what he said is true by doing many miracles. Miracles do not generate faith but are generated by faith (Mk. 9 v 23, 16 v 18-20). Faith comes as a gift from God to those who believe.

In this life you cannot stay as you are: you either move towards our Father God and a new life (Deut. 30 v 16-20) or fear will drive you into an isolated, carnal state where evil stalks and death reigns (Lk. 16 v 22-23).

Good works do not cancel bad works (Ezk. 18 v 24-18) but His love saves all who repent of their rejection of His words and will. All who run to him before they die will be forgiven and saved. He will exalt the humble to sit with him at his throne as Christ's co-rulers over all his creation forever (Col. 1 to 3, Heb. 2 v 9-15). He alone deserves all our love, thanks, honour, praise and worship forever and ever (Rom. 6 v 20-23, Heb. 7 v 25): amen.